PERWANNAH for Dustucks from Serajah Dowla, dated the 9th Rajeb Moon.

The English Company's goods have been carried backward and forward, by land and water, always, through the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, by the dustuck and seal of the said Company, by virtue of the King's Firmaund, which is also now confirmed by me. Take care, on no pretence, to interrupt their carrying their goods backwards and forwards, through all the Chokeys whatsoever, and not to demand any Katbarra, Manjor, &c. according to the King's Firmaund. Let them pass and repass without receiving a single cowrie from any of their people; and interfere not with the English Company's Gomastahs, on any account, but rather take care that, through all your districts, their business be not obstructed in any way.

Fifteen Perwannahs, of the same tenour and date, were granted, under the seal of the Nabob, Serajah Dowla, to the Rajahs and Zemindars.

PERWANNAH, under the Seal of the Nabob Monsoor ul Mulck Serajah Dowla Behauder, Hybut Jung, dated 9th of Rajeb (31st March) in the third Year of the glorious Reign* Mohunlol.

EXPLANATION of the Terms used in the Sunnud granted for the Zemindarry of the Honourable Company's Lands.

Aboab Fouzdarry Purgunnah. Many Zemindars complaining of the great oppressions of the Fouzdarry, formerly obtained from the Nabobs an exemption from the jurisdiction of the Fouzdarry, in consideration of their paying to the Government the amount of the income which was produced by the fines of that office, every Zemindar being assessed proportionably for that amount, which tax has continued ever since, and is passed under the head of the Purgunnah Aboab Fouzdarry.

Bengal, Soubah Jennet ul Belaad Bengal, the Paradise of Nations, the Soubah of Bengal. A title given by Auring Zebe to Bengal.

Meer Jaffier.

The proportions of the Kissmut Purgunnah are reckoned by annas, or sixteenths. It may be observed, that many of the Kissmut Purgunnahs are termed divisions of sixteen annas; the reason of which is, that the lands included bear so small a proportion to the rest that they are not rated at all.

Duftercana, The exchequer, or office for keeping the Government's books.

Ferd Huckeekut, A manifest or memorial.

Ferd Sawal, A petition.

Huck Alwazeerut, The fees of the Vizier.

Kissmut, signifies a Division. When any part of a Purgunnah is transferred from one Zemindar and assigned over to another, each part or division is called a Kissmut Purgunnah, as the Kissmut Purgunnah of Bellia Bussindarry, of which ten annas or five-eights belong to the Company's jurisdiction, and six annas or three-eighths to Rajah Tulluckchund.

Mahal. Every fund which produces the revenues of the Government is called Mahal. In the Sunnud it includes only Purgunnahs and Sairs.

Mob, Salt, and Wax. The rents of this Purgunnah arise entirely from the Sale of Salt and Wax, from whence it takes its name: as there is no ground-rent collected in this Purgunnah, it is therefore termed no division.

Mowza, A parish.

Muchulca, An indenture or agreement

Muttaseddees, All persons employed in taking the accounts of the Soubah.

Nazim, A viceroy or governor of a province.

Nezzaranna Soubahdarry, The fees of the Nazim.

Purgunnah, A country: any number of Mowzas (or parishes) the rents of which are collected at one place, called a Cutcherree.

Sairs, Any place or office appointed for the collection of duties and customs. In the Purgunnahs of Hattiagur, Meida, Meidonmul, and Moodagotcha, a duty was collected on Salt, and paid formerly to the Buxbundarry, which having been made over to the Company is inserted in the Sunnud for the lands.

Sircar, A term given to any number of Purgunnahs, placed under one head in the Government's books, for the easier adjustment of the accounts. Any office under the Government is likewise termed a Sircar.

Sunnud, A charter or grant.

Tomsook Hazir Zaminee, A security for personal appearance.

DEMANDS made on the Part of the Nabob Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan, and agreed to by the Council, at the Time of signing the Treaty.

ARTICLE I.

I formerly acquainted the Company with the particulars of my own affairs, and received from them repeated letters of encouragement and kindness, with presents; I now make this request, that you will write in a proper manner to the Company, and also to the King of England, the particulars of our friendship and union, and procure for me writings and encouragement, that my mind may be assured from that quarter, that no breach may ever happen between me and the English, and that every Governor, Counsellor, and Chiefs of the English that are here, or may hereafter come, may be well disposed and attached to me. A.D. 1763 Meer Jaffier.

ARTICLE II.

Since all the English gentlemen, assured of my friendly disposition to the Company, confirm me in the Nizamut, I request that to whatever I may at any time write they will give their credit and assent, nor regard the stories of designing men, to my prejudice, that all my affairs may go on with success, and no occasion may arise for jealousy or ill-will between us.

ARTICLE III.

Let no protection be given, by any of the English gentlemen, to any of my dependents, who may fly for shelter to Calcutta, or other of your districts, but let them be delivered up to me on demand. I shall strictly enjoin all my Fouzdars and Aumils, on all accounts, to afford assistance and countenance to such of the Gomastahs of the Company as attend to the lawful trade of their factories: and if any of the said Gomastahs shall act otherwise, let them be checked, in such a manner as may be an example to others.

ARTICLE IV.

From the neighbourhood of Calcutta to Hughley, and many of their Purgunnahs, bordering upon each other, it happens, that on complaints being made, people go against the Talookdars, Riotts, and tenants of my town, to the prejudice of the business of the Sircar: wherefore let strict orders be given, that no Peons be sent from Calcutta, on the complaints of any one, upon my Talookdars or tenants; but on such occasions let application be made to me, or to the Naibs of the Fouzdarry of Hughley, that the country may be subject to no loss or devastations; and if any of the traders which belonged to the Bucksbunder and Azimgunge, and have settled in Calcutta, should be desirous of

A.D. 1763 Meer Jaffier. returning to Hughley, and carrying on their business there, as formerly, let no one molest them. Chandernagore and the French factory were presented to me by Colonel Clive, and given by me in charge to Ameer Beg Khan; for this reason let strict orders be given, that no English gentleman exercise any authority therein, but that it remain, as formerly, under the jurisdiction of my people.

ARTICLE V.

Whenever I may demand any forces from the Governor and Council for my assistance, let them be immediately sent to me, and no demand made on me for their expences.

The demands of Nabob Shujah ul Mulck, Hossam ô Dowla, Meer Mahomed Jaffier Khan Behauder, Mahabut Jung, written in five articles, We the President and Council of the English Company, do agree and set our hands to, in Fort William, the 10th of July, 1763.

PROPOSALS made by the King Shah Aalum, and enclosed in a Letter from Major Hector Munro to the President and Council at Bengal, dated from the Camp at Benares, the 22d of November, 1764.

If this country is to be kept, put me in possession of it, and leave a small detachment of the troops with me, to shew that I am protected by the English, and they shall be at my expence; that if any enemy come at any time against me, I will make such connections in the country, that, with my own troops, and the afore-mentioned small detachment, will defend the country, without any further assistance from the English, and I will pay them, of the revenues of the country, what sum they shall demand yearly. If the English will, contrary to their interest, make peace with the Vizier, I will go to Delhi; for I cannot think of returning again into the hands of a man who has used me so ill. I have no friends I depend on more than the English; their former behaviour to me will make me ever respect and regard them. Now is their time to be in possession of a country abounding with riches and treasure; I shall be satisfied with whatever share they please of it. The Rohillas were always enemies to the imperious Vizier. They are all my friends. A.D. 1764 The Mogul.

ARTICLES to be executed by the King, enclosed in a Letter from the President and Council at Bengal to Major Hector Munro, Commander-in-Chief of the Army, sent the 6th of December, 1764.

In consideration of the assistance and fidelity of the English Company, which has freed us from the inconveniences we laboured under, and strengthened the foundations of the the empire which God has given us, we have been graciously pleased to grant to the English Company our royal favours, according to the following articles, which shall remain firm, both in present and in future.

As the English Company have been put to great expense, and their affairs exposed to danger, by the war which the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla, unjustly, and contrary to our royal pleasure, waged against them, we have therefore assigned to them the country of Gauzepoor, and the rest of the Zemindarry of Bulwant Sing, belonging to the Nizamut of the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla: and the regulation, and government thereof, we have given to their disposal, in the same manner as it was in the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla's. The aforesaid Rajah having settled terms with the Chiefs of the English Company, is, according thereto, to pay the revenues to the Company; and the amount shall not belong to the books of the Royal Revenue, but shall be expunged from them.

The army of the English Company having joined our standard, shall put us in possession of Illiabad, and the rest of the countries belonging to the Nizamut of the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla; and the revenues, excepting those of Rajah Bulwant's Zemindarry, shall be in our entire management and disposal.

As the English Company will be at a further expense in putting us in possession of Illiabad, and the rest of the Nizamut of the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla, we will therefore, as we get possession, grant to them, out of our treasury, such a proportion of the revenues as the exigencies of our affairs will admit of; and when we are put in full possession, we will reimburse the whole expenses of the Company in this business, from the time of their joining our Royal Standard.

The army of the English Company having joined our standard, shall put us in possession of Illiabad, and the rest of the countries belonging to the Nizamut of the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla; and the revenues, excepting those of Rajah Bulwant's Zemindarry, shall be in our entire management and disposal.

It becomes the Company to shew their grateful sense of our royal favours, and to exert themselves to the utmost, in the proper management and regulation of the country; to encourage and befriend our subjects; to punish the contentious, and expel the rebellious from their territories. They must use their best endeavours to promote the welfare of our people, the Riotts, and other inhabitants; to prohibit the use of things of an intoxicating nature, and such as are forbidden by the Law of God; in driving out enemies; in deciding causes, and settling matters agreeably to the rules of Mahomed and the Law of the Empire; so that the inhabitants may apply themselves, with peace of mind and satisfaction, to the cultivation of the country, and the exercise of other their professions, and that the weak may not labour under oppression and violence. They will consider these as our strict injunctions.

ARTICLES of a TREATY and Agreement, concluded between the Governor and Council of Fort William, on the Part of the English East-India Company, and the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla, 1765. A.D. 1765 Nudjum ul Dowla.

On the Part of the Company.

We, the Governor and Council, do engage to secure to the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla, the Soubahdarry of the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, and to support him therein with the Company's forces against all his enemies. We will also, at all times, keep up such force as may be necessary, effectually to assist and support him in the defence

A.D. 1765 Nudjum ul Dowla. defence of the provinces; and as our troops will be more to be depended on than any the Nabob can have, and less expensive to him, he need therefore entertain none but such as are requisite for the support of the Civil Officers of his government, and the business of his collections through the different districts.

We do further promise, that in consideration the Nabob shall continue to assist in defraying the extraordinary expences of the war, now carrying on against Sujah ul Dowla, with five lacks of Rupees per month, which was agreed to by his father,* that whatever sums may be hereafter received of the King, on account of our assistance afforded him in the war, shall be repaid to the Nabob.

On the Part of the Nabob.

In consideration of the assistance the Governor and Council have agreed to afford, in securing to me the succession in the Soubahdarry of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, heretofore held by my father, the late Nabob Meer Jaffier Ally Khan, and supporting me in it against all my enemies, I do agree and bind myself to the faithful performance of the following Articles.

ARTICLE I.

The Treaty which my father formerly concluded with the Company,† upon his first accession to the Nizamut, engaging to regard the honour and reputation of the Company, and of their Governor and Council, as his own, and granting Perwannahs for the currency of the Company's trade, the same Treaty, as far as is consistent with the Articles hereafter agreed to, I do hereby ratify and confirm.

ARTICLE II.

Considering the weighty charge of government, and how essential it is for myself, for the welfare of the country, and for the Company's business, that I should have a person, who has had experience therein, to advise and assist me, I do agree to have one fixed with me, with the advice of the Governor and Council, in the station of Naib Soubah, who shall accordingly have immediately under me the chief management of all affairs. And as Mahomed Reza Khan, the Naib of Dacca, has, in every respect, my approbation, and that of the Governor and Council, I do further agree, that this trust shall be conferred on him, and I will not displace him without the acquiescence of those gentlemen; and in case any alteration in this appointment should hereafter appear advisable, that Mahomed Reza Khan, provided he has acquitted himself with fidelity in his administration, shall, in such case, be reinstated in the Naibship of Dacca, with the same authority as heretofore.

ARTICLE

* No. XIII. † No. III.

ARTICLE III.

A.D.1765 Nudjum ul Dowla.

The business of the collections of the revenues shall, under the Naib Soubah, be divided into two or more branches, as may appear proper; and as I have the fullest dependence and confidence on the attachment of the English, and their regard to my interest and dignity, and am desirous of giving them every testimony thereof, I do further consent, that the appointment and dismission of the Muttaseddees of those branches, and the allotment of their several districts, shall be with the approbation of the Governor and Council. And considering how much men of my rank and station are obliged to trust to the eyes and recommendations of the servants about them, and how liable to be deceived, it is my further will, that the Governor and Council shall be at liberty to object and point out to me, when improper people are intrusted, or where my officers and subjects are oppressed, and I will pay a proper regard to such representations, that my affairs may be conducted with honour, my people every where be happy, and their grievances be redressed.

ARTICLE IV.

I do confirm to the Company, as a fixed resource for defraying the ordinary expenses of their troops, the Chucklas of Burdwan, Midnapore, and Chittagong, in as full a manner as heretofore ceded by my father. The sum of five lacks of sicca Rupees per month,* for their maintenance, was further agreed to be paid by my father; I agree to pay the same out of my treasury, while the exigency for keeping up so large an army continues. When the Company's occasions will admit of a diminution of the expenses they are put to on account of those troops, the Governor and Council will then relieve me from such a proportion of this assignment, as the increased expenses, incurred by keeping up the whole force, necessary for the defence of the provinces, will admit of: and as I esteem the Company's troops entirely equal thereto, and as my own, I will only maintain such as are immediately necessary for the dignity of my person and government, and the business of my collections throughout the provinces.

ARTICLE V.

I do ratify and confirm to the English, the privilege granted them by their Firmaund, and several Husbulhookums, of carrying on their trade, by means of their own Dustuck, free from all duties, taxes, or impositions, in all parts of the country, excepting in the article of salt, on which a duty of two and a half per cent. is to be levied on the Rowana or Hughley market price.

ARTICLE VI.

I give to the Company the liberty of purchasing half the saltpetre produced in the country of Purnea, which their Gomastahs shall send to Calcutta; the other half shall be collected

* No. XII.

A.D. 1765 collected by my Fouzdar, for the use of my officers; and I will suffer no other persons to make purchases of this article in that country.

Nudjum ul Dowla.

ARTICLE VII.

In the Chuckla of Silhet, for the space of five years, commencing with the Bengal year 1171, my Fouzdar and a Gomastah, on the part of the Company, shall jointly provide Chunam, of which each shall defray half the expence, and half the Chunam, so made, shall be given to the Company.

ARTICLE VIII.

Although I should occasionally remove to other places in the provinces, I agree that the books of the Sircar shall be always kept, and the business conducted at Moorshedabad, and that shall, as heretofore, be the seat of my government. And wherever I am, I consent that an English gentleman shall reside with me, to transact all affairs between me and the Company, and that a person of high rank shall also reside on my part at Calcutta, to negotiate with the Governor and Council.

ARTICLE IX.

I will cause the Rupees coined in Calcutta to pass, in every respect, equal to the Siccas of Moorshedabad, without any deduction of Batta; and whosoever shall demand Batta shall be punished. The annual loss on coinage, by the fall of Batta on the issuing of the new Siccas, is a very heavy grievance to the country; and after mature consideration, I will, in concert with the Governor and Council, pursue whatever may appear the best method for remedying it.

ARTICLE X.

I will allow no Europeans whatever to be entertained in my service; and if there already be any, they shall be immediately dismissed.

ARTICLE XI.

The Kistbundee, for payment of the restitution to the sufferers in the late troubles, as executed by my father, I will see faithfully paid. No delays shall be made in this business.

ARTICLE XII.

I confirm and will abide by the Treaty which my father formerly made with the Dutch.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the French come into the country, I will not allow them to erect any fortifications, maintain forces, or hold lands, Zemindarries, &c.; but they shall pay tribute, and carry on their trade as in former times.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE XIV.

A.D. 1765
Nudjum ul Dowla.

Some regulations shall be hereafter settled between us, for deciding all disputes which may arise between the English Gomastahs and my officers, in the different parts of the country.

In testimony whereof, We, the said Governor and Council, have set our hands, and affixed the seal of the Company, to one part hereof; and the Nabob before-named hath set his hand and seal to another part.

TREATY between the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla, the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla, and the English Company, executed at Illiabad, the 16*th of August*, 1765.

(Sealed and approved of by the King.)

A.D. 1765 Shujah ul Dowla, and Nudjum ul Dowla.

Whereas the Right Honourable Robert Lord Clive, Baron Clive, of Plassey, Knight Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Major General and Commander of the Forces, President of the Council, and Governor of Fort William, and of all the settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, in the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa; and John Carnac, Esq. Brigadier General, Colonel in the service of the said Company, and Commanding Officer of their Forces upon the Bengal Establishment; are invested with full and ample powers, on the behalf of his Excellency, the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla, Soubahdar of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, and likewise on the behalf of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, to negotiate, settle, and finally to conclude a firm and lasting peace with his Highness, the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla, Vizier of the Empire: Be it known, to all those to whom it may or shall in any manner belong, that the above-named Plenipotentiaries have agreed upon the following Articles with his Highness.

ARTICLE I.

A perpetual and universal peace, sincere friendship, and firm union, shall be established between his Highness, Shujah ul Dowla, and his heirs, on the one part, and his Excellency, Nudjum ul Dowla, and the English East-India Company, on the other; so that the said contracting powers shall give the greatest attention to maintain between themselves, their dominions, and their subjects, this reciprocal friendship, without permitting, on either side, any kind of hostilities to be committed, from henceforth, for any cause, or under any pretence whatsoever; and every thing shall be carefully avoided, which might hereafter prejudice the union now happily established.

ARTICLE II.

In case the dominions of his Highness, Shujah ul Dowla, shall at any time hereafter be attacked, his Excellency, Nudjum ul Dowla, and the English Company, shall assist him him with a part or whole of their forces, according to the exigency of his affairs, and so far as may be consistent with their own security: And if the dominions of his Excellency, Nudjum ul Dowla, or the English Company, shall be attacked, his Highness shall, in like manner, assist them with a part or the whole of his forces. In the case of the English Company's forces being employed in his Highness's service, the extraordinary expence of the same is to be defrayed by him. A.D. 1765 Shujah ul Dowla, and Nudjum ul Dowla.

ARTICLE III.

His Highness solemnly engages never to entertain or receive Cossim Ally Khan, the late Soubahdar of Bengal, &c., Sombre, the assassin of the English, nor any of the European deserters, within his dominions, nor to give the least countenance, support, or protection to them. He likewise solemnly engages to deliver up to the English, whatever Europeans may, in future, desert from them into his country.

ARTICLE IV.

The King Shah Aalum shall remain in full possession of Cora, and such part of the province of Illiabad as he now possesses, which are ceded to his Majesty, as a royal demesne, for the support of his dignity and expences.

ARTICLE V.

His Highness, Shujah ul Dowla, engages, in the most solemn manner, to continue Bulwant Sing in the Zemindarries of Benares, Gauzepoor, and all those districts he possessed, at the time he came over to the late Nabob Jaffier Ally Khan and the English, on condition of his paying the same revenue as heretofore.

ARTICLE VI.

In consideration of the great expence incurred by the English Company in carrying on the late war, his Highness agrees to pay them (50) fifty lacks of Rupees, in the following manner, viz. (12) twelve lacks in money, and a deposit of jewels to the amount of (8) eight lacks, upon the signing of this Treaty, (5) five lacks one month after, and the remaining (25) twenty-five lacks by monthly payments, so as that the whole may be discharged in (13) thirteen months from the date hereof.

ARTICLE VII.

It being firmly resolved to restore to his Highness the country of Benares, and the other districts now rented by Bulwant Sing, notwithstanding the Grant of the same from the King to the English Company, it is therefore agreed, that they shall be ceded to his Highness in manner following, viz. They shall remain in the hands of the English Company, with their revenues, till the expiration of the agreement between Bulwant Sing and the Company, being on the 27th of November next; after which his Highness shall enter into possession, the Fort of Chunar excepted, which is not to be evacuated, until the 6th Aricle of this Treaty be fully complied with.

A.D.1765
Shujah ul Dowla, and Nudjum ul Dowla.

ARTICLE VIII.

His Highness shall allow the English Company to carry on a trade duty free, throughout the whole of his dominions.

ARTICLE IX.

All the relations and subjects of his Highness, who in any manner assisted the English during the course of the late war, shall be forgiven, and no ways molested for the same.

ARTICLE X.

As soon as this Treaty is executed, the English forces shall be withdrawn from the dominions of his Highness; excepting such as may be necessary for the garrison of Chunar, or for the defence and protection of the King, in the city of Illiabad, if his Majesty should require a force for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI.

His Highness the Nabob Shujah ul Dowla, his Excellency the Nabob Nudjum ul Dowla, and the English Company, promise to observe sincerely and strictly all the Articles contained and settled in the present Treaty; and they will not suffer the same to be infringed, directly or indirectly, by their respective subjects: and the said contracting powers, generally and reciprocally, guarantee to each other all the stipulations of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE I.

Whereas, in the Treaty concluded at Allahabad, the 16th August, 1765, between the Vizier and the Company, it is expressed, that the districts of Corah and Allahabad were given to His Majesty for his expences; and whereas His Majesty has abandoned the possession of the aforesaid districts, and even given a Sunnud for Corah and Currah to the Marattas, to the great prejudice of the interests both of the Vizier and of the English Company, and contrary to the meaning of the said treaty, and hath thereby forfeited his right to the said districts, which have reverted to the Company, from whom he received them: it is therefore agreed, that the aforesaid districts shall be put into the possession of the Vizier on the following conditions; and that, in the same manner as the province of Oude, and the other dominions of the Vizier, are possessed by him, so shall he possess Corah and Currah, and Allahabad, for ever. He shall, by no means, and under no pretence, be liable to any obstructions in the aforsaid countries from the Company and English Chiefs; and exclusive of the money now stipulated, no mention or requisition shall, by any means, be made to him for any thing else on this account. This agreement shall be observed by all the English Chiefs, Gentlemen of the Council, and by the Company, nor shall it ever be broken or deviated from.

Conditions, viz.

He shall pay to the Company fifty lacks (50,00,000) of Sicca Rupees, according to the currency of the province of Oude, as follows; viz.

In ready money - - - - - -	Sicca Rupees	20,00,0000

The first year - - - - - - -	15,00,000
The second year - - - - - - -	15,00,000
		30,00,000
	Sicca Rupees	50,00,000

ARTICLE II.

Sujah ul Dowla.

To prevent any disputes arising concerning the payments which shall be made by the Vizier, for the expences of the Company's troops that may march to his assistance:

It is agreed, That the expence of a brigade shall be computed at two lacks ten thousand (2,10,000) Sicca Rupees per month, according to the currency of the province of Oude. By a brigade is meant as follows, viz.

2 Battalions of Europeans,
6 Battalions of Sepoys,
1 Company of Artillery.

The expences of the said troops shall be defrayed by the Vizier, from the time that they shall have passed the borders of his dominions till they return within the borders of the province of Bahar; and, exclusive of the above mentioned sum, no more shall, on any account, be demanded from him. Should the Company and the English Chiefs have occasion to send for the troops of the Vizier, the Company and the English Chiefs shall also pay their expences in the like manner.

Sujah ul Dowla.

A friendship having been entered into between me and Fyzulah Khan, I have agreed to give him the country of Rampore, and some other districts dependent thereon, producing altogether an annual revenue of 14,75,000 Rupees; and I have stipulated, that Fyzulah Khan shall retain in his service five thousand troops, and not a single man more; I therefore give this written engagement, that I will, at all times, and on all occasions, support the honor and character of Fyzulah Khan, and will promote his interest and advantage, to the utmost of my power, upon the following conditions. That Fyzulah Khan shall enter into no connection with any person but myself, and that he shall hold no correspondence with any person, except the English chiefs. That he shall consider my friends as his friends, and my enemies as his enemies; and that with whomsoever I shall make war, Fyzulah Khan shall send two or three thousand men, according to his ability, to join my forces: and if I march in person, Fyzulah Khan shall himself accompany me with his troops. And if, on account of the smallness of the number of the forces he is to retain in his service, he is not able to accompany me, I will then appoint him three or four thousand more troops, that he may accompany me with a good army, and I will be at the expense of supporting them. Upon the performance of these conditions, I have agreed to give the said countries, at the afore-mentioned revenue, to Fyzulah Khan, and to promote his interest and advantage, to the utmost of my power.

If Fyzulah Khan fulfil the articles of this treaty, and adheres steadily to it, God willing, I will not neglect whatever may be for his advantage.

He shall send the remainder of the Rohillas on the other side of the river.

I have sworn by the holy Koran, calling God and his Prophet to witness to the performance of these articles.

TREATY between the Honorable the English East-India Company and the Maratta State, 1776.

Poorundah, 1st day of March, 1776.

A.D. 1776 The Marattas. Whereas differences have arisen amongst the Chiefs of the Maratta State, and the Government of Bombay having taken a part therein, by sending forces into the Maratta dominions, which the Honorable the Governor-General and Council of Fort William disapprove, and being desirous of conciliating these differences, have determined, accordingly, to enter into such measures as may most effectually contribute to so desirable an end. They have, for this purpose, therefore, authorized, deputed, and given full powers unto Lieutenant Colonel John Upton, in the service of the Honorable the English East-India Company, to conclude a peace between the Government of Bombay and the Maratta State. And Colonel Upton having, accordingly, arrived at Poorunder, has concluded a solid and firm peace, on the part of the English Company, with the Ministers, Siccarem Pundet and Ballajee Pundet, on the part of the Peshwa, Row Pundet Purdhan, and all the Maratta Chiefs, and the following are the Articles of Convention which they have engaged into:

ARTICLE I.

Peace shall be established and take place from this day between the Honorable the English East-India Company in general, and the Government of Bombay in particular; and Row Pundet Purdhan, and his ministers, Siccaram Bapoo and Ballajee Pundet, on the part of all the Marattas; and the following articles are to be observed inviolably by both Parties.

ARTICLE II.

The Peace is to be forthwith proclaimed between the Honorable Company and the Maratta State, at the Presidency of Bombay, and at all its dependencies, at the head of the English English troops encamped at Mandavie, and in every part of the Guzerat province where there are British subjects. The Maratta Government will also order proclamations to be made throughout all their dominions. A.D.1776 The Marattas.

ARTICLE III.

The Peshwa, Row Pundet Purdhan, and his Ministers, being desirous of having Salsette and the small islands subdued by the English in this war, restored to them, do offer to give in exchange a country of three lacks of Rupees, with its Chout, &c. in the neighbourhood of Broach. Colonel Upton having declared, that he could not restore the said islands, it is therefore agreed, that they shall remain as they now are, and that they shall write to the Honorable the Supreme Council of Fort William, and both parties engage to abide by their determination. If the Governor-General and Council of Fort William do not restore them, they shall continue in the possession of the English, and the Marattas will then give up all right and title to the said islands; should the Governor-General and Council of Calcutta restore Salsette with the said islands, the English will accordingly deliver them over to the Peshwa.

ARTICLE IV.

The Marattas do agree to give to the English Company, for ever, all right and title to their entire share of the city and Pergunnah of Broach, as full and complete as ever they collected from the Moguls, or otherwise, without retaining claim of Chout, or any other demand whatever; so that the English Company shall possess it without participation or claim of any kind.

ARTICLE V.

The Marattas do agree, (by way of friendship) to give for ever to the English Company, a country of three complete lacks of Rupees, near or adjoining to Broach, on which there is to be no claim of Chout, or any other demand whatsoever. Two persons on the part of the Company, and two persons on the part of Row Pundet Purdhan, to proceed and determine the place and boundaries when the Peshwa will give the Sunnuds.

ARTICLE VI.

The Peshwa and Ministers agree to pay to the Company twelve lacks of Rupees, in part of the expences of the English army, in two payments, viz. six lacks within six months of the date of this treaty, and the other six lacks within two years of the same date.

ARTICLE VII.

The English do agree, that every part of the Guzerat country, ceded to the Company by Ragonaut Row, or taken possession of by them, shall be forthwith restored, with all the forts and towns thereunto belonging, except what is settled by this treaty. The country ceded to the English by Seagee, or Futty Sing Guicawar, shall also be restored,

when it is proved by their letters, and copies of the Sunnuds granted by the former Peshwas, now in their (the Guicawars') hands, that they do not possess power or authority to make such cessions. The Purgunnahs of Chickley and Coral, with the town of Veriow, three villages of the Purgunnah of Chureassy, and the village of Batta Gang, are to continue as pledges in the possession of the English, 'till the Sunnuds for the country of three lacks are made over. All treaties and agreements subsisting between the English and Ragonaut Row are hereby annulled; and those of Sajee and Futty Sing Guicawars, are to be also annulled, when the abovementioned proofs are produced; and these treaties are to be destroyed in the presence of the Peshwa's Ministers when they come to hand.

ARTICLE VIII.

The English do agree, that the troops from the presidency of Bombay are to be marched immediately into their own garrisons and districts.

ARTICLE IX.

It is agreed, that Ragonaut Row is to disband his army within one month of this date. His followers and adherents (except the servants about his person) are to separate within the same time; and proclamation is to be made by the Maratta Government, granting a full pardon to all adherents and followers, and all such as have been in arms with Ragonaut Row, the four following excepted, viz. Abajee Mahadu, Noor Cawn Gardie, Toola Rutmutgar, and Kurrig Sing Chokydar, who, for crimes and misdemeanors committed against the state, are for ever banished the Maratta dominions.

ARTICLE X.

If Ragonaut Row refuses to disband his army, the English are to withdraw their forces, and are not to assist him.

ARTICLE XI.

The conditions of the ninth article being complied with, the Peshwa and Ministers then consent to establish a household for Ragonaut Row, consisting of one thousand horse and some foot, who are to be paid and relieved at the pleasure of Government, but to obey all legal orders given them by Ragonaut Row; also two hundred domestics, to be chosen by Ragonaut Row and paid by Government. They will also cause to be paid to Ragonaut Row, to defray his other expences, three lacks of Rupees per annum, by monthly payments, at the rate of twenty-five thousand Rupees per month; conditionally, that he resides at Cooper Gang, on the banks of the Gungha Gudoury. If, at any time, he may want to change his place of residence, application is to be made to the Peshwa, without whose permission such a change is not to take place; and he is not to cause any disturbance, or carry on improper correspondence with any person.

ARTICLE XII.

It is agreed, that no assistance is to be given by the English to Ragonaut Row, or to any subject or servant of the Peshwa's, that shall cause disturbances or rebellion in the Maratta dominions.

A.D.1776
The Marattas.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Peshwa, Row Pundet Purdhan, and his Ministers, do declare, that the Chout of Bengal and its dependencies has, for time out of mind, been part of the Jaghire of the Bounsello, they therefore cannot withdraw it; but if the said Bounsello, or any of his descendants or successors, or any other person, cause disturbances, by claiming or demanding the Chout on Bengal or its dependencies, they do engage never to assist them themselves, or permit any Maratta Chief, dependent on them or the Rajahship, to give them any assistance.

ARTICLE XIV.

It is agreed, that in case of shipwreck of any English ships or vessels, or ships or vessels trading under their protection, on any part of the Maratta coast, every assistance shall be given by that Government and the inhabitants to save as much as possible; and the whole that may be saved shall be returned, all reasonable charges being defrayed by the owners. In like manner, the English Company engage their assistance, should any Maratta ships or vessels be shipwrecked on any of their coasts.

ARTICLE XV.

The treaties between the Government of Bombay and the Marattas, dated July, 1739, and 12th October, 1756, are to be held and continued in as full force, as when they were first entered into; unless any article or articles of either of them should, in other manner, be provided for by this treaty: in such case, such article or articles are to be rejected, and those of this treaty abided by.

ARTICLE XVI.

All other treaties or agreements subsisting between the Government of Bombay and the Maratta Government, not having undergone alteration, or otherwise provided for by this Treaty, are to be held and continued in as full force as when they were first entered upon.

ARTICLE XVII.

It is agreed, that if Ragonaut Row has lodged any jewels belonging to the Peshwa, Row Pundet Purdhan, in the hands of the English, they are to be restored, on the obligation being complied with for which they were lodged.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The Honorable the English Company shall be considered as the sole lords and proprietors of all the places ceded by this Treaty, from the dates of the respective Sunnuds or grants, and are therein, accordingly, to exercise their own laws and authorities. And the Marattas are not to cause any disturbance in any of the ceded countries, nor shall the English occasion any disturbance in the Maratta dominions.

A.D. 1776
The Marattas.

ARTICLE XIX.

In the places hereby ceded to the Honorable Company, and in all the places restored to the Maratta Government by the English, it is agreed, that both parties shall commence to collect the revenues thereof, from the day on which they are delivered, and no demand of collection for any past time shall be made.

ARTICLE XX.

A copy of this Treaty, under the seal of Colonel Upton, shall remain with the Ministers of the Maratta Government; and a copy shall be sent to Calcutta, to be signed and sealed by the Honorable the Governor-General and Members of the Supreme Council of Fort William, and afterwards given to the Peshwa.

Be it known to the Mutsuddies in office, present and to come, Canongoes, Mukudums, Ryots, Cultivators, to all the inhabitants and people resident and belonging to Sircar Benares, Gauzypore, and Chunara, in the Soubah of Allahabad; that whereas, by virtue of a treaty with the Nabob Asoph ul Dowla, concluded on the 20th of Rubby-ut-Ewut, 1189 Hygera, or 21st of May, 1775, the Government and Sovereignty of the Sircars above-mentioned has been ceded to the Honourable East India Company, from the 4th of Jummady ul Aul, 1189 Hygera, or 4th July, 1775: the said East-India Company, therefore, pursuant to the rights thereby obtained, do confirm unto Rajah Cheyt Sing the Zemindary, Aumeeny, and Foujedarry of the said Sircars, agreeably to the Zemmun, together with the Cutwallies of Juanpore and Benares, and the mint of Benares, from the said date. Whatever gold and silver shall be coined in the mint, the said Rajah shall coin conformably to his Muchulka. He is not to be, in the smallest particular, remiss in

A.D. 1776 Cheyt Sing. the observation and execution of the several duties incumbent on him. He is to behave with moderation and kindness to the Ryots and people; to promote the cultivation and increase of inhabitants and produce of the lands; expelling thieves, nightly assaulters, and robbers; and so effectually punishing the disturbers of the peace, that no trace of them may be seen: and he is to pay a tribute of 23,40,249 Benares Muchlidar Rupees, or 22,66,180 Calcutta Siccas, annually, to the Company's treasurers. Whenever the money shall not be wanted at Benares, he is to remit the annual amount of 22,66,180 Sicca Rupees, punctually, agreeably to his Kists and Muchulka,* by monthly payments, at Calcutta. In consideration of which, he shall be allowed a deduction of two per cent., amounting in all to Sicca Rupees 44,434..14..5, account Hindowunny, which being deducted, the net amount is 22,21,745..1..7 Sicca Rupees of Calcutta, which he is to pay at that place. After the settlement of accounts at the end of the year, he shall, in the customary manner, receive credit for his payments; and he is, by no means, to collect the prohibited Abwaub of the Durgah of his Majesty. This Sunnud being granted, is to remain in force, and all former Sunnuds to become null and void.† You, the Mutusuddies and persons above-mentioned, are to regard the said Rajah as the truly and lawfully possessed of the Zemindary, Aumeeny, and Foujedarry of the above Sircars; and to acknowledge his authority in the several acts appertaining thereunto. No. XXXIII.

DRAUGHT of a TREATY proposed between the Company and Maha Rajah Luckindar, Behauder, Ranah of Gohud.

A.D. 1779 Ranah of Gohud.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT made and concluded at Fort William, in Bengal, between the Honorable the Governor-General and Council for the Affairs of the Honorable English East-

East-India Company, on Behalf of the said Company, on the one Part; and Maha Rajah Luckindar Behauder, Ranah of Gohud, for himself and his Successors, on the other Part; viz. A.D. 1779 Ranah of Gohud.

ARTICLE I.

Perpetual friendship shall take place between the English Company and Maha Rajah Luckindar Behauder, and their successors; and an alliance be established between them, for the prosecution of the objects herein after mentioned.

ARTICLE II.

Whenever a war shall actually take place between the contracting parties and the Marattas, if Maha Rajah Luckindar Behauder shall require the assistance of an English force from the Company, for the defence of his country, or for the acquisition of territory, such a force, proportioned to the exigency of the service, shall be immediately sent, on his requisition made in writing to the Commanding Officer of the nearest station of the Company's troops, shall remain with him as long as he shall require it, and return when he shall dismiss it. The expences thereof shall be defrayed by the Maha Rajah, at the fixed monthly rate of twenty thousand Muchlidar Rupees, of the currency of Benares, or any other species of Rupees of the same intrinsic amount, for each battalion of Seapoys, on its present establishment, with its proportion of artillery. The payment to commence on the day when the said force shall pass the borders of the Company's dominions, or the dominions of the Nabob of Oude, and cease on the period stipulated for its return to either; four Coss being allowed for each day's march.

ARTICLE III.

This force shall be employed for the defence of the Maha Rajah's dominions against all foreign or domestic enemies, and for the enlargement of his dominions by conquest on the Marattas.

ARTICLE IV.

Whatever countries shall be acquired from the Marattas, in pursuance of this treaty, by the troops of the Company or of the Maha Rajah, separately or in conjunction, whether by war or treaty, except the fifty-six Mahals which constitute the Maha Rajah's Jaghire, and which are not now in the possession of the Marattas, shall be shared in the following proportions, viz. nine Annas to the Company and seven Annas to the Maha Rajah. The mean amount of the gross revenue of the whole shall be ascertained by Aumeens, chosen by each party, on the collections made in the ten preceding years: and the amount of the Company's share, as determined by the said Aumeens, after deducting the charges of collection which are customary in such countries, shall be fixed and paid by the Maha Rajah, as a perpetual tribute to the Company; and the lands and forts shall be ceded to the Maha Rajah.

ARTICLE

A.D.1779
Ranah of Gohud.

ARTICLE V.

In case it shall be judged advisable to employ the combined forces of the Company and the Maha Rajah in any hostile operations against the Marattas, beyond the borders of the Maha Rajah's dominions, on requisition made to him in writing from this Government, he shall furnish ten thousand horse for such service; and each party shall bear his own separate expence: and if, upon the return of the English forces towards their own borders, the Maha Rajah shall have occasion for their services, and shall make a requisition to retain them, from the instant of such requisition he shall pay their charge, in the same manner as stipulated in the second article. But it shall not be required of the Maha Rajah, nor be in the power of this Government, to detach or employ his troops beyond the furthest borders of Eogein and Indoon, without his special consent.

ARTICLE VI.

Whenever the English forces are employed for the defence of the Maha Rajah's country, or for the acquisition of territory, the service to be performed shall be prescribed by himself; but the mode of executing it shall be left to the direction of the officer commanding the English troops.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever the combined troops of the Company and the Maha Rajah shall be employed in any remote operations, the Commanding Officer of the English forces shall consult the Rajah upon all services to be performed; but the ultimate decision, in case of a difference of opinion, and the mode of conducting such services, shall be left entirely to the Commanding Officer of the English forces, with a reservation of the Maha Rajah's complete authority over his own troops.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whenever peace shall be concluded between the Company and the Maratta State, the Maha Rajah shall be included as a party in the Treaty, which shall be made for that purpose; and his present possessions, together with the fort of Gualior, which of old belongs to the family of the Maha Rajah, if it shall be then in his possession, and such countries as he shall have acquired in the course of the war, and which it shall then be stipulated to leave in his hands, shall be guaranteed to him by such Treaty.

ARTICLE IX.

No English factory shall be established in the dominions of the Maha Rajah. No persons, of any denomination, shall be sent into his dominions on the part of the English Company, or with the licence of the Governor-General and Council, without his previous consent: neither shall his Ryots be pressed for any military service, nor any authority exercised over them but his own.

Signed, sealed, and concluded, at Fort William, this 2d day of December, in the year of our Lord 1779.

No. XXXIV.

COPY of the AGREEMENT concluded by the Governor-General with the Vizier, on the 19*th of September*, 1781.

The Nabob Vizier ul Mummalic Asoph ul Dowlah, Asoph Jah Cawn Behauder, having repeatedly and urgently represented, that he is unable to support the expences of the temporary brigade, cavalry and English officers, with their battalions, as well as other gentlemen, who are now paid by him, under the denomination of Sebundy, &c. &c., and having made sundry requests to that and other purposes; and as the constancy and firmness of his alliance with the Company entitle him to every consideration and relief that may depend upon us, I, Warren Hastings, Governor-General, Imad ul Dowlah, Jelladit Jung Behauder, &c. &c. on behalf of the Governor-General and Council, have agreed to the undermentioned Articles, this 19th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1781, corresponding to the last of Ramzan, 1195 of the Hygera. A.D. 1781 Asoph ul Dowlah.

ARTICLE I.

That the temporary brigade, and three regiments of cavalry, be no longer charged to the Nabob's account for the year Fussellee 1189, excepting a term for two and a half months, which is required for their passing the Nabob's boundaries; and for which, together with all former allowances and arrears, their usual pay and allowances are to be made good. Also the English officers, with their Sebundy battalions, and other gentlemen, excepting the Resident's Office, now upon the Nabob's list, be no longer at his charge for the year 1189, the arrears being paid up with the addition of two months' allowances: the true meaning of this being, that no more troops be paid for by the Nabob, than the number of European artillery and Seapoys agreed for, under the title of one brigade, with the late Nabob Shujah ul Dowlah, now paid for at the rate of 2,60,000 Rupees per month; to which is now to be added one regiment of Seapoys of the present establishment, expressly allowed for the purpose of protecting the office, treasury, and person of the Resident at Lucknow, the pay and allowances of which are to commence from the 1st of August next, at the rate of Rupees 25,000 per month. The regiment to be relieved every three months. The brigade to be stationed or moved wherever the Nabob shall direct, in the mode prescribed in the former treaty with the Nabob Vizier, deceased. And finally, that whenever the Nabob Vizier shall require a further aid of troops from

A.D. 1781 Asoph ul Dowlah. the Company, the pay and allowances shall commence from the day of their passing the Carumnassa: also, should the assistance of the Nabob's troops be required by the Company, their pay and allowances, as may then be agreed upon, be allowed during the time they may serve.

ARTICLE II.

That as great distress has arisen to the Nabob's government from the military power and dominion of the Jaghiredars, he be permitted to resume such as he may find necessary; with a reserve for all such, for the amount of whose Jaghire the Company are guarantees, shall, in case of their resumption of their lands, be paid the amount of their net collections, through the Resident, in ready money.

ARTICLE III.

That as Fyzoola Khan has, by his breach of treaty, forfeited the protection of the English government, and causes, by his continuance in his present independent state, great alarm and detriment to the Nabob, he be permitted, when time shall suit, to resume his lands, and pay him in money, through the Resident, the amount stipulated by treaty, after deducting the amount and charges of the troops he stands engaged to furnish by treaty, which amount shall be passed to the account of the Company during the continuance of the present war.

ARTICLE IV.

That no English Resident be appointed to Furruckabad, and the present one recalled.

ARTICLE V.

That the treaties made between the English and the Nabob Sujah ul Dowlah be ratified between the present parties, as far as may be consistent with the above written articles; and that no officers, troops, or others, be put upon the Nabob's establishment, exclusive of those herein stipulated,

COPY of the AGREEMENT made by the Vizier with the Governor-General.

Having, on my behalf, agreed to the requisitions of the Nabob Vizier, without diminution or reserve, I must now repeat the request which I before verbally made to him, that that he will be pleased to attend to such proposals as I shall have to make to him: and to these I expect his assent the more readily, as they have for their ultimate object his interest alone; that of the Company being no further concerned, than in the influence which they will eventually have, in the payment of the debt due from the Nabob to the Company. A.D. 1781 Asoph ul Dowlah.

I therefore recommend to him to reduce the great number of his Sebund and other troops to regular and complete establishments; not to be paid by assignments of revenue, but in money from the treasury, and their number not to exceed the certain means of paying them. But as this may be difficult, without making a separation of the Nabob's public and private funds, I further recommend, that he receive into his private purse no more than a fixed monthly sum, for the expences of his person and household; and that the remainder of the net collections be left in a public treasury, under the management of his public ministers and the inspection of the Resident, for the discharge of his military and civil disbursements.

This advice is not meant to affect the assignments annually, and which must be annually renewed for the payment of the past debt and the current demands of the Company.

Signed and sealed by the Nabob, accepting and promising to conform to the above advice.

TREATY of PEACE with the Marattas, 1782.

A.D. 1782
The Marattas.

TREATY of perpetual FRIENDSHIP and ALLIANCE between the Honorable the English East-India Company and the Peshwa Madhoo Row Pundit Purdhan, settled by Mr. David Anderson, on the Part of the Honorable Company, in Virtue of the Powers delegated to him for that Purpose by the Honorable the Governor General and Council, appointed by the King and Parliament of Great-Britain to direct and controul all political Affairs of the Honorable English East-India Company in India; and by Maha Rajah Soubahdar Madhoo Row Sindia, as Plenipotentiary on the Part of the Peshwa Madhoo Row Pundit Purdhan, Ballajee Pundit Nana Furnavese, and the Whole of the Chiefs of the Maratta Nation, agreeably to the following Articles, which shall be ever binding on their Heirs and Successors, and the Conditions of them to be invariably observed by both Parties.

ARTICLE I.

It is stipulated and agreed to between the Honorable the English East-India Company and the Peshwa, through the mediation of Madhoo Row Sindia, that all countries, places, cities and forts, including Basseen, &c. which have been taken from the Peshwa, during the war that has arisen since the treaty settled by Colonel Upton, and have come into the possession of the English, shall be delivered up to the Peshwa; the territories, forts, cities, &c. to be restored, shall be delivered within the space of two months from the period when this treaty shall become complete (as herein after described), to such persons as the Peshwa, or his minister, Nana Furnavese, shall appoint.

ARTICLE II.

It is agreed between the English Company and the Peshwa, that Salsette and three other islands, viz. Elephanta, Corranja, and Hog, which are included in the treaty of Colonel Upton, shall continue for ever in possession of the English. If any other islands have been taken in the course of the present war, they shall be delivered up to the Peshwa.

ARTICLE III.

Whereas it was stipulated in the fourth article of the Treaty of Colonel Upton, "That the Peshwa, and all the Chiefs of the Maratta State, do agree to give the English "Company, for ever, all right and title to the city of Broach, as full and complete as

A.D. 1782 The Marattas.

" ever they collected from the Moguls or otherwise, without retaining any claim of Chout, " or any other claims whatsoever, so that the English Company shall possess it without " participation or claim of any kind ;" this article is accordingly continued in full force and effect.

ARTICLE IV.

The Peshwa having formerly, in the Treaty of Colonel Upton, agreed, by way of friendship, to give up to the English a country of three lacks of Rupees, near Broach, the English do now, at the request of Madhoo Row Sindia, consent to relinquish their claim to the said country in favor of the Peshwa.

ARTICLE V.

The country which Seajee and Futty Sing Guickwar gave to the English, and which is mentioned in the seventh article of the Treaty of Colonel Upton, being therein left in a state of suspense, the English, with a view to obviate all future disputes, now agree that it shall be restored ; and it is hereby settled, that if the said country be a part of the established territory of the Guickwar, it shall be restored to the Guickwar ; and if it shall be a part of the Peshwa's territories, it shall be restored to the Peshwa.

ARTICLE VI.

The English engage, that having allowed Ragonaut Row a period of four months, from the time when this Treaty shall become complete, to fix on a place of residence, they will not, after the expiration of the said period, afford him any support, protection, or assistance, nor supply him with money for his expences : and the Peshwa, on his part, engages, that if Ragonaut Row will voluntarily, and of his own accord, repair to Maha Rajah Madhoo Sindia, and quietly reside with him, the sum of 25,000 Rupees per month shall be paid him for his maintenance, and no injury whatever shall be offered to him by the Peshwa, or any of his people.

ARTICLE VII.

The Honorable English East-India Company and the Peshwa being desirous that their respective allies shall be included in this peace, it is hereby mutually stipulated, that each party shall make peace with the allies of the other, in the manner herein-after specified.

ARTICLE VIII.

The territory which has long been the established Jagheer of Seajee Guickwar and Futty Sing Guickwar, that is to say, whatever territory Futty Sing Guickwar possessed at the commencement of the present war, shall hereafter for ever remain on the usual footing in his possession; and the said Futty Sing shall, from the date of this Treaty being complete, pay for the future to the Peshwa the tribute as usual, previous to the present war, and shall perform such services, and be subject to such obedience, as have long been established and customary. No claim shall be made on the said Futty Sing by the Peshwa for the period that is past.

ARTICLE IX.

The Peshwa engages, that whereas the Nabob Hyder Ally Cawn having concluded a treaty with him, hath disturbed and taken possession of territories belonging to the English and their allies, he shall be made to relinquish them; and they shall be restored to the Company and the Nabob Mahomed Ally Cawn. All prisoners, that have been taken on either side during the war, shall be released; and Hyder Ally Cawn shall be made to relinquish all such territories belonging to the English Company and their allies, as he may have taken possession of since the ninth of Ramzam in the year 1180, being the date of his treaty with the Peshwa; and the said territories shall be delivered over to the English and the Nabob Mahomed Ally Cawn, within six months after this Treaty being compleat. And the English, in such case, agree, that so long as Hyder Ally Cawn shall afterwards abstain from hostilities against them and their allies, and so long as he shall continue in friendship with the Peshwa, they will, in no respect, act hostilely towards him. A.D. 1782 The Marattas.

ARTICLE X.

The Peshwa engages, on his own behalf, as well as on behalf of his allies, the Nabob Nizam Alli Cawn, Ragojee Bousla Syna Saheb Soubah, and the Nabob Hyder Ally Cawn, that they shall, in every respect, maintain peace towards the English and their allies, the Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah, Behauder, and the Nabob Mahomed Ally Cawn, Behauder, and shall, in no respect whatever, give them any disturbance. The English engage on their own behalf, as well as on behalf of their allies, the Nabob Asoph-ul-Dowlah, and the Nabob Mahomed Ally Cawn, that they shall, in every respect, maintain peace towards the Peshwa and his allies, the Nabob Nizam Ally Cawn, and Ragojee Bousla Syna Saheb: and the English further engage, on their own behalf, as well as on behalf of their allies, that they will maintain peace also towards the Nabob Hyder Ally Cawn, under the conditions specified in the ninth article of this treaty.

ARTICLE XI.

The Honorable East-India Company and the Peshwa mutually agree, that the vessels of each shall afford no disturbance to the navigation of the vessels of the other: and the vessels of each shall be allowed access to the ports of the other, where they shall meet with no molestation, and the fullest protection shall be reciprocally afforded.

ARTICLE XII.

The Peshwa and Chiefs of the Maratta State hereby agree, that the English shall enjoy the privilege of trade, as formerly, in the Maratta territories, and shall meet with no kind of interruption: and, in the same manner, the Honorable East-India Company agree, that the subjects of the Peshwa shall be allowed the privilege of trade, without interruption, in the territories of the English.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1782 The Marattas.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Peshwa hereby engages, that he will not suffer any factories of other European nations to be established in his territories, or those of the Chiefs dependant on him, excepting only such as are already established by the Portuguese; and he will hold no intercourse of friendship with any other European nations: and the English on their part agree that they will not afford assistance to any nation of Deccan or Indostan at enmity with the Peshwa.

ARTICLE XIV.

The English and the Peshwa mutually agree, that neither will afford any kind of assistance to the enemies of the other.

ARTICLE XV.

The Honorable the Governor-General and Council of Fort William engage, that they will not permit any of the Chiefs, Dependants, or Subjects of the English, the Gentlemen of Bombay, Surat, or Madras, to act contrary at any place to the terms of this Treaty. In the same manner, the Peshwa Madhoo Row Pundit Purdhan engages, that none of the Chiefs or Subjects of the Maratta State shall act contrary to them.

ARTICLE XVI.

The Honorable East-India Company, and the Peshwa Madhoo Row Pundit Purdhan, having the fullest confidence in Maha Rajah Soubahdar Madhoo Row Sindia, Behauder, they have both requested the said Maha Rajah to be the mutual guarantee for the perpetual and invariable adherence of both parties to the conditions of this Treaty: and the said Madhoo Row Sindia, from a regard to the welfare of both states, hath accordingly taken upon himself the mutual guarantee. If either of the parties shall deviate from the conditions of this Treaty, the said Maha Rajah will join the other party, and will, to the utmost of his power, endeavour to bring the aggressor to a proper understanding.

ARTICLE XVII.

It is hereby agreed, that whatever territories, forts, or cities, in Guzerat, were granted by Ragonaut Row to the English, previous to the Treaty of Colonel Upton, and have come into their possession, the restitution of which was stipulated in the seventh article of the said Treaty, shall be restored, agreeable to the terms of the said article.

This Treaty, consisting of seventeen articles, is settled at Salbey, in the camp of Maha Rajah Soubahdar Madhoo Row Sindia, on the 4th of the month Jummad ul Saany, in the year 1197 of the Hygera, corresponding with the 17th of May, 1782, of the Christian Æra, by the said Maha Rajah and Mr. David Anderson. A copy hereof shall be sent by each of the abovenamed persons to their respective principals at Fort William and Poonah: and when both copies being returned, the one, under the seal of the Honorable East-

East-India Company, and signature of the Honorable the Governor-General and Council of Fort William, shall be delivered to Maha Rajah Madhoo Row Sindia, Behauder; and the other, under the seal of the Peshwa Madhoo Row Pundit Purdhan, and the signature of Ballajee Pundit Nana Furnavese, shall be delivered to Mr. David Anderson; this treaty shall be deemed complete and ratified, and the articles herein contained shall become binding on both the contracting parties. RESOLVED, That the Board assent to the two propositions made by Bow Bucksey to Mr. Anderson, upon the grounds of the Treaty, for the better preservation of the peace established with the Maratta Government; viz.

First, That the English and Maratta Governments do mutually agree not to afford refuge to any chiefs, merchants, or other persons, who shall hereafter fly for protection to either, from the territories of the other.

Secondly, That the eleventh article of the Treaty, concerning the intercourse of shipping, be explained to mean according to former custom (Monjib Sabuck Dustow).

RESOLVED, That the President and Council at Bombay be desired to restore to the Marattas, the guns and Rakelas taken in Basseen and Arnolla; but as it is, perhaps, impossible to ascertain the identical guns and stores so taken, or as some of them may probably have been lost or expended, that the spirit of this request be only attended to, and that Madajee Sindia be requested to consider this as a full compliance to his wishes in that instance, and assured it is our intention to comply with them, in the fullest possible extent, although it will not admit of a more positive declaration.

RESOLVED, and it is hereby declared, That all grants or obligations, heretofore made and now subsisting betwixt the English and Ragonaut Row, are now null and void; but this must not be construed to extend to any rights allowed by actual treaty.

Treaty with Asoph-ul-Dowlah, Nabob of Oude, 1787.

From Earl Cornwallis to the Vizier, written 15th April, 1787.

A.D. 1787
Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

The treaty concluded between the English Company and the Nawaub Sujah ul Dowlah

From the Nawaub Vizier to Earl Cornwallis, received 21st July, 1787.

Your Lordship's friendly letter, every word of which breathes strength of friendship, lah was founded on considerations of mutual advantage to both parties, and the same principle has continued to operate in confirming and improving the friendship and alliance between the Company and your Excellency. A connection formed with a view to the interests of both Governments ought to be perpetual; for this reason, since my appointment to the control over affairs here, my intentions have been directed towards measures tending to support and strengthen this friendly system.

As I consider the Company's territories, and those of your Excellency, as the same, the protection of your Excellency's dominions is absolutely necessary, as from its situation, the boundary of the whole, it is more exposed to foreign attacks. This protection cannot be effected in a proper manner without the assistance of the Company's troops, and I therefore beg leave to represent to your Excellency such circumstances as have, after mature reflection, occurred to me. With respect to the troops stationed at Futty Ghur, which had been withdrawn, as stipulated in the treaty of Chunar of 1781, I advise that they shall not be recalled, but continued. I make this proposal upon a conviction, that from the extent of your Excellency's dominions, the English forces, now stationed there, are requisite for their defence. Although there is no prospect of any attack on your Excellency's territory at present, its security must ultimately depend upon the strength of the force stationed for its protection, and while this is sufficient, no one will dare to entertain views of hostility against your Excellency.

ship, and every syllable contains a performance of the duties of intimacy and close connection, arrived in a happy hour, and afforded me infinite satisfaction. Its contents are, that it is the intention of the Company, and also your Lordship's firm resolution, that there should be no interference in the detail of my government. That the Resident at Lucknow should receive a positive order, that neither from himself, nor from any other gentlemen, nor from any person concerned with your Lordship's Government, should any kind of interference take place. That leaving my administration entirely to myself and my ministers, all interference from others should be stopped; and representing the particulars of every matter which was contained in your Lordship's heart.

Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

The Nawaub Hyder Beg Khan has fully explained to me the particulars of your Lordship's kindness and magnanimity, which form the ground of your Lordship's settlement of my affairs, and has occasioned me an excess of pleasure and happiness. I who have, day and night, received such happiness from a recollection of your Lordship's goodness, now enjoy such pleasure from perceiving your kindness, and am so thankful for it, that it would require volumes to express a small share only. It is well known that, from the life time of the deceased Nawaub, until the day of his death, and the commencement of my administration, the friendship with the English Gentlemen has been perfect, strong, and sincere, and by the help of Providence will every day increase.

At

lency. Although the bravery and discipline of the English troops, on all occasions, are well known, and have been proved, even when their enemies have been in the proportion of twenty to one, and by the blessing of God they will always triumph over their enemies, yet since, at all times, chance of war is doubtful, prudence and wisdom require, that every possible means should be used to determine it in our favor. Your Excellency must be sensible, that there is no comparison between the troops of the Company and those in your Excellency's service, and that, without the assistance of the former, your dominions and authority would be insecure. I am convinced that if your Excellency considers these opinions, you will be sensible of the propriety of my proposition, and approve the continuance of troops, whose valor and discipline can be relied on, in preference to those who are unskilful and undisciplined, and I doubt not but your Excellency will agree to the additional expence of effective troops, where the object is the defence of the country: for this reason, I do not hesitate to recommend to your Excellency to discharge so much of your own army as will allow for the additional expence attending the continuance of these effective troops. Your Excellency must also be sensible, that the sums necessary for the pay of these troops are expended in your dominions.

The sole object of this proposition is to provide, in an effective manner, for the defence of your Excellency's country; and your Excellency must be convinced of the benefits

At this time, that so great a chief, possessed of divine wisdom and understanding, is arrived with full power and authority for the arrangement of this country, it may be very well conceived, that I understand such an arrival to have happened simply from my own good fortune, and entertain the most perfect confidence, that all my affairs will be settled to my own satisfaction. With respect to the continuance of the troops stationed at Futteghur, which your Lordship has written, with such greatness and magnanimity, that they may remain as hererefore, I have perfectly understood; notwithstanding, from the great weight of expense which my Government has experienced, every year, from these troops, and the negotiations which have passed with former gentlemen on this subject in particular, and the manner in which this matter was settled, after so much altercation, which doubtless your Lordship is acquainted with, I have every hope, in every situation, for advantage and prosperity from your Lordship, and conceive it necessary to represent the particulars of them to you; but having heard of your Lordship's intention to come to this quarter, which is the greatest desire of my heart, and from which I receive the greatest pleasure, I have postponed any mention of these matters until that happy time, and now consider it necessary, first, to procure your Lordship's good will, afterwards, that you will mention, from your great goodness and grandeur, which is universally known, and gives satisfaction and ease to my heart, that which benefits derived from our protection, since, whilst all other parts of Hindostan have been involved in war, and exposed to the devastations attending it, your Excellency's dominions have remained in the fullest enjoyment of peace and security. Many other arguments, of the greatest weight, might be urged in support of my proposition; but such is my opinion of the force of those I have alledged, that I trust they will make the same impression on your Excellency, and that there is no necessity to urge others.

It is my firm intention not to embarrass your Excellency with further expence than that incurred by the Company, from their connection with your Excellency, and for the protection of your country, which, by the accounts, I find amounts to fifty lacks of Fyzabad sixteen Sum Sicca Rupees annually. In this sum are included the allowance to the Nawaub Saadet Ally Khan, the stipend of the Rohillas, and the expences of the Residency on the part of this Government; in short, it is my intention, from the date on which this new agreement shall take place, your Excellency shall not be charged with any excess on this sum of fifty lacks of Sicca Rupees, and that no further demand shall be made.

If your Excellency, hereafter, shall find it necessary to demand any more forces from the Company, your Excellency will pay the excess upon a fair estimate; and if either of the two brigades or corps of cavalry shall be recalled, or any considerable diminution in their force shall take place, I will allow for the decrease of the expence from will tend to my prosperity and happiness, and meet with your approbation; therefore, with a view to preserve your Lordship's good will and satisfaction, I agree to the continuance of the troops now stationed at Futtighur and Cawnpore, and to their expences, with the stipend of my Brother, Meer Saadet Ally Khan Behauder, the Tuncaws of the Rohillahs, the disbursements of the Residency at Lucknow, and other gentlemen, and the Resident with his Majesty and Scindea, the expences of the Dawk, &c. which your Lordship has fixed fifty lacks annually for me to pay. Your Lordship has also said, that my expences should not exceed the sum of fifty lacks of Rupees, and that nothing further should be demanded of me; and that, whenever either of the two brigades or corps of cavalry should be recalled, or any material diminution should take place in those troops, a deduction shall be made, agreeable to estimate, from the sum of fifty lacks. I agree to this, and send the Kistbundy; and I am well convinced, also, that your Lordship will be kind and favorable towards me, in whatever will tend to my ease and prosperity.

I have not answered every particular of your Lordship's kind letter, because I have heard that your Lordship positively means to come to this quarter, and when we meet every matter will be answered in a most friendly manner. Now, considering acquiescence to your Lordship's orders and preservation of your pleasure as the principle of friendship, I have complied.

Your Lordship writes, with respect to Furruckabad, from the sum agreed to by your Excellency, agreeable to a fair calculation. In order that no grounds for a difference in opinion or doubt may remain, as to the real meaning of this article, I think it necessary to inform your Excellency, that whenever there is a necessity for any alteration in the arrangement of these troops, either by encreasing or diminishing the cavalry or infantry, this article does not tend to preclude it, provided the whole force shall not be considerably decreased, and that no additional charge be made on your Excellency on account of such alteration.

A Resident, as at present, will remain at your Excellency's court; but as it is the intention of the Company, and my firm resolution, that no interference shall take place in the details of the affairs of your Excellency's government, strict orders shall be sent to him, that he shall neither interfere himself, nor suffer interference, by public or private claims of exemptions of duties, or in any other mode, from any British subject or person, under the authority of this Government. In short, leaving the whole management of your country to your Excellency and your ministers, I will put a stop to the interference of others; and, in order to carry this effectually into execution, I propose to your Excellency not to suffer any European to reside in your dominions, without my written permission. In case that should be granted, a copy of it shall be transmitted to you.

If any European shall reside there without my permission in writing, your Excellency shall oblige him to quit the country; or if demanded, Furruckabad, that it shall be and continue, as before, under me, and that the English Resident there, either now, or at the end of the year 1194 Fusseley, shall be recalled, and after that period he shall not remain, nor any other be appointed; and you order me to be kind and just towards the rights of the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung, and that, in whatever manner it may be necessary to settle and arrange the affairs of that district, I should give a suitable allowance to the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung: and as the Nawaub's mother, and his brother, Dil Delere Khan, and Roy Deeb Chund, late Dewan, have shewn their zeal to your Government and to the Company, it is necessary to fix some allowance for them, independent of the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung. That it is well known, the enmity which the Nawaub bears towards them, and that, in consequence of the confidence of your Government placed on Dil Delere Khan, it is much to be feared, that unless he is protected, he will experience distress from the enmity of the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung; that I therefore cause to be paid to them a proper allowance, out of the amount paid to Mozuffer Jung, through the Resident at Lucknow. In this manner I will act as your Lordship has ordered, and will cause to be paid to the mother of Mozuffer Jung, and his brother, Dil Delere Khan, and Roy Deeb Chund, allowances through the Resident at Lucknow, and will assist and protect Dil Delere Khan, the mother, and Roy Deeb Chund. Until the honor of an interview, I hope to be honored and made happy with friendly letters from your Lordship.

demanded, send him to the Resident on the part of the Company.

A retrospect into past transactions, and the friendship so well known to exist between your Excellency and the Company, induce me to state the following circumstance: that, for several years past, the inhabitants of your Excellency's dominions, from motives of self-interest, have appealed to this Government, and this has been a source of injury to the affairs of your Government. I am determined to put a stop to this practice, and to disregard their applications; but as the connection between the two Governments is universally known, strict attention to justice, on your part, will add credit and renown to both.

With respect to Furruckabad, the fourth article of the Stipulation of Chunar shall be observed on my part, and the English Resident there, either now, or at the end of 1194 Fusillee, shall be recalled, and after that period he shall not remain, nor shall any other be appointed. On this subject, in consequence of the interference hitherto assumed by this Government in the affairs of that province, I think it necessary to inform your Excellency, that it is incumbent on me to recommend several matters to your Excellency's attention. That, in the first instance, you pay due regard to the rights of the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung; and under any circumstances that may become necessary for the management of the affairs of Furruckabad, your Excellency shall engage to allot from the revenues a sum sufficient for the honorable maintenance of

of the Nawaub Mozuffer Jung. And as the mother of Mozuffer Jung, and his brother, Dil Dilere Khan, as well as Deep Chund, late Dewan, have given proofs of their attachment to this Government, it is therefore expedient, that some provision should be made for them, independant of Mozuffer Jung. It is well known, that Mozuffer Jung considers them as inimical to him; and from the trust vested in Dil Dilere Khan by this Government, it is much to be feared, that if left unprotected, he will suffer from the resentment of Mozuffer Jung, I therefore expect that your Excellency will engage to cause specific pensions to be paid to these persons, at the expence of Mozuffer Jung, through the Resident of this Government.

By the accounts subsisting between your Excellency and the Company, a large balance is stated to be due from your Excellency; nevertheless, in conformity to the principles I have so expressedly declared, I am not willing to embarrass your Excellency with any other demands than what are absolutely necessary: I propose, therefore, that your Excellency shall liquidate such part of the stated arrears as may be due to the troops employed in your country. The Residency, the Nawaub Saadit Ally Khan, and the Rohillah Chiefs, on the date from which this new agreement shall be declared in force, as well as the arrears due to Mr. Anderson, and the remainder, whatever it may be, shall be struck out of the account, and be no longer considered as a demand of this Government on your Excellency.

From Hyder Beg Khan, received 21st July 1787.

I have already transmitted your Lordship an Arzie, mentioning my arrival at Lucknow, which has doubtless been perused. An answer from his Excellency the Vizier is now sent to your Lordship's kind letter: from it your Lordship will learn the particulars of his Excellency's inclination to preserve your Lordship's pleasure. Your Lordship has shewn kindness and favor in the affairs of his Excellency, and there is no doubt but will always shew kindness towards them, because his Excellency entertains great hopes from your Lordship.

A Kistbundy for the money for the expense of the troops, &c. goes enclosed in his Excellency's letter, and I enclose a draft for the amount stated by Mr. Wombwell to be due to the troops, up to February, 1787, together with two other drafts, on account the amount due to his Royal Highness, and the stipend of Nawaub Saadet Ally Khan to February 1787. They will be seen by your Lordship. As a long period elapsed during my journey, disorder has taken place in several modes in the affairs, and delay and procrastination have crept into

The substance of what is here written has been discussed in frequent conversations with Hyder Beg Khan, who has shewn himself a faithful servant to your Excellency, and a friend to both Governments. As he is fully acquainted with your Excellency's interests, and is your most confidential servant and prime minister, I have considered him as empowered to settle any arrangement for the mutual benefit of the two Governments, and have accordingly communicated to him, without reserve, all that has occurred to me to promote this object, in the same manner as if your Excellency were present; nevertheless, as your Excellency's concurrence and approbation are necessary to give a final sanction to the articles agreed upon by Hyder Beg Khan, I have thought proper to mention the heads of them in this letter, and the Nawaub Hyder Beg Khan will fully explain all the particulars to your Excellency.

For the rest, your Excellency may have the most assured confidence, that I will most faithfully abide by all the engagements on the part of the Honorable Company.

A TREATY of COMMERCE, between Charles Earl Cornwallis, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter; one of His Britannic Majesty's Honorable Privy Council, Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces, Governor General and Commander in Chief of all the Possessions and Forces of His Britannic Majesty, and of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England in the East-Indies, &c. &c. &c. on the part of the said Honorable United Company, and His Excellency the Vizier ul Momalik Hindostan, Assuf Jah Nowab, Assuf ud Dowlah Yehcha Khan Behadur, Huzzubber Jung.

A.D. 1788 / Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

The Right Honorable Charles Earl Cornwallis, K. G. Governor General, &c. &c. and His Excellency the Nawab Vizier, Behadur, &c. &c. having received various representations from the Merchants trading between the Company's dominions, and the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier, setting forth the losses and inconveniences which they suffer, as well from the heavy duties collected on their merchandise, as from the mode of levying the same, His Lordship, on the part of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and His Excellency the Nawab Vizier, &c. with a view to remove the evils complained of, and to promote the welfare of their respective states, have agreed upon the following Articles, which shall be binding on themselves, their heirs, and successors.

ARTICLE I.

The contracting parties shall not claim any exemption from duties, either for themselves, their subjects or dependants, or any other person or persons, of whatever country or nation.

ARTICLE II.

His Excellency the Nawab Vizier, &c. agrees to grant Rowannahs, or custom-house passes, under the seals and signatures of his officers, for all goods exported from his dominions to the dominions of the Company, specifying the quantity of the goods and the valuation on which his own export duties shall have been levied. The Right Honorable Earl Cornwallis, in like manner, engages that similar Rowannahs, or custom-house passes, shall be granted for all goods exported from the Company's dominions (comprehending the provinces of Bengal, Bahar, Orissa, and the district of Benares), to the dominions of His

His Excellency the Vizier, specifying the quantity of the goods, and the valuation on which the duties shall have been levied in the dominions of the Company. A.D. 1788 Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

ARTICLE III.

His Excellency the Vizier, &c. agrees to levy the duties on all goods imported into his territories from the Company's dominions, upon the valuation specified in the Company's Rowannah. The Right Honorable Earl Cornwallis, &c. agrees to levy the duties on all goods imported from his Excellency's dominions into the district of Benares or the Company's provinces, on the valuation specified in the Rowannah of his Excellency the Nawab Vizier.

ARTICLE IV.

Goods exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of His Excellency the Vizier, if by the river Ganges, shall pay the duties at Lutchagyr, or at Foolpore; if by the river Goomty, at Ghura Mobarikpore; if by the river Gogra, at Doohry Gaut; if by land, at Keeway, Maidnee Gunge, Chaundahpertaubpore, Mow, or Mahraj Gunge; and if by the way of Sircar Gooruckpore, at the Gaut of the river Gunduck, or at Gooruckpore, Mujholee, or Chollooparah. The merchant, or person, in charge of the goods, upon paying the duties herein after mentioned at either of the above stations, shall receive a Rowannah from the Collector of the duties, under his public seal, which shall exempt the goods from all further demands or molestation whatever, in their progress through the dominions of his Excellency.

The duties on goods exported from the dominions of his Excellency the Vizier to the dominions of the Company, whether by land or water, shall be levied at the established stations in the district of Benares, and the province of Behar, and Rowannahs granted as above specified.

The contracting parties reserve to themselves the power of changing the situation of the stations for levying the duties as they may deem expedient, upon giving public notification to each other of the new station fixed upon.

ARTICLE V.

Broad cloth, iron, copper, lead, manufactures of iron, copper, lead, gold or silver, raw-silk, silk piece goods, cotton piece goods, and piece goods made partly of silk and partly of cotton, exported from the dominions of the Company to the dominions of the Vizier, shall pay an import duty of two and a half per cent. to his Excellency, on the price specified in the Rowannah taken out in the Company's dominions.

ARTICLE VI.

Salt exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of the Nawab Vizier, shall pay an import duty of five per cent. to his Excellency, on the valuation specified in the Rowannah granted at any of the stations in the Company's dominions.

ARTICLE

Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

ARTICLE VII.

Cotton coming from Jahlone, Hydernuggur, Omraowty, Naugpore, or any of the countries of the Decan, and passing through the dominions of the Nawab Vizier to the dominions of the Company, shall pay a duty of five per cent. to his Excellency, on the fixed valuation of six Rupees per Maund of ninety-six Sicca Weight to the Seer. Rowannahs for covering the same through his Excellency's dominions, shall be granted at the station where the duties are levied. The same cotton, when it arrives in the province of Benares, shall pay a duty of two and a half per cent., and two and a half per cent. more on entering the Soubah of Behar, upon the valuation above specified; or, should it not pass through the jurisdiction of Benares, it shall pay five per cent. upon being imported into the Company's provinces.

ARTICLE VIII.

Silk Piece Goods, Cotton Piece Goods, and Piece Goods made partly of Silk and partly of Cotton, exported from the dominions of the Nawab Vizier to the Company's dominions, shall pay a duty of no more than two and a half per cent. on the price specified in His Excellency's Rowannah. The said duty shall be collected at the established station in Benares, should the Goods pass through that district, and upon their arrival in the Company's Provinces, the Collectors of the Customs shall grant a Rowannah, duty free, to cover such goods to any part of Bengal, Behar, or Orissa. Should the said Goods enter the Company's provinces without passing through the district of Benares, the above duty of two and a half per cent. shall be levied at the first station in the Company's provinces.

ARTICLE IX.

All Goods not specified in the foregoing Articles, exported from the respective dominions of the contracting parties, shall be subject to a duty of five per cent. on the valuation inserted in the Rowannah of the country from whence they were originally exported. If the goods shall have been exported from the Company's dominions to the dominions of the Nawab Vizier, his Excellency will collect the duty aforesaid, at one of the stations mentioned in the third article; if from the territories of his Excellency to the dominions of the Company, two and a half per cent. shall be levied at the first established station in the district of Benares, and two and a half per cent. at the first atuhorized station in the province of Behar; or should the said goods enter the Company's provinces without passing through the jurisdiction of Benares, the whole duty of five per cent. shall be collected at the first authorized station in the province of Behar.

ARTICLE X.

Goods exported from the provinces of Bengal, Behar, or Orissa, or from the district of Benares to the dominions of the Nawab Vizier, after having paid the import duties to his Excellency, according to the rates, and in the mode prescribed in the foregoing articles, if sold in the dominions of the Nawab Vizier, shall be subject to the established local duties of the Market or Gunge, in which they are disposed of. Provided, nevertheless, that if the said goods shall be sold for the purpose of being exported beyond the confines of his Excellency's dominions, and not for the consumption of the same, no local Gunge or market duty, or any other duty whatsoever, shall be levied on account of such sale or purchase; but the import Rowannah of the seller shall be indorsed by the Collector, or head officer in charge of such Gunge, and delivered over to the purchaser, who shall transport the Goods through the dominions of the Nawab Vizier, without further molestation. If such purchaser, however, should afterwards dispose of the said goods for consumption in any market or Gunge in his Excellency's territories, they shall be subject to the established duties of the same. In like manner, goods exported from the dominions of his Excellency to the dominions of the Company, after having paid the import duty in the latter, according to the rates, and in the mode prescribed in the foregoing articles; if sold in any Gunge or market, shall be subject to the local Gunge or market duties under the preceding limitations. A.D. 1788 Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

The Gunge duties to be thus levied, are not to exceed the ancient established rates, to which no addition shall be made without the mutual consent of the contracting parties.

ARTICLE XI.

If any Renter, Zemindar, Collector of the Revenues, Jaghiredar, or Holder of rent free lands, shall levy any duties or exactions on goods passing through the dominions of the contracting parties, and on which the regular duties shall have been paid, and Rowannahs taken out as prescribed in the foregoing articles, for the first offence, he shall be fined twenty Rupees for every Rupee so exacted; for the second offence, forty Rupees; and for the third offence, if a Renter or Collector of the Revenues, he shall be fined one hundred Rupees for every Rupee so exacted, and be dismissed from his farm or employment; if a Zemindar, Jaghiredar, or Rent free land-holder, he shall forfeit his lands. Any Officer of the Customs exacting more than he is authorized, shall for the first offence, be fined ten times the amount so exacted, and be dismissed from his employment. The party injured shall be indemnified out of the fines for the sum so exacted, and it shall be left to the discretion of the contracting powers to grant such further portion of the said fines, as they may deem adequate to the trouble and loss of the party so injured.

ARTICLE XII.

In order to discourage every attempt to evade the payment of the import duties, Merchants endeavouring to pass the station at which they are to pay the same, without having previously taken out a Rowannah, shall be subject to double duties; and the contracting parties agree to issue orders in their respective territories, requiring all persons to pay the duties and take out Rowannahs for their Goods, as directed in the foregoing articles, before they approach an authorized station.

This

A.D. 1788 Asoph-ul-Dowlah.

This article not to extend to the local duties in the markets or Gunges, which are to be collected in the mode, and under the limitations prescribed in the tenth article upon the goods entering the same.

ARTICLE XIII.

The contracting parties reserve to themselves the right of levying whatever duties they may think proper, on all goods produced and consumed within their respective dominions, and also on their own exports, and on all imports from other countries not under the dominion of the Company or the Nawab Vizier, the article of Decan &c. cotton going to the Company's dominions excepted, on which his Excellency is to levy the duties as specified in the seventh Article.

ARTICLE XIV.

If any disputes shall arise between the merchants of the respective states, it shall be decided by the laws of that state in which the defendant may reside. If the defendant be a resident in the Company's dominions, the plaintiff shall be allowed the privilege of stating his case through the Vakeel or agent of the Vizier to the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council, who may refer it for decision to the Provincial Court of Justice within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action may have arisen, or the defendant may reside; in like manner, if the defendant be a resident in the Vizier's dominions, the plaintiff shall be entitled to represent his case through the English Minister to his Excellency the Vizier, who may refer it for decision to such of his officers as he may think proper. It is further agreed, that should the Collectors of the Customs, Zemindars, or other subjects of either state, act in any respect towards the merchants and traders contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Treaty, the party injured shall be entitled to seek redress in the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE XV.

This Treaty not to extend to the province of Rohilchund or Kuttair, in which his Excellency reserves to himself the right of collecting the duties according to the ancient established rates, or of encreasing or diminishing the same as he may deem expedient.

ARTICLE XVI.

His Excellency the Vizier having obtained the consent of the Nawab of Furruckabad to include his territories in this Treaty, and agreed to make him a compensation for any losses he may sustain in his revenues, in consequence of having relinquished his claim to the collection of separate duties on the Decan &c. cotton passing through his territories to the dominions of the Company, and on the exports from the Company's dominions, the territories of the said Nawab are included accordingly, and as far as concerns the operation of this Treaty, are to be considered, in every respect, upon the same footing as a province of the dominions of his Excellency the Vizier.

Copy of a Letter from Earl Cornwallis to the Nizam, deemed equal to a Treaty, written 7th July, 1789.

The Nizam.

Your Highness's letter, containing strong expressions of friendship, was presented to me by Meer Abul Cossim, and has afforded me the most inexpressible satisfaction. I have perfectly understood all the matters entrusted to the verbal communication of Meer Abul Cossim, and the sincere and friendly sentiments which I have discovered your Highness to be impressed with towards me, have induced me to shew the confidence I place in your Highness's declaration, by candid and explicit conversations with Meer Abul Cossim, on subjects of the highest importance; and as they all of them have tendency to strengthen and encrease our friendship, I shall communicate, without reserve, to your Highness, what has occurred to me relative to them.

It was with no small concern, I found, on my arrival in charge of the control of all the Company's affairs, that one of the eventual and most essential points of the Treaty of friendship and alliance, made in 1768, between your Highness and the Company, remained unexecuted on both sides, viz. the surrender of the Guntoor Sircar to the Company, and the regular discharge of your Highness's demand for the Peishcush, from the Company. Anxious, notwithstanding, that by urging the due performance of this article, I should not intrude on your Highness, while engaged in pursuits of importance, I postponed all negociations on the subject, until I was convinced that your Highness, uninterrupted by war, had full leisure to consider the propriety of the performance of this article of the Treaty, and until you might have had sufficient opportunity to put implicit confidence in my assurances, for the punctual discharge of the Peishcush for the northern Sircars. I then deputed Captain Kennaway to your Highness's court, with instructions to make the demand of the Guntoor Sircar, by virtue of the Treaty of 1768; to assure your Highness of my firm intention to discharge the balances, upon fair statement, due to your Highness on account of the Peishcush, and to impress you with the sincerity of my intentions for its regular payment hereafter.

I have already expressed my satisfaction at your Highness's immediate compliance to deliver up the Guntoor Sirkar to the Company, and have assured your Highness of my firm intention to persevere in a strict system of faith to engagements; and now, with such a proof of the sincerity of your Highness's friendship and good faith, I have, from a desire to testify to your Highness that I am impressed with similar sentiments, entered into a full discussion of every article with Meer Abul Cossim, in order that such parts of it as are undefined, and bear an obscure and doubtful meaning, may be so explained, as shall preclude every necessity of future discussion, remove all grounds of misunderstanding, and give stability and permanency to that friendship, which now subsists between us. A.D. 1789 The Nizam.

In adopting this rule of conduct, I do no more than fulfil the intention of the King of England and the British Nation, who, by the system lately established for the Government of this country, had in view the important end of giving efficacy to the existing Treaties between the English and the Powers of Hindostan, and of securing a due performance thereof in future. This communication, I am persuaded, will fully satisfy your Highness of the propriety of my declining the proposal of Meer Abul Cossim, for entering into a new security for the discharge of the Peishcush, by mortgaging a portion of the Sircars, considering, as I do, the faith of the English Nation pledged for the due payment of it.

In proof of the sincerity of my intentions, that the Treaty should be carried into full effect, I agree that, in the sixth article of the Treaty, the words, "whenever the situation "of affairs will allow of such a body of troops to march into the Decan," shall be understood to mean, that the force engaged for by this article, viz. two battalions of Seapoys and six pieces of cannon, manned by Europeans, shall be granted, whenever your Highness shall apply for it, making only one exception, that it is not to be employed against any power in alliance with the Company, viz. Pundit Pirdhaun Peishwa, Ragojee Bhoosla, Madajee Scindia, and the other Mahratta Chiefs, the Nawaub of Arcot, and Nawaub Vizier, Rajahs of Tanjore and Travancore. That the battalions at present not defined in number, shall not consist of less than eight hundred men each. That the six field-pieces shall be manned with the number of Europeans which is usual in time of war. That the expense to be charged to your Highness shall be no more than the exact sum which it costs the Company to maintain a body of that force, when employed on service in the field, and that this expence be as per separate account. That this detachment shall march within two months, or sooner if possible, after it is demanded, and your Highness shall be charged with the expense of it, from the day it enters your Highness's territories until it quits them on its return to the Company's; with the addition of one month, at the average calculation of the whole amount, in order to defray the charges the Company must necessarily incur, to put such a force in state fit for service.

I have so fully discussed the articles of the Treaty that relate to the Nawaub of Arcot and the Carnatic, on the representation of Meer Abul Cossim, that a mere reference to

A.D. 1789 The Nizam. the articles themselves will inform your Highness of the full force of my arguments: and although the long existing friendship between the Nawaub and the Company might be urged, as farther ground for declining the proposal of Meer Abul Cossim, his right to the possession of the Carnatic Payenghaut is fully established and admitted, by the seventh and eighth articles, and papers appertaining to them; there can therefore be no necessity for troubling your Highness with other reasons.

In regard to the articles relative to the Dewanny of the Carnatic Ballagaut, your Highness must be well convinced, that circumstances have totally prevented the execution of these articles, and the Company are in the full enjoyment of peace with all the world; but should it hereafter happen, that the Company should obtain possession of the country mentioned in these articles, with your Highness's assistance, they will strictly perform the stipulations in favour of your Highness and the Mahrattas. Your Highness must be well assured, that while treaties of peace and friendship exist with any chief, negociations that tend to deprive that chief of any part of his possessions, unprovoked on his part, must naturally create suspicions in his mind, unfavourable to the reputation of your Highness and to the character of the Company, since the only grounds on which such negociations could be carried on rest on a Treaty existing upwards of twenty years, the execution of which is yet unclaimed, and since no provocation has hitherto been made to justify a breach in the present peaceable and amicable understanding between each other.

As I am at all times desirous, that such circumstances as carry with them impediment and hindrance to good order and government, without bearing the smallest advantage to either side, should be so changed, as to produce the good effects expected from treaties, and as the affairs of both parties might suffer great injury from being excluded from corresponding with the other powers of the Decan, I agree that, in future, either party, without a breach of treaty, shall be at liberty to receive or send Vakeels to correspond with any powers in the Decan, in such manner as may be expedient for the benefit of their own affairs, under the condition, that the object of such intercourse or correspondence be not hostile to either of the governments.

I have, in many instances, as well through Captain Kennaway as to Meer Abul Cossim, and in the first part of this letter, declared my firm intention to execute the Treaty of 1768, and to live in perpetual amity and friendship with your Highness, and your Highness will be convinced, from the explanations I have given to those articles in the Treaty of ambiguous and obscure meaning, that I am earnestly desirous of the adjustment of every matter, on grounds fair and liberal. But it is necessary, in consideration sideration of the subjects of conversation with Meer Abul Cossim, that I should point out to your Highness, that unless just cause should be given for entering into new treaties, the laws of my country, the injunctions of the King and Company of England, as well as the faith and honor of the English, prohibit me from entering into any negociation to make new Treaties; and I have confined my conferences with Meer Abul Cossim to the explanation of that made in 1768, with a view to a more perfect execution of it. On this account, I have not judged proper to comply with such requests as have been made by Meer Abul Cossim, that in any shape tend to alter the spirit of that treaty. A farther argument to impress your Highness with the propriety of this determination, is the sanction and support of His Majesty and the Company of England to those measures that coincide with their instructions. I have mentioned this circumstance, merely to assure your Highness of the strength of my assertions, and the value of my engagements, in regard to the Guntoor Sircar, and the other articles of the Treaty; and I trust, that this clear explanation of the ambiguous articles of the Treaty will render it effectual, and will afford your Highness a convincing proof of the Company's determination to adhere to the faith of it. A.D. 1789 The Nizam.

Although I have not agreed to enter into a new Treaty with your Highness through Meer Abul Cossim, for the reasons above assigned, yet your Highness, in consideration of the authority vested in me, by the King and Parliament of England, will consider my letter, though merely purporting a clear explanation of the several articles in the Treaty of 1768, strong and efficient upon the English Governments in India, equally so as a Treaty in due form could be, since the Members of the Council have given their cheerful acquiescence to its contents.

For further particulars of my sentiments, I beg leave to refer your Highness to Meer Abul Cossim, whom I have considered, during this negociation, as faithfully attached to your Highness, fully acquainted with your Highness's interests, and your most confidential servant, empowered to settle any agreement for the mutual benefit of the two Governments. I have, accordingly, communicated to him, without reserve, all that has occurred to me on the subject of the elucidation of the Treaty of 1768, in the same manner as if your Highness were present; nevertheless, as your Highness's concurrence and approbation are necessary to give a final sanction to the articles discussed, I have thought proper to mention them in this letter. For the rest, your Highness may have the most assured confidence, that I will most faithfully abide by all the engagements I have entered into on the part of the Company.

The friendship subsisting between the states, agreeable to former Treaties, shall be encreased by this.

ARTICLE II.

Tippoo Sultaun having engagements with the contracting parties, has, notwithstanding, acted with infidelity to them all, for which reason they have united in a league, that, to the utmost of their power, they may punish him, and deprive him of the means of disturbing the general tranquillity in future.

ARTICLE III.

This undertaking being resolved on, it is agreed, that on Mr. Malet's annunciation to Pundit Purdhan, of the actual commencement of hostilities between the Honorable Company's forces and the said Tippoo, and on Captain Kennaway's announcing the same to the Nabob Asof Jah, the forces of the said Pundit Purdhan and Nabob Asof Jah, in number number not less than twenty-five thousand, but as many more, and as much greater an equipment as may be, shall immediately invade the territories of the said Tippoo, and reduce as much of his dominions as possible, before and during the rains; and after that season, the said Pundit Purdhan and Nabob will seriously and vigorously prosecute the war with a potent army, well appointed and equipped with the requisite warlike apparatus. A.D. 1790 The Peshwa and Nyzam.

ARTICLE IV.

The Nabob Asof Jah being furnished with two battalions of the Honorable Company's forces, Pundit Purdhan shall have an option of being joined by an equal force, on the same terms, during the present war against Tippoo. On the said two battalions joining the Mahratta army, Pundit Purdhan agrees to allot two thousand horse to remain and act in concert with them. But in the event of urgent service, on which cavalry alone can be employed, one thousand of the said cavalry may be detached thereon, one thousand remaining constantly with the battalions, whose pay shall be defrayed regularly, in ready money, every month, in the army or in Poona, at the option of Mr. Malet.

ARTICLE VI.

From the time of the said battalions entering Pundit Purdhan's territories, an Agent, on the part of the said Pundit Purdhan, shall be ordered to attend the Commander, to execute such service as may occur.

The pay of the said cavalry to be defrayed monthly, by the Honorable Company, at the rate, and on the conditions hereafter to be settled.

ARTICLE VIII.

If, in the prosecution of the war by the three allies, the enemy should gain a superiority over either, the others shall, to the utmost of their power, exert themselves to relieve the said party and distress the enemy.

In the general partition of territory, forts, &c. due attention shall be paid to the wishes and convenience of the parties, relatively to their respective frontiers.

ARTICLE X.

The underwritten Polygars and Zemindars being dependent on Pundit Purdhan and the Nabob Asoph Jah, it is agreed that on their territories, forts, &c. falling into the hands of any of the Allies, they shall be re-established therein, and the Nuzeranah that shall be fixed on that occasion shall be equally divided amongst the Allies: but, in future, Pundit Purdhan and the Nabob Asof Jah shall collect from them, the usual Kundnee and Peshcush which have been heretofore annually collected. And should the said Polygars and Zemindars act unfaithfully towards Pundit Purdhan or the Nabob, or prove refractory in the discharge of their Kundnee and Peshcush, the said Pundit Purdhan and Nabob are to be at liberty to treat them as may be judged proper. TREATY of COMMERCE with Nepaul, 1st March, 1792.

A.D. 1792 The Rajah of Nepaul.

TREATY authenticated under the Seal of Maha Rajah Run Behader Shah Behader Shumshire Jung, being according to the Treaty transmitted by Mr. Jonathan Duncan, the Resident at Benares, on the Part of the Right Honorable Charles Earl Cornwallis, K. G. Governor-General in Council, and empowered by the said Authority to conclude a Treaty of Commerce with the said Maha Rajah, and to settle and fix the Duties payable by the Subjects of the respective States of the Honorable English Company and those of Nepaul, the said Gentleman charging himself with whatever relates to the Duties thus to be payable by the Subjects of the Nepaul Government to that of the Company, in like manner as hath the aforesaid Maha Rajah, with whatever regards the Duties thus to be payable by the Subjects of the Company's Government to that of Nepaul: and the said Treaty, having been delivered to me (the said Maha Rajah) by Mowlavy Abdul Kadir Khan, the aforesaid Gentleman's Vakeel, or Agent, this Counterpart, thereof, having been written by the Nepaul Government, hath been committed to the said Khan, as here-under detailed.

ARTICLE I.

Inasmuch as an attention to the general welfare and to the ease and satisfaction of the merchants and traders, tends equally to the reputation of the administrators of both the Governments of the Company and of Nepaul, it is therefore agreed and stipulated, that two and a half per cent. shall reciprocally be taken, as duty, on the imports from both countries; such duties to be levied on the amount of the invoices of the goods which the merchants shall have along with them. And to deter the said traders from exhibiting false invoices, the seal of the custom-houses of both countries shall be impressed on the back of the said invoices, and a copy thereof being kept, the original shall be restored to the merchants; and in cases where the merchant shall not have along with him his original invoice, the custom-house officers shall, in such instance, lay the duty of two and a half per cent. on a valuation, according to the market price.

ARTICLE II.

The opposite stations, hereunder specified, within the frontiers of each country, are fixed for the duties to be levied, at which place the traders are to pay the same; and after having having once paid duties, and receiving a Rowannah thereon, no other or farther duty shall be payable throughout each country or dominion respectively. A.D. 1792 The Rajah of Nepaul.

ARTICLE III.

Whoever among the officers, on either side, shall exceed in his demands for, or exaction of duty, the rate here specified, shall be exemplarily punished by the Government to which he belongs, so as effectually to deter others from like offences.

ARTICLE IV.

In the case of theft or robberies happening on the goods of the merchants, the Foujedar, or officer of the place, shall, advising his superiors or government thereof, speedily cause the Zemindars and proprietors of the spot to make good the value, which is, in all cases, without fail, to be so made good to the merchants.

ARTICLE V.

In cases where, in either country, any oppression or violence be committed on any merchant, the officers of the country wherein this may happen shall, without delay, hear and enquire into the complaints of the persons thus aggrieved, and doing them justice, bring the offenders to punishment.

ARTICLE VI.

When the merchants of either country, having paid the established duty, shall have transported their goods into the dominions of one or the other state, if such goods be sold within such state, it is well; but if such goods not meeting with sale, and that the said merchants be desirous to transport their said goods to any other country, beyond the limits of either of the respective states included in the Treaty, the subjects and officers of these latter shall not take thereon any other or farther duty, than the fixed one levied at the first entry; and are not to exact double duties, but are to allow such goods to depart in all safety without opposition.

ARTICLE VII.

This Treaty shall be of full force and validity, in respect to the present and future rulers of both governments; and being considered on both sides as a Commercial Treaty, and a basis of concord between the two states, is to be, at all times, observed and acted upon in times to come, for the public advantage and the encrease of friendship.

On the 5th of Rejeb, 1206 of the Hegiree, and 1199 of the Fussilee Style, agreeing with the 1st of March, 1792 of the Christian, and with the 22d of Phagun, 1848 of the Sumbut Æra, two Treaties, to one tenor, were written for both the contracting Parties, who have mutually engaged that, from the 3d Bysack, 1849 of the Sumbut Æra, the officers of both states shall, in pursuance of the strictest orders of both Governments, immediately carry into effect and observe the stipulations aforesaid, and not wait for any further or new direction.

COMMERCIAL AGREEMENT with the Rajah of Assam, 1793.

Translation of a new System of Commerce adopted by the Maha Rajah Surgy Deo, Assam, 28th February, 1793.

A.D. 1793 The Rajah of Assam.

The Maha Rajah Surgy Deo, highly sensible of the benefit he has experienced from the aid which has been afforded to him by the English Government, and desirous, not only of cementing the harmony and friendship which subsists between him and that power, but also of extending the beneficial effects threof, in general, to the subjects of Bengal and Assam, has, at the recommendation of Captain Welsh, the Representative at his court of the said English Government, agreed to abolish the injudicious system of commerce which has heretofore been pursued, and to adopt in its stead the following plan (liable, however, to such alterations and amendments as occasions may require) for the mutual benefit and comfort of the subjects of both countries.

ARTICLE I.

That there shall henceforth be a reciprocal and entire liberty of commerce between the subjects of Bengal and those of Assam, for all and singular goods and merchandizes, on the conditions, and in such manner as is settled in the following rules.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1793.

The Rajah of Assam.

ARTICLE II.

That to facilitate this free intercourse between the subjects of both nations, those of Bengal, on fulfilling the conditions hereafter prescribed, be permitted to proceed with their boats loaded with merchandize into Assam, and to expose their goods for sale, at any place, or in any manner may best suit their purposes, without being subject to any other duties than are established by these articles.

ARTICLE III.

That a regular impost be levied on all goods or merchandizes, whether of export or import, and that these duties be fixed as follows.

Imports.

1. That the salt of Bengal be subject to an impost of ten per cent. on the supposed prime cost, reckoning that invariably at five hundred Rupees per hundred Maunds, of eighty-four Sicca-weight to the Seer.

2. That the broad cloths of Europe, the cotton cloths of Bengal, carpets, copper, lead, tin, tutanague, pearls, hardware, jewellery, spices, and the various other goods imported into Assam, pay an equal impost of ten per cent. on the invoice price.

3. That warlike implements and military stores be considered contraband, and liable to confiscation, excepting the supplies of these articles which may be required for the Company's troops stationed in Assam, which, and every other matter of convenience for the said troops, whether of clothing or provisions, are in all cases to be exempt from duties.

Exports.

1. That the duties to be levied on all articles of export (except in such cases as are hereafter mentioned) be invariably ten per cent., reckoning agreeable to the rates hereby annexed to each, viz.

Mooga Dohties (per Maund of eighty-four Sicca-weight to the Sear)		Rupees	95 0
Mooga Thread	Do.		70 0
Pepper	Do.
Elephants' Teeth	Do.		50 0
Cutna Lac	Do.		4 0
Chuprah and Jung Lac	Do.		3 8
Monjeet	Do.		4 0
Cotton	Do.

2. That

A.D. 1793
The Rajah of Assam.

2. That all articles of export not herein specified (with the exception of the following) and for which no certain calculation can be made, be subject to an equal impost, in such instances always to be paid in kind; and with respect to those articles which have been particularized, that the duties be received either in money or kind, as may be most convenient to the merchant: but as it may happen, that a temporary scarcity of grain may occur, either in Bengal or Assam, to provide against which, rice and every description of grain be exempt from duties.

ARTICLE IV.

That any person or persons detected in attempting to defraud the Surgy Deo of the duties hereby established, shall be liable to a confiscation of his or their property, and for ever after debarred the privilege of the trade.

ARTICLE V.

That for the purpose of collecting the said duties, agents be appointed, and custom-houses established: for the present, one at the Candahar Chokey, and one at Gwahatty.

ARTICLE VI.

That it be the business of the agents to be stationed at the Candahar Chokey, to collect the duties on all imports and on all exports, the produce of the country to the westward of Gwahatty, for which they are to be held responsible. They are to examine all boats passing up and down the river, and after having settled with the proprietor for the amount of the duties, they are to grant him a passport, specifying the number and quantity of each article, a copy of which they are to forward, without delay, to the agents at Gwahatty, whither, or further if it be necessary, the merchant may proceed, under sanction of the said pass.

ARTICLE VII.

That it be the business of the agents stationed at Gwahatty to collect the duties on all exports, the produce of the country parallel to it, north and south, and also on all exports the produce of the country to the eastward, as far as Nowgong, for which, in like manner, they are to be held responsible. They are to examine all boats passing down the river, and to grant passports to the proprietors, copies of which to be forwarded to the agents at the Candahar Chokey, who are to examine the cargo, lest on the way between Gwahatty and their station, the merchant may have taken goods on board, which could not be specified in the pass granted at that place.

ARTICLE VIII.

That as an incitement to the agents to be industrious in the discharge of their duty, a recompence be made to them, bearing a proportion to the amount of the collections, and that, for the present, it be fixed at twelve per cent. on the said collections, which is calculated to defray all incidental expences.

ARTICLE

A.D.1793
The Rajah of Assam.

ARTICLE IX.

That the said agents be required to be sureties for each other, and that the whole be bound by engagements to the Surgy Deo, not only for the purity of their conduct in the collections, but also that they abstain from having any concern, either directly or indirectly, in trade.

ARTICLE X.

That a copy of their accounts be produced, on or before the 10th of every month; and that the payment of the collections be made into the hands of any person the Surgy Deo may appoint to receive it, at the expiration of every quarter.

ARTICLE XI.

That the standard weight hereafter, both for exports and imports, be forty Seers to the Maund, and eighty-four Sicca-weight to the Seer.

ARTICLE XII.

That as much political inconvenience might arise to both Governments from granting a general licence to the subjects of Bengal to settle in Assam, no European merchant or adventurer, of any description, be allowed to fix their residence in Assam, without having previously obtained the permission of the English Government and that of the Surgy Deo.

ARTICLE XIII.

That as Captain Welsh, the representative of the said English Government, in consideration of the Surgy Deo having removed the prohibitory restrictions which have hitherto existed, to the detriment of a free intercourse, has signified his intention of bringing to punishment all persons from Bengal offending against the established laws of Assam, or infringing these articles, so the Surgy Deo, on his part, declares he will punish all abuses in his subjects, tending to obstruct or discourage the reciprocal intercourse this system is designed to promote.

ARTICLE XIV.

That copies of these articles be affixed at every public place throughout Assam, that none may plead ignorance, and that Captain Welsh be requested to send one officially to this Government.

Captain.

Moreover, in the Birman year 1157, and the 26th of the Birman month Saundecoup, or the 26th of the Mussulman month Rubbi-ul-awal, the royal mandate came forth to the following effect: 1795—96 King of Ava.

At the Chokey called Keouptaloom, boats returning from the capital shall pay one Mima, or one Anna and an half.

At the Chokey called Muggoe, if the breadth of the boat be four cubits, for each cubit twelve Annas, or three Tackal in all, shall be paid. But if it be less than four cubits, one Tackal shall be paid for every thousand Viss weight of Goods; and if the boat be empty, then shall one Mima, or four Annas, be paid for each man.

At the Chokey called Pulloe, if the breadth be four cubits, six Mima, or ten Annas, shall be paid for each cubit; and if the boat exceeds, or is under four cubits, the same rate shall be paid: and if the boat be laden with heavy commodities, then shall one Tackal be taken for every thousand Viss.

At the Chokey called Puttoo the custom taken shall be, for each cubit in breadth, three Mima or twelve Annas.

At the Chokey called Keounzelee, and the Chokey called Nawalee, no duty is to be exacted. Yet some trifle should be given, by way of present; but no boat is to be stopped or impeded.

At the Chokey called Tow, where the duty formerly was levied in lead, it shall now be levied in silver; that is, one Tackal shall be paid by each boat, for every thousand Viss burthen.

At the Chokey called Trongmeow, if the boat be four cubits in breadth, two hundred and fifty Tackal of lead (about ten Annas) shall be paid for each cubit; but if the boat be less than four cubits, then shall three Viss and thirty Tackal of lead be taken for the whole (something less than a Rupee.)

At the Chokey called Bameu, boats shall pay six Mima, or ten Annas, for each cubit in breadth.

At

1795—96 King of Ava.

At the Chokey called Ackeo there is no established duty; but from boats laden with rice, salt, fish, and Nappee, it is customary to give some trifle.

At the Chokey called Henzawa, if a boat carries ten boatmen, besides the steersman, for each of such boatmen thirty-five Tackal of lead shall be paid, but the steersman shall pay nothing. If a boat be laden with rice, dhall, paddy, barley, kengid, or cotton, then shall the boat, so laden, pay a quarter of a basket of such commodity; and if a boat be laden with heavy articles, such as salt, fish, and Nappee, four Viss of such heavy commodity shall be exacted from each boat. And when a boat going down pays these duties, no duties shall be required of the same boat returning; and the reverse, a boat that has paid the duty shall not be taxed going down, some trifling present will be proper.

At the Chokey called Denoubeou, if the breadth of the boat be four cubits, such boat shall pay two hundred and fifty Tackal of lead; if under that size, for each boatman fifty Tackal.

At the Chokey called Yangansea, and the Chokey called Panglang, on the north side, no duty is to be paid, but a Tray is to be given (meaning a trifling present, not more than the value of a Rupee.)

In the Birman year 1145, a mandate was issued from the Register of the Golden Palace, that foreign merchants should have liberty to come to the capital (Golden Feet) without paying duties; nevertheless, in returning they shall pay agreeable to the rates specified in the royal mandate issued from the Durbar of the Golden Palace, nor shall more or less be demanded or accepted: but to the Chokey of Yangansea on the north side, and the Chokey Panglang on the north side, and the Chokey Koongee, and the Chokey of Loungee, no authority is granted from the Golden Palace to exact duties, and none on any pretence are to be required or received.

Whereas the Governor General of the Company, at Calcutta in Bengal, having deputed Captain Michael Symes with presents to the Golden Feet, who requests liberty for merchants to purchase, load, and take away timber, according to established and authorized custom, therefore merchants of the English nation, desirous of transporting rafts of timber down the river, shall have liberty to carry from towns and villages such timber. TREATY with the Rajah of Travancore, as originally proposed by the Government of Bombay, and afterwards amended and finally concluded and ratified, by the Governor General in Council of Bengal, 1797.

A.D. 1797 Rajah of Travancore. PROPOSED TERMS for a TREATY of future perpetual Friendship, Alliance, and Subsidy, between the Honorable East-India Company and Rajah Ram Raje Behauder, the reigning Rajah of Travancore, concerted between the Honorable Jonathan Duncan, Esq. Governor of Bombay, on the part of the Honorable Sir John Shore, Baronet, the Governor General in Council of Fort William in Bengal, in virtue of the Powers vested in him by the King and Parliament of Great Britain, and by the East-India Company, to direct and controul the political Affairs of all the Company's Settlements in India, on the one Part, and the said reigning Rajah of Travancore, on the other.

In consideration of the Rajah's application to the Bengal Government, in the month of September, 1793, to have a permanent Treaty concluded with the English East-India Company, Company to settle and fix the terms of their old friendship and alliance, and for the defence of his country against foreign enemies, the result is contained in the following articles: A.D. 1797 Rajah of Travancore.

ARTICLE I.

Before the breaking out of the last war between the Honorable Company and Tippoo Sultan, the three Talooks of Paroor, Alungaar, and Hoonutnaar, made part of the Rajah of Travancore's country, and having by the said Sultan been included in his cessions to the Honorable Company by the Treaty of Peace of the 18th of March, 1792, the said Company do, in view to their ancient friendship with, and the plea of right preferred by the Rajah of Travancore, renounce every claim that they may have had to the Talooks in question, and all the said three Talooks are accordingly left on the former footing, as part of the said Rajah's country.

ARTICLE II.

If any power or states, near or remote, by sea or land, shall, without aggression on the part of the Rajah of Travancore, attempt or begin hostility and war upon the country of the said Rajah, or his successors, under such circumstances the expulsion of, and the protection of the country against such enemies, rest with the Company's Government.

ARTICLE III.

In consideration of the stipulation in the second article, the Rajah of Travancore doth engage, for himself and his successors, to pay annually, at Anjengo, both in peace and war, a sum equivalent to the expence of three of the Honorable Company's battalions of Sepoys, together with a Company of European artillery, and two companies of Lascars.

ARTICLE IV.

The Company stipulate, that this force of infantry and artillery shall, if the Rajah desire it, always be stationed in his country, or on the frontiers near it, or in any other part, within the Company's possessions, where he shall prefer, and they shall always be in readiness. And in respect to such requisitions as the Rajah and his successors may have occasion to address to the officer in command of these troops, to proceed to act against foreign enemies, who shall have invaded the said Rajah's country, it is proper that such commanding officer stand previously furnished with instructions from the Government of that Presidency whence he shall have been detached, or otherwise he is, immediately on such requisition, to procure instructions, and the sanction of his said superiors, for repelling such invasion; but in the event of the Rajah's country being so unexpectedly invaded by an enemy, that the urgency of the danger, or attack from without, shall not admit of deferring the necessary operations, till the orders of the Government of such Presidency can be received, the commanding officer is, under such circumstances, to apply immediately, and without objection, the force under his command to the defence and protection of the Rajah and his successors. And should it so happen, that the aforesaid force, and the Rajah's own army, be at any time found unequal to cope with, and defend the country against the superior force of the enemy, the expence of such further troops, as it may be necessary and requisite for the Company to furnish in such instances, is to be altogether at the said Company's cost; nor shall their Government anywise object to furnish such additional force, the expence of which shall, in no respect, be chargeable on the Rajah or his successors, nor shall the Company ever apply for, or demand any sum on that account, nor possess any plea or claim to make any further requisition for pecuniary aid from the Rajah or his successors, by reason of any warfare or hostility that may hereafter eventually occur.

ARTICLE V.

As the Company do only engage to defend and protect the country dependent on the Rajah of Travancore against unprovoked attacks, it is therefore to be clearly and distinctly understood between the parties, that the Rajahs, present and future, are not to commit any hostile aggression towards any other state, whether Indian or European; and in the event of the Rajah or his successors having any disputes of a political nature or tendency, it is necessary that the same shall be transmitted by the latter to the Honorable Company's Government, who will determine thereon, according to justice and policy, and mutual concert.

ARTICLE VI.

The reigning Rajah of Travancore for the time being shall not keep in his service, in any civil or military capacity, nor allow to remain within his dominions, as merchants, or under any other plea or pretext, the subjects or citizens of any nation being at war with Great Britain or with the East-India Company; nor, under any circumstances of peace or war, allow any European nation to obtain settlements (i. e. territory, or places under their own authority) within the same, nor enter into any new engagements with any European or Indian states, without the previous concurrence of the British Government in India.

ARTICLE VII.

When the Company shall require of the Rajah of Travancore any aid of his troops to assist them in war, it shall be incumbent on the said reigning Rajah, for the time being to furnish such aid, to such extent, and in such numbers, as may be in his power, from his regular infantry and cavalry, exclusive of the native Nyrs of his country; which succours, thus furnishable by the Rajah, as far as shall be consistent with the safety of his own country, shall be liable to be employed as far, by the Company's Government, on either side of the Peninsula, as to Madura and Calicut, and to be, during such service, at the Company's expence, and under their orders.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE VIII.

A.D. 1797
Rajah of Travancore.

That the pepper contract with the Company shall continue in perpetuity, liable, however, after the expiration of the period of the existing contract, to such modifications, as to price, period, or quantity, as may, from time to time, be agreed upon between the parties.

ARTICLE IX.

The Company engage not to impede, in anywise, the course of the rule, or of the administration of the Rajah of Travancore's Government, nor at all to possess themselves, or enter upon any part of what regards the management of the present Rajah's or his successors' country. At the same time it is provided, that all the former agreements between the Honorable Company and the Rajahs of Travancore, relative to the settlements of Anjengo and Eddova, or Erowa, and to the Company's privileges, in respect to trade, throughout the Rajah's dominions, remain in full force, according to the practice hitherto: and as, otherwise, the object of this Treaty is principally to provide for the purposes of external defence, it bears therefore no reference whatever to the Rajah's situation, as a tributary to the Carnatic, concerning which the Rajah of Travancore doth, in the sincerity of his heart, of his own accord, acknowledge and declare, that in the line of his firm fealty, as from of old established, towards the Sircar of the Soobah of Arcot, there shall never occur any difference or deviation.

ARTICLE X.

All unsettled claims of a pecuniary nature, which the contracting parties may have had upon each other, relative to warlike expences, up t[illegible] period of the conclusion of the Treaty of Peace with Tippoo Sultan, under date t[illegible] of March, 1792, shall be cancelled, and declared null and void.

ARTICLE XI.

The Company engage, that none of the Rajahs of Malabar, under their jurisdiction, shall be allowed to commit excesses in the country, or to encroach on the rights of the Rajah of Travancore, or of his successors: and both the contracting parties engage not to give shelter to the rebels, whosoever they may be, of either of the two states, within the country of Malabar, but, on the contrary, to seize on, and mutually to deliver up such persons.

ARTICLE XII.

On the commercial vessels of the said Rajah frequenting any of the ports in India, appertaining to the Honorable Company, they shall obtain every requisite assistance and supply, on paying for the same; and, in like manner, the Honorable Company's ships shall experience the like assistance and supply, in the ports and roads of his country.

This

The amount of the subsidy, under these proposed terms of perpetual Treaty, shall, without fail, be annually paid in cash, at Anjengo, in three equal Kists, or instalments, at the expiration of every four months.

Rajah of Travancore.

ARTICLE II.

The Rajah of Travancore shall, from the 17th of November 1795, or 5th of Cartikee, Malabar style, pay to the Company, in the manner noticed in the third article of the proposed terms of a perpetual Treaty, a sum equivalent to the expense of one battalion of the Honorable Company's Sepoys, which battalion shall be kept ready for his service, whenever he stands in need thereof and shall call for the same, to defend his country against external force; for which defence the Company engage, in the manner, and under the conditions inserted under the fourth and fifth articles of the proposed terms of a perpetual Treaty, under this further clause, that if, during this interval, the said Rajah shall find occasion to call for more than one battalion to his assistance, he is, in such case, to pay to the Honorable Company a sum equal to the expence of two battalions, but no more than for two, for any further force for his defence that may prove necessary.

ARTICLE III.

During the said interval, or until the arrival from Great-Britain of the approval of the proposed terms of a perpetual Treaty, the Rajah of Travancore is to be liable to furnish and maintain at his own expence, on the requisition of the Company's Governor at Bombay or Madras, one complete battalion of his troops, to serve under the command of the British officer, in conjunction with the English forces, on either side, between Madura and Calicut, in garrison or in the field, for such period or periods, within the said interval, as the assistance of the said battalion may be required; and any troops required beyond this battalion, the Rajah is, to the utmost of his ability, to furnish, on the terms and to the extent of the seventh article of the proposed terms of the perpetual Treaty.

This agreement, consisting of three articles, is settled in the neighbourhood of Anjengo, on the 17th of November, 1795, corresponding with the 5th of Cartikee, 971 Malabar style, by the said reigning Rajah of Travancore and Mr. Duncan, by whom a copy thereof shall be sent to the Honorable Sir John Shore, Baronet, Governor General in Council, who on approving thereof is, within two months of this date, to signify his ratification of the same, by a letter from the Governor General to the Rajah Ram Raje Behauder, from the receipt of which letter this engagement is to become finally binding on the contracting parties; and to be in the meantime, or from this date till the expiration of the two months allowed for the receipt of the answer from Bengal, literally observed on both sides. The amount of the subsidy, under this temporary engagement, shall, without fail, be annually paid in cash, in three equal Kists, or instalments, at the expiration of every four months, at Anjengo.

Rajah of Travancore.

Whereas, in the seventh article of the above Treaty, the following words occur, "which succours, thus furnishable by the Rajah, as far as shall be consistent with the "safety of his own country, shall be liable to be employed as far, by the Company's "Government, on either side of the Peninsula, as to Madura and Calicut," and these terms being deemed not sufficiently expressive of the intentions of the contracting parties, they hereby mutually agree, that the words, "and the boundary of the Cavai," be added, immediately after the word, "Calicut," and that accordingly the said article stand as follows:

"ARTICLE VII.

"When the Company shall require of the Rajah of Travancore any aid of his "troops to assist them in war, it shall be incumbent on the said reigning Rajah, for the "time being, to furnish such aid, to such extent, and in such numbers, as may be in "his power, from his regular infantry and cavalry, exclusive of the native Nayers of "his country; which succours, thus furnishable by the Rajah, as far as shall be consistent "with the safety of his own country, shall be liable to be employed, as far, by the "Company's Government, on either side of the Peninsula, as to Madura and Calicut, "and the boundary of the Cavai, and to be, during such service, at the Company's "expence, and under their orders."

In testimony whereof we, the Governor General and the Members of the Supreme Council, have affixed thereto the seal of the said Company, and our signatures, at Fort William in Bengal, the 18th day of the month of May, in the year 1797 of the Christian era.

TREATY between the Nawaub Vizier Saadit Ali Khan Behader, 1798.

Whereas various Treaties have been concluded at different times, between the late Nawab Shujah ud Dowlah Behader, and the Nabob Asoph ud Dowlah Behader and the Honorable the English East-India Company, to the mutual advantage of their respective dominions, the Nawab Vizier ul Momaluck Yemeen ud Dowlah Nazim ul Mulk Saadit Ali Khan Behader Mobârez Jung, and Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the Honorable the East-India Company, with a view to perpetuate the amity subsisting between the two states, and the advantages reciprocally resulting from it, now agree to the following articles: A.D. 1798 Saadit Ali.

ARTICLE I.

That the peace, friendship, and union, so long subsisting between the two states, shall be perpetual. The friends and enemies of either shall be the friends and enemies of both; and the contracting parties agree, that all the former treaties and agreements between the two states, now in force, and not contrary to the tenor of this Engagement, shall be confirmed by it.

ARTICLE II.

By the existing Treaties between the states, the Honorable the East-India Company are bound to defend the dominions of his Highness the Nawab Saadit Ali Khan against all enemies. And with a view to enable them to fulfil this Engagement, and at the same time provide for the protection of their own dominions, the English Company having largely encreased their military establishment, by the addition of new levied regiments, both of infantry and cavalry, the Nawab Saadit Ali Khan, in consideration thereof, agrees, in addition to the annual subsidy paid by the late Nawab Asoph ud Dowlah to the English Company, being fifty-six lacks, seventy-seven thousand, six hundred and thirty-eight Rupees, to pay in perpetuity the further sum of nineteen lacks, twenty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty-two Rupees, making altogether the sum of seventy-six lacks of Rupees. The said Rupees to be Oude Sicca Rupees, of the present weight and standard.

ARTICLE III.

The above subsidy of seventy-six lacks of Oude Sicca Rupees is to commence from the 21st day of January, 1798, the date of the accession of the Nawab Saadit Ali Khan

A.D. 1798 Saadit Ali. to the Musnud of Oude; and the said Nabob engages, that it shall be punctually discharged, month by month, as it becomes due, in sums of six hundred and thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-nine Oude Sicca Rupees, five Anas, four Pice, of the present weight and standard, according to the Kistbundy annexed.

ARTICLE IV.

That the arrears of subsidy due upon former engagements to the 21st of January, 1798, also be immediately discharged.

ARTICLE V.

The Nawab Saadit Ali Khan agrees, that an annual allowance of one lack fifty thousand Oude Sicca Rupees be made to Vizier Ali Khan, and agrees to pay the amount by monthly Kists, of twelve thousand five hundred Rupees, to the English Company, who will pay the same to Vizier Ali Khan, as long as he shall continue to reside in the dominions of the English Company.

ARTICLE VI.

The stipends to the Begums and Princes at Benares, amounting to two lacks four thousand Rupees, per annum, and the Furruckabad pensions amounting to twenty-three thousand six hundred and thirty-eight Rupees, are included in the above sum of seventy-six lacks of Oude Sicca Rupees.

ARTICLE VII.

The Governor General, Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the East-India Company, agrees, that the English forces maintained in the country of Oude, for its defence, shall never consist of less than [illegible] thousand men including Europeans and Natives, cavalry, infantry, and artillery. And [illegible]at any time, it should become necessary to augment the troops of the Company in Oude beyond the number of thirteen thousaud men, including Europeans and Natives, infantry, cavalry, and artillery, the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan agrees to pay the actual difference occasioned by the excess above that number; and, in the same manner, if the troops of the Company in Oude, from any necessity, should be less than eight thousand men, including infantry, cavalry, artillery, Natives and Europeans, a deduction shall be made from the annual stipend of seventy-six lacks of Rupees, equal to the actual difference of men below the specified number.

ARTICLE VIII.

As the English Company are not possessed of any fortress in the dominions of Oude, the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan, having the fullest reliance on the friendship of the English Company, agrees to make over to their exclusive possession the fort of Allahabad, with all its buildings and appurtenances, and the Gauts immediately dependent upon the fort, together with as much land surrounding the fort as may be necessary for the purpose of an esplanade, the Company agreeing to be answerable to the Nabob for the amount of the Revenue collected from from the said Gauts. The said Nabob also agrees to advance to the Company such a sum as may be necessary for strengthening and improving the fortifications of this fort, provided that it do not exceed the sum of eight lacks of Oude Sicca Rupees; and that the said amount, or actual amount of the expenditure, not exceeding eight lacks of Rupees, shall be paid to the Company within two years from the date of this Treaty, in such proportions as may be required for defraying the expence to which it is applicable. And the said Nabob Saadit Ali Khan Behader, for the same reasons, further agrees to advance to the English Company, for the purpose of repairing the fort of Futtyghur, withing six months from the date of this engagement, a sum, not exceeding, on the whole, three lacks of Oude Sicca Rupees. A.D. 1798 Saadit Ali.

ARTICLE IX.

If, for the better protection and defence of the dominions of the Nawab Saadit Ali Khan, it should be deemed advisable to change the present stations of the troops at Cawnpore and Futtyghur, the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan consents thereto, and that the troops shall be stationed in such places as may be judged most advisable and convenient, and that he will defray the expence attending their removal and making cantonments for the troops.

ARTICLE X.

As the English Company have incurred a considerable expence, by their exertions in establishing the right of the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan, the said Nabob agrees, in consideration thereof, to pay the Company the sum of twelve lacks of Oude Sicca Rupees.

ARTICLE XI.

As the payment of the Company's troops in Oude depends upon the regular discharge of the subsidy stated in the second and third articles of the Treaty, the said Nabob engages to exert his utmost endeavours to discharge the stipulated Kist with punctuality: but if, contrary to the sincere intentions and exertions of the said Nabob, the payment of the Kists should fall into arrears, the said Nabob Saadit Ali Khan engages and promises, that he will then give such security to the Company, for the discharge of the existing arrears, and the future regular payment of the Kists, as shall be deemed satisfactory.

ARTICLE XII.

Whereas, by the engagements now entered into between the Nabob Vizier and the Company, the amount of the subsidy is considerably encreased, and many other permanent charges upon his Excellency are incurred, on a comparison of his disbursements with the assets of his country, it becomes necessary to make such reduction in the superfluous charges of the public establishments, servants, &c. as may be requisite, and are consistent with his Excellency's dignity and convenience. To that end, the said Nabob agrees to consult with the Company's Government, and in concert with them devise the proper objects of such reductions, and the best means of effecting them.

A.D. 1798
Saadit Ali.

ARTICLE XIII.

As the political interests of the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan and the English Company are the same, it is expedient and agreed, that all correspondence between the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan and any foreign power or state shall be carried on with the knowledge and concurrence of the Company; and the Nabob Saadit Ali Khan agrees and promises, that no correspondence, contrary to the tenor of this article, shall be carried on by him.

ARTICLE XIV.

As the stipulations in the Commercial Treaty between the two states have not been enforced with due attention, particularly in the dominions of the Nawaub Vizier, the contracting parties agree to exert their utmost endeavours to give force and effect to them.

ARTICLE XV.

The Nabob Saadit Ali Khan engages and promises, that he will not entertain any Europeans, of any description, in his service, nor allow any to settle in his country, without the consent of the Company.

ARTICLE XVI.

The Nabob Saadit Ali Khan agrees, that a suitable maintenance shall be provided for the reputed children of his brother, the late Nabob Asoph ud Dowlah, and willingly promises to take them under his protection.

ARTICLE XVII.

The Nabob Vizier ul Momalik Saadit Ali Khan Behader, for himself and his heirs, and the Governor General, Sir John Shore, Baronet, on the part of the East-India Company, respectively promise to observe, sincerely and strictly, all the articles contained and settled in the present Treaty; and they both agree, that they will give the greatest attention to maintain between themselves, their dominions, and their subjects, this present Treaty, and all the articles settled by it; that all transactions between the two states shall be carried on with the greatest cordiality and harmony on both sides, and that the said Nabob shall possess full authority over his household affairs, hereditary dominions, his troops, and his subjects.

TREATY with the Nyzam, with two separate Articles, 1798.

An enlarged perpetual SUBSIDIARY TREATY between the Honorable United English East-India Company and his Highness the Nawaub Nizam ul Mulk Asoph Jah Behauder, Soubadar of the Deckan, his Children, Heirs, and Successors, settled by Captain James Achilles Kirkpatrick, by virtue of the Powers delegated to him by the Right Honorable Richard Earl of Mornington, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of St. Patrick, one of his Britannick Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor General in Council, appointed by the Honorable Court of Directors of the said Honorable East-India Company to direct and control all their Affairs in the East-Indies.

Whereas his Highness Nizam ul Mulk Asoph Jah Behauder has, from the greatness of existing friendship, expressed a desire for an increase of the detachment of the Honorable Company's troops at present serving his Highness, the Right Honorable Earl of Mornington, Governor General, has taken the proposals to that effect into his most serious consideration; and the present juncture of affairs, and the recent hostile conduct and evil designs of Tippoo Sultaun, as fully evinced by his sending ambassadors to the Isle of France, by his proposing to enter into a Treaty, offensive and defensive, with the French Republic, against the English Nation, and by actually receiving a body of French troops into his dominions and immediate pay, rendering it indispensibly necessary that effectual measures, for the mutual defence of their respective possessions, should be immediately taken by the three Allied Powers, united in a defensive league against the aforesaid Tippoo Sultaun, the aforesaid Governor General, in consequence empowered Captain James Achilles Kirkpatrick, Acting Resident at the Court of his Highness the Nizam, to enter, in behalf of the Honorable United English East-India Company, Company, into certain engagements with his Highness Nizam ul Mulk Asoph Jah Behauder, for a permanent increase of the Honorable Company's troops in his Highness's pay, in the proportion, and on the condition specified in the following articles, which must be understood to be of full validity, when this Treaty shall be returned, signed and sealed by the Governor General. A.D. 1798. The Nyzam.

ARTICLE I.

Such parts of the letter from Earl Cornwallis to his Highness the Nizam, dated the 7th July 1789, and which has always been considered in the light of a Treaty, as relate to the stationing of troops with his Highness, are to be considered as in full force; that is, the services of the new permanent subsidiary force are to be regulated precisely by the same restrictive clauses that operate on the present detachment, unless the Peshwa shall hereafter consent to any alterations in those conditions, and his Highness likewise approve of the same.

ARTICLE II.

Agreeably to the practice in the Company's service, the new subsidiary force shall be subject to relief, either partial or entire, as often, and in such manner, as the Company's Government may require; provided, withal, that no diminution takes place, by such means, in the stipulated number to be stationed with his Highness.

ARTICLE III.

The proposed reinforcement of subsidiary troops shall be in the pay of this state, from the day of their crossing the boundaries. Satisfactory and effectual provision shall be made for the regular payment of this force, which, including the present detachment, is to amount to six thousand Sepoys with firelocks, with a due proportion of field pieces, manned by Europeans, and at the monthly rate of Rupees 2,01,425. The yearly amount of subsidy for the aforesaid force of six thousand men, with guns, artillerymen, and other necesssary appurtenances, is Rupees 24,17,100. The said sum shall be completely discharged in the course of the year, by four equal instalments; that is, at the expiration of every three English months, the sum of Rupees 6,04,275 in silver, of full currency, shall be issued, without hesitation, from his Highness's treasury: and should the aforesaid instalments happen to fall, at any time, the least in arrears, such arrears shall be deducted, notwithstanding objections thereto, from the current Kist of Peshcuch payable to his Highness on account of the northern Sircars. Should it any time so happen, moreover, that delay were to occur in the issue of the instalments aforesaid, in the stated periods, in such case assignments shall be granted on the collections of certain districts in the state, the real and actual revenue of which shall be adequate to the discharge of the yearly subsidy of the aforesaid force.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1798
The Nyzam.

ARTICLE IV.

The duties on grain and all articles of consumption, as well as on all necessaries whatever, for the use of the new subsidiary force, shall be commuted, agreeably to the practice that obtained with the former detachment. A place, likewise, shall be fixed on, as the head-quarters of the said force, where it shall always remain, except when services of importance are required to be performed; and whenever either the whole or part of the said force is to be employed in the business of the state, a person of respectability, and who is a servant of this Sirkar, shall be appointed to attend it. The commanding officer and officers of the said subsidiary force shall be treated, in all respects, in a manner suitable to the greatness and dignity of both states.

ARTICLE V.

The said subsidiary force will, at all times, be ready to execute services of importance; such as the protection of the person of his Highness, his heirs and successors, from race to race, and overawing and chastising all rebels or exciters of disturbance in the dominions of this state; but it is not to be employed on trifling occasions; nor like Sebundy, to be stationed in the country to collect the revenues thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

Immediately upon the arrival of the subsidiary force at Hydrabad, the whole of the officers and servants of the French party are to be dismissed, and the troops composing it dispersed, and disorganized, that no trace of the former establishment shall remain. And his Highness hereby engages for himself, his heirs, and successors, that no Frenchman whatever shall ever hereafter be entertained in his own service, or in that of any of his chiefs or dependents, nor be suffered to remain in any part of his Highness's dominions; nor shall any Europeans whatever be admitted into the service of this state, nor be permitted to remain within its territories, without the knowledge and consent of the Company's government.

ARTICLE VII.

The whole of the French and Sepoy deserters from the Company's service, that may be in the French or any other party of troops belonging to this state, are to be seized, and delivered up to the British Resident; and no persons of the above description are to be allowed refuge, in future, in his Highness's territories, but are, on the contrary, to be seized without delay, and delivered up to the British Resident: neither shall any refuge be allowed in the Company's territories, but Sepoy deserters from the service of his Highness shall, in like manner, be seized and delivered up without delay.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE VIII.

The Nyzam.

Whereas his Highness the Nizam, from considerations of prudence and foresight, and with a view of avoiding manifold evils, has determined on dismissing the French from his service, and on disposing and disorganizing the troops commanded by them, as specified in the sixth article, and on entertaining a perpetual standing force of the Honorable Company's in their room, subject to the limitations and restrictions prescribed by Earl Cornwallis's letter to his Highness the Nizam, mentioned in the first article, it is therefore agreed, with a view to the mutual benefit of his Highness and the Paishwa, and the happiness of their respective subjects, that the Company's Government will use their best endeavours to have inserted, with the consent and approbation of both, in the new Treaty in contemplation between the three Allied Powers, such a clause as shall set each at ease with regard to the other. Should the Paishwa, however, not accede to a proposal so highly advantageous and profitable to both Governments, and differences hereafter arise between the two states, namely, that of the Nawaub Asoph Jah Behader and of Row Pundit Purdhan, in such case the English Government hereby engage, that interposing their mediation in a way suitable to rectitude, friendship, and union, they will apply themselves to the adjustment thereof, conformable to propriety, truth, and justice: the Nabob Asoph Jah Behader accordingly hereby engages never to commit, on his part, any excess or aggression against the Sircar of Row Pundit Purdhan; and in the event of such differences arising, whatever adjustment of them the English Government, weighing things in the scale of truth and justice, may determine upon, shall, without hesitation or objection, meet with full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE IX.

All former treaties between the English and the Government of the Nawaub Asoph Jah and the Peshwa remain in full force. Should hereafter the Row Pundit Purdhan express a desire to enter into subsidiary engagements, similar to the present, with the Company, the Nawaub Asoph Jah will most readily give his concurrence.

ARTICLE X.

This enlarged Subsidiary Treaty, consisting of ten articles, being this day settled by Captain Kirkpatrick with the Nawaub Asoph Jah Behader, Captain Kirkpatrick has delivered one copy hereof, in English and Persian, signed and sealed by himself, to the Nawaub, who, on his part, has also delivered to Captain Kirkpatrick one copy of the same, duly executed by himself; and Captain Kirkpatrick hereby engages to procure and deliver to his Highness, in the space of fifty days, a ratified copy from the Governor General, in every respect the counterpart of the one executed by himself; and on the delivery of such copy, which will then have become a full and complete instrument, the Treaty executed

A.D. 1798 The Nyzam. by Captain Kirkpatrick shall be returned. In the meanwhile no time shall be lost in writing for the advance of the proposed reinforcement.

Signed, sealed, and executed, at Hydrabad, the 1st September, Anno Domini 1798, or 19th Rubby ul Awul, Anno Higeræ 1213.

TREATY with the Nyzam, 1800.

A.D. 1800 The Nyzam. TREATY of perpetual and general DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE, between the Honorable the English East-India Company and his Highness the Nabob Nizam ul Mulk Asoph Jah Behauder, Behauder, Soubahdar of the Decan, his Children, Heirs, and Successors; settled by Captain James Achilles Kirkpatrick, Resident at the Court of his Highness, by virtue of the Powers delegated to him by the Most Noble Richard Marquis Wellesley, &c. &c. &c. A.D. 1800 The Nyzam.

Whereas, by the blessing of God, an intimate friendship and union have firmly subsisted, for a length of time, between the Honorable Company and his Highness the Nabob Nizam ul Mulk Asoph Jah Behauder, and have been cemented and strengthened by several Treaties of Alliance, to the mutual and manifest advantage of both powers, who, with uninterrupted harmony and concord, having equally shared the fatigues and dangers of war and the blessings of peace, are, in fact, become one and the same in interest, policy, friendship, and honor. These powers, adverting to the complexion of the times, have determined, on principles of precaution and foresight, and with a view to the effectual preservation of constant peace and tranquillity, to enter into a general defensive alliance, for the complete and reciprocal protection of their respective territories, together with those of their several allies and dependants, against the unprovoked aggressions, or unjust incroachments, of all or of any enemies whatever.

ARTICLE I.

The peace, union, and friendship, so long subsisting between the two states, shall be perpetual; the friends and enemies of either shall be the friends and enemies of both; and the contracting parties agree, that all the former Treaties and Agreements between the two states, now in force, and not contrary to the tenor of this Agreement, shall be confirmed by it.

ARTICLE II.

If any power or state whatever shall commit any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against either of the contracting parties, or against their respective dependants or allies, and, after due representation, shall refuse to enter into amicable explanation, or shall deny the just satisfaction or indemnity which the contracting parties shall have required, then the contracting parties will proceed to concert and prosecute such further measures as the case shall appear to demand.

ARTICLE III.

For the more distinct explanation of the true intent and effect of this agreement, the Governor General in Council, on behalf of the Honorable Company, hereby declares, that the British Government will never permit any power or state, whatever, to commit with impunity, any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against the rights or territories of his Highness the Nizam, but will, at all times, maintain the same, in the same manner as the rights and territories of the Honorable Company are now maintained.

ARTICLE III.*

With a view to fulfil this Treaty of general defence and protection, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah agrees, that two battalions of Sepoys and one regiment of cavalry, with a due proportion of guns and artillerymen, shall be added, in perpetuity, to the present permanent subsidiary force of six battalions of Sepoys, of one thousand firelocks each, and one regiment of cavalry, five hundred strong (with their proportion of guns and artillerymen), so that the whole subsidiary force furnished by the Honorable East-India Company to his Highness shall hence-forward consist of eight battalions of Sepoys (or eight thousand firelocks) and two regiments of cavalry (or one thousand horse) with their requisite complement of guns, European artillerymen, Lascars, and pioneers, fully equipped with warlike stores, and ammunition; which force is to be stationed, in perpetuity, in his Highness's territories.

ARTICLE IV.

The pay of the above-mentioned additional force shall be calculated at the rate of the pay of the existing subsidiary force, and shall commence from the day of the entrance of the said additional force into his Highness's territories.

ARTICLE V.

For the regular payment of the whole expense of the said augmented subsidiary force consisting of eight thousand infantry, one thousand cavalry, and their usual proportion of artillery) his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah hereby assigns and cedes to the Honorable East-India Company, in perpetuity, all the territories acquired by his Highness, under the Treaty of Seringapatam, on the 18th March, 1792, and also all the territories acquired by his Highness, under the Treaty of Mysore, on the 22d June, 1799, according to the Schedule annexed to this Treaty.

ARTICLE VI.

Certain of the territories, ceded by the foregoing article to the Honorable Company, being inconvenient, from their situation to the northward of the river Toombuddrah, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah, for the purpose of rendering the boundary line of the Honorable Company's possessions a good and well defined one, agrees to retain the districts in question, namely, Copul, Gujjinderghur, and others (as marked in the annexed schedule) in his own possession; and, in lieu thereof, assigns and cedes, in full and in perpetuity, to the Honourable Company, the district of Adoni, together with whatever other territory his Highness may be possessed of, or is dependant on his Highness's Government, to the south of the Toombuddrah, or to the south of the Kistnah, below the junction of those two rivers.

ARTICLE VII.

The territories to be assigned and ceded to the Honorable Company by the fifth article, or in consequence of the change stipulated in the sixth article, shall be subject to the exclusive management and authority of the said Company and of their officers.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whereas the actual produce of a considerable portion of the districts ceded to the Honorable Company by Article VI. is ascertained and acknowledged to be greatly inferior to their nominal value, as specified in the Schedule annexed to this Treaty, and the said districts cannot be expected, for a long course of years, to reach their said nominal value; and whereas differences might hereafter arise between the contracting parties, with respect to the real value of the same, and the friendship and harmony, happily subsisting between the contracting parties, be disturbed, by discussions relating to the adjustment of accounts of the produce and value of the said districts; in order to preclude all causes of any such future difference or discussion between the two states, the said East-India Company agrees to accept the said districts (with the reservation stated in the sixth article) as a full and complete satisfaction for all demands, on account of the pay and charges of the said subsidiary force, and therefore to whatever extent, or for whatever length of time, the actual produce of the said districts shall prove inadequate to the amount of the subsidy payable by his Highness, on account of the said subsidiary force, no demands shall ever be made by the Honorable Company upon the treasury of his Highness, on account of any such deficiency, or on account of any failure in the revenues of the said districts, arising from unfavourable seasons, from the calamity of war, or any other cause. His Highness the Nizam, on his part, with the same friendly views, hereby renounces all claim to any arrears or balances which may be due to him from the said districts, at the period of their cession to the Honorable Company, and also to any eventual excess in the produce of the said districts, beyond the amount of the subsidy payable by his Highness, on account of the said subsidiary force, the true intention and meaning of this article being, that the cession of the said districts, and the exchanges stipulated in the sixth article, shall be considered as a final close and termination of accounts between the contracting parties, with respect to the charges of the said subsidiary force.

ARTICLE IX.

After the conclusion of this Treaty, and as soon as the British Resident shall signify to his Highness Asoph Jah, that the Honorable Company's officers are prepared to take charge of the districts ceded by the fifth article, his Highness will immediately issue the necessary Perwannahs, or orders, to his officers, to deliver over charge of the same to the officers of the Company; and it is hereby stipulated and agreed, that all collections made by his Highness's officers, subsequent to the date of the said Perwannahs, or orders, and before

A.D. 1800 The Nyzam. before the officers of the Company shall have taken charge of the said districts, shall be carried to the account of the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE X.

All forts situated within the districts to be ceded as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the officers of the Honorable Company with the said districts; and his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah engages, that the said forts shall be delivered to the Honorable Company, as nearly as possible in the same state as that in which his Highness received them.

ARTICLE XI.

His Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah will continue to pay the subsidy of the former subsidiary force, and also that of the additional troops, from his treasury, in the same manner as hitherto observed, until the Honorable East-India Company's officers shall have obtained complete possession from his Highness's officers of the country ceded to the said Company by the fifth article. The Company will not claim any payments of subsidy from his Highness's treasury, after their officers shall have obtained possession of the said districts from the officers of his Highness.

ARTICLE XII.

The contracting parties will employ all practicable means of conciliation to prevent the calamity of war; and, for that purpose, will, at all times, be ready to enter into amicable explanations with other states, and to cultivate and improve the general relations of peace and amity with all the powers of India, according to the true spirit and tenor of this defensive Treaty. But if a war should unfortunately break out between the contracting parties and any other power whatever, then his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah engages, that, with the reserve of two battalions of Sepoys, which are to remain near his Highness's person, the residue of the British subsidiary force (consisting of six battalions of Sepoys and two regiments of cavalry, with artillery) joined by six thousand infantry and nine thousand horse of his Highness's own troops, and making together an army of twelve thousand infantry and ten thousand cavalry, with their requisite train of artillery, and warlike stores of every kind, shall be immediately put in motion, for the purpose of opposing the enemy; and his Highness further engages to employ every further effort in his power, for the purpose of bringing into the field, as speedily as possible, the whole force which he may be able so supply from his dominions, with a view to the effectual prosecution and speedy termination of the said war, the Honorable Company, in the same manner, engaging on their part, in this case, to employ in active operations against the enemy, the largest force which they may be able to furnish, over and above the said subsidiary force.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE XIII.

A.D.1800 The Nyzam.

Whenever war shall appear probable, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah engages to collect as many Benjarries as possible, and to store as much grain as may be practicable in his frontier garrisons.

ARTICLE XIV.

Grain, and all other articles of consumption and provisions, and all sorts of materials for wearing apparel, together with the necessary quantity of cattle, horses, and camels, required for the use of the subsidiary force, shall, in proportion to its present augmentation, be, as heretofore, entirely exempted from duties.

ARTICLE XV.

As by the present Treaty the union and friendship of the two states are so firmly cemented, as that they may be considered as one and the same, his Highness the Nizam engages neither to commence nor to pursue, in future, any negociations with any other power whatever, without giving previous notice, and entering into mutual consultation with the Honorable East-India Company's Government; and the Honorable Company's Government, on their part, hereby declare, that they have no manner of concern with any of his Highness's children, relations, subjects, or servants, with respect to whom his Highness is absolute.

ARTICLE XVI.

As, by the present Treaty of general defensive Alliance, mutual defence, and defence against all enemies are established, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah consequently engages, never to commit any act of hostility or aggression against any power whatever; and in the event of differences arising, whatever adjustment of them the Company's Government, weighing matters in the scale of truth and justice, may determine, shall meet with full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE XVII.

By the present Treaty of general defensive Alliance, the ties of union, by the blessing of God, are drawn so close, that the friends of one party will be henceforward considered as the friends of the other, and the enemies of the one party as the enemies of the other; it is therefore hereby agreed, that if, in future, the Shorapoor or Gudwall Zemindars, or any other subjects or dependants of his Highness's Government, should withhold the payment of the Sircar's just claims upon them, or excite rebellion or disturbance, the subsidiary force, or such proportion thereof as may be requisite, after the reality of the fact shall be duly ascertained, shall be ready, in concert with his Highness's own troops, to reduce all such offenders to obedience. And the particular interests of the two states being now, in every respect, identified, it is further mutually agreed, that if disturbances shall, at any time, break out in the districts ceded to the

A.D. 1800 The Nyzam. Honorable Company by this Treaty, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah shall permit such a portion of the subsidiary force as may be requisite, to be employed in quelling the same, within the said districts. If disturbances shall, at any time, break out in any part of his Highness's dominions, contiguous to the Company's frontier, to which it might be inconvenient to detach any proportion of the subsidiary troops, the British Government, in like manner, if required by his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah, shall direct such proportion of the troops of the Company, as may be most conveniently stationed for the purpose, to assist in quelling the said disturbances within his Highness's dominions.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Whereas, by the favor of Providence, a perfect union, harmony, and concord, have long and firmly subsisted between the Honorable East-India Company, his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah, his Highness the Peshwah Rao Pundit Purdhaun, and Rajah Rhagojee Bhoosillah, therefore should his Highness, Rao Pundit Purdhaun, and Rajah Rhagojee Bhoosillah, or either of them, express a desire to participate in the benefits of the present defensive alliance, which is calculated to strengthen and perpetuate the foundations of general tranquillity, the contracting parties will readily admit both, or either of the said powers, to be members of the present alliance, on such terms and conditions as shall appear just and expedient to the contracting parties.

ARTICLE XIX.

The contracting parties being actuated by a sincere desire to promote and maintain general tranquillity, will admit Dowlut Rao Scindiah to be a party to the present Treaty, whenever he shall satisfy the contracting parties of his disposition to cultivate the relations of peace and amity with both states, and shall give such securities for the maintenance of tranquillity, as shall appear to the contracting parties to be sufficient.

ARTICLE XX.

This Treaty, consisting of twenty articles, being this day settled by Captain James Achilles Kirkpatrick with the Nabob Asoph Jah Behauder, Captain Kirkpatrick has delivered one copy thereof, in English and Persian, signed and sealed by himself, to the said Nabob, who, on his part, has also delivered one copy of the same, duly executed by himself; and Captain Kirkpatrick, by virtue of especial authority given to him on that behalf by the Most Noble the Governor General in Council, hereby declares the said Treaty to be in full force from the date hereof, and engages to procure and deliver to his Highness, in the space of thirty days, a copy of the same from the Governor General in Council, in every respect the counterpart of that executed by himself; and on the delivery of such copy, the Treaty executed by Captain Kirkpatrick shall be returned, but the additional subsidiary force, specified in the third article, shall be immediately required

Our august commands are issued, that the high in rank, the exalted in station, the great rulers, officers, and writers of the ports, sea coasts, and islands of the provinces of Fars and Khoozistaun, do consider themselves as particularly honored and advanced by the royal favour: and whereas, at this period, the foundations of Praise be unto God, who said, "Oh you, who believe, perform your contracts, perform your covenants with God, when you enter into covenant with him, and violate not your engagements after the ratification thereof." After the voice is raised to the praise and glory of the God of the World, and the brain is perfumed with the scent of the saints and prophets (to whom be health and glory) whose rare perfections are perpetually chaunted by birds of the melodious notes,* furnished with two, three, and four pair of wings, and to the highest seated in the heavens, for whom good has been predestinated and the perfume mixed with musk, which scenteth the celestial mansions of those that sing hymns in the etherial sphere, and to the light of the flame of the most high, which gives irradiated splendour to the collected view of those who dwell in the heavenly regions, the clear meaning of [the Treaty] which has been established on a solid basis is fully explained in this page, and it is fixed as a prescription of law, that in this world of existence and trouble, and in this universe of creation and concord, there is no action among those of mankind, that tends more to the perfection of the human race, or to answer the end of their being and existence, than that of cementing friendship, and of establishing intercourse, communication, and connexion between each other. The image reflected from the mirror of accomplishment is a tree fruitful and abundant, and one that produces good, both now and hereafter. To illustrate the allusions that it has been proper to make and to explain these metaphors, worthy of exposition at this happy period of auspicious aspect, a Treaty has been concluded, between the high in dignity and the exalted in station, attended by fortune, of great and splendid power, the greatest among the high viziers, in whom confidence is placed, the faithful of the powerful government, the adorned with greatness, power, glory, splendour, and fortune, Haujy Ibraheim Khaun, on being granted leave, and vested with authority from the port of the high King, whose court is like that of Solomon, the asylum of the world, the sign of the power of God, the jewel in the ring of K[illegible], the ornament in the cheek of eternal empire, the grace of the beauty of sovereignty and royalty, the king of the universe, like Caherman of the mansion of mercy and justice, the phœnix of good fortune, the eminence of never-fading prosperity, the King powerful as Alexander, who has no equal among the princes exalted to majesty by the heavens in this globe, a shade from the shade of the most high, a Khooroo, whose saddle is the moon and whose stirrup is the new moon, a prince of great rank, before whom the sun is concealed.

A.D. 1801 The King of Persia.

This Treaty between these two great states shall be binding on race after race, and the two Governments must ever, while the world exists, act in conformity to what is now settled.

ARTICLE I.

As long as the sun, illuminating the circle of the two great contracting powers, shines on their sovereign dominions, and bestows light on the whole world, the beautiful image of excellent union shall remain fixed on the mirror of duration and perpetuity, the thread of shameful enmity and distance shall be cut, conditions of mutual aid and assistance between the two states shall be instituted, and all causes of hatred and hostility shall be banished.

ARTICLE II.

If the King of the Afghauns should ever shew a resolution to invade India, which is subject to the government of the monarch (abovementioned) the prince of high rank, the King of England, an army overthrowing mountains, furnished with all warlike stores, shall be appointed from the state of the conspicuous and exalted, high and fixed in power (the King of Persia) to lay waste and desolate the Afghaun dominions, and every exertion shall be employed to ruin and humble the abovementioned nation.

ARTICLE III.

Should it happen that the King of the Afghauns ever becomes desirous of opening the gates of peace and friendship with the government of the King (of Persia), who is in rank like Solomon, in dignity like Jumsheed, the shade of God, who has bestowed his mercy and kindness on the earth, when negotiations are opened for an amicable adjustment, it shall be stipulated in the peace concluded, that the King of the Afghauns, or his armies, shall abandon all design of attack on the territories subject to the government of the King abovementioned, who is worthy of royalty, the King of England.

A.D. 1801

The King of Persia.

ARTICLE IV.

Should ever any King of the Afghauns, or any person of the French Nation, commence war and hostilities with the powerful of the ever-enduring state (of the King of Persia) the rulers of the government of the King (of England) whose court is like heaven, and who has been before mentioned, shall (on such event) send as many cannon and warlike stores as possible, with necessary apparatus, attendants, and inspectors, and such supply shall be delivered over at one of the ports of Persia, whose boundaries are conspicuous, to the officers of the high in dignity, the King of Persia.

ARTICLE V.

Should it ever occur, that an army of the French Nation, actuated by design and deceit, attempts to settle, with a view of establishing themselves on any of the islands or shores of Persia, a conjunct force shall be appointed by the two high contracting states, to act in co-operation for their expulsion and extirpation, and to destroy and put an end to the foundation of their treason. It is a condition if such event happens, and the conquering troops (of Persia) march, that the officers of the government of the King (of England) who is powerful as the heavens, and as beforementioned, shall load, transport, and deliver (for their service), as great a quantity of necessaries, stores, and provisions, as they possibly can. And if ever any of the great men of the French Nation express a wish or desire to obtain a place of residence or dwelling on any of the islands or shores of the kingdom of Persia, that they may there raise the standard of abode or settlement, such request or representation shall not be consented unto by the high in rank of the state encompassed with justice (the government of Persia), and leave for their residing in such place shall not be granted.

While time endures, and while the world exists, the contents of this exalted Treaty shall remain, an admired picture in the mirror of duration and perpetuity, and submission to the fair image on this conspicuous page shall be everlasting.

So many elephants, on account of Muckanacinpoor, are annually sent to the Company by the Rajah of Nepaul, and therefore the Governor General, with a view of promoting the satisfaction of the Rajah of Nepaul, and in consideration of the improved friendly connexion and of this new Treaty, relinquishes and forgoes the tribute above mentioned, and directs that the officers of the Company, both now and hereafter, from generation to generation, shall never, during the continuance of the engagement contracted by this Treaty (so long as the conditions of this Treaty shall be in force) exact the elephants from the Rajah.

ARTICLE VIII.

If any of the dependants or inhabitants of either country should fly and take refuge in the other, and a requisition should be made for such persons, on the part of the Nepaul Government, by its constituted Vakeel in attendance on the Governor General, or on the part of the Company's Government, by its representative residing at Nepaul, it is, in this case, mutually agreed, that if such person should have fled after transgressing the laws of his Government, it is incumbent upon the principals of both Governments immediately to deliver him up to the Vakeel, at their respective courts, that he may be sent in perfect security to the frontiers of their respective territories.

ARTICLE XI.

The Maha Rajah of Nepaul agrees, that a Pergunnah, with all the lands attached to it, excepting privileged lands and those appropriated to religious purposes and to Jaggeers, &c. which are specified separately in the account of collections, shall be given up to Samee Jeo, for his expences, as a present. The conditions, with respect to Samee Jeo, are, that if he should remain at Benares, or at any other place within the Company's provinces, and should spontaneously farm his Jaggeer to the officers of Nepaul, in that event the amount of collections shall be punctually paid to him, agreeably to certain Kists which may be hereafter settled; that he may appropriate the same to his necessary expences, and that he may continue in religious abstraction, according to his agreement, which he had engraved on brass, at the time of his abdication of the Roy, and of his resigning it in my favor. Again, in the event of his establishing his residence in his Jaggeer, and of his realizing the collections through his own officers, it is proper that he should not keep such a one and other disaffected persons in his service, and besides one hundred men and maid servants, &c. he must not entertain any persons as soldiers, with a view to the collection of the revenue of the Pergunnah; and to the protection of his person he may take two hundred soldiers of the forces of the Nepaul Government, the allowances of whom shall be paid by the Rajah of Nepaul. He must be cautious, also, of commencing altercation, either by speech or writing; neither must he give protection to the rebellious and fugitives of

A.D. 1801 Rajah of Nepaul. the Nepaul country, nor must he commit plunder and devastation upon the subjects of Nepaul. In the event of such delinquency being proved, to the satisfaction of the two Governments, the aid and protection of the Company shall be withdrawn from him; and in that event, also, it shall be at the option of the Rajah of Nepaul, whether or not he will confiscate his Jaggeer.

The Maha Rajah also agrees on his part, that if Samee Jeo should take up his residence within the Company's provinces, and should farm out his land to the officers of Nepaul, and that the Kists should not be paid according to agreement, or that he should fix his residence on his Jaggeer, and any of the inhabitants of Nepaul should give him or the Ryots of his Purgunnah any molestation, a requisition shall be made by the Governor General and the Company, on this subject, to the Rajah. The Governor General is security for the Rajah's performance of this condition, and the Maha Rajah will immediately acquit himself of the requisition of the Governor General, agreeably to what is above written. If any profits should arise in the collection of the said Purgunnah, in consequence of the activity of the officers, or any defalcation occurs from their inattention, in either case, the Rajah of Nepaul will be totally unconcerned.

ARTICLE X.

With a view of carrying into effect the different objects contained in this Treaty, and of promoting other verbal negociation, the Governor General and the Rajah of Nepaul, under the impulse of their will and pleasure, depute a confidential person to each other, as Vakeel, that remaining in attendance upon their respective Governments, they may effect the objects above specified, and promote whatever may tend to the daily improvement of the friendship subsisting between the two states.

ARTICLE XI.

It is incumbent upon the principals and officers of the two states, that they should manifest the regard and respect to the Vakeel of each other's Government, which is due to their rank, and is prescribed by the laws of nations; and that they should endeavour, to the utmost of their power, to advance any object which they may propose, and to promote their ease, comfort, and satisfaction, by extending protection to them, which circumstances are calculated to improve the friendship subsisting between the two Governments, and to illustrate the good name of both States throughout the universe.

ARTICLE XII.

It is incumbent upon the Vakeels of both States, that they should hold no intercourse whatever with any of the subjects or inhabitants of the country, excepting with the officers of Government, without the permission of those officers; neither should they carry on any correspondence with any of them: and if they should receive any letter or writing from from any such people, they should not answer it, without the knowledge of the head of the state, and acquainting him of the particulars, which will dispel all apprehension or doubt between us, and manifest the sincerity of our friendship. A.D. 1801 Rajah of Nepaul.

ARTICLE XIII.

It is incumbent upon the principals and officers mutually to abide by the spirit of this Treaty, which is now drawn out according to their faith and religion, and deeming it in force from generation to generation, that they should not deviate from it: and any person who may transgress against it, will be punished by Almighty God, both in this world and in a future state.

FINAL ARRANGEMENT with the Nabob Vizier Saadut Ali, 1802.

MEMORANDUM of the final result of the Discussions between his Excellency the Most Noble the Governor General and the Nawaub Vizier.

A.D. 1802
Saadit Ali.

On the 15th of February, 1802, his Excellency the Nabob Vizier transmitted to the Governor General a paper of propositions, to which his Excellency required the Governor

 General's

General's assent; and the Governor General, after full deliberation on the contents of the said paper, returned a distinct answer to each of the articles therein detailed. His Excellency the Vizier, in a paper delivered on the 22d of the same month, proposed certain modifications of the Governor General's answers, and the original propositions, together with the Governor General's answers, and the Vizier's proposed modifications thereof, were fully discussed, at a conference holden between the Governor General and his Excellency the Vizier, on the 24th of the same month. In consequence of this conference, it was mutually agreed, that certain of the articles of the original paper of propositions should be altogether omitted, and that the Governor General's reply to the third article should be modified, in conformity to the suggestion of his Excellency the Vizier. At the same conference his Excellency the Vizier adverting to the Governor General's suggestion in his reply to the second article, that the Vizier should appoint some person to conduct, in the quality of minister, the ordinary details of public affairs, proposed to constitute and appoint his second son, Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan, to act in that capacity. The Governor General, at the same conference, deemed it to be expedient to declare to his Excellency the Vizier, the general principles which, in his Lordship's judgment, should regulate the connection and intercourse between the two states, as resulting from the Treaty concluded between the Honorable Company and his Excellency the Vizier, on the 10th November, 1801. With a view to obviate all future doubts on the subject and result of these communications and conferences, the Governor General now commits to writing the final determination of the several points discussed between his Lordship and the Vizier, and affixes his seal and signature to this paper, and directs the Secretary in the Political Department, who was present at every conference, and who interpreted between the Governor General and the Vizier, to countersign this paper.

ANSWER.

Unobjectionable, and this proposal shall be observed. The Resident shall be furnished by his Excellency the Nabob Vizier with all the information necessary to establish the justice of the proceeding by vouchers and proofs.

PROPOSITION.

Let no one, as has hitherto been the practice, afford countenance and support to any person, to impede the recovery of just balances from Aumils and others; but, on the contrary, let him (meaning the Resident) afford assistance to the Sircar in the recovery of those balances. If the Resident is desirous of withholding me from the prosecution of any particular measure, let him state his sentiments to me in private; in which case (as I am far from being disposed posed to act unjustly) either I will prove to the Resident the equity of the proceeding, or the Resident will set me right: and in the latter event I will, in conformity to his desire, abandon such proposed measure, and no one will be apprized of any disagreement subsisting between us.

This is perfectly wise and proper.

Regular tribunals, in which I do not desire to possess any exclusive interest, shall be established, for the sole purpose of giving effect to the Mahomedan law, of fulfilling just claims, and of securing the lives and properties of the people. It is necessary that all persons should subject themselves to the jurisdiction of those tribunals; and if any person should refuse to acknowledge the jurisdiction, or oppose the authority of those tribunals, let the Company's officers assist in enforcing obedience to them.

The administration of justice in the Begum's Jaggeer must be under the Nabob's authority, and the Begum's servants must be subject to it. The authority of the Nabob's courts will be enforced by the British Power.

I consider her Highness the Begum as my superior, and I am extremely desirous of supporting her dignity, and of promoting her ease. I have no concern with the produce and revenues of her Jaggeer, nor of any of the Jaggeerdars; but the authority of the courts of justice, the adjustment of disputes, the redress of grievances, the observance of the civil and criminal punishments, and all other points connected with the adminstration of justice, must be conducted under my orders, in the cities of Lucknow and Fyzabad, and in all the Jaggeers, in the same manner as in the rest of my dominions. For these things appertain to the sovereign, whose duty it is to prevent every species of oppression. Her Highness's servants must not, in any manner, interfere in them, for a partnership in government is inadmissible. It is for her Highness's own credit, that she should state to me whatever may be her desire, in points of the nature above described, in order that what she desires may be accomplished, through the medium of the officers of my Government. The state of affairs hitherto prevailing has been this: that frequent tumults and bloodshed have occurred in Fyzabad and in her Highness's Jaggeer, and not the slightest attention has been paid by her Highness to any thing that I have said or written. In the time of my late brother, the settlement of disputes in the Jaggeers was left to the Sircar. These points will give efficacy to my government.

I request that his Lordship will have the goodness to send for Daraub Ali Khan, and desire that, exclusively of the Jaggeer, such property, lands, Bazars, gardens, &c. to a considerable extent, belonging to the Sircar, as the officers of her Highness have unjustly and, without the requisite vouchers (Sunnud), appropriated since four years (a fact which Mr. Lumsden, Molary Golaum Kauder Khaun, his Moonshee, and other creditable persons, such as Almas Ali Khan, Daraub Ali Khaun, and their respective Vakeels, can substantiate, and are fully acquainted with, which her Highness herself formerly acknowledged, which all the

This will be in conformity to her Highness's engagements. Let his Lordship have the goodness to transmit orders to the Honorable Henry Wellesley upon the following points.
All criminals will be reciprocally surrendered; but the subjects of both states, who shall not be accused of capital crimes, should be at liberty to pass freely from one country to the other, and to be established reciprocally in either.	Not to afford protection to fugitives from my country, but to surrender such, when demanded by me, or else to expel them from it.
All balances, now or hereafter due to the Sircar, to be adjusted within a reasonable time, and engagements to be taken to this effect from all persons in balance.	In the event of any of the dependants of my Sircar applying for farms within the ceded districts, to require such person to execute a writing, binding himself to take such farm only on condition that he is not in balance to the Sircar.
None of the Nabob's Aumils are now employed in the ceded provinces.	There are several of my Aumils retaining lands in the ceded districts, who are in balance to the Sircar to give me credit in his accounts for the sums due by such Aumils, or else to deliver up those Aumils to me, that I may recover from them what is justly

Any property of this description, which the Nawaub shall satisfy the Lieutenant Governor to belong to his Excellency, will, of course, be delivered over to his servants.

There are many gardens, and other property, belonging to the Sircar, in the country ceded for the charges of the troops, which are quite distinct from the revenue of the country, in the same manner, for instance, as at this moment at Benares there is property belonging to me, and still in my occupation: let his lordship have the goodness to direct that any property, of that description, in the ceded districts, may be given into the possession of my people. A statement of the particulars of such property, gardens, &c. within the ceded districts, shall be given in.

Orders shall be issued accordingly.

I have been induced to cede the districts for the charges of the British troops, merely to gratify his lordship, deeming it necessary so to do, in consequence of Mr. Wellesley's arrival, resolving to conform to his Lordship's wishes, and to obey his Lordship's commands. Let strict orders be issued, that no one may be permitted to injure or destroy any mosques, tombs, or Imaumbaurahs, which now exist within those districts.

Orders will be issued for the settlement of this account.

The Treaty has been sent.

Mr. Wellesley promised to send the Treaty; it has not yet, however, been received. Let his Lordship (or Mr. Wellesley) be reminded to send it.

The Governor General concurs in this proposition, and considers Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan to have been appointed accordingly.

The Nabob Vizier proposes, that his son, Mirza Ahmed Ali Khan, be appointed to to the situation of minister for the affairs of Government.

In conformity to his Excellency's desire, the proposed explanation and injunctions were stated to the Resident by the Governor General in his Excellency's presence, on the 24th February.

I hope, from his Lordship's kindness, that his Lordship will, in my presence, explain all the foregoing points to the Resident, and direct him to act in conformity to them; and that his Lordship will also enjoin the Resident, after his Lordship's departure, to occasion no delay or impediment in my departure, whenever I may choose to set out, and assist me in the preparations for my journey.

The Governor General now proceeds to state the general principles, by which the connection and intercourse between the two States are to be regulated henceforth.

By the terms of the Treaty concluded between the British Government and his Excellency

A.D. 1802
Saadit Ali.

ANSWERS.

Excellency the Vizier, on the 10th November 1801, his Excellency the Nabob's authority is to be completely established within his reserved dominions, and to be exercised through his Excellency's own officers and servants, the British Government having engaged to guarantee the establishment and exercise of his Excellency's authority within his reserved dominions, and the Governor General will never depart from this engagement. His Excellency has engaged to establish within his reserved dominions such a system of administration as shall be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and be calculated to secure the lives and property of the inhabitants. This system of administration is to be carried into effect by his Excellency's own officers and servants, and by his own authority.

His Excellency has also engaged always to advise with, and to act in conformity to the counsel of the officers of the Honorable Company.

In the establishment, therefore, of an improved system of administration within the reserved dominions, and also in all affairs connected with the ordinary government of those dominions, and with the usual exercise of this Excellency's established authority, the Vizier has engaged to advise with the British Government, and to conform to its counsels.

ANSWERS.

Those counsels will always be offered to his Excellency, in the form of friendly advice, and in the spirit of reciprocal confidence, and of mutual regard and respect.

The Governor General, when the importance of the subject shall require, and the nature of the occasion shall admit his immediate intercourse with the Vizier, will offer the advice of the British Government to his Excellency, by a direct communication, either in person or by letter.

The British Resident at Lucknow, however, is the constituted local representative of the British Government, and the ordinary and established channel of communication, in all cases whatever.

The Resident will, therefore, in the common course of business, offer to the Vizier the advice of the British Government, in the name of the Governor General; and in every case which may require the Resident to state such advice, it is to be received as proceeding immediately from the Governor General.

Such advice will be offered by the Resident, in all practicable cases, under the general or specific orders of the Governor General.

The Resident must advise the Nabob with perfect cordiality, and must employ every endeavour

The Resident must conduct himself towards the Nabob Vizier, on all occasions, with the utmost degree of respect, conciliation, and attention, and must maintain cordial union and harmony in all transactions, and must endeavour to impart strength and stability to his Excellency's authority.

The Resident must never proceed to act in the affairs of the reserved dominions, without previous consultation with his Excellency, or with his Ministers; and the Resident must, in the first instance, observe strict secrecy, with regard to the subject of such consultations, until the measures to be adopted shall be finally determined.

In compliance with the Nabob's desire, the gardens, formerly the property of his father, the village of Serepah Neamutpoor, the forfeited houses in Furruckabad, and the property of the Ramee Souheb, shall be considered as his exclusive property, if there should appear to be no other person legally entitled to such property.

ARTICLE V.

As the detailed list given in by the Nabob, of family connections and attendants, under the head of pensions, and the list delivered in by Kherûd Mund Khaun, are, in many respects, different, and as it is the intention of the British Government, that provision should be made for persons, whose claims to pensions shall appear to be well founded, it is hereby agreed, that the rights of the different claimants shall be inquired into by the civil officer appointed by the British Govertment, in conjunction with the Nabob, and that Sunnuds shall be granted, under their joint seals and signatures, agreeably to which Sunnuds the pensioners shall be paid by the Nabob, who will deliver their receipts to the Company's civil officer.

ARTICLE VI.

The authority of the Court of Adawlut shall not extend to the person of the Nabob; but as his connections and dependants are undefined, and as it is the object of the British Government to introduce a fair and impartial administration of justice throughout the province vince of Furruckabad, it is agreed, that whatever complaints may be preferred against any of the Nabob's dependants, shall, in the first instance, be referred to the Nabob, and in the event of the complainant not receiving speedy justice, or being dissatisfied with the Nabob's decision, the complaint shall be decided in the Court of Adawlut. A.D. 1802 Furruckabad.

ARTICLE VII.

In compliance with the Nabob's request, allowances shall be granted to the undermentioned persons, to be continued so long as their conduct shall be satisfactory to the British Government and to the Nabob:

Emaum Khan - - - - - - - - -	Rupees 5,000	annually
Purm-ul-Khan and Mohummud Khan - - - - -	5,000	do.

ARTICLE VIII.

The rent free lands, the daily and yearly pensions, and the Jagheers, shall be continued, if, upon a fair investigation, they shall appear to have been established previously to the death of Mozuffer Jung.

ARTICLE IX.

TREATY with the PESHWA, commonly called the TREATY OF BASSEIN, 31*st December* 1802.

TREATY of perpetual and general DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE between the Honorable English East-India Company and his Highness the Peshwa Badju Rao Ragonant Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, his Children, Heirs, and Successors, settled by Lieutenant Colonel Barry Close, Resident at the Court of his Highness, by virtue of the Powers delegated to him by his Excellency the Most Noble Richard Marquis Wellesley, Knight of the most illustrious Order of St. Patrick, one of his Britannick Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor General in Council, appointed by the Honorable Court of Directors of the said Honorable Company to direct and control all their Affairs in the East-Indies. A.D. 1802 The Peshwa.

Whereas, by the blessing of God, the relations of peace and friendship have uninterruptedly subsisted, for a length of time, between the Honorable English East-India Company and his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, and have been confirmed, at

A.D. 1802 The Peshwa. different periods, by Treaties of amity and union, the Powers aforesaid, adverting to the complexion of the times, have determined, with a view to the preservation of peace and tranquillity, to enter into a general defensive alliance, for the complete and reciprocal protection of their respective territories, together with those of their several allies and dependants, against the unprovoked aggressions or unjust encroachments of all or any enemies whatever.

ARTICLE I.

The peace, union, and friendship, so long subsisting between the two states, shall be promoted and encreased by this Treaty, and shall be perpetual. The friends and enemies of either shall be the friends and enemiesof both; and the contracting parties agree, that all the former Treaties and agreements between the two states, now in force and not contrary to the tenor of this engagement, shall be confirmed by it.

ARTICLE II.

If any power or state whatever shall commit any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression, against either of the contracting parties, or against their respective dependants or allies, and after due representation shall refuse to enter into amicable explanation, or shall deny the just satisfaction or indemnity which the contracting parties shall have required, then the contracting parties will proceed to concert and prosecute such further measures as the case shall appear to demand.

For the more distinct explanation of the true intent and effect of this agreement, the Governor General in Council, on behalf of the Honorable Company, hereby declares, that the British Government will never permit any power or state, whatever, to commit with impunity any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression, against the rights and territories of his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, but will, at all times, maintain and defend the same, in the same manner as the rights and territories of the Honorable Company are now maintained and defended.

ARTICLE III.

With a view to fulfil this Treaty of general Defence and Protection, his Highness Rao Pundit Purhaun Behauder agrees to receive, and the Honorable East-India Company to furnish, a permanent subsidiary force, of not less than six thousand regular native infantry, with the usual proportion of field-pieces and European artillerymen attached, and with the proper equipment of warlike stores and ammunition, which force is to be accordingly stationed, in perpetuity, in his said Highness's territories.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1802
The Peshwa.

ARTICLE IV.

For the regular peyment of the whole expense of the said subsidiary force, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder hereby assigns and cedes, in perpetuity, to the Honorable East-India Company, all the territories detailed in the Schedule annexed to this Treaty.

ARTICLE V.

As it may be found that certain of the territories ceded by the foregoing article to the Honorable Company may be inconvenient from their situation; his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, for the purpose of rendering the boundary line of the Honorable Company's possession a good and well-defended one, agrees, that such exchanges of Talooks, or lands, shall be made hereafter, on terms of a fair valuation of their respective revenues, as the completion of the said purpose may require. And it is agreed and covenanted, that the territories to be assigned and ceded to the Honorable Company by the fourth article, or in consequence of the exchange stipulated eventually in this article, shall be subject to the exclusive management and authority of the said Company and of their officers.

ARTICLE VI.

Notwithstanding the total annual expense of the subsidiary force is estimated at twenty-five lacks of Rupees, his said Highness has agreed to cede, by Article IV, lands estimated to yield annually the sum of twenty-six lacks of Rupees, the additional lack being intended to meet possible deficiencies in the revenues of the said lands, and save the Honorable Company from loss.

ARTICLE VII.

After the conclusion of this Treaty, and as soon as the British Resident shall signify to his highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, that the Honorable Company's officers are prepared to take charge of the districts ceded by Article IV, his Highness will immediately issue the necessary Perwannahs, or orders, to his officers, to deliver over charge of the same to the officers of the Honorable Company. And it is hereby agreed and stipulated, that all collections made by his Highness's officers, subsequently to the date of the Treaty, and before the officers of the Honorable Company shall have taken charge of the said districts, shall be carried to the credit of the Honorable Company, and all claims to balances from the said districts, referring to periods antecedent to the conclusion of this Treaty, shall be considered as null and void.

A.D. 1802
The Peshwa.

ARTICLE VIII.

All forts situated within the districts to be ceded as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the officers of the Honorable Company with the said districts; and his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder engages, that the said forts shall be delivered to the Honorable Company without being injured or damaged, and with their ordinary equipment of ordnance, stores, and provisions.

ARTICLE IX.

Grain, and all other articles of consumption, and provisions, and all sorts of materials for wearing apparel, together with the necessary numbers of cattle, horses, and camels, required for the use of the subsidiary force, shall be entirely exempted from duties, and the commanding officer, and officers of the said subsidiary force, shall be treated, in all respects, in a manner suitable to the dignity and greatness of both states. The subsidiary force will, at all times, be ready to execute services of importance, such as the protection of the person of his Highness, his heirs, and successors, the overawing and chastisement of rebels or exciters of disturbance in his Highness's dominions, and the due correction of his subjects or dependants, who may withhold the payment of the Sircar's just claims; but it is not to be employed on trifling occasions, nor like Sebundy, to be stationed in the country to collect the revenues, nor against any of the principal branches of the Mahratta Empire, nor in levying contributions from Mahratta dependants in the manner of Moolkgeerre.

ARTICLE X.

Whereas much inconvenience has arisen from certain claims and demands of the Mahratta State, affecting the city of Surat, it is agreed, that a just calculation shall be made of the value of the said claims by his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder and the Government of Bombay; and in consequence of the intimate friendship now established between the contracting parties, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder agrees, for himself, his heirs, and successors, to relinquish, for ever, all the rights, claims, and privileges of the Mahratta State, affecting the said city of Surat, and all collections on that account shall cease and determine, from the day on which this Treaty shall be concluded: in consideration of which act of friendship, the Honorable East-India Company agrees, that a piece of land, yielding a sum equal to the estimated value of the said claims of the Mahratta State, shall be deducted from the districts ceded by Article IV.; and on the same principle, and from similar considerations, his Highness further agrees, that the amount of the collections made for the Poona State, under the title of Nogabundy, in the Pergunnahs of Chourassy and Chickly, shall be ascertained, by an average average taken from the receipts of a certain number of years, or by such other mode of calculation as may be determined on; and his said Highness doth further agree, for himself, his heirs, and successors, to relinquish for ever the Nogabundy collections aforesaid, and they shall accordingly cease from the conclusion of this treaty. And it is agreed and stipulated, that a piece of land, yielding a sum equal to the amount of the said Nogabundy collections, shall be deducted from the districts ceded by Article IV., in the same manner as stipulated in regard to the Choute of Surat. A.D. 1802 The Peshwa.

ARTICLE XI.

Whereas it has been usual for his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder to enlist and retain in his service Europeans of different countries, his said Highness hereby agrees and stipulates, that in the event of war breaking out between the English and any European nation, and of discovery being made that any European or Europeans in his service, belonging to such nation at war with the English, shall have meditated injury towards the English, or have entered into intrigues hostile to their interest, such European or Europeans, so offending, shall be discharged by his said Highness, and not suffered to reside in his dominions.

ARTICLE XII.

Inasmuch as, by the present Treaty, the contracting parties are bound in a general defensive alliance, for mutual defence and protection against all enemies, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder consequently engages, never to commit any act of personal hostility and aggression against his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah Behauder, or any of the Honorable Company's allies or dependants, or against any of the principal branches of the Mahratta Empire, or against any power whatever, and in the event of differences arising, whatever adjustment the Company's Government, weighing matters in the scale of truth and justice, may determine, shall meet with full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE XIII.

And whereas certain differences, referring to past transactions, are known to subsist between the Sirkar of his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder and the Sirkar of his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah Behauder, and whereas an amicable adjustment of those differences must be highly desirable for the welfare and benefit of both the said Sirkars, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, with a view to the above end, agrees, and accordingly binds himself, his heirs, and successors, to fulfil and conform to the stipulations of the Treaty of Mahr; and his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder further agrees, that on the basis of the fulfilment of the said Treaty of Mahr, and of the claims of his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah Behauder, to be totally exempted from the payment of Choute. The Honorable Company's Government shall be entitled to arbitrate and determine all such points, as may be in doubt or difference between the Sirkars of their Highnesses above mentioned; and his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder further agrees, that in the event of any differences arising between his Government and that of his Highness the Nabob Asoph Jah Behauder, at any future period, the particulars of such differences shall be communicated to the Honorable East-India Company, before any act of hostility shall be committed on either side, and the said Honorable Company interposing their mediation, in a way suitable to rectitude, friendship, and union, and mindful of justice and established usage, shall apply themselves to the adjustment of all such differences, conformable to propriety and truth, and shall bring the parties to a right understanding. And it is further agreed, that whatever adjustment of any such differences the Company's Government, weighing things in the scale of truth and justice, shall determine, that determination shall, without hesitation or objection, meet with the full approbation and acquiescence of both parties. It is however agreed, that this stipulation shall not prevent any amicable negotiations which the Honorable Company and the Courts of Poonah and Hyderabad, respectively, may be desirous of opening, provided no such negotiation shall be carried on between any of the three parties, without full communication thereof to each other.

ARTICLE XIV.

Whereas a Treaty of friendship and alliance has been concluded between the Honorable Company and Rajah Anund Row Guickwar Behauder, and whereas the said Treaty was meditated and executed, without any intention that it should infringe any of the just rights or claims of his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder affecting the Sirkars of the said Rajah, his said Highness adverting thereto, and also to the intimate alliance now established between the contracting parties, doth hereby formally acknowledge the existence of the said Treaty between the Honorable Company and Rajah Anund Row Guickwar Behauder; and inasmuch as, by reason of certain unfinished transactions, the conclusion of which has been suspended from time to time, various demands and papers of accounts are found to subsist between the Government of his Highness Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder and the Sirkar of the Rajah aforementioned, his said Highness, placing full reliance on the impartiality, truth, and justice of the British Government, doth hereby agree, that the said Government shall examine into, and finally adjust, the said demands and papers of accounts; and his said Highness further stipulates and binds himself, his heirs, and successors, to abide by such adjustment as the British Government shall accordingly determine.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE XV.

A.D. 1802
The Peshwa.

The contracting parties will employ all practical means of conciliation to prevent the calamity of war, and for that purpose will, at all times, be ready to enter into amicable explanations with other states, and to cultivate and improve the general relations of peace and amity with all the powers of India, according to the true spirit and tenor of this defensive Treaty. But if a war should unfortunately break out between the contracting parties and any other power whatever, then his Highness Row Pundit Purdhaun Behander engages, that with the reserve of two battalions of Sepoys, which are to remain near his Highness's person, the residue of the British subsidiary force, consisting of four battalions of Sepoys with their artillery, joined by six thousand infantry and ten thousand horse of his Highness's own troops, and making together an army of ten thousand infantry and ten thousand cavalry, with the requisite train of artillery and warlike stores of every kind, shall be immediately put in motion, for the purpose of opposing the enemy: and his Highness likewise engages to employ every further effort in his power, for the purpose of bringing into the field, as speedily as possible, the whole force which he may be able to supply from his Dominions, with a view to the effectual prosecution and speedy termination of the said war. The Honorable Company, in the same manner, engage on their parts, in this case, to employ in active operations against the enemy, the largest force they may be able to furnish, over and above the said subsidiary force.

ARTICLE XVI.

Whenever war shall appear probable, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder engages to collect as many Benjaries as possible, and to stow as much grain as may be practicable in his frontier garrisons.

ARTICLE XVII.

As, by the present Treaty, the union and friendship of the two States is so firmly connected, that they may be considered as one and the same, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder engages neither to commence nor to pursue, in future, any negotiations with any other power whatever, without giving previous notice, and entering into mutual consultation, with the Honorable East-India Company's Government: and the Honorable Company's Government, on their parts, hereby declare, that they have no manner of concern with any of his Highness's children, relations, subjects, or servants, with respect to whom his Highness is absolute.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Inasmuch as, by the present Treaty of general defensive alliance, the ties of union are, with the blessing of God, so closely drawn, that the interests of the two States are become become identified, it is further mutually agreed, that if disturbances shall at any time break out in the districts ceded to the Honorable Company by this agreement, his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder shall permit such a proportion of the subsidiary troops, as may be requisite to be employed in quelling the same within the said districts. If disturbances shall, at any time, break out in any part of his Highness's dominions contiguous to the Company's frontier, to which it might be inconvenient to detach any proportion of the subsidiary force, the British Government, in like manner, if required by his Highness Rao Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, shall direct such proportion of the troops of the Company, as may be most conveniently stationed for the purpose, to assist in quelling the said disturbances within his Highness's dominions.

ARTICLE XIX.

It is finally declared, that this Treaty, which, according to the foregoing articles, is meant for the support and credit of his said Highness's Government, and to preserve it from loss and decline, shall last as long as the sun and moon shall endure.

TREATY of ALLIANCE and mutual DEFENCE between the Honorable the English East-India Company and the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah Behauder, and his Children, Heirs, and Successors, settled by Major John Malcolm, on the part of the Honorable Company, and by Bapoo Eetul Punt and Moonshee Kavel Nyn, on the part of the Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, after having communicated to each other their full Powers, the said John Malcolm being deputed to the Court of Dowlut Rao Scindiah by Major General the Honorable Arthur Wellesley, the Honorable Major General aforesaid being invested with full Powers and Authority from his Excellency the Most Noble Richard Marquis Wellesley, Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, one of his Britannic Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, appointed by the Honorable Court of Directors of the said Company to direct and controul all their Affairs in the East-Indies.

Whereas, by the blessing of God, the relations of friendship and union have been happily established between the Government of the Honorable Company and that of the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah Behauder by a recent Treaty of Peace, the two Governments aforesaid, adverting to the complexion of the Times, have now determined, with a view to the preservation of peace and tranquillity, to enter into this Treaty of general Defensive Alliance, for the reciprocal protection of their respective territories, together with those of their several allies and dependants, against unprovoked aggression and encroachments of all or any enemies whatever.

ARTICLE I.

The friendship and union established by the former Treaty between the two states shall be promoted and encreased by this Treaty, and shall be perpetual: the friends and enemies of either state shall be the friends and enemies of both, and their mutual interests shall henceforward be inseparable.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1804
Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

ARTICLE II.

If any person or state whatever shall commit any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against either of the contracting parties, and, after due representation, shall refuse to enter into amicable explanation, or shall deny the just satisfaction or indemnity which the contracting parties shall have required, then the contracting parties will proceed to concert and prosecute such further measures as the case shall appear to demand. For the more distinct explanation of the true intent and effect of this article, the Governor General in Council, in behalf of the Honorable Company, hereby declares, that the British Government will never permit any power or state whatever to commit, with impunity, any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against the rights and territories of the Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, but will, at all times, in compliance with the requisition of the Maha Rajah, maintain and defend the same, when such requisition is made, in the like manner as the rights and territories of the Honorable Company are now maintained and defended.

ARTICLE III.

With a view to fulfil this Treaty of mutual Defence, the Maha Rajah agrees to receive, and the Honorable East-India Company to furnish, a subsidiary force, of not less than six thousand regular infantry, with the usual proportion of artillery, and with the proper equipment of warlike stores and ammunition. This force is to be stationed at such place, near the frontier of Dowlut Rao Scindiah, as may hereafter be deemed most eligible by the British Government, and it will be held in readiness, at such station, to proceed, as soon as possible, for the execution of any service, on which it is liable to be employed by the condition of this Treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

And it is further agreed, that in conformity to the stipulations of the fifteenth article of the Treaty of Peace, concluded by Major General Wellesley, on the part of the Honorable Company, and by Bapoo Eetul, Moonshee Kavel Nyn, &c. on the part of Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, that all charges and expenses of the six battalions above-mentioned, and of their ordnance, artillery, military stores, and equipment, shall be defrayed by the Honorable Company, out of the produce of the revenues of the territories ceded by the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah to the said Company, by the second, third, and fourth articles of the aforementioned Treaty of Peace, which territories are specified in a statement annexed to that Treaty.

ARTICLE V.

Grain, and all other articles of consumption, and provisions, and all sorts of materials for wearing apparel, together with the necessary number of cattle, horses, and camels, required for the use of the subsidiary force, shall, whenever the aforesaid force is within the

ARTICLE VI.

The subsidiary force will, at all times, be ready, on the requisition of the Maha Rajah, to execute services of importance, such as the care of the person of the Maha Rajah, his heirs and successors, the protection of the country from attack and invasion, the overawing and chastisement of rebels or exciters of disturbance in the Maha Rajah's Dominions; but it is not be employed on trifling occasions.

ARTICLE VII.

Whereas it is agreed in the thirteenth article of the Treaty of Peace, that the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah shall never take or retain in his service any Frenchman, or the subject of any other European or American power, the Government of which may be at war with Great-Britain, or any British subject whatever, European or native of India, without the consent of the British Government, the Maha Rajah now further engages, that he will hereafter never employ in his service, or permit to reside in his dominions, any European or American whatever, without the consent and acquiescence of the British Government; the said British Government, on its part, engaging, that it never will employ, or permit to reside in its dominions, any person subject of the Maha Rajah, or others, who shall hereafter be guilty of crimes or of hostility against the person or Government of the aforesaid Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

ARTICLE VIII.

As, by the present Treaty, the union and friendship of the two states is so firmly cemented, that they may be considered as one and the same, the Maha Rajah engages neither to commence nor to pursue, in future, any negotiation with any principal states or powers, without giving previous notice, and entering into mutual consultation with the Honorable East-India Company's Government: and the Honorable Company's Government,

A.D. 1804
Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

Government, on their part, declare, that they will have no manner of concern with any of the Maha Rajah's relations, dependants, military chiefs, or servants, with respect to whom the Maha Rajah is absolute: and that they will, on no occasion, ever afford encouragement, support, or protection, to any of the Maha Rajah's relations, dependants, chiefs, or servants, who may eventually act in opposition to the Maha Rajah's authority, but, on the contrary, at the requisition of the Maha Rajah, they will aid and assist to punish and reduce all such offenders to obedience: and it is further agreed, that no officer of the Honorable Company shall ever interfere in the internal affairs of the Maha Rajah's Government.

ARTICLE IX.

As the chief object and design of the present defensive alliance is the security and protection of the dominions of the contracting parties, and their allies and dependants, from all attack whatsoever, the Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah engages never to commit any act of hostility or aggression against any state or chief in alliance with the Honorable Company, or against any other principal state or power; and in the event of differences arising, whatever adjustment the Company's Government, weighing matters in the scale of truth and justice, may determine, shall meet with his full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE X.

The contracting parties will employ all practicable means of conciliation to prevent the calamity of war, and for that purpose will, at all times, be ready to enter into amicable explanations with other principal states or powers, and to cultivate and improve the general relations of peace and amity with all the principal powers of India, according to the true spirit and tenor of this Treaty; but if a war should unfortunately break out between the contracting parties and any other state or power whatever, then the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah Behauder engages, that the English force, consisting of six battalions, with their guns, &c., joined by a detachment of his army, consisting of six thousand of the Maha Rajah's infantry, and ten thousand of his Pagah and Sillahdar cavalry, which force the Maha Rajah engages always to keep ready, shall be immediately put in motion, for the purpose of opposing the enemy: and the Maha Rajah also engages to employ every further effort, for the purpose of bringing into the field the whole force which he may be able to supply from his dominions, with a view to the effectual prosecution and speedy termination of the said war. The Honorable Company, in the same manner, engage, on their part (on such event occurring), to employ in active operations against the enemy, as large a force as the service may require, over and above the said subsidiary force.

A.D. 1804
Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

ARTICLE XI.

Whenever war shall appear probable, the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah engages to collect as many Binjaries as possible, and to store as much grain as may be practicable in the frontier garrisons. The Company's Government also, with a view to the effectual prosecution of the war, engage to adopt similar measures in their frontier garrisons.

ARTICLE XII.

The contracting parties entertain no views of conquests or extension of their respective dominions, nor any intention of proceeding to hostilities against any state or principal power, unless in the case of unjust and unprovoked aggression, and after the failure of their joint endeavours to obtain reasonable satisfaction, through the channel of pacific negotiation, according to the tenor of the preceding Treaty. If, contrary to the spirit and object of this defensive Treaty, war with any state should hereafter appear unavoidable (which God avert), the contracting parties will proceed to adjust the rule of partition of all such advantages and acquisitions as may eventually result from the success of their united arms. It is declared that, in the event of war, and of a consequent partition of conquests between the contracting parties, the shares of each Government shall be equal, in the division of any territory which may be acquired by the successful exertion of their united arms, provided that each of the contracting parties shall have faithfully fulfilled all the stipulations of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XIII.

The interests of the contracting parties being identified by this defensive alliance, it is agreed, that the Honorable Company's Government shall be at liberty to employ the whole, or any part of the subsidiary force established by the Treaty, in the quelling of any disturbances which may arise within their territories, or in the performance of any other service which may be required by the said Honorable Company's Government, provided such service shall not interfere with any other duties on which the said subsidiary force is liable to be employed under the conditions of this Treaty. And if disturbances shall, at any time, break out in any part of the Maha Rajah's dominions which lays contiguous to the frontier of the Honorable Company, and to which it might be inconvenient to detach any proportion of the subsidiary force, the British Government, in like manner, if required by Dowlut Rao Scindiah, shall direct such of the Company's troops, as may be most conveniently stationed for the purpose, to assist in quelling the said disturbances within the Maha Rajah's dominions; and if disturbances shall, at any time, break out in any part of the dominions of the British Government which lay contiguous to the frontier of the Maha Rajah, the Maha Rajah, if required by the British Government, shall shall direct such of his troops as may be most conveniently stationed for the purpose, to assist in quelling the said disturbances within the dominions of the British Government. A.D. 1804 Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

ARTICLE XIV.

In order to strengthen and confirm the friendship established between the two States, it is agreed, that neither of the two contracting parties shall enter into any alliance, or have any concern with the tributaries or chiefs of the other: and, in order to support the independent authority of both Governments, it is agreed and declared, that hereafter neither of the contracting parties will give protection or countenance to the rebellious tributaries and subjects of the other, but they will use their utmost endeavours for the apprehension of such rebels, in order that they may be brought to punishment.

ARTICLE XV.

The Honorable Company agree to exert their influence to maintain the observance of such usages on matters of form and ceremony, and other customs, as shall appear to have been fixed, on all points of intercourse and communication between the Peishwah and his ancestors, and the Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah and his ancestors: and the English Government also agree to recognize the right of Dowlut Rao Scindiah to all possessions he holds, whether by written Sunnuds, or grants, or by the unwritten authority of the Peishwah, according to former usage, provided such Sunnuds do not interfere with the faithful fulfilment of the Treaty of Peace; and provided, also, that in all cases where disputes may arise, on the subject of possessions held by unwritten authority, the Maha Rajah Dowlut Rao Scindiah agrees to refer to the sole arbitration of the said British Government, who will decide, with reference to former usage, on the principles of truth and justice. The English Government further agrees, to use its endeavour to prevent any acts which have been done by Dowlut Rao Scindiah, or his ancestors, under the authority reposed in him or them by the Peishwah or his Ancestors, from being subverted, provided their being supported is strictly consistent with the preservation of the honor and dignity of His Highness the Peishwah, and of the stipulations of the Treaty of Peace.

ARTICLE XVI.

This treaty, consisting of sixteen articles, being this day settled by Major Malcolm, on the part of the Honorable Company, and by Eetul Punt and Moonshee Kavel Nyn, on the part of Dowlut Rao Scindiah, Major Malcolm has delivered one copy thereof, in Persian and Mahratta and English, signed and sealed by himself, to the said Maha Rajah, who, on his part, has also delivered one copy of the same, duly executed by himself: and Major Malcolm, by virtue of a special authority given him in that behalf, by Major General the Honorable Arthur Wellesley (himself vested with full powers as before stated), hereby declares the said Treaty to be in full force from the date hereof, and engages that that a copy of the same from the Governor General in Council, in every respect a counterpart of that executed by himself, shall be delivered to the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Rao Scindiah, in the space of two months and ten days, and on the delivery of such copy, the Treaty executed by Major Malcolm shall be returned.

Treaty with the Rajah of Travancore, 1805.

Treaty of perpetual Friendship and Alliance between the Honorable English East-India Company Behauder and the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder, Rajah of Travancore. A.D. 1805 Rajah of Travancore.

Whereas the Treaty concluded in the year 1795, between the Honorable Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies and his late Highness the Rajah of Travancore, was intended to defend and protect the Travancore country against foreign enemies, and to strengthen and to fix the terms of the ancient friendship and alliance subsisting between the Company and the Rajah of Travancore; and whereas it is evident, that the intentions of the contracting parties have not been duly fulfilled, and whereas the said Company and his Highness the Rajah of Travancore have judged it expedient, that additional provisions should, at this time, be made, for the purpose of supplying the defects in the said Treaty, and of establishing the connection between the said contracting parties on a permanent basis of security, in all times to come; therefore, in order to carry into effect the said intentions, the present Treaty is concluded by Lieutenant Colonel Colin Macaulay, Resident at Travancore, on the part and in the name of his Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, K.P. and K.C., Governor General in Council of all the British Possessions in the East-Indies, and by his Highness the Rajah of Travancore, for himself, agreeably to the following articles, which shall be binding on the contracting parties, as long as the sun and moon shall endure.

ARTICLE I.

[redacted]riends and enemies of either of the contracting parties shall be considered as the fri[redacted]d enemies of both. The Honorable the East-India Company Behauder especially eng[redacted] to defend and protect the territories of the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder of Travancore against all enemies whatever.

ARTICLE II.

Whereas, by the seventh article of the Treaty concluded in the year 1795, between the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder and the English East-India Company Behauder, it was stipulated, "that when the Company shall require any aid of his troops to assist them "in war, it shall be incumbent on the said reigning Rajah, for the time being, to furnish "such aid, to such extent, and in such numbers as may be in his power, from his regular "infantry and cavalry, exclusive of the native Nayers of his country," and the Company being now willing entirely to release the Rajah from the obligations incurred under the said stipulation, it is hereby concluded and agreed, that the Ram Rajah Behauder is for ever discharged from the aforesaid burthensome obligation.

ARTICLE III.

In consideration of the stipulations and release contained in the first and second articles, whereby the Company become liable to heavy and constant expence, while great relief is afforded to the revenues of the Rajah, his Highness engages to pay annually to the said Company a sum equivalent to the expense of one regiment of the Honorable Company's native infantry, in addition to the sum now payable by the said Rajah, for the force subsidised by his Highness, by the third article of the Subsidiary Treaty of 1795, the said amount to be paid in six equal instalments, commencing from the first day of January 1805: and his said Highness further agrees, that the disposal of the said sum, together with the arrangement and employment of the troops to be maintained by it, whether stationed within the Travancore country or within the Company's districts, shall be left entirely to the Company.

ARTICLE IV.

Should it become necessary for the Company to employ a larger force, than that which is stipulated for in the preceding article, to protect the territories of the said Maha Rajah against attack or invasion, his Highness agrees to contribute, jointly with the Company, towards the discharge of the encreased expence thereby occasioned, such a sum as shall appear, on an attentive consideration of the means of his said Highness, to bear a just and reasonable proportion to the actual nett revenues of his said Highness.

ARTICLE V.

Whereas it is indispensably necessary, that effectual and lasting security should be provided against any failure in the funds destined to defray, either the expenses of the permanent military force in time of peace, or the extraordinary expences described in the preceding article of the present Treaty, it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the contracting parties, that whenever the Governor General in Council of Fort William in Bengal shall have reason to apprehend such failure in the funds so destined, the said Governor General in Council shall be at liberty, and shall have full power and right, either to introduce such regulations and ordinances, as he shall deem expedient for the internal management and collection of the revenues, or for the better ordering of any other branch and department of the Government of Travancore, or to assume and bring under the the direct management of the servants of the said Company Behauder such part or parts of the territorial possessions of his Highness the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder, as shall appear to him, the said Governor General in Council, necessary to render the said funds efficient and available, either in time of peace or war. A.D. 1805 Rajah of Travancore.

ARTICLE VI.

And it is hereby further agreed, that whenever the said Governor General in Council shall signify to the said Maha Rajah Ram Behauder, that it is become necessary to carry into effect the provisions of the fifth article, his said Highness Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder shall immediately issue orders to his Aumils, or other officers, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, according to the tenor of the fifth article, or for placing the territories required under the exclusive authority and control of the English Company Behauder; and in case his Highness shall not issue orders, within ten days from the time when the application shall have been formally made to him, then the said Governor General in Council shall be at liberty to issue orders, by his own authority, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, or for assuming the management and collection of the revenues of the said territories, as he shall judge expedient, for the purpose of securing the efficiency of the said military funds, and of providing for the effectual protection of the country and welfare of the people. Provided always, that whenever, and so long as any part or parts of his said Highness's territories shall be placed, and shall remain under the exclusive authority and control of the said East-India Company, the Governor General in Council shall render to his Excellency a true and faithful account of the revenues and produce of the territories so assumed. Provided also, that in case whenever his Highness's actual receipt or annual income, arising out of his territorial revenues, be less than the sum of two lacks of rupees, together with one-fifth of the nett revenues of the whole of his territories, which sum of two lacks of Rupees, together with the amount of one-fifth of the said revenues, the East-India Company engages, at all times and in every possible case, to secure, and cause to be paid for his Highness's use.

ARTICLE VII.

His Highness the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder engages, that he will be guided by a sincere and cordial attention to the relations of peace and amity established between the English Company and their Allies, and that he will carefully abstain from any interference in the affairs of any state in alliance with the said English Company Behauder, or of any state whatever. And for securing the object of this, stipulation, it is further stipulated and agreed, that no communication or correspondence with any foreign state, whatever, shall be holden by his said Highness, without the previous knowledge and sanction of the said English Company Behauder.

ARTICLE VIII.

His Highness stipulates and agrees, that he will not admit any European foreigners into his service, without the concurrence of the English Company Behauder; and that he will apprehend and deliver to the Company's Government all Europeans, of whatever description, who shall be found within the territories of his said Highness, without regular passports from the British Government, it being his Highness's determined resolution, not to suffer, even for a day, any European to remain within his territories, unless by consent of the said Company.

ARTICLE IX.

Such parts of the Treaty (A. D. 1795) one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, between the English East-India Company and the late Rajah of Travancore, as are calculated to strengthen the alliance, to cement the friendship, and to identify the interest of the contracting parties, are hereby renewed and confirmed; and accordingly his Highness hereby promises to pay, at all times, the utmost attention to such advice as the English Government shall occasionally judge it necessary to offer him, with a view to the economy of his finances, the better collection of his revenues, the administration of justice, the extension of commerce, the encouragement of trade, agriculture, and industry, or any other objects connected with the advancement of his Highness's interests, the happiness of his people, and the mutual welfare of both states.

ARTICLE X.

This Treaty, consisting of ten articles, being this day, the 12th day of January, 1805, settled and concluded, at the fortress of Jeeroovanamaporam, in Travancore, by Lieutenant Colonel Colin Macaulay, on behalf and in the name of his Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor General in Council, with the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder, he has delivered to the said Maha Rajah one copy of the same, in English and Persian, signed and sealed by him, and his Highness the Maha Rajah has delivered to the Lieutenant Colonel aforesaid, another copy, also in Persian and English, bearing his seal and signature, and signed and sealed by Vayloo Tomby, Dewan to the Maha Rajah aforesaid; and the Lieutenant Colonel aforesaid has engaged to procure and deliver to the said Maha Rajah, without delay, a copy of the same, under the seal and signature of his Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor General in Council, on the receipt of which by the said Maha Rajah the present Treaty shall be deemed complete and binding on the Honorable Company and on the Maha Rajah Ram Rajah Behauder, and the copy of it now delivered to the said Maha Rajah shall be returned.

DEFINITIVE TREATY of Amity and Alliance between the Honorable English East-India Company and the Maha Rajah Ali Jah Dowlut Row Scindia Behauder, and his Children, Heirs, and Successors.

Whereas various doubts and misunderstandings have arisen, respecting the clear meaning and interpretation of parts of the Treaty of Peace concluded between the British Government and Dowlut Row Scindia, at Serjee Anjengaum, on the 30th December, 1803, with a view of doing away all such doubts, and of preventing the recurrence, in future, of any misunderstanding, this Definitive Treaty of amity and alliance is concluded between the two states, by Lieutenant Colonel John Malcolm, acting under the immediate direction and superintendance of the Right Honorable General Gerard Lake, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's Forces, &c. &c. &c. and vested with full powers and authority from the Honorable Sir George Hilaro Barlow, Baronet, appointed by the Honorable Court of Directors of the said Company to control and direct all their affairs in the East-Indies, and Moonshee Kavil Nyne, vested with full powers and authority on the part of the said Maha Rajah Dowlut Row Scindia.

Every part of the Treaty of Peace concluded by General Sir Arthur Wellesley, K. B. at Surjee Anjengaum, except what may be altered by this engagement, is to remain binding upon the two states.

ARTICLE II.

The Honorable Company can never acknowledge that Dowlut Row Scindia has any claim or right, grounded on the Treaty of Surjee Anjengaum, to possess the fort of Gualior or the territories of Gohud; but, from considerations of friendship, it agrees to cede to the Maha Rajah that fortress, and such parts of the territory of Gohud, as are described in the accompanying Schedule.

Dowlut Rao Scindiah.

ARTICLE III.

As a compensation for this cession, and to remunerate the English Government for the annual expense incurred in supporting the Ranah of Gohud, Dowlut Row Scindia agrees, on his own part and that of his Sirdars, to relinquish, after the 1st of January, 1806, all right and claim whatever to the pensions of fifteen lacks of Rupees granted to several of the chief officers of his state, by the seventh article of the aforesaid Treaty of Surjee Anjengaum.

ARTICLE IV.

The Honorable Company agree to pay to Dowlat Row Scindia the arrears due upon the pensions granted by the seventh article of the Treaty of Peace, as above mentioned, up to the 31st of December, 1805, and also the balance due upon the revenues of Dholepoor, Rajah Kerrah, and Baree, up to the same date, making deductions on the following heads:

With a view of preventing any misunderstanding relating to their respective possessions on the quarter of Hindostan, it is agreed, that the river Chumbul shall form the boundary between the two states, from the city of Cottah to the west, to the limits of the territories of Gohud to the east, and within that extent of the course of the Chumbul, Dowlut Row Scindia shall have no claim or right to any rule, tribute, revenue, or possessions, on its north bank; and the Honorable Company shall have no claim or right to any rule, tribute, revenues, or possessions on the south bank of that river. The Talooks of Bhadek and Sooseperarah, which are on the banks of the Jumna, will, however, remain in possession of the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE VI.

By the fifth article of this Treaty, which makes the river Chumbul the boundary of the two states, from the city of Kottah to the west, to the limits of the territories of Gohud to the east, the Maha Raja resigns all pretensions and claims to any tribute from the Rajah of Boondee, or any other, on the north bank of the Chumbul, within the aforementioned limits; as also to the countries of Tank Ramporah, Bahraungaum, Zemeidah, &c. and to the districts of Dholepoor, Raja Kherrah, and Baree, all which remain in the possession of the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Honoroble Company engage to enter into no Treaty with the Rajahs of Oudeepore and Joudpoor and Kottah, or other chiefs, tributaries of Dowlut Row Scindia, situated in Malwa, Mewar, or Marwar, and in no shape whatever to interfere with the settlement which Scindia may make with those chiefs.

ARTICLE IX.

The Honorable Company are now engaged in a war with Jeswunt Row Holkar, and using every exertion for his reduction; but should they, hereafter, make a peace, or enter into any agreement with that chief, they engage not to restore to him, or desire to be restored to him, any of the possessions of the family of Holkar in the province of Malwa, lying between the river Tapti and Chumbul, which may have been taken by Dowlut Row Scindia, nor will the Honorable Company interfere, in any manner whatever, in the disposal of those provinces; and they will consider Dowlut Row Scindia at full liberty to make such arrangement as he chuses with Jeswunt Row Holkar, or with any other branch of the Holkar Family, respecting the claims of that family to tribute from the Rajahs, or others, or to any possessions situated to the north of the river Tapti and to the south of the river Chumbul: but it is clearly to be understood, that as the Company's Government agrees not to concern itself with the arrangements which Scindia may make with the family of Holkar, respecting their claims or hereditary possessions, situated between the Tapti and the Chumbul, that Government will not take part in any dispute or war, which may be the result or consequence of such arrangement or settlement.

QUESTION II.

Let there be no variation in that rank and splendour which the Almighty originally bestowed upon me.

ANSWER II.

When you have attached yourself, with your heart and soul, to the British Government, and have exerted yourself, to the utmost of your power, in the transfer of the whole of the province of Bundlecund to the British Government, you will be considered as a particular friend to the Government, and your honor and splendour will consequently increase daily.

QUESTION III.

Let Rajah Omraogeer, my brother, who is in confinement at Lucknow, be released.

ANSWER III.

His Excellency the Nawaub Vizier will be requested to release your brother, Omraogeer; but as Omraogeer was confined on account of a conspiracy against the Government of his Excellency the Nawaub Vizier, and as the British Government is exclusively responsible for the protection of his Excellency's dominions and Government, a proper security must be given, in person or property, who must be responsible to the Government, should any sinister design appear on his part after his release.

QUESTION IV.

For the residence of my family in the Doab, let the Purgannahs Secundra and Bendkee be granted in Jagheer, and continued to my posterity.

ANSWER IV.

As you will continue attached to the service of the Honorable Company, you will certainly be favored with a Jagheer, equal to your rank and station; but as the services, in compensation for which the Jagheer will be granted, have not yet been performed, whenever those services shall have satisfied the British Government of your attachment, you will immediately be granted a Jagheer, equal to your rank and station.

QUESTION V.

Let a Jaidad, or assignment of land, on account of my Risalet, or establishment of cavalry, be granted in Bundlecund, below the Ghauts, to the extent of twenty lacks of Rupees, with the forts situated thereon.

ANSWER V.

A Jaidad, of twenty lacks of Rupees, will be granted for the support of your Rassilah, or troops; but it will be incumbent on you to keep up troops, equal to the amount of the Jaidad, and to retain them in readiness to obey the orders of the British Government.

QUESTION

Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

QUESTION VI.

Whenever it shall please the British Government to undertake the conquest of other countries, I shall be ready to attend. In that case, let a distinct Jaidad, or else a sufficient sum of money be granted to me, for the purpose of making new lines of cavalry and infantry, to the extent that the British Government may be pleased to direct.

ANSWER VI.

Whenever it may be necessary to desire you to retain troops, in addition to the number which may be equal to the amount of the Jaidad, the pay for them will be provided for by Government.

QUESTION VII.

In prosecuting the conquest of every new country, whatever engagements may be entered into with the Zemindars and Rajahs, who through me offer obedience to the Company, let such engagements be strictly adhered to.

ANSWER VII.

As you are a servant of the State, any agreement that may be entered into, with the consent of Government, with those persons who may offer obedience through you, shall not be deviated from.

QUESTION VIII.

In the event of any Treaty of Peace being concluded between the British Government and the Peshwa, let mention of my Jaidad be made in it, and let me find uniform support from the British Government. If this country should also be relinquished, let a Jaidad of twenty lacks of Rupees be granted to me by the Government in some of the neighbouring countries.

ANSWER VIII.

In the event of the British Government relinquishing the country, the Jaidad granted by the present agreement will be provided for by the terms of relinquishment.

We, Mr. John Meeselback and Wajah-oo-Deen Khan Behauder, authorized Agents, on the part of the Maha Rajah Himmut Behauder, do declare our assent to the terms above agreed upon, between the British Government and the Maha Rajah, in conformity to the answers given to the Wajeb-oo-Urz, or paper of request.

Let my possessions be exempted from the authority of the British courts of justice, in the same manner as the Elakas of this province are.

ANSWER VIII.

The authority of the courts of justice shall prevail in your Jagheer, under similar restrictions as in the possessions of the other chiefs and Jageerdars of Bundlecund. It is requisite, however, that you preserve strict order and regularity in the villages subject to your authority, and that you do not harbour in them any robbers or rebellious persons. If, at any time, any of the subjects of the British Government, accused of theft, highway robbery, or murder, should take refuge in your villages, you must seize and deliver them over to the British authority; and if any of the inhabitants of your villages commit any of those crimes, either in the British possessions or in the villages subject to your authority, they shall, in like manner, be seized and delivered up to the British Government.

TREATY with the Nana of Calpee, 1806.

ENGAGEMENT concluded between Nana Govind Rao Pundit, for himself, his Heirs, and Successors, and Captain John Baillie, Political Agent to the Honorable Sir George Hilaro Barlow, Baronet, Governor General, &c. &c. &c., in behalf of the Honorable the East-India Company, at Banda, the 23d day of October, 1806.

Whereas, by the Treaty of Bassein, a portion of territory in Savanour and Oolpara, formerly in the possession of his Highness the Peishwa, was ceded to the Honorable the East-India Company; and whereas, by a subsequent agreement between the two Governments, the said territory was restored to his Highness the Peishwa, and in exchange of that territory, together with certain other considerations, which are detailed in the agreement in question, a territory in the province of Bundlecund, yielding an annual revenue of thirty-six lacks and sixteen thousand Rupees, was permanently ceded to the British Government, and annexed to their possessions in Hindoostan; and whereas, at the period when the British troops were first employed in the occupation of the province of Bundlecund, and in the punishment of the disaffected in this province, Nana Govind Rao did, for a time, oppose the operations of the British troops in this province, by which conduct he, the said Nana Govind Rao, placed himself in the condition of an enemy to the British Government, and several districts and forts in the province of Bundlecund, which were formerly possessed by him, were conquered by the British army, and occupied by their authority; and whereas, after the conquest of the aforesaid districts and forts, Nana Govind Rao, professing sincere obedience and submission to the Honorable Company, joined the British army with his troops, and since the period in question invariably regulated his conduct by a rigid observance of the duties of amity and attachment to the British Government and to its interests, in consideration of which the Hakas of Oorey and Mohummudabad were restored to him during the first year, and the Pergunnahs of Nokaba in the second year after his submission; and whereas a promise was made by the British Government, to grant to Nana Govind Rao, an equivalent for the district of Calpee at some future period, and the Honorable the Governor General in Council has lately been pleased to direct the performance of that promise, therefore, with a view to the confidence and entire satisfaction of Nana Govind Rao, regarding both his ancient possessions, and those which are now to be ceded to him, as an equivalent for the district of Calpee, as well as for the purpose of confirming the said Nana Govind Rao in the principles and duties of good faith and attachment to the British Government, the following articles have been agreed to, and shall continue in force for ever.

ARTICLE I.

The Nana having professed a sincere attachment to the Honorable Company, hereby engages never to molest the territory of the British Government, or of any chieftain or state in alliance with the British Government, nor to afford succour or protection to any persons hostile to the British Government.

ARTICLE II.

Nana Govind Rao hereby surrenders for himself, his heirs, and successors, and cedes, in perpetual sovereignty, to the Honorable East-India Company, their heirs and successors, for ever, the city, fort, and Zillah of Calpee, situated in the Soubah of Akburabad, and the several villages situated on the right bank of the Jumna, between Calpee and Raypoor, which are specified in the annexed Schedule, together with all rights and privileges which he, or his ancestors, may at any time have possessed in the Zillah and villages aforesaid.

ARTICLE III.

If any subject of the British Government, accused of crimes, or any defaulter, shall at any time abscond, and take refuge in the Nana's territory, the Nana engages to seize and deliver over such person to the British Government, on application from the civil officer in the British territory.

ARTICLE IV.

The British Government having been pleased to grant to the Nana, as an equivalent for the district of Calpee, the several villages which are specified in the annexed Schedule, and some of the Mahals in question being situated between the British possessions eastward of the Betwa and the district of Kooch, on the north west frontier, in which the presence of the civil officers of Government must always be required, and to which the detachment of troops may often be expedient, the Nana hereby engages to afford every assistance and support in his power to the civil officers of the British Government residing in the district of Kooch, and to provide the British officers and troops, on their march through his country, with the necessary passports, guides, and supplies, so that no injury may be sustained by travellers, or inconvenience suffered by troops, in passing between the district of Kooch and any other part of the British possessions.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE V.

A.D. 1806

Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

The Nana being considered as the independent and uncontrolled ruler of the territory now ceded to him, or confirmed in his possession, hereby renounces all claim to the aid of the British Government against internal or external enemies; and the British Government renounces all claims whatever upon the Nana, with the exception of those described in this Engagement.

ARTICLE VI.

If any of the brothers or relations of Nana Govind Rao prefer a complaint against him to the British Government, whether such complaint be founded on motives of personal enmity or otherwise; or if any banker or merchant, being a creditor of the Nana, or of any of his servants or adherents, prefer a complaint against him; or if any of the inhabitants of any of the villages dependant on the Nana exhibit a claim against him, of any description whatever, all such complaints and claims shall be left to the Nana's decision.

ARTICLE VII.

As one third of the diamond mines of Punna have, from ancient times, been committed by his Highness the Peishwa to the care of Nana Govind Rao, and continued in his charge during the establishment of the authority of the late Nawab Alli Behauder in this province, it is therefore agreed, that in case of any portion of the diamond mines of Punna coming into the possession of the Honorable Company, the Nana shall not be molested by them in possession of the said portion of the mines in question; and the British Government hereby expressly renounces all claims against that portion of the diamond mines of Punna, which has heretofore been occupied by the Nana.

ARTICLE VIII.

All houses and gardens, which belonged to the ancestors of the Nana and to those of his relations, and which are situated in the town of Betho, or in the Dooab, on the banks of the Ganges, or in the city of Benares or Calpee, or in Baupoor, or in any other towns or villages which are now in the possession of the British Government, shall continue, as heretofore, to be the private property of the Nana and his relations, whose rights shall not be, in any manner, molested or encroached upon by the officers of the British Government.

ARTICLE IX.

All territories and rights in the province of Bundlecund, including Sagur, which are now occupied or possessed by Nana Govind Rao, or ceded to him by this Treaty, in exchange for the district of Calpee, are hereby declared to be exempt from every future claim or demand on the part of the Honorable Company, their heirs, and successors, for ever; and the British Government engage never to molest or disturb the Nana, his heirs, or successors, in the possession of the said territories and rights in Bundlecund, including Sagur, nor in the possession of those districts which are now ceded to him as an equivalent for the district of Calpee.

ARTICLE X.

This Engagement, consisting of ten articles, being this day settled and concluded at Banda, between Captain John Baillie, Agent to the Governor General, on the one part, and Bashur Rao Ana Pundit and Rao Kishun Rao, the accredited Vakeels of Nana Govind Rao, on the other, a copy of the same, in English and Persian, under the seal and signature of the said Captain John Baillie, has been delivered to the said Vakeels, and the said Vakeels have delivered to Captain John Baillie another copy, bearing the seal and signature of the said Nana Govind Rao, countersigned by his said Vakeels; and the said Captain John Baillie has engaged to procure and deliver to the Vakeels of the said Nana Govind Rao, without delay, a copy of this engagement, duly ratified by the Honorable the Governor General in Council, on the receipt of which by the said Vakeels the present Engagement shall be deemed complete and binding on the Honorable Company and on the said Nana Govind Rao, and the copy of it now delivered by the said Vakeels shall be returned.

Done at Banda, this 23d day of October, Anno Domini 1806, answering to the 10th day of Shabun, 1221 Hegira, and to 11th day of Koaz Sood, 1863 Sunbut.

SUNNUD granted to Maha Rajah Kishore Sing.

A.D. 1807
Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

Be it known to all Chowdries, Kanoongoes, Zemindars, Malgoodars, and Talookdars, of that portion of Bundlecund above the Gauts which was formerly in the possession of Hirdee Sah, that whereas the primary objects of the British Government are the amelioration of the condition of their subjects and the adjustment of the rights of all just claimants; and whereas, actuated by this principle, the Honorable the East-India Company, from motives of liberality, have not thought proper to avail themselves of their title to the possession of the whole of Bundlecund, which, with an annual revenue of thirty-six lacks and sixteen thousand Rupees, was, by an agreement between the two states, ceded to the British Government by his Highness the Peshwa, but contenting themselves with that territory which is now in their actual possession, they have been pleased to apportion the remaining territory to various chieftains of this province, possessing just claims, and to certain persons who were in the possession of lands before the introduction of the British authority into this province, and who since its establishment have uniformly professed and evinced their attachment and fidelity to it; with this view, that the whole of the inhabitants of this province, both high and low, may pass their days in security and happiness, under the benign protection of the British Government; and whereas Maha Rajah Kishore Sing, the grandson of the late Maha Rajah Herdee Sah, possessing claims in common with the other Rajahs of this province, and sincerely professing attachment to the British Government, has become obedient and submissive to it, and has deputed his Minister, Raj Dhur Guga Sing, to solicit the favor and kindness of the Government, therefore, the Mahals, villages, and diamond mines, specified underneath, and situated above the Gauts, are hereby granted and assigned to the Maha Rajah by the British Government.

It is necessary that the Maha Rajah, entertaining a due sense of this extensive grant, do strictly perform the conditions of this engagement; in which case he shall never be molested nor opposed by the British Government, but shall continue undisturbed in the enjoyment of his present possessions.

OBLIGATION of Maha Rajah Kishore Sing, signed and sealed by his Minister Roy Dhur Gey Sing, at Modha, the 4th February, 1807.

Whereas, by the Treaty of Bassein, the country of Dursa, Noor and Oldpah, originally in the possession of Sreement Pundit Purdhan Sewaee Bazee Rao Peishwa Behauder, was formerly ceded to the Honorable the East-India Company; and whereas, by a subsequent agreement between the two states, this country was afterwards restored to the Peishwah, and in exchange for it, and for certain other considerations, which are contained in the agreement in question, in the province of Bundlecund, yielding a revenue of thirty-six lacks and sixteen thousand Rupees, was ceded, in perpetual sovereignty, by his Highness the Peishwah, to the Honorable the East-India Company, and annexed to their actual possessions; and whereas a British force having entered the province, for the purpose of settling the country, and punishing the refractory, all the Rajahs of this province and its vicinity, on hearing the fame of the justice, benevolence, and good faith, which have ever regulated the conduct of the British Government, placed themselves under its protection, and becoming respectively the objects of its bounty and liberality, have been reinstated and confirmed in their original possessions, which they now enjoy in security and comfort; and whereas I, Maha Rajah Kishore Sing Behauder, descended from the late

A.D. 1807 Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

Maha Rajah Herdee Sah, and possessed of claims in common with the other Rajahs of this province, have, with sincere professions of attachment to the British Government, deputed my minister, Raj Dhur Gey Sing, to solicit the favor and kindness of the Government, and accordingly, with a view to the promotion of the welfare of the inhabitants of this province, a Sunnud for certain Mehals and villages above the Ghauts, which by the Treaty of Bassein are immediately dependant on the British Government, has been conferred upon me, therefore, and in order to confirm my obedience and attachment to the British Government, I have prepared and delivered this obligation, containing the following articles, under my own seal and signature, and under the seal and signature of my minister, Raj Dhur Sing; and I hereby declare, that I never will swerve from those articles, in any instance whatever.

ARTICLE I.

I hereby bind myself never to aid nor abet any marauders, either in or out of the province of Bundlecund, never to harbor them in my possessions, nor permit their families to reside in the territory subject to my authority, and also to abstain from all correspondence and communication with them; and I further bind myself never to engage in hostility with any of the adherents or dependants of the British Government but always to be obedient and submissive to it..

ARTICLE II.

I engage to guard the passes through the Gauths, which are subject to my authority, in such a manner as to prevent all marauders and plunderers from ascending or descending the Gauths through those passes, and to secure the territory of the British Government from incursions through any of the said passes.

ARTICLE II

Whenever the British troops shall have occasion to ascend the Gauths through any of the passes subject to my authority, I engage not only not to obstruct nor impede their progress, but to depute respectable and intelligent persons to conduct them by the most convenient route.

ARTICLE IV.

Whereas the British Government, from motives of justice and equity, have granted to me a Sunnud for a considerable portion of territory above the Gauths, and whereas many of the villages contained in that territory were formerly made over in Malgoozaree, by my ancestors and predecessors, to certain persons who were faithful and obedient, and many of those Pergunnahs and villages have, of late years, been usurped by refractory and turbulent persons, who have revolted from my authority, therefore I hereby solemnly pledge myself to be responsible for any commotions or disturbances which shall be excited by those persons within the British territory.

ARTICLE V.

If any subject of the British Government abscond and take refuge in any of the villages subject to my authority, I agree to seize such person, and to deliver him up to the officers of the British Government immediately on his being demanded.

ARTICLE VI.

I will not permit thieves or robbers to reside in any of my villages; and if the property of merchants or travellers be stolen or robbed in any village under my authority, I agree to make the Zemindars of such villages responsible, either for the restitution of the stolen stolen property, or for the delivery of the offender to the British Government: and if any felon or murderer, or any person ameanable to the British laws, for crimes committed in the British territory, shall take refuge in any of my villages, I engage to deliver him over to the officers of the British Government. A.D. 1807 Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

ARTICLE VII.

One of my confidential servants shall always be in attendance on the principal officer of the Government in this province, for the purpose of executing his orders.

I, Raz Dhur Geya Sing, the minister of Maha Rajah Kishore Sing Behauder, having, as agent for the Maha Rajah, affixed my seal and signature to this obligation, and entered it among the records of the British Government, hereby promise strictly to observe the above articles, and never to evade nor neglect the performance of any of the conditions contained in them: and after repairing to the presence of the Maha Rajah, I engage to procure, and to place among the records of Government, an Ikar-nameh, comprizing the above articles, signed and sealed by the Maha Rajah and signed and sealed by myself, after which I shall recive back this obligation.

No. 9.

IKAR-NAMEH, or Obligation of Allegiance on the part of Rajah Bukht Sing.

Whereas, on the arrival of the British troops in Bundlecund, for the purpose of occupying the country, Captain John Baillie was appointed by the Governor General to superintend and adjust the affairs of this province, and whereas I have been expelled, during the government of Allie Behauder, from my Raj and my territory, the said Captain John Baillie, from those motives of liberality and justice, which ever regulate the conduct of the officers of the British Government, reinstated me in the possession of the houses which I formerly possessed in the town of Banda, and assigned to me a monthly allowance of three thousand Gohur Shahee Rupees, which allowance has been regularly paid to me up to the present date; and whereas, with a view to the conciliation and happiness of the inhabitants, and to the suppression of commotions and disturbances, several Mahals in this province were lately confirmed in the possession of their rightful owners, and I also being among the number of the chiefs possessing just claims, solicited from the said Captain Baillie a Sunnud for the Pergunnah of Kotra and other Mahals, which are my rightful property by inheritance, and are now unjustly occupied by Gopaul Sing, and my request being approved of, a Sunnud was promised to me at a future period; and whereas Mr. John Richardson having been lately appointed to the general superintendance of the affairs of Bundlecund, I have solicited and obtained from that gentleman a grant for the aforesaid Mahals; therefore, and with a view to confirm my obedience and fidelity to the British Government, I have prepared, and hereby present this obligation of allegiance, containing the following articles, from which I promise never to depart or deviate a hair's-bredth.

ARTICLE I.

I hereby engage to have no connection with any marauders or plunderers, either within or out of the province of Bundlecund, to afford them no asylum, nor permit them or their families to reside in my possessions, and to abstain from all correspondence whatever with them. I further engage, not to enter into any quarrels or disputes with any of the adherents or servants of the British Government; and if a dispute should arise between me and any of the Rajahs or chiefs of this province, dependant on the British Government, I agree to submit such dispute for the investigation of the officers of the British Government, and scrupulously to observe and abide by their decision. I agree not to retaliate against any one for any injury offered to myself, nor proceed to redress any grievance without the order of the British Government, to which I will ever be obedient and submissive.

ARTICLE II.

I engage to guard all the passes through the Ghauts under my authority, so as to prevent all marauders, plunderers, and ill-disposed persons, from ascending or descending the Ghauts, or from entering the British territories through any of those passes; and if any neighbouring chief or leader should meditate an incursion into the British territory through my possessions, I engage to furnish the officers of the British Government with information of the circumstances, before his approach to the neighbourhood of my territory, and to exert my utmost efforts to obstruct his progress.

ARTICLE III.

Whenever the British troops shall have occasion to ascend the Ghauts, through any of the passes subject to my authority, I agree not only not to obstruct or impede their progress, but to depute respectable and intelligent persons, to conduct them by the most convenient route, and to furnish them with the necessary supplies, so long as they remain within, or in the vicinity of my possessions.

ARTICLE IV.

The British Government having conferred upon me the Pergunnahs of Kotrah, &c. which have been usurped, and are now unjustly possessed by Dewan Gopaul Sing, I hereby faithfully engage to prevent the said Gopaul Sing, or any Zemindar under his influence, from entering the British territories, for the purpose of exciting disturbances in them, and to be responsible for any loss that may be sustained by any of the subjects of the British Government, in the event of such an occurrence.

ARTICLE V.

Whereas Rajah Ram Pindara, formerly one of my dependants, is now a professed plunderer and freebooter, and seizes every opportunity of molesting and plundering the subjects subjects and Zemindars of the British Government, I do therefore hereby engage to reduce the said Rajah Ram to his former state of obedience to me, and after obtaining from the British Government his pardon for his past offences, to cause him to deliver a written obligation of his obedience to the British Government, and of his forbearance from all predatory habits in future, and to afford him a sufficient subsistence out of the revenue of the Pergunnahs which have now been conferred upon me: but if the said Rajah Ram shall refuse to submit to the British Government, I hereby agree to be responsible for any loss that shall be occasioned to any of the inhabitants of the British territory, by his means, after I shall have been completely established in the possession of the afore-mentioned Pergunnahs. A.D. 1807 Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

ARTICLE VI.

In the event of the British Government, at any time, directing me to make over to any of the Rajahs of this province any number of villages, contained in the afore-mentioned Pergunnahs, whose aggregate revenue shall amount to one lack of Rupees per annum, I agree to resign such villages without hesitation, and to offer no objection to such requisition, on the score of the villages being contained in my Sunnud, or having been in the occupation of Gopaul Sing.

ARTICLE VII.

I hereby agree to resign all claim to the annual allowance of thirty-six thousand Rupees, which I have hitherto received as a maintenance from the British Government, whenever I shall be established and confirmed in the possession of the aforesaid Pergunnah.

ARTICLE VIII.

If any subject of the British Government abscond, and take refuge in any of my villages, I agree to deliver him up, immediately on his being required, to the officer of the British Government: and if any Ryot or Zemindar shall abscond from my territory, and take refuge in the British possessions, after submitting a detail of my complaint against such absconder, I agree to observe whatever decision may be passed regarding him, agreeably to the established regulations of the Government, and to take no steps of my own accord for his apprehension.

ARTICLE IX.

I hereby engage to harbor no thieves or robbers in any of my villages; and if the property of merchants or travellers should be stolen or robbed in any of my villages, I engage to make the Zemindar of such village either responsible for the stolen property, or for the seizure and delivery of the thief or plunderer to the officers of the British Government: and if any criminal or murderer, or any person amenable to the laws of the British Government, for a crime committed in the British territories, shall take refuge in any of my villages, I agree to seize and deliver up such offender to the British Government, and to prevent his escape, in any direction, through my possessions.

ARTICLE X.

I engage that one of my brothers or confidential people shall always be in attendance, as a Vakeel, on the officer of the British Government in this province, for the purpose of executing his orders; and in the event of such Vakeel being, from any reason, disapproved of by the said officer, I agree immediately to appoint another in his stead.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE XI.

If any of my adherents or executive officers shall be guilty of any improper conduct towards the British Government, I agree to dismiss such person from his situation immediately on being required to do so, to afford him no protection, either directly or indirectly, and to deliver him up to the British Government immediately on his being demanded.

Having deposited this Ikar-nameh, comprising eleven distinct articles, under my own signature and seal, among the records of the British Government, I hereby bind myself always to fulfil the whole of the conditions contained in the said articles, and never to omit or neglect the scrupulous performance of any one of them.

WAJIB-OOL-URZ, presented by Rajah Bukht Sing, who having received possession of the Elakas of Kotra and Puway, trusts that the following Articles will be confirmed by your Signature.

Articles presented by Rajah Bukht Sing.

ARTICLE I.

The present state of the Elakas of Kotra and Puway, and the difficulties which must oppose the establishment of my authority in those Elakas, are well known to you; I therefore hope that the support and assistance of the Government will always be afforded to me.

ARTICLE II.

I request that the allowance now fixed for my expences may be continued to me, for one year after the settlement of Kotra and Puway, &c.

Answers to the Articles.

ANSWER I.

Little doubt can be entertained, that you will be able to establish your authority, and to settle the Pergunnahs, independently of the aid and support of the British Government: at the same time, every proper and necessary aid which you may require, with the exception of troops, shall be furnished to you.

ANSWER II.

Agreeably to the seventh article of your Ikar-nama, your present allowance shall continue, until the establishment of your authority in the Pergunnah in question.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE III.

The factious and malevolent dispositions of my connection in this province are well known to you; if, therefore, any of those, from malicious motives, accuse me falsely, let their accusation not be attended to without investigation.

ANSWER III.

No accusations are ever admitted against any one by the officers of the British Government, without previous investigation; and, in your case, an increased degree of caution shall be exercised.

ARTICLE IV.

If any of my brothers, companions, servants, or dependants, prefer any claim against me, I request that it may not be listened to

ANSWER IV.

With a view to the preservation of your dignity and consequence, the British Government will not interfere in the adjustment of any claim which may be preferred against you by your brothers, companions, servants, or dependants, but will consider such claim as dependant on your own decision.

ARTICLE V.

If any of my relations, brothers, dependants, or companions, at any time revolt from me, and offer a false representation of my conduct, I request that they may not be heard.

ANSWER V.

It is contrary to the usages of the British Government to listen to malicious representations against any person; in your case, therefore, no representation from any quarter shall be admitted without proof.

ARTICLE VI.

If any of the persons at present established in the Government of Kotra should complain of being injured by the introduction of my authority into the Pergunnah, and repair to you, for the purpose of complaining against me, I request that no notice whatever be taken of their complaints.

ANSWER VI.

It is necessary that you pursue moderate and lenient measures in establishing your authority; if, however, any one should excite commotions in your Pergunnahs, or endeavour to subvert your authority and government, you are to punish such person in your own country, and the British Government will afford him no assistance.

ARTICLE VII.

My habitation, which is situated on this side of the Nimnee Nulla, and appertaining to which are ten or twelve gardens, the habitation of my people and the servants of my dependants, which have been invariably occupied by them, ever since they have been in my possession, and which since the introduction of the British Government have been exclusively subject to my authority, and exempt from every kind of restraint or violence, I therefore request that the same indulgence be continued with regard to them.

ANSWER VII.

They shall continue in their present situation.

A.D. 1807

Engagements with Petty Rajahs, &c.

ARTICLE VIII.

I request that the respect and the consideration due to my dignity be always observed by the officers of the British Government.

ANSWER VIII.

As it is one of the principles of the British Government to respect the dignity and preserve the consequence of ancient chiefs and nobles, in regard to you, therefore, no omission of the proper marks of respect shall occur.

ARTICLE IX.

Regarding Raja Ram, I have already engaged in my Ikar-nama, that if he profess his obedience, and repair to your presence, to receive pardon of his past offences, I will cause him to present to you a written obligation of allegiance, and if he contumaciously refuse this proposal I engage to punish him; but if Rajah Ram repairs to you, for the purpose of settling the terms of his submission, separately from me, I request that he may not be heard.

ANSWER IX.

It is incumbent upon you, agreeably to the terms of your Ikar-nama, to exert every effort to induce Rajah Ram to submit to the Government, or to reduce him to such a state as to render him incapable of committing further depredations. The adoption of any measure which will be the means of relieving the Government from the depredations of this marauder will be approved of.

SUNNUD granted to Rajah Bukht Sing.

Be it known to the Chowdries, Kanoongoos, Zemindars, Mookuddems, and Talookdars of the Pergunnahs of Kotra and Purvoy, in the province of Bundlecund, that whereas, after the annexation of the province of Bundlecund to the territories of the Honorable the East-India Company, when the British troops were employed in occupying the country, and punishing the refractory Rajah Bukht Sing, the grandson of Maha Rajah Juggut Raee, one of the legitimate proprietors of this province, did obediently and submissively attend in person on the officer of the British Government, wherefore the British Government, actuated by those motives of liberality, and by that desire to support and preserve the dignity of illustrious families, which ever regulate its conduct, conferred upon Rajah Bukht Sing a permanent provision of thirty-six thousand Rupees per annum; and whereas a promise having been since made to the said Rajah, that, in common with the other hereditary Rajahs of this province, he also should receive a territorial territorial provision, in lieu of the aforesaid pecuniary allowance, and the said Rajah lately repeatedly solicited the performance of that promise, and having presented an obligation of allegiance to the British Government, comprizing eleven distinct articles, signed and sealed by himself, therefore the Pergunnahs specified underneath, situated in the province of Bundlecund, and at present usurped by some foreigner, who possesses no title whatever to them, either by inheritance or by gift, are hereby granted to Rajah Bukht Sing, with whose right to the said Pergunnahs the British Government are fully satisfied, and so long as the said Rajah and his adherents shall continue in obedience to the British Government, and shall scrupulously adhere to the terms of the aforesaid obligation of allegiance, the said Rajah, and his heirs and successors, shall enjoy the unmolested possession of the Pergunnahs undermentioned. It is necessary that the inhabitants of the said Pergunnahs acknowledge their obedience to the said Rajah, or to whomsoever he may delegate the charge of the Pergunnahs, and that they consider all the dependencies and appurtenances of the said Pergunnahs as subject to the Rajah, and that they acknowledge no one else. It is the duty of the Rajah to render the people, Zemindars, and Talookdars, happy and grateful by his good government, to devote himself to the prosperity of the inhabitants and to the improvement of the country; and finally to continue faithful and obedient to the British Government.

WAJIB-OOL-URZ, or Paper of Requests, presented by Koar Luchmon Sing.

REQUEST I.

Having submitted, in person to the British Government, in the hope of obtaining a subsistence, I am ready to accept whatever the Government may allot to me as a maintenance, and I shall reside, along with my dependants, in the villages composing my Jaggeer; but I shall also be at liberty to accept of service, either in Bundlecund, or in any other country.

ANSWER I.

You are not prohibited from entering the service of any person who is not in a state of enmity or rebellion to the British Government; but it is necessary that you first request and obtain the permission of the officers of the British Government for that purpose. And in the event of two of the adherents of the British Government being engaged in actual hostilities with each other, and one of them either offering you service or inviting your assistance, you must, in this case, also be guided by the orders of the British officers.

REQUEST II.

If any one maliciously or interestedly misrepresent my conduct to you, let no such misrepresentation be received without investigation.

ANSWER II.

It is not the practice of the British Government to attend to any self-interested insinuation against the conduct of any one. It is necessary, however, that you carefully avoid giving a handle to calumny, by the commission of any act that might create suspicion.

REQUEST

REQUEST III.

During the period in which I have been in a state of disobedience to the Government, I have been in the constant habit of exciting disturbances, and of plundering goods, specie, personal property, horses, camels, cattle, &c. let no complaint preferred against me, in consequence of those acts, be listened to.

ANSWER III.

With regard to the acts committed by you, prior to the date of your obligation of allegiance to the British Government, no retrospective notice shall be taken of them on the part of the Government, either in the civil or criminal courts of justice, nor shall any complaint, in consequence of them, be attended to.

REQUEST IV.

If any of my servants or my creditors shall come before you, and make a complaint, of whatever nature, against me, let them not be attended to.

ANSWER IV.

No notice shall be taken of those acts, of which the cause of complaint shall have originated previously to the date of your obligation; but with regard to those which shall originate subsequently to that period, you must consider yourself as subject to the authority of the court.

REQUEST V.

I possess considerable property and several claims in many places; when I shall submit those claims to you, I trust, from your liberality, that you will be pleased to cause them to be granted to me.

ANSWER V.

As no claims against you, arising from any act committed prior to your obligation, are to be listened to, neither can your claims against others, on account of former acts, with propriety be admitted.

ARTICLE VI.

REQUEST I.

Having submitted to the authority of the British Government, in the hope of support and advantage, and having accepted of the terms proposed to me by the Government, I agree to reside with my followers in the villages composing my Jaggeer. If, however, I should accept of service any where else, with a view to obtain a subsistence, I request that my motives for doing so may not be questioned by the Government.

ANSWER I.

As you are now one of the adherents and dependants of the British Government, it is incumbent on you to abstain from all intercourse and connexion with the enemies and rebels of the British Government. REQUEST II.

Before this, and while I was in a state of enmity to the British Government, I was in the habit of committing all sorts of disorderly and predatory acts, and have plundered and possessed myself of real and personal property, of all kinds of effects, and of horses and cattle of every description; I request, therefore, that no complaint that may be eventually preferred, in consequence of any of those transactions, may be heard or admitted.

ANSWER II.

No suit against you, of which the cause of action shall have arisen prior to the date of your obligation of allegiance, shall be admitted in the civil or criminal courts, nor shall any retrospective notice be taken of such suits on the part of Government.

REQUEST III.

Having acknowledged my obedience and submission to the British Government, if any one, from motives of hatred or malice, misrepresent my conduct to you, I request that no such representations may be admitted without investigation.

REQUEST IV.

If any of my dependants, having separated from me, or any of my creditors, prefer any complaint against me, I request that it may not be listened to; and my rank and dignity being entirely dependant on the favour of the British Government, I trust they may be encreased.

ANSWER IV.

No complaint preferred against you, of which the cause of action shall be prior to the date of your Ikar-nameh, shall be heard; but with respect to complaints which shall have originated after that period, you shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

REQUEST V.

In former times, the Elaka of Banda, and lands on the opposite side of the river Cavi, to the amount of four lacks of Rupees, were farmed by me. In that Elaka there are certain balances due to me by the Zemindars, which they have no right to withhold; I request that the claim may be investigated by the Government, and that they be required to discharge the balance.

ANSWER V.

As no claims, originating before the date of your Ikar-nama, are to be heard against you, it would be improper, on the same principle, to admit any old standing claims of your's against any other person: at the same time, whenever a complaint shall be preferred, the officers of the Government, after investigating the nature of it, will decide upon the propriety of its admission or rejection.

REQUEST VI.

I request your permission to take possession of all the houses and gardens in the town of Banda, belonging to me, in whosever occupation they may be.

ANSWER VI.

Such of your houses as have been given to any person by the Government, or as may be occupied without any written agreement or permission from you, shall be returned to you.

REQUEST VII.

In certain villages of the Pergunnahs of Banda, Mataund, and Soonah, the Zemindars have granted me bonds for sums of money, for which they have obtained remission in their Kabooleats with the Government, although they have not paid them to me. Whatever portion of these sums shall be granted to me, I shall consider as a favour, and I agree to prove the truth of this assertion.

ANSWER VII.

These sums, after ascertaining the truth of your assertion, become the property of the Government, and by detecting those Zemindars you will evince your zeal for the welfare of the Government. Although you possess no just claim to those sums, yet after they shall be collected, whatever proportion the Government may think proper, shall be allowed to you as a gift.

No. III.

Grant from the Nabob of Arcot for the Company's Jaghire, dated 28th, and received the 30th August, 1765.

In consideration of the greatness of the friendship subsisting between the Company and me, their kind treatment of me, and the particular regard I bear to you, inclosed I have A.D. 1765 Mahomed Ali.

A.D. 1765 Mahomed Ali. have sent, under my great seal, a Sunnud for the several places that form the Company's Jaghire, in which the former and the present grant are included. I have inserted the word entire or without any exception, also; though I must own, at the same time, that I see no kind of occasion for the expression, and that by making use of it has been merely out of regard to our friendship:—What can I say more?

Be it known to the Deesmokees, Deespondees, principal inhabitants and husbandmen of the Tripasore, &c. Purgunnahs, belonging to the Carnatic Payen Gaut, and dependent upon the Subah of Mahomed-poor, alias Arcot, that I have appointed and made over to the English East-India Company (who have taken great pains and labour in my affairs, are my true friends, and will ever remain firm and steady in alliance with, and in supporting myself and sons) the aforesaid Purgunnahs, &c. as here-under expressed, by way of Jaghire, the revenues of which, as entered in the Mogul's books, amount to four lacks four hundred and ninety-four Pagodas, four Annas and a quarter (4,00,494 4¼) and Chucrams six thousand and thirty-three (6,033): You, the said Deesmokees, &c. must therefore take care to live in due obedience to the said Company, and to pay them the proper revenues, at the fixed and stated times, as according to their report, whether in your praise or dispraise, will be our favour or displeasure upon you. Look upon this as an order, and comply accordingly.

Computed Revenues, as put down in the Mogul's Books.

The Serishtadar's letter to the Nabob, informing him of the Sunnud's having been made out for the English East-India Company, the 16th of October 1763, to the amount of Pagodas 3,66,064 and Chucrams 2,000. Out of the several countries from which that sum arose, there were many villages, to the value of Pagodas 34,430 4¼ and Chucrams 4,033 (as entered in the Mogul's books) excepted; he requests, therefore, the Nabob's orders, whether a new Sunnud for the whole (which he particularizes in the same manner as it is in the Sunnud) should be made out or not? To which the Nabob is said to answer, in his own hand-writing: "In consideration of the true friendship of the English East-India "Company, and their remaining always in alliance with me, let a Sunnud for the whole "Jaghire, without any exception, be made out."

FIRMAUN from the Mogul for the Northern Sircars, 1765.

In these happy times, our Firmaun, full of splendor and worthy of obedience, is descended, purporting, that whereas Salabat Jung Behauder, Subahdar of the Decan, conferred the Sircar of Siccacole, &c. on the French Company, and that in consequence of its not being confirmed by us, either by Firmaun or otherwise, the high, mighty, glorious chiefs of the Khans, chosen of the Omrahs, Seapoy Sirdars, truly faithful, worthy of receiving favors and obligations, our invariable and never-failing friends and well-wishers, the English Company (having sent a large force for that purpose) did expel the French therefrom; we, therefore, in consideration of the fidelity and good wishes of the above high, mighty, &c. &c. English Company, have, from our throne, the basis of the world, given them the afore-mentioned Sircars, by way of Iniam or free gift (without the least participation of any person whatever in the same), from the beginning of the Fussul of Tuccaucooul, in the year of Phasely 1172, equal to the month of April, 1762; it is incumbent, therefore, on you, our sons, Omrahs, Viziers, Governors, Muttasseddees, for the affairs of our Dewanship, Mootecophils, for those of our kingdom, Jaghiredars and Karorees, both now and hereafter, for ever and ever, to use your endeavours in the strenghtening and carrying into execution this our most high command, and to cede and give up to the above-mentioned English Company, their heirs and descendants, for ever and ever, the aforesaid Sircars, and esteeming them likewise free, exempt, and safe from all displacing or removal, by no means whatever, either molest or trouble them, on account of the Dewan's office, or those of our Imperial court. A.D. 1765 The Mogul.

Looking upon this high Firmaun as an absolute and positive order, obey it implicitly.

Dated the 24th of the moon Sophar, in the sixth year of our reign, equal to the 12th of August, 1765.

Forms made use of on the Back of the Firmaun.

A.D. 1765 The Mogul. From the secretary, setting forth, that his Majesty had been pleased to sign a petition (supposed to be from the Company) of the same date as the Firmaun, directing that whereas Salabat Jung Behauder, Subahdar of the Decan, conferred the Sircar of Siccacole, &c. on the French Company, and that, in consequence of its not being confirmed by his Majesty, either by Firmaun or otherwise, the high, mighty, &c. &c. English (having sent a large force for that purpose) did expel the said French therefrom; his Majesty, therefore, in consideration of the fidelity of the aforesaid English Company, has given them (without the participation of any person whatever in the same) the above-mentioned Sircars, by way of Iniam, or free gift.

Then follow two orders from the Mogul; the first supposed to be in his own hand, addressed to his son, Mirza Mahomed Akbur Shah Behauder, telling him to comply with the contents of this Firmaun; the other directing, that the English Company be under his son's command, or in his Ressaula.

The whole attested, under Kazzi Inauyet Khan's seal, to be a true copy from the original.

Brigadier General, invested with full Powers, on behalf of the said* Company. Done at Hydrabad, the 9th of the moon Gemace-dussuny, in the Year of Higera the 1180, equal to the 12th of November, 1766. A.D. 1766 The Nizam.

A.D. 1766
The Nizam.

ARTICLE I.

The two contracting parties do, by virtue of this Treaty of honour, favour, alliance, and friendship, solemnly engage a mutual assistance, to esteem the enemies of one the enemies of both, and contrariwise, the friends of one the friends of the other.

ARTICLE II.

The Honorable English East-India Company, in return for the gracious favours received from his Highness, consisting of Sunnuds for the five Sircars of Ellour, Siccacole, Rajahmundry, Mustephanagur and Murtezanagur, expressing the free gift thereof on them and their heirs, for ever and ever, do hereby promise and engage, to have a body of their troops, ready to settle the affairs of his Highness's government, in every thing that is right and proper, whenever required; provided that they be at liberty to withdraw the whole, or such part thereof as they shall judge proper, whenever either the safety of their own settlements and possessions, or the peace and tranquillity of the Carnatic, be the least endangered: in case of the falling out of which circumstances (which God forbid) they do promise and engage, to give the most timely notice thereof to his Highness in their power.

ARTICLE III.

The Honorable English East-India Company do further engage and promise, that in whatever year the assistance of their troops shall not be required, they will pay to his Highness, as a consideration for the free gift of the above-mentioned five Sircars, for ever and ever, the following sums, by Kists, as specified in the eighth article of this Treaty, viz. For the three Sircars of Rajahmundry, Ellour, and Mustephanagur, five lacks of Rupees; and for those of Siccacole and Murtezanagur, as soon as they are in their hands, and the settling the same is well effected, two lacks each; in all, nine lacks of Rupees per annum.

ARTICLE IV.

The reduction of the Siccacole Sircar, by the blessing of God, the Company will effect as soon as possible; but that of Murtezanagur, in consideration of his Highness having, by former Agreements, given it to his brother, Bazalet Jung, as a Jaghire, the Honorable English East-India Company do promise and engage not to take possession of, until it be his Highness's pleasure, or until the demise of his said brother; but to prevent all future disputes and difficulties that may hereafter arise concerning the same, the aforesaid Company do further explain their intentions in the following article.

ARTICLE V.

As the Sircar of Murtezanagur borders on that of Nizampatam, and the country of the Carnatic, which by virtue of the former and present Treaties and alliances of the aforesaid Company, are bound to maintain and protect in all its extent, therefore in case the said Bazalet Jung, his agents or dependents, should cause any disturbances, to the prejudice prejudice thereof, it is hereby agreed on by both parties, that the aforesaid Company shall then have it in their power to take immediate possession of that Sircar. A.D. 1766 The Nizam.

ARTICLE VI.

As, by the tenour of the second article of this Treaty, the aforesaid Company have engaged to furnish a body of troops, to be ready to march to the assistance of his Highness, it is agreed on by both parties, that the expenses thereof shall be paid in the following manner, to wit: if the expense of the number of troops his Highness may require should fall short of the sum of the five lacks of Rupees, mentioned to be paid for the three Sircars of Rajahmundry, Ellour, and Mustephanagur, the Company will account to his Highness for what balance may remain due; and in case of its exceeding the above-mentioned sum, the aforesaid Company do hereby engage themselves to be answerable for the payment of the remainder. The same agreement, in like manner, to hold good for the sums stipulated to be paid for the two Sircars of Siccacole and Murtezanagur, when settled.

ARTICLE VII.

In consideration of the fidelity, attachment, and services of the aforesaid Company, and the dependence his Highness has upon them, his said Highness, out of his great favour, does hereby entirely acquit the above-mentioned Sircars of all arrears and demands, down to the present date of these writings.

ARTICLE VIII.

In case the assistance of the Honorable Company's troops is not required, the annual stipulated sum, expressed in the third article of this Treaty, the aforesaid Company do engage to pay, in three Kists, after the following manner, and to give Soucar security for the same, viz. the first payment, the 31st of March; the second, the 30th of June; and the third, the 31st of October.

ARTICLE IX.

Whenever his Highness goes into winter-quarters, and the troops of the other Sirdars have leave for that purpose, those of the aforesaid Company shall have leave also to depart to their own country.

ARTICLE X.

His Highness engages to give as early notice as possible, not less than three months, of the service in which he will require the assistance of the troops of the aforesaid Company, that they may have timely notice to make the necessary preparations, and that the number of troops sent may be sufficient for the service required of them, of which the aforesaid Company are to be left the entire and sole judges; and as the success of all expeditions depends much upon secrecy in council, both parties do hereby engage themselves, not to reveal any such designs, as they may communicate to each other, until every thing on both sides is ready for execution.

ARTICLE XI.

The Honorable English East-India Company, in consideration of the diamond mines, with the villages appertaining thereto, having been always dependent upon his Highness's government, do hereby agree, that the same shall remain in his possession now also.

ARTICLE XII.

His Highness, in order to convince the whole world of the great confidence and trust he reposes in the English nation, agrees and consents, that the fort of Condapillee shall be entirely garrisoned by the troops of the aforesaid Company; in consideration of which, the aforesaid Company do hereby agree and consent, likewise, that there be a Killedar therein, on the part of his Highness, and that the usual Jaghire, annexed to the Killedary, shall be ceded to him.

ARTICLE XIII.

In virtue of this Treaty of mutual favour, alliance, and friendship, between the two contracting parties, his Highness promises and engages, to assist the aforesaid Company with his troops, when required; reserving to himself the same liberty of withdrawing the whole, or any part thereof, in the same manner as is expressed, for the aforesaid Company, in the second article of this Treaty, whenever the same shall become necessary.

ARTICLE XIV.

In virtue of the above Treaty of favour, alliance, and friendship, both parties do mutually and solemnly engage to the punctual and strict observance of all, and every one of the above-mentioned articles, that from this time all doubts and suspicions shall cease between them, and in their room a perpetual, just, and sincere confidence be established, so that the great affairs of the Decan government, and the business of the Company, may encrease every day, in honour, riches, and happiness, from generation to generation.

Nizam-ul-Mulck Meer Nizam Ally Khan Behauder Phuttah Jung Sippa Sardar, Soubah of the Decan, on the other Part; by the Honorable Charles Bourchier, Esq. President and Governor of Fort St. George, and the Council thereof, on Behalf of the said English East-India Company; the Nabob Wolou Jau Omdet-ul-Mulck, on behalf of himself, as Nabob of the Carnatic; and the Nabob Recun-ud-Dowlah Dewan, invested with full Powers, on Behalf of the said Nabob Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck his Heirs and Successors, as Soubah of the Decan. Done on the 23d day of February, in the year 1768 of the Christian æra, and on the 4th of the moon Shevaul, in the year of the Higera 1181.

Whereas on the 12th of November, in the year of the Christian æra 1766, or on the 9th of the moon Gemace-dussuny, in the year of the Higera 1180, a Treaty was concluded at Hydrabad, by and between General John Caillaud, invested with full powers, on behalf of the English East-India Company, and the Nabob Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, &c. on behalf of himself, as Soubah of the Decan, with a design to establish an honourable and lasting friendship and alliance between the two contracting powers; and whereas some misunderstandings have since arisen, which have perverted the intent of the said Treaty, and kindled up the flames of war; now be it known to the whole world, that the before-mentioned Nabob Ausuph Jau, and the English Company, with the Nabob Wolau Jau, have entered into another Treaty of the strictest friendship and alliance, on the following conditions:

ARTICLE I.

The exalted and illustrious Emperor of Indostan, Shah Allum Padtcha, having out of his gracious favour, and in consideration of the attachment and services of the English East-India Company, given and granted to them, for ever, by way of Iniam, or free gift, the five Sircars of Mustephanagur, Rajahmundry, Siccacole, Murtezanagur, or Condavir, by his royal Firmaund, dated the 12th of August, 1765, or on the 24th of the moon Suphier, in the 6th year of his reign; and the Nabob Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, as Soubah of the Decan, having by the second and third articles of the afore-mentioned Treaty, ceded and surrendered by Sunnuds, under his hand and seal, to the English East-India Company, for ever, the afore-mentioned five Sircars, it is now farther acknowledged and agreed, by the said Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, Soubah of the Decan, that the said Company shall enjoy and hold for ever, as their right and property, the said five Sircars, on the terms hereafter mentioned.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1768
Nizam Ali & Nabob Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE II.

By the afore-mentioned Treaty of Hydrabad it was stipulated, that the Nabob Ausuph Jau, having given the Sircar of Murtezanagur, as a Jaghire, to his brother, the Nabob Ummeer-ul-Omrah Soujah-ul-Mulk Behauder Bazalet Jung, the Company should not take possession of the said Sircar till after the death of Bazalet Jung, or till he broke the friendship with the said Company, by raising disturbances in the country of Nizampatam or the Carnatic; and though the Company might justly claim a right to take possession of the said Sircar, from the late conduct of Bazalet Jung, yet in consideration of their friendship for Ausuph Jau and his family, and that they may not distress his affairs, by obliging him to provide his brother, Bazalet Jung, with another Jaghire, the Company do agree and consent, that Bazalet Jung still hold the Sircar of Murtezanagur, on the aforesaid conditions, or till it be the pleasure of Ausuph Jau that the Company should take possession thereof; provided that the said Bazalet Jung returns immediately to his own country of Adony, and neither keeps with, nor receives from Hyder Naigue any Vackeel or correspondence, but lives in peace and harmony with the English Company and the Nabob Wolau Jau, and gives no protection or assistance whatever to the said Naigue, or any of his people, nor any other enemies of the Company, or the Nabob Wolau Jau: but if this article shall, at any time, be infringed, the Company shall be at liberty, by virtue of this Treaty, to take possession of, and keep the Sircar of Murtezanagur, in the same manner as the other four, and the Nabob Ausuph Jau engages to assist them therein with his troops, if necessary.

ARTICLE III.

The fort of Condapillee, with its Jaghire, shall for ever hereafter remain in possession of the English Company, and be garrisoned with their troops, under their own officers only, notwithstanding any thing to the contrary stipulated in the twelfth article of the Treaty of Hydrabad.

ARTICLE IV.

Narraindoo, one of the Zemindars of the Sircar of Siccacole, having lately raised disturbances in the Itchapore country, and refused (as he alleges, in conformity to the Nabob Ausuph Jau's orders) to pay his rents, or obedience to the Company, the Nabob Ausuph Jau agrees, on the signing and exchange of the present Treaty, to write letters, not only to Narraindoo, but to all the Zemindars in the Sircars of Ellour, Mustephanagur, Rajahmundry, and Siccacole, acquainting them, that they are, in future, to regard the English Company as their sovereign, and to pay their rents and obedience to the said Company, or their deputies, without raising any troubles or disturbances. The Nabob Ausuph Jau further agrees, that he will not, in future, encourage or protect, in raising troubles or disobedience, any Zemindars, renters, or servants of the English Company, or the Nabob Wolau Jau, who on their parts engage the same to his Highness Ausuph Jau.

ARTICLE V.

It has been the constant desire and endeavour of the English Company, and the Nabob Wolau Jau, to preserve their possessions in peace, and to live on terms of friendship with the Soubah of the Decan: they still desire to do the same; and though the operations of war have lately obliged the Company to send their troops towards Hydrabad, and to take possession of the Sircars of Commamet and Worangole, yet, as a proof of their friendship for the Nabob Ausuph Jau, &c. Soubah of the Decan, on the signing and exchange of this Treaty, the Company's troops shall be recalled to the fort of Commamet, from whence they shall also retire into their own Sircars, so soon as the Soubah, with his army, has crossed the Kistnah, leaving the fort of Commamet to the Soubah's deputy. And, as a farther proof of the Company's sincere desire to preserve a friendship with the Soubah of the Decan, they agree to bury in oblivion what is past, and to pay him annually, for the space of six years, to be computed from the 1st of January, 1768, or the 10th of the moon Shibaun, in the year of the Higera 1181, the sum of two lacks of Arcot Rupees, at Madras or Mazulipatam, that is to say, one lack on the 31st of March, and also one lack on the 31st of October, or two lacks every year, and one lack more at each of these periods, whenever the Sircar of Condavir is put into the Company's possession. The Company moreover promise, that if they peaceably possess the Sircars, during the aforesaid term of six years, and the Soubah gives them no trouble, they will pay annually, from the 1st of January, 1774, the sum of five lacks, in two equal payments, as before expressed, or of seven lacks, if Condavir be then in their possession; but in case the Soubah, or the Morattas by his instigation, should invade the Sircars or Carnatic, or they, or any other power, should conquer the Sircars from the English Company, the payment of the said sums shall be suspended till peace, and the Sircars are restored to the Company.

ARTICLE VI.

It was stipulated in the former Treaty made at Hydrabad, that the Company and the Soubah should mutually assist each other with their troops, when required, and their own affairs would permit; but it being apprehended, at present, that such an agreement may subject both parties to difficulties, and that misunderstandings may arise on that account, it is now agreed only, that a mutual peace, confidence, and friendship, shall subsist, for ever, between the English Company, his Highness Ausuph Jau, and the Nabob Wolau Jau; the enemies of either shall be regarded as the enemies of the other two powers, and the friends of either be treated as the friends of all; and in case any troubles should arise, or any enemies invade the countries, under the government of either either of the contracting parties, the other two shall give no countenance or assistance to such enemies or invaders. The Company, and the Nabob Wolau Jau, willing, however, to shew their voluntary attachment to the Soubah, will always be ready to send two battalions of Seapoys and six pieces of artillery, manned by Europeans, whenever the Soubah shall require them, and the situation of their affairs will allow of such a body of troops to march into the Decan, provided the Soubah pays the expence, during the time that the said troops are employed in his service. A.D. 1768 Nizam Ali & Nabob Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE VII.

The exalted and illustrious Emperor, Shaw Allum, having been pleased, out of his great favour and high esteem for the Nabob Wolau Jau, to give and to grant to him, and his eldest son, Meyen-ul-Mulck Omdet-ul-Omrah, and their heirs, for ever, the government of the Carnatic Payen Gaut, and the countries dependent thereon, by his royal Firmaund, bearing date the 26th of August, 1765, or the 27th of the moon Zuphur, in the sixth year of the said Emperor's reign; and the Nabob Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, &c. having also, out of his affection and regard for the said Nabob Wolau Jau, released him, his son, Meyen-ul-Mulck, &c. and their heirs in succession, for ever, from all dependence on the Decan, and given him a full discharge of all demands, past, present, and to come, on the said Carnatic Payen Gaut, by a Sunnud, under his hand and seal, dated the 12th of November, 1766; in consideration of the said Nabob Wolau Jau having paid the Soubah five lacks of Rupees, it is now agreed and acknowledged, by the said Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, that the said Nabob Wolau Jau, and after him, his son, Meyen-ul-Mulck, and their heirs in succession, shall enjoy, for ever, as an Ultumgau, or free gift, the government of the Carnatic Payen Gaut, in the fullest and amplest manner, the said Nabob Ausuph Jau promising and engaging, not to hold or keep up any kind of correspondence with any person or persons in the said Carnatic Payen Gaut, or in the Sircars before and now ceded to the English Company, except the said Nabob Wolau Jau, or the said English Company, by the means of their President and Council of Madras, who, on their part, in conjunction with the said Nabob Wolau Jau, engage likewise not to hold or maintain any correspondence with any person or persons in the Decan, except the Nabob Ausuph Jau, his Dewan, and the securities, whose names are hereunto subscribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Nabob Ausuph Jau, out of his great regard and affection, and from other considerations, having been pleased to grant and confer on the Nabob Wolau Jau, and his eldest son, Meyen-ul-Mulck Omdet-ul-Omrah, several Sunnuds, viz.

An Ultumgau Sunnud for the whole of the Carnatic.

An

A.D. 1768
Nizam Ali & Nabob Mahomed Ali.

An Ultumgau Sunnud for the whole of the Purgunnah of Imungundela, with the Gudda of Ghunpoora.

An Ultumgau Sunnud for the whole of the villages of Cathasera, &c.

An Ultumgau Sunnud for the Killedary of the fort of Colaur.

An Ultumgau Sunnud for the whole of the district of Sonedaupe; and a full and ample Sunnud, containing a discharge for all demands, past, present, and future, on account of the Carnatic, &c.

It is hereby agreed, that all and every one of these Sunnuds shall be regarded equally binding with any other article of the Treaty; and be as duly observed by the Nabob Ausuph Jau, as if entered here at full length.

ARTICLE IX.

Hyder Naigue having, for some years past, usurped the government of the Monsore country, and given great disturbances to his neighbours, by attacking and taking from many of them their possession, and having also lately invaded, and laid waste with fire and sword, the possessions of the English Company and the Nabob Wolau Jau, in the Carnatic, it is certainly necessary for their peace, and for the general benefit of all the neighbouring powers, that the said Naigue should be punished and reduced, so that he may not hereafter have the power to give any person farther trouble: to this end, the Nabob Ausuph Jau hereby declares and makes known to all the world, that he regards the said Naigue as a rebel and usurper, and as such divests him of, and revokes from him, all Sunnuds, honours, and distinctions, conferred by himself, or any other Soubah of the Decan, because the said Naigue has deceived the Nabob Ausuph Jau, broken his agreement, and rendered himself unworthy of all farther countenance and favors.

ARTICLE X.

That the English Company may hereafter carry on their trade peaceably on this Coast of Coromandel, and also on the Coast of Malabar, and that they, with the Nabob Wolau Jau, may hold the Carnatic, and their other possessions, in peace, it appears necessary, that the countries of Carnatic Balagaute, belonging to the Soubahdarry of Viziapour, now or lately possessed by Hyder Naigue, should be under the management and protection of those who will do justice, and pay obedience to the high commands from Court: it is therefore agreed by the Nabob Ausuph Jau, that he shall relinquish to the English Company, all his right to the Dewanny of the said Carnatic Balagaute, belonging to the Soubahdarry of Viziapour, and that the Company shall present an Arzee, or petition, to the royal Presence, to obtain from the Emperor Shaw Allum a Firmaund, confirming and approving their right thereto. But that the Nabob Ausuph Jau, as Soubah of the Decan, may not lose his dignity, or the revenue arising from the said countries, the English Company agree to pay him annually, out of the Dewanny collection, from the time they are in possession thereof, the sum of seven lacks of Arcot Rupees, including Durbar charges, being the sum annually paid heretofore, in two equal payments, at the space of six months from each other, provided the said Ausuph Jau, Soubah of the Decan, assists the said Company and the Nabob Wolau Jau, in punishing Hyder Naigue, and neither receives from, or sends either Vackeels or letters to him. A.D. 1768 Nizam Ali & Nabob Mahomed Ali.

may

ARTICLE XI.

As the English Company do not intend to deprive the Morattas of their Choute, any more than the Soubah of his Piscash which used to be paid from the Carnatic Balagaute, belonging to the Soubahdarry of Viziapour, now or lately possessed by Hyder Naigue, it is hereby agreed, and the Company willingly promise to pay the Morattas, regularly and annually, without trouble, for the whole Choute, as settled in former times, from the time the said countries shall be under the Company's protection as Dewan; provided, however, that the Morattas guarantee to the Company the peaceable possession of the said Dewanny: to this end, the Nabob Ausuph Jau promises to use his best endeavours, jointly with the English and the Nabob Wolau Jau, to settle with the Morattas, concerning the Choute of the said countries, how and where it is to be paid, so that there may be no disturbances hereafter, on that account, between any of the contracting parties, or the Morattas.

ARTICLE XII.

All the foregoing articles are sincerely agreed to by the subscribing parties, who resolve faithfully to execute and abide by the same, so that a firm and lasting friendship may mutually subsist between them: and while such an alliance subsists, what power will dare to disturb the possessions of either party? The English Company and the Nabob Wolau Jau will endeavour, on all occasions, to shew their friendship and attachment to the Nabob Ausuph Jau Nizam-ul-Mulck, as Soubah of the Decan, and look on the support of that government as the support of their own; in short, there will be no manner of difference in interest between them.

In witness and confirmation of all the above articles, and every part of the aforegoing Treaty, we, whose names are under-written, have interchangeably subscribed to, and sealed three instruments, of the same tenour and date, viz. The President and Council of Fort St. George, on the behalf of the English East-India Company, at that place, this 26th day of February, in the year of the Christian æra 1768; the Nabob Ausuph Jau, Soubah of the Decan, at his camp, near Pillere, on the 22d day of the moon Shevaul, in the year

TREATY with Hyder Ali, 1769.

A TREATY of perpetual Friendship and Peace, made and concluded between the Governor and Council of Fort St. George, in Behalf of the Honorable English East-India Company, for all their Possessions, and for the Carnatic Payen Gaut, on the one Part; and the Nabob Hyder Ally Khan Behauder, for the Country of Mysore Hyder Nagur, and his other Possessions, on the other Part; on the following Conditions. A.D. 1769 Hyder Ali.

ARTICLE I.

That all hostilities shall immediately cease on the conclusion of this Treaty, which is to be perpetual, or as long as the Company may exist; that peace and friendship shall take place between the contracting parties (particularly including therein the Rajah of Tanjore, the Malavar Ram Rajah, and Morari Row, who are friends and allies to the Carnatic Payen Gaut), also all others, the friends and allies of the contracting parties, provided they do not become the aggressors against either of them; but if they are aggressors, they are not to be assisted by either party.

ARTICLE II.

That in case either of the contracting parties shall be attacked, they shall, from their respective countries, mutually assist each other to drive the enemy out. The pay of such assistance of troops, from one party to another, to be after the following rates, viz. To every soldier and horseman fifteen Rupees per month, and every Seapoy seven and an half Rupees per month: the pay of the Surdars and Commandants to be as it shall be agreed on at the time.

ARTICLE III.

The Presidency of Bombay, and all the factories and places, which were before, or are now under their government, are included in this Treaty of friendship: and the Nabob Hyder Ally Khan Behauder engages, out of his friendship and regard for the Company, to grant to them the factories, privileges, and exemptions in trade, in the same manner as they before held them; moreover, to release all the Surdars, Europeans, Seapoys, &c. who may have been taken on that side, and this immediately on the arrival of a proper person from the Governor and Council of Bombay for that purpose; and also

to

A.D.1769 Hyder Ali. to settle the particulars of the privileges of trade, and other matters relative to the sandal-wood and pepper, &c. articles of trade. And as there is now established between the contracting parties (the Company and the Nabob Hyder Ally Khan) a perpetual peace, there is no doubt but the Presidency of Bombay will exchange with the said Nabob a Treaty to the same purport as this. Respecting the affairs of the said place, &c., and all the factories on that side, in the course of this war, it is hereby agreed and stipulated, that they shall be mutually forgiven, and no claim or demand, on any account, made for them hereafter.

ARTICLE IV.

The above Nabob engages, that all the Officers, Europeans, and Seapoys, belonging to the Presidency of Madras, shall immediately be released, on the arrival of a proper person at Bengulure to demand them; also all the Surdars, and people, belonging to the Carnatic Payen Gaut, who may have been taken in this war, shall likewise be released; the English Company engaging, on their side, to release the people belonging to the said Nabob, who may have been taken also in this war.

And whereas the English Company have, in the forts of Colaur and Veneatigherry (exclusive of the former stores therein) many cannon-shot, powder, ball, and muskets, the Nabob Hyder Ally Khan engages, that the said Company shall have permission to bring away the same, without any let or molestation being given them therein; and as soon as they are withdrawn, the said forts shall immediately be evacuated and restored to the said Nabob.

In witness whereof, the said contracting parties have interchangeably signed and sealed two instruments, of the same tenour and date, viz. The said President and Council, on behalf the English East-India Company, and the Carnatic Payen Gaut, in Fort St. George, this 3d day of April, in the year of the Christian era, 1769; and the said Nabob Hyder Ally Khan Behauder, at his camp at Madavaram, the 25th day of the moon Zeckyd, in the year of the Higera 1182.

TRANSLATION of an ENGAGEMENT, under the Seal of Rajah Tuljaujee, dated the 25th of October, 1771.

The firm engagement of Rajah Tuljaujee, Rajah of Tanjour, to the Sircar is, that whereas, in part of the stipulations in favour of the Sircar of the Nabob Wolau Jau, the sum of thirty-two lacks and fifty thousand Rupees is stipulated to be paid; in lieu of payment thereof in specie, I have appointed the Soubahship of Manewarum, and some districts of the Soubahship of Cumcurrum, the annual revenues of which may amount to sixteen lacks and twenty-five thousand Rupees, for the discharge of the same; and, accordingly, the same will be entirely discharged by two years' revenues of the said lands: and after the receipt of the said money by the Sircar, I shall take back again the said two Soubahships which belong to me.

TRANSLATION of an ENGAGEMENT, under the Seal of Rajah Tuljaujee, dated the 26th October, 1771.

The firm engagement and true acknowledgement of Rajah Tuljaujee, Rajah of Tanjour, to the Sircar of the Nabob Wolau Jau, are; that with the friends of the Sircar he will be in friendship, and with the enemies of the Sircar in enmity; that he will, on no account whatever, either secretly or openly, afford assistance or support, in any shape, to the disturbers of the tranquillity of the Carnatic; that he will always join and be in friendship with the Sircar; that whenever his troops, horse, Seapoys, and Peons, shall be required, he will send them with his Surdar, and not demand their expenses from the servants of the Sircar; that he shall pay the stated Pishcash yearly, without deceit or delay, and that, in future, he shall not undertake any operations whatever. In testimony of which, I, the said Rajah, have given this engagement, under my hand and seal, swearing thereto by the faith of the religion I profess, that the same may appear as a Sunnud. A.D. 1771 The Rajah of Tanjour.

to

No. X.

Agreement with the Rajah of Tanjour, 1776.

Letter from the Rajah of Tanjour to the Governor of Fort St. George, dated 12*th April*, 1776.

The satisfaction I feel on occasion of such a friendship and extraordinary justice as the Company have displayed towards me is so great, that were I to begin to tell you what my mind conceives on the occasion, the subject would never have an end: had I a thousand tongues they could not express my gratitude. When I had an interview with your Lordship I opened to you the sentiments of my heart; but as mere verbal declarations, on this subject, are not sufficient, I have thought it proper to write you a letter. A.D. 1776 The Rajah of Tanjour.

I shall ever consider myself as nourished and protected by the Company, and shall therefore never assist or succour their enemies. No measure shall ever proceed from me, contrary to their interests; nor will I ever set on foot any connection with other powers, without the Company's consent. This I have written, as means of increasing the friendship that is between us.

In the present condition of my country, the placing a garrison of English troops in the fort and city of Tanjour is exceedingly necessary; but besides this garrison, if the Company will allow some more troops also, for the protection of my whole country, this also will be highly proper. If, by the favour of heaven, this be put in execution, neither I, or any of my family, will need to fear that the calamities of war will fall upon this country again: and if the Company will only favour me thus far, I will, with pleasure, assign them out of my revenues the sum of four lacks of Pagodas per annum for their military expences. The mode of payment as follows: November, 20,000; December, 40,000; January, 40,000; February, 1,00,000; March, 1,00,000; April, 1,00,000.

For my body guard I shall keep a body of men, from one hundred to five hundred; and I want not one man, either horse or foot, more than that number.

As my finances are in the utmost disorder, and the state of my country all in confusion, I must throw myself on the Company for my present support. I therefore wish them to buy of me, at a reasonable rate, all the grain of the present year, excepting what my country may be in need of. By this means the Company will not be burthened, and I shall be enabled to defray the expences of my government, without running in debt.

Finally, as the fort of Devicotah has no country annexed to it, I beg the Company will take what they think proper, as a dependency thereon.

The country of Tanjour is the Company's; I have only to beg they will preserve my honour.

SUNNUD granted to the East-India Company by the Rajah of Tanjour.

A.D. 1779 Bazalet Jung.

HEADS of a TREATY of Friendship and Alliance between the Nabob Ameer-ul-Omrah Sujah-ul-Mulk Behauder, and the Governor and Select Committee of Fort St. George, in Behalf of the English East-India Company, 1779.

ARTICLE I.

The English Company agree to rent from the Nabob Sujah-ul-Mulk Behauder the Sircar of Mortezanagur, commonly called Guntoor, clear of Sibbendy, for whatever he now now annually receives from it, as will appear by the accounts of collections of the Aumil now residing there. A.D.1779 Bazalet Jung.

ARTICLE II.

We, the English Company, shall always have at heart the good and prosperity of the Nabob Sujah-ul-Mulk. He shall dismiss from his service the French soldiers now with him. We will send him what troops he may want (the quota to be settled hereafter) who will remain with him constantly and obey his instructions. They are, however, only to be employed within the districts belonging to him, or for the defence of his country in case of an attack from a foreign enemy; but these troops are, on no account, to be carried out of his country, or those of the Zemindars dependent upon him. If his affairs should, at any time, require his going to visit his brother, the Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowla Behauder, their troops shall attend him and be always with him.

ARTICLE III.

The expences of their troops shall be regulated by the Company's custom; and the accounts having been signed by the Nabob, shall be paid monthly from the rent of the Guntoor Sircar. The remainder of the rent shall be regularly remitted in Soucar bills to the Nabob. In case of any improper behaviour or disrespect shewn by the commanding officer, or any other European officer of our troops, upon representation being made to us by the Nabob we shall remove such officer, and appoint another in his room.

ARTICLE IV.

If the Nabob Sujah-ul-Mulk's territories be invaded by an enemy, we shall, besides the troops that are stationed with him, send such a sufficient force as we can spare to his assistance. The ordinary and extraordinary expences of such troops, whatever they may amount to, shall be paid agreeable to the Company's established customs by the Nabob, who will sign the accounts. If any disputes arise between our soldiers and Sepoys and the Ryots and the servants of the Nabob, punishment shall be inflicted by our officers on our men, agreeable to the English laws and customs. The English officers and their people shall not interfere with the servants and Ryots of the Nabob, and shall not protect or countenance them in any shape. In case of any dispute, where the Nabob's people appear to be in the wrong, they shall be delivered up to him for punishment.

ARTICLE V.

The customary allowances of the Zemindars of the Guntoor Sircar, amounting annually to five thousand Pagodas, shall continue as before. The fort and Jaghire villages of Condavir shall remain under the management of the servants of the Nabob; but a garrison of English troops, as may be deemed necessary for the defence of the fort, shall be stationed with the Killadar.

ARTICLE VI.

If the Company shall demand a body of horse from the Nabob, he shall let them have a number according to his abilities; and the said cavalry shall be returned to him, and their expences paid, as soon as the service for which they shall be required is finished.

These articles we promise, in general, to fulfil on our part, until a more full and explicit Treaty can be drawn out, which shall be drawn out as soon as possible. Witness our hands, and the seal of the Company, in Fort St. George, the 27th day of April, 1779.

Preliminary Treaty with the Nabob Mahomed Ali, 1785.

Preliminary Articles of Agreement to be entered into between his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic and the Government of Fort St. George, previous to the Surrender of the Assignment, June, 1785. A.D. 1785 Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE I.

His Highness the Nabob agrees to pay his proportion of the current charges, as stipulated by the Company to be finally settled by Treaty between his Highness the Nabob and the Governor and Council of Madras, agreeably to the late orders of the Company, dated the 9th December, 1784. Until the exact proportion can be ascertained, his Highness consents to consider it at four lacks of Pagodas per annum.

ARTICLE II.

His Highness the Nabob will likewise pay twelve lacks of Pagodas per annum, on account of his debts to the Company and private creditors, until those debts are discharged.

ARTICLE III.

Under the two foregoing articles, his Highness will pay sixteen lacks of Pagodas per annum to the Company, who are to be answerable to the private creditors for the proportion allotted to them, according to the payments that shall be made.

ARTICLE IV.

His Highness agrees to give the same security for the above twelve lacks of Pagodas per annum, as is required of him by the Company for his proportion of the current charges.

ARTICLE V.

In case of any failure in the payment of the Kist when it becomes due, or within twenty days afterwards, it is hereby stipulated, that the Company may possess themselves of certain districts hereafter mentioned, to double the amount of the balance due by the Nabob at the time. When the Company find it expedient, under the conditions agreed on, to have recourse to this security, application must be made to his Highness the Nabob, who will inform the Amildar or Amildars of the amount of the Company's claim. The Company

A.D. 1785 Mahomed Ali. Company may exercise all necessary authority for collecting the revenues, but are not to disturb the Nabob's Government, by turning out the Amildars or Sheristadars. The Company's people employed in those districts are to give regular receipts for the monies they shall receive; and when the full amount for which such district or districts stood answerable shall have been paid to the Company, their power will, of course, immediately cease, and the Nabob's authority be restored, as fully as over any other part of the Carnatic.

ARTICLE VI.

Should any cause of complaint arise against the Amildars of the districts so made over to the Company, it must be represented to his Highness the Nabob, who will give them satisfaction upon the subject, even to the dismissing the Amildars, and appointing others in their stead, if it should be necessary.

ARTICLE VII.

It has already been stated, that when a Kist, or any part of it that is due, shall remain unpaid more than twenty days, the Company may resort to the security given to them; but as, from the nature of revenue collections, the full produce of the country to make good the last Kist cannot be received until the beginning of the following year, the Nabob requires two months for compleating what may remain due of the last Kist, to the amount of two lacks of Pagodas. Should the balance exceed that sum, two months after the Kist shall have become due, the Company may take possession of the management, as before mentioned, in the fifth article of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII.

His Highness the Nabob taking notice of the particular stress the Company lay on the security to be required for the punctual payment of his share of the current charges, and being sensible of how much importance it is that the military expences should be regularly provided for, his Highness agrees, that the amount of his shares of the current charges shall be exclusively paid with the first Kist, and as much of the second Kist as may be necessary to make up the four lacks of Pagodas. The remaining part of the second Kist, and the whole of the third Kist, amounting to twelve lacks of Pagodas, will be appropriated in discharge of his Highness's debt to the Company and his private creditors.

ARTICLE IX.

The whole sum of sixteen lacks of Pagodas is to be paid in the manner following:

First Kist, 30th September - - -	Pagodas 3,00,000
Second do. 31st January - - - -	- 6,00,000
Third do. 10th July - - - - -	- 7,00,000

It

It was submitted and known to his Highness the Nabob, that the renters, his subjects, were employed under the Company, and his Highness engages to continue the same renters as long as they shall conduct themselves to his satisfaction, at the same time that he cannot consent to confirm them on the conditions of the Company's Cowle. A.D.1785 Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE X.

The following districts are to be answerable to the Company, in case of failure of payment.

1. The district of Irwatoor with the villages Tummanoor.
2. The district of Ellengad, &c. consisting of twelve Maghans.
3. The district of Usspoor with the villages of Coonammead.

34. Tulleput and Agraram.
35. The Talook of Alleanoor.
36. Worriori Pollam.
37. Vallundapour, excepting the Jaghire of Runjenagudd.

Their value is estimated at six lacks of Pagodas per annum; and if the deficiency exceed what the above districts can make good, in the proportion mentioned in the fifth article of this Agreement, the Nabob is then to specify other districts in addition, and make them over to the Company accordingly, with due regard to the spirit of such obligation.

The security for the twelve lacks on the Arcot districts is accepted, upon a full conviction, that Soucar security is not valid: but should the Bengal Government judge that the Soucar security should be taken in preference to it, the Nabob agrees to cancel the security he has already given, and substitute Soucar security in its stead.

ARTICLE XI.

Should there be any essential failure in the crops, owing to the want of rain or otherwise, it is agreed, that a deduction be made, not from the current charges, but from the twelve lacks stipulated to be paid to the public and private creditors, to the extent of the injury the Company may sustain, as shall be estimated and fixed on by the Governor and Council.

ARTICLE XII.

The Company having been pleased to direct that a Treaty be formed with his Highness the Nabob, embracing some essential points, which cannot at present be ascertained, and as it is his Highness's wish that the Treaty, when concluded at Madras, should be ratified by the Governor General and Council of Bengal, which would take up some time, and consequently prevent the orders of the Company, regarding the assignment, being carried immediately into effect, the above Preliminary Articles of Agreement have therefore been entered into between his Highness the Nabob and the Governor and Council, which are hereby declared to have all the force of a Treaty: and as to what respects the twelve lacks of Pagodas to be paid yearly, on account of the debt due to the Company and private creditors, creditors, an instrument, separate from the Treaty, to the effect above mentioned, shall be executed, under the seal and signature of his Highness the Nabob. A.D. 1785 Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE XIII.

The within conditions being first duly signed and sealed by the respective parties, the Agreement of the 2d December, 1781, will be immediately returned to his Highness the Nabob, who is hereby restored to the possession of, and full exercise of sovereignty over the Carnatic.

That, for the satisfaction of his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, his heirs and successors, the President and Council of Fort St. George shall furnish his Highness, annually, with an accurate account, shewing the number of troops maintained, and the names and situations of the garrisons supported by the annual contributions, and particularly the troops and garrisons maintained by the nine lacks of Pagodas, annually contributed by his Highness to the general defence.

ARTICLE V.

In case of failure in the punctual payment of the nine lacks of Pagodas already mentioned, to the amount of one lack of Pagodas in any Kist, for the period of one month after the same shall become due, his Highness the Nabob agrees that certain districts, specified in the Schedule No. 1, hereunto annexed, shall be made answerable for such failure, and that the Company shall have power to appoint superintendants or receivers, to collect and receive from the Nabob's Amuldars all the rents, revenues, duties, customs, and Peshcush of the said districts; and these superintendants or receivers shall exercise all necessary authority for collecting such rents, revenues, &c. giving regular receipts for all the monies which may be received by the said superintendants, who shall have full power to inspect and examine all Cutcherry receipts and accounts of the lands and districts aforesaid, as well as to ascertain the state of all other revenues which shall be collected annually from customs, or from the Zemindars or Poligars, tributaries to his Highness within the said districts; and when the full amount for which such districts stood answerable shall have been paid to the Company, the superintendant or receiver shall be immediately recalled.

ARTICLE VI.

At the appointment of the superintendant or receiver, the Nabob will furnish the Company with the obligations the Amuldars of each district shall have given to the Sircar, and if they do not pay the money punctually to the superintendant or receiver, agreeable thereto, the Nabob, at the request of the Governor in Council, will immediately dismiss the said Amuldars, and appoint, by Sunnuds, such others in their stead, as the President in Council of Fort St. George shall recommend, after taking from them the usual obligations which shall be delivered to the Company by his Highness.

A.D. 1787
Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE VII.

That the exercise of power over the said districts and farms, by virtue of the conditions mentioned in the fifth and sixth articles, in case of failure in the payment of any of the said Kists, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to deprive his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, or his successors, of the civil government thereof, the credit of his family, or the dignity of his illustrious house, but that the same shall be preserved to him and them inviolate, saving and excepting the powers in the foregoing articles expressed and mentioned.

ARTICLE VIII.

That in the event of any war breaking out in the Carnatic or on the Coast of Choromandel, the said United Company shall charge themselves with the direction, order, and conduct thereof, and during the continuance of such war, shall apply four-fifths of their whole revenues in the Carnatic and the Northern Sircars, annually, to the military expenses of the war. To remove every doubt, on the part of his Highness, of any secretion or diversion of the said revenues from the purpose aforesaid, his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, in behalf of himself, his heirs, and successors, shall have full power and authority, during such war, to appoint one or more inspectors or accomptants, to inspect and examine the Cutcherry receipts of all the districts of the Company in the Carnatic and the Northern Sircars, as well as the state of all the other revenues collected from the Customs, from the Zemindars and Poligars tributary to the Company.

ARTICLE IX.

That, in the like event, his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, after deducting from the whole amount of his revenues 2,13,421 Pagodas annually, for Jaghires to the family of his Highness, and 21,366 Pagodas annually, for charities, shall and will pay into the treasury of the said United Company four-fifths of his revenue to the general expense of such war, to be applied in such manner as the said United Company, or their representatives, shall find necessary for their common safety and interests, as also for the interest of their allies in the Carnatic and on the Coast of Coromandel; and it is moreover agreed, that his Highness's proportion of the debts of the war will henceforth be settled at twenty-five fifty-one parts.

ARTICLE X.

For the more effectual security of the payment of four-fifths of the revenues of his Highness, annually, to the military expenses of the war, and to remove every doubt, on the part of the Company, of any secretion or diversion of the said revenues from the purpose aforesaid, the President and Council of Fort St. George, in behalf of the Company, shall have full power and authority, during such war, to appoint one or more inspectors or accomptants, to inspect and examine the Cutcherry receipts of all the countries and and districts of the Nabob, as well as the state of all the other revenues collected from the customs, and from the Zemindars and Poligars tributaries to his Highness; and in case the said four-fifths of the revenues, or any parts thereof, are diverted from the discharge of the current expenses of the war, or the debts or expenses incurred thereby, the said United Company shall have full power to appoint superintendants and receivers over the said countries and districts of the Nabob, in the manner specified in the fifth article of this Treaty, respecting the districts mentioned in Schedule No. 1, with the same authority, and under the like restrictions and conditions expressed in case of failure. A.D. 1787 Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE XI.

That the said annual four-fifths, payable from the revenues of his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, shall, after the termination of the war, continue to be applied to the discharge of all debts and expenses that may be incurred or arise, during the course of the war, until his proportion of twenty-five fifty-one parts is paid off and discharged.

ARTICLE XII.

It is expressly understood and declared, that so soon as the expences incurred by the war are paid off and discharged, the superintendants and receivers shall be immediately recalled: and it is further expressly declared, that the eleventh article shall not have any retrospect to the expences of any war, antecedent to the date of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XIII.

That after the termination of such war, and during the application of the said gross revenues to the debts and expences thereof, the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth articles of this Treaty shall be and remain dormant, and be of no effect: but shall recommence and regain their full force and validity, from and immediately after all the debts and expences of such war have been fully and proportionally paid off and discharged.

ARTICLE XIV.

In case his Highness shall, at any time, have occasion for any number of troops, for the security and collection of his revenue, the support of his authority, or the good order and government of his dominions, the said United Company shall and will furnish a sufficient number of troops for that purpose, on a public representation being made by his Highness to the President in Council of Fort St. George of the necessity of employing such a force, and the objects to be attained thereby. In case of the march of such troops, the additional Batta, and expences attending their movements, will be annually discharged by his Highness, at the end of each year.

ARTICLE XV.

Whenever the Company shall enter into any negotiations, wherein the interests of the Carnatic and its dependencies may be concerned, the President in Council of Fort St. George

A.D. 1787 Mahomed Ali.

George shall communicate the proceedings to his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, as the firm ally of the Company: and although the direction of the combined force of the country is committed entirely to the Honorable Company or their representatives, it is nevertheless understood, that his Highness shall be informed of all measures which shall relate to the declaring of war or making peace with any of the princes and powers of Hindostan, so far as the interests of the Carnatic may be immediately concerned therein, and the name of his Highness shall be inserted in all Treaties regarding the Carnatic, and his Highness will not enter into any political negotiations or controversies with any state or power, without the consent or approbation of the President in Council of Fort St. George

ARTICLE XVI.

Nothing in this Treaty contained shall be understood to injure the claim of his Highness the Nabob to the Tanjore country.

ARTICLE XVII.

Should there be any essential failure in the crops in time of peace, owing to the want of rain, or any other unforeseen calamity, a deduction shall be made in the Nabob's Kists, to the extent of the injury which the revenues may sustain, as shall be estimated and fixed on by the Governor in Council, to whom his Highness grants full power and authority to appoint one or more superintendants and accomptants to inspect and examine the Cutcherry receipts of all the countries and districts of his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of such deduction, which is to be carried as a charge to the account current of his Highness.

ARTICLE XVIII.

It is hereby stipulated, that the conditions mentioned in the Articles of Agreement between the President and Council of Fort St. George and his Highness the Nabob, dated the 28th June 1785, for payment of four lacks of Pagodas annually to the Honorable Company, shall be null and void, the same being comprehended and included in the conditions of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XIX.

It is further stipulated, that the said Articles of Agreement, dated the 28th June 1785, as far as relate to the discharge of the debts of his Highness the Nabob, shall be and continue in full force and virtue.

In confirmation of all the articles in the preceding Treaty, the President and Council of Fort St. George, invested with full power on behalf of the India Company, have subscribed and sealed two instruments, of the same tenor and date, at Fort St. George, on the 24th day of February, in the year of the Christian era 1787; and his Highness the TREATY with the Rajah of Tanjore, 1787.

The Rajah of Tanjore's Seal.

The Company's Seal.

TREATY and AGREEMENT concluded between the Honorable Major General Sir Archibald Campbell, Knight of the Bath, President and Governor of Fort St. George, on Behalf of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and his Excellency Amer Sing, Rajah of Tanjore. A.D. 1787 The Rajah of Tanjore.

The Court of Directors of the East-India Company having taken into their serious consideration the great advantages which may be attained by improving the blessings of peace, now happily re-established on the Coast of Coromandel, in the Carnatic, and the country of Tanjore, and considering the present hour best suited for settling and arranging, by a just and equitable Treaty, a plan for the future defence and protection of the Carnatic, the Tanjore country, and the Northern Sircars, on a solid and lasting foundation, have communicated these their sentiments to his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, who being fully impressed with the propriety and wisdom of such an arrangement, has, for himself, his heirs, and successors, adjusted and concluded a solid and permanent Treaty with the Honorable East-India Company, upon the principles and conditions herein after mentioned: in consequence whereof it is stipulated and agreed, that due provision shall be made for the military peace establishment; and also that, for discharging the expence of war, in the event of war breaking out in the Tanjore country or in the Carnatic, or any part of the Coast of Coromandel, certain contributions or proportions of the revenues of the contracting parties shall be united into one common stock, to be applied for their mutual security and defence. And as it is necessary that the application of the said contributions, both for peace and war, should be reposed in the United Company or their representatives, together with the direction of the war, the command of the army, magazines of stores and provisions, with full power to occupy or dismantle such forts, as by them shall be deemed necessary for the general security, the said contracting parties do hereby solemnly engage and agree, for themselves and their successors, to and with each other, in manner following, that is to say:

ARTICLE I.

The friends and enemies of his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore and of the English United East-India Company shall be considered as the friends and enemies of both.

ARTICLE II.

His Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore will contribute towards the military peace establishment, and shall pay into the treasury of the said United Company the annual sum of four lacks of Star Pagodas, to commence on the 12th July, in the year of Christ 1787, corresponding to the 30th Aunee of the Malabar month of Palavunga Year, and to the Phusly 1197, divided into Kists, payable at the following periods:

March - - - - - - -	90,000
April - - - - - - -	1,00,000
Star Pagodas - -	4,00,000

ARTICLE III.

The annual contribution of four lacks of Pagodas, to be paid by his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, towards the army peace establishment, is proportioned to the gross revenues of his country, estimated at ten lacks of Pagodas; and it is hereby stipulated and agreed, that whenever the annual gross revenues of the country shall rise above ten lacks of Pagodas, the annual contribution of his Excellency, in time of peace, shall likewise be encreased according to the same scale or standard.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE IV.

A.D.1787
The Rajah of Tanjore.

In case of failure in the punctual payment of the four lacks of Pagodas already mentioned, to the extent of fifty thousand Pagodas, for the period of one month after the same shall become due, his Excellency the Rajah agrees, that the Company shall have power to enter upon any of the districts in the Tanjore country, that shall appear to them necessary to discharge the amount of the sum in arrear, and that the Company shall have power to appoint superintendants or receivers, to collect and receive from the Rajah's renters, managers, and Amildars, all the rents, revenues, duties, and customs of the said districts; and these superintendants or receivers shall exercise all necessary authority for collecting such rents, revenues, duties, and customs of the said districts, giving regular receipts for all the monies which may be received by the said superintendants, who shall have full power to inspect and examine all Cutcherry receipts and accounts of the lands and districts aforesaid, as well as to ascertain the state of all other revenues, which shall be collected annually within the said districts, and when the full amount of the arrears due shall have been paid to the Company, the superintendant or receiver shall be immediately recalled.

ARTICLE V.

At the appointment of the superintendant or receiver, his Excellency the Rajah will furnish the Company with the obligations of the Amildars, renters, or farmers of each district; and if they do not pay the money punctually to the superintendants or receivers, agreeable thereto, his Excellency the Rajah, at the request of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, shall and will immediately dismiss the said Amildars, renters, or farmers, and appoint such others in their stead, as the President in Council of Fort St. George shall recommend, after taking from them the usual obligations, which shall be delivered to the Company by his Excellency.

ARTICLE VI.

That the exercise of power over the said districts and farms, by virtue of the conditions mentioned in the fourth and fifth articles, in case of failure in the payment of any of the Kists, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to deprive his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, or his successors, of the civil government thereof, or the honour and dignity of his family, but the same shall be preserved to him and them inviolate, saving and excepting the powers in the Articles IV. and V. expressed and mentioned.

ARTICLE VII.

ARTICLE X.

That the said annual four-fifths, payable from the revenues of his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, shall, after the termination of the war, continue to be applied to the discharge of all debts and expences that may be incurred or arise, during the course of the war, until his proportion of one-fifth part of the whole expence is paid off and discharged.

ARTICLE XIII.

In case his Excellency shall, at any time, have occasion for any number of troops, for the security and collection of his revenues, the support of his authority, or the good order and government of his country, the said United Company shall and will furnish a sufficient number of troops for that purpose, on a public representation being made by his Excellency to the President in Council of Fort St. George of the necessity of employing such force, and the objects to be obtained thereby. In case of the march of such troops, the additional Batta and expences attending their movements shall be annually discharged by his Excellency, at the end of each year.

AGREEMENT with the Rajah of Travancore for two Battalions to be stationed within his Dominions, 1788.

A.D. 1787
The Rajah of Travancore.

From the Rajah of Travancore to the Governor, dated 12th Ramgun, 19th June 1788.

The territory of Calicut and Pulicatcherry lay quite contiguous to the wall of my fort, Extract Letter from the Governor to the Rajah of Travancore, dated Fort St. George, dated 12th August, 1788.

I have very fully considered of your request to be supplied with English officers to command fort, and Tippoo Sultaun, particularly at this time, is moving frequently through these districts. In consequence of the orders you were pleased to give to me, and trusting to the peaceable state of affairs between you and Tippoo, I do nothing more than keep a watchful eye over my district, for which purpose I have appointed six battalions and other troops to guard the places of strength belonging to me; but it is necessary to have officers and serjeants to discipline those battalions. I have, therefore, to request you will, out of your favor and friendship to me, order four officers and twelve serjeants, who are well acquainted with the exercise and discipline of troops, that I may employ them for that purpose in my service. I hope your Excellency will grant me this favor. Major Bannerman, whom I have earnestly spoke to on this subject, has written to your Excellency, and I beg leave to refer you to what he says.

What shall I say more?

A.D. 1787
The Rajah of Travancore.

command your battalions of Sepoys. My desire to shew you kindness and protection is so manifest, that it is not necessary to repeat to you how great my satisfaction is, when I have an opportunity to add to your happiness. On the present occasion, however, a compliance with your request might be attended with greater inconvenience than you are aware of. The Honorable Company's officers are brave and good men, and will always discharge their duty with zeal and ability; but it is contrary to the systems now laid down for the management of the English Company's affairs, to lend their officers to command any troops, except such as are actually in their own pay and under their own authority. Great inconvenience has been found to arise from pursuing a different line of conduct, which I hope you will reconcile to your mind my declining to comply with the proposal.

If you can suggest any plan, by which one, two, or even three battalions of the Honorable Company's troops can be employed to advantage in securing your country against any sudden attack from Tippoo, I shall very readily take the same into consideration, and if practicable, form an arrangement that will afford safety to your possessions, without deviating from the rules of our service.

A.D. 1787 The Rajah of Travancore.

Extract Letter from the Rajah of Travancore to the Governor, dated 25th Zecayed, or 28th August, 1788.

You are pleased to say it is contrary to the system now laid down, to lend the Company's officers to command any troops, except such as are actually in their pay and under their own authority; but if I can suggest any plan, by which one, two, or three battalions of the Company's troops can be employed in securing my country against any sudden attack from Tippoo, you will readily take the same into consideration, and form an arrangement for the safety of my country, without deviating from the rules of your service.

The above letter has given me the greatest satisfaction, and accomplished my wishes.

The friendship and attachment I bear to the English Company are known to the whole world, and my late intercourse with Tippoo Sultaun has also been carried on through their assistance and favor.

I call the Almighty to witness, that I rest my whole dependence on them for support, and therefore most willingly acquiesce to the proposal in your Excellency's letter, of having some battalions of the Company's troops with me. Your Excellency will be pleased

Letter from the Governor to the Rajah of Travancore, dated Fort St. George, the 7th October, 1788.

I have received your letter, dated the 28th August, and you may rest assured that the confidence you repose in the friendship of the English Company is not ill placed. They regard you as their faithful ally, and consider your interests the same as their own.

Your having acquiesced in the proposition I made of having some battalions of the Company's troops stationed on the frontier of Travancore, is a wise and judicious measure: it will ensure the safety of your country against the ambitious views of any persons who may be ill-disposed towards you, and cannot fail to convince them of the danger they would be exposed to, in attacking a prince supported and protected, as you are, by the English, whose arms, by the blessing of God, are too powerful for them to combat with.

At the same time that I am anxious to see your country in a complete state of security, I am not less so in effecting it in such a manner, as will render your expences easy: for this purpose, I would recommend that, in time of peace, two battalions of the Company's native infantry should be stationed on your frontiers, at your expence, pleased to shew me your favor, in any manner that can tend to the security and protection of my country, and to inform me of the expence that will attend a battalion of Sepoys. I refer you to Major Bannerman's letters for an answer to the other matters he has communicated to me from your Excellency.

pence, and that the amount may be either paid by you to the Company, in cash or pepper, as may best suit your convenience. That if an additional force of Europeans and natives are required, to strengthen your frontier against the designs of an enemy, these shall be maintained at the Company's expence entirely; with this proviso, that you will order them to be supplied with provisions, and the necessary articles for erecting buildings to lodge them in, on their paying for the same, at the usual rates of your country. That you may know the expence of a Company's battalion in peace and war, I have enclosed an estimate of the same for your information.

I shall always have a great pleasure in forwarding your wishes, and hope to hear often of your health and prosperity. What can I say more?

(Signed) ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL.

Letter from the Rajah of Travancore to the Governor, dated 6th Suffer, or 5th November, 1788.

I have been honored with the receipt of your Excellency's gracious letter, in which you recommend "that two battalions of the Company's Sepoys should be stationed on "the frontiers of my country in time of peace, the amount of their pay to be provided "for by me, in cash or pepper, as may suit my convenience. That whenever an addi- "tional force is required by me, as a defence against the designs of an enemy, you will "send a body of Europeans and Sepoys, which will be maintained at the Company's ex- "pense; and that I am to supply them with provisions and the necessary articles for erect- "ing buildings, on their paying for the same, at the usual rates of my country." moreover say, " that the confidence I repose in the friendship of the Company will not " be lost, and that they regard me as their faithful ally, and consider my interest the same " as their own." You have also transmitted to me an estimate account of the monthly expence of a Company's battalion of Sepoys, in time of peace and war, for my information: all which I understand.

The measure which has occurred to your Excellency's enlightened mind, for stationing two battalions of Sepoys for the defence of my country, is highly proper, and I consider my government and territories perfectly safe and secured against the machinations of my enemies. The Almighty God knows the sincerity of my long friendship with the English, whose power I consider as the means of my preservation; may he, of his infinite goodness, grant the continuance of their prosperity and success.

Your Excellency will be pleased, in consequence of what you have written, to send me two battalions of Sepoys for the defence of my country, for which favor I shall be highly grateful to your Excellency.

The account sent me states, as the monthly expence of one battalion of Sepoys, the sum of one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five Star Pagodas forty fanams and forty Cash, and the additional charge to be twenty-six Pagodas seven fanams; I therefore inform you, that I shall pay, in ready money, into the hands of whatever person you are pleased to order, the annual amount of two battalions of Sepoys, agreeable to the above-mentioned statement; and in the event of a war, I shall pay the Batta to them, agreeably to what is stated in the said account, being for one battalion nine hundred and ninety-eight Star Pagodas six fanams and twelve Cash.

From the long and sincere friendship I have entertained with the Company, it has always been my hope, that the English would give me their assistance, when necessary, by sending me a body of Europeans and Sepoys, and now, since your Excellency has been pleased to mention it yourself, my mind is set fully at ease in that point. Whenever I shall require an additional number of troops for the defence of my country, viz. Europeans and Sepoys, I shall supply them with provisions, and the necessary articles they may want. May it please your Excellency, some battalions of Sepoys, belonging to me, have, for a length of time, been employed in the Tinnevelly country; I therefore request your Excellency will send positive injunctions to the officer in that district to send me the above battalions, that I may employ them with the two battalions you are to send me, in the defence fence of my country, which will remove all my anxieties regarding the designs of such who intend giving me trouble. A.D. 1787 The Rajah of Travancore.

Be pleased to consider me, at all times, your devoted well-wisher, and honor me frequently with your commands.—What shall I say more?

A.D. 1792 Mahomed Ali. TREATY between the Honorable East-India Company and the Nabob of Arcot, July 1792.

Whereas a certain engagement, entered into between the Honorable English East-India Company and his Highness the Nawaub of the Carnatic, bearing date the 24th February 1787, for the purpose of cementing an everlasting friendship with each other, and of contributing mutually towards the defence of the Carnatic and countries dependant thereon, whereby it was stipulated, that the said Company should maintain a military force, and that the said Nawaub should pay annually a certain sum of money arising from the revenues of the Carnatic, and should furnish sufficient and satisfactory security, under certain conditions expressed in the said engagement, for the regular payment of the sum stipulated to the said Company: and whereas it appears by the representations of the said Nawaub, contained in a certain letter addressed by him to the Governor General, &c. &c. dated the 18th of the month Shawal, 1206 Higera (corresponding with the 9th June, 1792) that the resources of the Carnatic are not competent to enable him to perform the stipulations in the said engagement; and whereas it further appears, that the security which the said Nawaub agreed in the above-mentioned engagement to furnish, for the due payment of the stipulated sum to the said Company, is in its nature inadequate to the end intended; and whereas certain agreements have also been entered into between the said Company and the said Nawaub, for the discharge of certain debts due by the said said Nawaub to private persons, it has been mutually agreed, in consequence of the above-written circumstances, that the engagement aforesaid shall henceforth be considered by the contracting parties as annulled, and no longer of effect or in force, and, in lieu thereof, the right Honorable Charles Earl Cornwallis, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Governor General, &c. &c. &c. invested with full powers, on the part of the said Honorable English East-India Company, to direct and controul the affairs of the said Company in the East-Indies, in the name of and for the said Company, their heirs and successors, on one part, and the Nawaub Wallah Jah Ameer-ul-Hind Omdut-ul-Moulk Asoph-ul-Dowlah Unevah-ul-Deen Khan Behauder Zuffer Jung Sepah Salar Nabob of the Carnatic, in his own name, and for himself and his successor, his eldest son Nabob Omdut-ul-Omrah Najun-ul-Moulk Assud-ul-Dowlah Hassein Ally Khan Behauder Zool Sircar Zung, and his heirs and successors, on the other part, agree to the following articles, which shall be binding on the respective contracting parties for the purposes contained therein, notwithstanding all or any of the conditions stipulated in the engagement dated the 24th February 1787 to the contrary. A.D. 1792 Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE I.

The friends and enemies of either of the contracting parties shall be considered the friends and enemies of both.

ARTICLE II.

In order to execute the foregoing article in its full extent, the Honorable English East-India Company agree to maintain a military force, and the Nawaub Wallah Jah Behauder agrees to contribute annually a certain sum of money, hereinafter-mentioned, as his share of the expense of the said military force; the said Nawaub further agreeing, that the disposal of the said sum, together with the arrangement and employment of the troops supported by it, shall be left entirely to the said Company.

ARTICLE III.

It is hereby also agreed, that for the further security and defence of the countries belonging and subject to the contracting parties in the Carnatic, &c., that all forts shall be garrisoned by the troops of the said Company: and in the event of war breaking out in the Carnatic and countries appertaining to either party, and dependant on the Carnatic or contiguous thereto, it is agreed, for the better prosecution of it, that as long as it should last, the said Company shall possess full authority over the Carnatic, (except the Jaghires belonging to the family of the said Nawaub, amounting to Star Pagodas 2,13,911, which, on condition of the good behaviour of the Jaghiredars of the said Jaghires, and of their fidelity to the said Nawaub and to the said Company, shall be continued to them, subject to the pleasure of the said Nawaub only, and except also certain charities, amounting to Star Pagodas 21,366, subject to the same conditions as are mentioned with respect to the

A.D.1792 Mahomed Ali. Jaghires) and shall collect the revenues thereof, the said Company hereby engaging that, during such war, they will pay to the said Nawaub one-fifth share of the net revenue arising therefrom, and that, at the conclusion of the war, the Carnatic shall be restored to the said Nawaub, except in certain cases, which are hereinafter mentioned.

ARTICLE IV.

The Nawaub Wallah Jah agrees to pay to the said Company, for the purpose of mutual defence, the sum of nine lacks of Star Pagodas annually, as his share of the expense for the military force; and also in consequence of certain agreements entered into by him with the said Company, and guaranteed by the Parliament of Great Britain, for the purpose of liquidating certain debts due by the said Nawaub, a further sum of 6,21,105 Star Pagodas annually, which further sum of 6,21,105 Star Pagodas shall cease on the full liquidation of the debts above mentioned, and the sum of 9,00,000 of Star Pagodas only shall continue to be paid by the said Nawaub to the Company.

ARTICLE V.

The said Nawaub having agreed to pay the aggregate sum of 15,21,105 Star Pagodas, as mentioned in the fourth article, determines that the tributes or Peschush, payable by the Poligars, as more particularly mentioned in the Schedule No. 1, hereunto annexed, shall be collected by the said Company, who agree to make the collection thereof at their own expense and risk, and that they will not encrease the demand on the said Poligars beyond the sum mentioned in the said Schedule, except in the case hereinafter mentioned, nor charge to the said Nawaub, either the expense attending the collection, or any deficiencies that may arise thereon, but will give credit to the said Nawaub annually for the aforesaid tributes or Peschush, in part payment of the sum of nine lacks of Star Pagodas above-mentioned, without any deduction whatever. Although the contracting parties have, in the present instrument, agreed that the sum of 2,64,704 Star Pagodas 20 Fanams 26 Cash be deducted from the sum of nine lacks of Pagodas, as the amount of the tributes or Peschush from the Poligars; yet should it, on future enquiry, appear that the said Poligars ought, by virtue of any existing and lawful engagements, to pay a larger sum, it shall be demanded of them; and any addition that shall thus be made to the sums mentioned in the said Schedule, shall be deducted from the sum of nine lacks, in like manner with the sum of 2,64,704 Star Pagodas 20 Fanams 26 Cash, and a similar deduction shall, in consequence, be made in the Kistbundy hereinafter mentioned. It is however mutually agreed, that the diminution of this aggregate sum, which shall take place on the full liquidation of the debts, as specified in the fourth article, shall make no change in this article, which shall, notwithstanding such diminution, remain in full force.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1792
Mahomed Ali.

ARTICLE VI.

The said Company, desirous of preserving the rights of sovereignty over the said Poligars to the said Nawaub, engage to the utmost of their power, and consistent with the realization of the tributes or Peschush from them, to enforce the allegiance and submission of the said Poligars to the said Nawaub, in customary ceremonies, and in furnishing the Poligar Peons, according to established custom, for the collection of the revenues, the support of Government, and for the protection of the property of the inhabitants of the said Nawaub's country, promising that all acts of authority shall be exercised, and all accounts of revenue (of which accounts the said Nawaub, if he so wishes, shall be annually furnished with copies) shall bear his, the said Nawaub's, name. For the better execution of this and the fifth article, the said Nawaub promises to furnish to the said Company, that is to say to their representatives, the President and Council of Fort St. George, the necessary orders, under his seal and signature, addressed to each Poligar, and to the purport hereof, without delay.

ARTICLE VII.

After deducting from the above-mentioned sum of nine lacks of Star Pagodas, which forms a part of the aggregate sum of 15,21,105 Star Pagodas, mentioned in the fifth article, the amount of the tributes or Peschush from the Poligars, as specified in the Schedule No. 1, the said Nawaub agrees to pay annually the remaining sum, being 6,35,295 Star Pagodas 15 Fanams 54 Cash, together with the further sum of 6,21,105 Star Pagodas, for the purpose mentioned in the fourth article, making the sum of 12,56,400 Star Pagodas 15 Fanams 54 Cash, at the following periods:

	Star Pagodas	F.	C.
On the 1st September	1,00,000	0	0
1st October	1,00,000	0	0
1st November	1,00,000	0	0
1st December	1,00,000	0	0
1st January	1,00,000	0	0
1st February	1,00,000	0	0
1st March	1,50,000	0	0
1st April	1,50,000	0	0
1st May	2,00,000	0	0
1st June	1,56,400	15	54
Star Pagodas	12,56,400	15	54

And

A.D. 1792 Mahomed Ali. And it is mutually agreed, that on the full liquidation of the debts before-mentioned, when the payment of the sum of Star Pagodas 6,21,105 shall cease, by virtue of the fourth article, a reduction, in equal proportion, shall take place in the above instalments.

ARTICLE VIII.

The said Nawaub engages to make good to the said Company the payments of the sums, according to the instalments of Kistbundy contained in the seventh article; and if, contrary to his sincere intentions and exertions, any of the said sums shall not be fully paid, at the expiration of fifteen days from the time limited, in that case the said Nawaub agrees, that the said Company shall assume the management of, and make the collection of the revenues, from the districts mentioned in the Schedule No. 2, hereunto annexed, according to the following conditions: and for this the present engagement shall be considered sufficient authority, the said Company, through their President and Council at Fort St. George, giving immediate and explicit information, according to the tenor thereof, to the said Nawaub, who shall, on the arrival of the Company's officers in the said district, recall all his officers, except one in each district, which officer shall remain at the Sudder Cutcherry, and shall be furnished annually, by the officer of the said Company with copies of the Sudder Cutcherry accounts, of the gross collections, and of the net receipts, under the attestation of the officer of the said Company, and of the Sudder Omlah of the district.

First. The said Company shall assume the management of such district or districts, the revenues of which, after deducting the charges of collections, shall equal the amount of the Kist which shall have fallen in arrear.

Second. The said Company agree, that a deduction shall take place proportionably from the amount of each of the ten Kists above-mentioned, equal to the amount of the net revenue of the district or districts which shall have been assumed as above, such deduction commencing from the day that the assumption shall take place. It is also mutually agreed, that an account, called "Balance account," shall be immediately opened, for this and other purposes hereinafter mentioned, bearing an interest of eight per cent. per annum, between the said Nawaub and the said Company, in which the said Nawaub shall be debited for the balance accrued in his above stipulated payments, and also for the amount deducted, as above, from the ten Kists, and shall be credited for the net revenue collected from the said district or districts, the said Company continuing to exercise authority in, and to make the collections from the same, until, in consequence of the full liquidation of the debts and diminution of the annual sum, to be for that purpose paid by the Nabob to the said Company, according to the fourth article, the said balance account shall be equal on the debit and credit side, and nothing shall remain due to the said Company, then the said district or districts shall revert to the management of the said Nawaub. A.D. 1792 Mahomed Ali.

Third. Whenever the said district or districts, thus assumed, shall be restored, according to the above condition, it is agreed, that in case of any of the Kists for the sum remaining (after the deduction of the sum of 6,35,21,105 Star Pagodas, that is to say, for the sum of 6,35,295 Star Pagodas 15 Fanams, 54 Cash, be not paid fifteen days after the expiration of the time limited, the said Company shall possess equal power to assume the districts mentioned in the said Schedule, No. 2., as in the first instance, and shall accordingly assume such district or districts, the revenues of which, after deducting the charges of collection, shall equal the amount of the Kist which shall have fallen in arrear, from which they shall realize the balance that shall have arisen in the payment of the Kists, and shall give credit to the said Nawaub for the surplus and subsequent net revenues, in part payment of the sum of 6,35,295 Star Pagodas 15 Fanams 54 Cash; and, in this case, the management of the district or districts thus assumed, shall for ever continue in the possession of the said Company, any thing contained in the third article of the present engagement to the contrary notwithstanding, and the said Company agree to give the Nawaub credit for the revenue arising therefrom.

Fourth. In order to prevent any loss arising to either party from this measure, it is mutually agreed, that the district or districts which shall thus be assumed by the said Company, shall be entire, as mentioned in the said Schedule, and not parts of districts.

Fifth. In consequence of this measure, whereby the districts mentioned in the Schedule, No. 2., become responsible for any arrears that may accrue in the payment of the above stipulated Kists, the said Nawaub agrees, that he will not grant Tunkaws, or assignments, on any account, on the revenues thereof; and if, contrary to this condition, any Tunkaws, or assignments, should exist, where the said districts or any of them shall be assumed by the said Company, such Tunkaws, or assignments, shall be declared by the said Company and the said Nawaub to be of no value, nor shall they remain in effect.

Sixth. It is agreed between the contracting parties, that the above described balance account shall be annually adjusted, and a committee, consisting of four respectable and capable persons, of which two shall be nominated by the said Company and two by the said Nawaub, shall assemble, on the 1st day of August of every year, commencing with 1793, for the purpose of adjusting and drawing out a fair and equitable statement thereof.

ARTICLE IX.

In case the said Nawaub shall, at any time, have occasion for any number of troops for the collection of his revenues, the support of his authority, or the good order and government of his country, the said Company agree to furnish a sufficient number of troops for that purpose, on public representation being made by the said Nawaub to the President and Council of Fort St. George, of the necessity of employing such troops, and of the objects to be obtained thereby; and the said Nawaub agrees to defray the additional expense of such troops, so long as they may be employed at his request, this additional expence being the sum over and above the expence of such troops, while in garrison or at fixed quarters: and it shall be at the option of the said Nawaub to reimburse the said surplus expence, either on the conclusion of the service on which such troops may have been employed, in money, or to add it to the debit side of the account called balance account, as more particularly explained in the second condition of the eighth article.

ARTICLE X.

The said Nawaub shall receive regular information of any negotiation which shall relate to declaring war or making peace, wherein the said Company may engage, and the interests of the Carnatic and its dependencies may be concerned; and the said Nawaub shall be considered as an ally of the said Company, in all Treaties which shall, in any respect, affect the Carnatic and countries depending thereon, or belonging to either of the contracting parties contiguous thereto: and the said Nawaub agrees, that he will not enter into any negotiation or political correspondence with any European or Native Power, without the consent of the said Company.

This Treaty, consisting of ten articles, and having two Schedules annexed thereto, marked No. 1. and No. 2., shall be in force and have effect, from 12th day of July, 1792 (corresponding with the 22d day of the month Zekaida, 1206 Higera); and the contracting parties having affixed their respective seals and signatures to two counterparts, on the dates undermentioned, that is to say, the Right Honorable Charles Earl Cornwallis, K. G., Governor General, &c. &c. &c. shall affix his seal and signature to one counterpart, on the part of the Honorable English East-India Company, and the Nawaub Walla Jah Behauder, Nawaub of the Carnatic, shall affix his seal and signature to another counterpart, shall be exchanged.

TREATY with the Rajah of Tanjore, 1792.

A.D. 1792
The Rajah of Tanjore.

Whereas a certain engagement was entered into between the Honorable English East-India Company and his Excellency Ameer Sing, Rajah of Tanjore, bearing date the 10th day of April 1787, for the purpose of cementing an everlasting friendship with each other, and of contributing mutually towards the defence of the Carnatic and countries dependent thereon, whereby it was stipulated, that the said Company should maintain a military force, and that the said Rajah of Tanjore should pay annually a certain sum of money arising from the revenues of his country, and should furnish sufficient and satisfactory security, under certain conditions expressed in the said engagement, for the regular payment of the sum stipulated to the said Company; and whereas it appears that the resources of the said country of Tanjore are not competent to enable the said Rajah to perform the stipulations in the said engagements; and whereas it further appears, that the security which the said Rajah of Tanjore agreed in the above-mentioned engagement to furnish, for the due payment of the stipulated sum to the said Company, is, in its nature, inadequate to the end intended; and whereas certain agreements have also been entered into between the said Company and the said Rajah, for the discharge of certain debts due by the said Rajah to private persons, it has been mutually agreed, in consequence of the above written circumstances, that the engagement aforesaid shall henceforth be considered by the contracting parties as annulled, and no longer of effect or in force; and in lieu thereof the Honorable Sir Charles Oakely, Baronet, President and Governor in Council of Fort St. George, on behalf of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, their heirs and successors, on the one part, and his Excellency Ameer Sing, Rajah of Tanjore, in his own name, and for himself, his heirs, and successors, on the other part, agree to the following articles, which shall be binding on the respective parties for the purposes contained therein, notwithstanding all or any of the conditions stipulated in the engagement, dated 10th April, 1787, to the contrary.

ARTICLE I.

The friends and enemies of either of the contracting parties shall be considered the friends and enemies of both.

ARTICLE

A.D.1792
The Rajah of Tanjore.

ARTICLE II.

In order to execute the foregoing article in its full extent, the Honorable English East-India Company agree to maintain a military force, and the Rajah of Tanjore agrees to contribute annually a certain sum of money, hereinafter-mentioned, as his share of the expence of the said military force; the said Rajah further agreeing, that the disposal of the said sum, together with the arrangement and employments of the troops supported by it, shall be left entirely to the said Company.

ARTICLE III

It is hereby also agreed, for the further security and defence of the countries belonging and subject to the contracting parties in the Carnatic, &c., that all forts shall be garrisoned by the troops of the said Company: and in the event of war breaking out in the Carnatic and countries appertaining to either party, and dependent on the Carnatic or contiguous thereto, it is agreed, for the better prosecution of it, that so long as it shall last, the said Company shall possess full authority over the Tanjore country, and shall collect the revenues thereof, the said Company hereby engaging that, during such war, they will pay to the said Rajah one lack of Pagodas (1,00,000) per annum, and one-fifth share of the nett revenue arising therefrom, and that, at the conclusion of the war, the Tanjore Country shall be restored to the Rajah, except in certain cases, which are hereinafter mentioned.

ARTICLE IV.

The Rajah of Tanjore agrees to pay to the said Company, for the purpose of mutual defence, the sum of three lacks and fifty thousand (3,50,000) Star Pagodas annually, as his share of the expence for the military force; and also, in consequence of an agreement between the said Company and the Nabob of the Carnatic, a further sum of one lack fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (1,14,285) Star Pagodas annually, on account of the Peishcush payable from Tanjore to the said Nabob, and by him transferred, in absolute right, to the said Company: and the said Rajah further engages to pay the sum of sixty thousand (60,000) Star Pagodas per annum, towards the discharge of certain debts, sanctioned by the said Company and specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, No. 2, which further sum of sixty thousand (60,000) Star Pagodas shall cease on the full liquidation of the said debts.

ARTICLE V.

Although the sums above-mentioned constitute the regular stated payments for which the Rajah of Tanjore is to be accountable, under the heads of subsidy, Peishcush, and private debts, yet the said Company, considering the actual state of the Tanjore country, which has for many years been declining in its revenue, and desirous of affording the said Rajah as much present relief as may be consistent with the absolute necessities of their own Government, in the confidence that he will turn it to the improvement of his country and the comfort of his people, agree that a temporary suspension shall take place, with respect to a part of the annual payment stated in the foregoing article; that is to say, for three years, commencing with the present Fusly, or 12th July last, they consent the annual demand of one lack fourteen thousand two hundred and eight-five (1,14,285) Star Pagodas, on account of Peisheush, shall be postponed, and that the amount which, at the expiration of that period, will become due, being three lacks forty-two thousand eight hundred and fifty-five (3,42,855) Star Pagodas, shall be added to the arrears owing by the said Rajah on his former engagements: and the said Rajah agrees, towards the liquidation of this aggregate balance, to pay fifty thousand (50,000) Star Pagodas per annum, commencing from the 12th July last, and to be continued till the whole shall be discharged; and after the expiration of three years, to pay his annual Peishcush of one lack fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (1,14,285) Star Pagodas, regularly, as it becomes due. Thus the whole sum to be paid, after the expiration of three years, will be five lacks fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (5,14,285) Star Pagodas for account of the said Company, and sixty thousand (60,000) Star Pagodas per annum for account of the private creditors.

ARTICLE VI.

In order to make good the sum stipulated to be paid annually for three years, namely three lacks and fifty thousand (3,50,000) Star Pagodas, on account of the Rajah's share of the military expence, fifty thousand (50,000) Star Pagodas, on account of arrears, and sixty thousand (60,000) Star Pagodas, on account of private debts, the said Rajah agrees to pay the amount of the said three sums, being four lacks sixty thousand (4,60,000) Star Pagodas, into the Company's treasury at Madras, at the following periods:

1st November	30,000
1st December	40,000
1st January	40,000
1st February	50,000
1st March	50,000
1st April	50,000
1st May	50,000
1st June	50,000
1st July	1,00,000
Star Pagodas	4,60,000

And

A.D. 1792
The Rajah of Tanjore.

And it is mutually agreed, that at the end of three years, when the additional payment of one lack fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (1,14,285) Star Pagodas per annum is to commence, a proportionable encrease shall take place in each of the above instalments; and that, on the liquidation of the private debts before mentioned, a proportionable deduction shall be made on that account.

ARTICLE VII.

If, contrary to the intentions of the said Rajah, any part of the sums mentioned in the instalment, or Kistbundy, fixed by the foregoing article, shall not be fully paid, at the expiration of fifteen days from the time limited, in that case the said Company shall assume the management of, and make the collection of the revenues, from the districts mentioned in the Schedule, No. 1, hereunto annexed, according to the following conditions; and for this the present engagement shall be considered sufficient authority, the said Company, through their President in Council at Fort St. George, giving immediate and explicit information, according to the tenor thereof, to the said Rajah, who shall, on the arrival of the Company's officers in the said districts, recall all his officers, except one in each district, which officer shall remain at the Sudder Cutcherry, and shall be furnished, annually, by the officer of the said Company, with the copies of the Sudder Cutcherry accounts of the gross collections, and of the net receipts, under the attestation of the officer of the said Company and of the Sudder Omlah of the district.

First. The said Company shall assume the management of such district or districts, the revenue of which, after deducting the charges collection, shall have fallen in arrear.

Second. The said Company agree, that a deduction shall take place, proportionably, from the amount of the nine Kists above mentioned, equal to the amount of the net revenue of the district or districts which shall have been assumed as above, such deduction commencing from the day that the assumption shall take place. It is hereby also mutually agreed, that an account, called "balance account," shall be immediately opened, for this and other purposes hereinafter mentioned, bearing an interest of eight per cent. per annum, between the said Rajah and the said Company, in which the said Rajah shall be debited for the balance accrued in his above stipulated payments, and also for the amount deducted, as above, from the nine Kists, and shall be credited for the net revenues collected from the said district or districts, the said Company continuing to exercise authority in, and to make the collections from the same, until, in consequence of the full liquidation of the private debts, and diminution of the annual sum to be for that purpose paid by the said Rajah to the said Company, according to the fourth article, the said balance account shall be equal on the debit debit and credit side, and nothing shall remain due to the said Company, then the said district or districts shall revert to the management of the said Rajah.

Third. Whenever the said district or districts, thus assumed, shall be restored, according to the above condition, it is agreed that, in case any of the Kists for the sum remaining due, after the deduction of the sum of sixty thousand (60,000) Star Pagodas, that is to say, for the sum of five lacks fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (5,14,285) Star Pagodas, be not paid fifteen days after the expiration of the time limited, the said Company shall possess equal power to assume the districts mentioned in the said Schedule, No. 1, as in the first instance, and shall accordingly assume such district or districts, the revenue of which, after deducting the charges of collection, shall equal the amount of the Kist which shall have fallen in arrear, from which they shall realize the balance that shall have arisen in the payment of the Kists, and shall give credit to the said Rajah for the surplus and subsequent net revenues, in the part payment of the sum of five lacks fourteen thousand two hundred and eighty-five (5,14,285) Star Pagodas; and, in this case, the management of the district or districts, thus assumed, shall for ever continue in the possession of the said Company, any thing contained in the third article of the present engagement to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said Company agree to give the said Rajah credit for the net revenue arising therefrom.

Fourth. In order to prevent any loss arising to either party from this measure, it is mutually agreed, that the district or districts, which shall thus be assumed by the said Company, shall be entire, as mentioned in the said Schedule, and not parts of districts.

Fifth. In consequence of this measure, whereby the districts mentioned in the Schedule, No. 1, become responsible for any arrears that may accrue in the payment of the above stipulated Kists, the said Rajah agrees, that he will not grant Tunkaws, or assignments, on any account, on the revenues thereof; and if, contrary to this condition, any Tunkaws, or assignments, should exist, when the said districts, or any of them, shall be assumed by the said Company, such Tunkaws, or assignments, shall be declared by the said Company and the said Rajah to be of no value, nor shall they remain in effect.

Sixth. It is agreed between the contracting parties, that the above described balance account shall be annually adjusted; and a committee, consisting of four respectable and capable persons, of which two shall be nominated by the said Company and two by the said Rajah, shall assemble, on the 1st day of August of every year, commencing with 1793, for the purpose of adjusting and of drawing out a fair and equitable statement thereof.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Rajah of Tanjore.

In case the said Rajah shall, at any time, have occasion for any number of troops, for the collection of his revenues, the support of his authority, or the good order and government of his country, the said Company agree to furnish a sufficient number of troops for that purpose, on public representation being made by the said Rajah, to the President in Council of Fort St. George, of the necessity for employing such troops, and of the objects to be attained thereby: and the said Rajah agrees to defray the additional expence of such troops, so long as they may be employed at his request, this additional expence being the sum over and above the expence of such troops while in garrison, or at fixed quarters; and it shall be at the option of the said Rajah to reimburse the said surplus expence, either on the conclusion of the service on which such troops may have been employed, in money, or to add it to the debit side of the account, called "balance account," as more particularly explained in the second condition of the seventh article.

ARTICLE IX.

The said Rajah shall receive regular information of all negociations which shall relate to declaring war or making peace, wherein the said Company may engage, and the interest of the Carnatic and its dependencies may be concerned: and the said Rajah shall be considered as an ally of the said Company, in all Treaties which shall, in any respect, affect the Carnatic and countries depending thereon, or belonging to either of the contracting parties, contiguous thereto; and the said Rajah agrees that he will not enter into any negociations or political correspondence with any European or Native Power, without the consent of the said Company.

ARTICLE X.

The said Rajah agrees to allow for the support of Serfogee, the adopted son of the late Rajah Tulagee, deceased, the sum of eleven thousand (11,000) Star Pagodas per annum, and for the maintenance of the widows of the said Tulagee, the further sum of three thousand (3,000) Star Pagodas each per annum; which payments shall be made, by equal monthly instalments, into the hands of the Company, or whomsoever they may appoint to receive them, and applied to the above purposes, according to their discretion.

This Treaty, consisting of ten articles, and having two Schedules annexed thereto, marked No. 1 and 2, shall be in force and shall have effect, from the 12th day of July, 1792, corresponding with the 22d day of the month Zekaida, 1206 Higera; and the contracting parties having affixed their respective seals and signatures to two counterparts, on the dates undermentioned, that is to say, the Honorable Sir Charles Oakely, Baronet, President and Governor in Council of Fort St. George, shall affix his seal and signature to

Partition Treaty of Mysore, 1799

A.D. 1799. The Nizam.

Treaty for strengthening the Alliance and Friendship subsisting between the English East-India Company Behauder, his Highness the Nabob Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, and the Paishwah, Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, and for effecting a Settlement of the Dominions of the late Tippoo Sultaun.*

Whereas the deceased Tippoo Sultaun, unprovoked by any act of aggression on the part of the allies, entered into an offensive and defensive alliance with the French, and admitted a French force into his army, for the purpose of commencing war against the Honorable English Company Behauder, and its Allies, Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, and the Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder; and the said Tippoo Sultaun having attempted to evade the just demands of satisfaction and security made by the Honorable English Company and its Allies, for their defence and protection against the joint designs of the said Sultaun and of the French, the allied armies of the Honorable English Company Behauder and of his Highness Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder proceeded

* The Paishwah refused to accede to this Treaty.

A.D.1799 proceeded to hostilities, in vindication of their rights, and for the preservation of their respective dominions from the perils of foreign invasion, and from the ravages of a cruel and relentless enemy.

The Nizam.

And whereas it has pleased Almighty God to prosper the just cause of the said Allies, the Honorable English Company Behauder and his Highness Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, with a continual course of victory and success, and finally to crown their arms by the reduction of the capital of Mysore, the fall of Tippoo Sultaun, the utter extinction of his power, and the unconditional submission of his people; and whereas the said Allies, being disposed to exercise the rights of conquest with the same moderation and forbearance which they have observed from the commencement to the conclusion of the late successful war, have resolved to use the power which it has pleased Almighty God to place in their hands, for the purpose of obtaining reasonable compensation for the expences of the war, and of establishing permanent security and genuine tranquillity for themselves and their subjects, as well as for all the powers contiguous to their respective dominions; wherefore a Treaty, for the adjustment of the territories of the late Tippoo Sultaun between the English East-India Company Behauder and his Highness the Nabob Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, is now concluded by Lieutenant General George Harris, Commander in Chief of the Forces of his Britannic Majesty and of the English East-India Company Behauder in the Carnatic and on the Coast of Malabar, the Honorable Colonel Arthur Wellesley, the Honorable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant Colonel William Kirkpatrick, and Lieutenant Colonel Barry Close, on the part and in the name of the Right Honorable Richard Earl of Mornington, K. P., Governor General for all Affairs, civil and military, of the British Nation in India; and by the Nabob Meer Allum Behauder, on the part and in the name of his Highness the Nabob Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, according to the under-mentioned articles, which, by the blessing of God, shall be binding upon the heirs and successors of the contracting parties, as long as the sun and moon shall endure, and of which the conditions shall be reciprocally observed by the said contracting parties.

ARTICLE I.

It being reasonable and just, that the Allies by this Treaty should accomplish the original objects of the war (viz. a due indemnification for the expenses incurred in their own defence, and effectual security for their respective possessions against the future designs of their enemies), it is stipulated and agreed, that the districts specified in the Schedule A., hereunto annexed, together with the heads of all the passes leading from the territory of the late Tippoo Sultaun to any part of the possessions of the English East-India Company Behauder, of its Allies or tributaries, situated between the Ghauts on either coast, and all forts situated near to and commanding the said passes, shall be subjected to the authority,

and

and be for ever incorporated with the dominions of the English East-India Company Behauder, the said Company Behauder engaging to provide effectually, out of the revenues of the said districts, for the suitable maintenance of the whole of the families of the late Hyder Ali Khan and of the late Tippoo Sultaun, and to apply to this purpose, with the reservation herein after stated, an annual sum of not less than two lacks of Star Pagodas, making the Company's share as follows: A.D.1799 The Nizam

ARTICLE II.

For the same reason stated in the preceding articles, the district specified in the Schedule B, annexed hereunto, shall be subjected to the authority, and for ever united to the dominions of the Nabob Nizam-ul-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, the said Nabob having engaged to provide liberally, from the revenues of the said districts, for the support of Meer Kummer-ud-Dien Khan Behauder, and of his family and relations, and to grant him, for this purpose, a personal Jaghire in the districts of Gurrumcondah equal to the annual sum of 2,10,000 Rupees, or of 70,000 Canterai Pagodas, over and above and exclusive of a Jaghire, which the said Nabob has also agreed to assign to the said Meer Kummer-ud-Dien Khan, for the pay and maintenance of a proportionate number of troops to be employed in the service of his said Highness, making the share of his Highness as follows:

ARTICLE III.

It being farther expedient, for the preservation of peace and tranquillity, and for the general security, on the foundations now established by the contracting parties, that the fortress of Seringapatam should be subjected to the said Company Behauder, it is stipulated and agreed, that the said fortress, and the island on which it is situated (including the small tract of land, or island, lying to the westward of the main island, and bounded on

A.D.1799 The Nizam. the west by a Nullah, called the Mysore Nullah, which falls into the Cauvery near Chenagal Ghaut) shall become part of the dominions of the said Company, in full right and sovereignty, for ever.

ARTICLE IV.

A separate Government shall be established in Mysore; and, for this purpose, it is stipulated and agreed, that the Maha Rajah Mysore Kishna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, a descendant of the antient Rajahs of Mysore, shall possess the territory hereinafter described, upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

ARTICLE V.

The contracting powers mutually and severally agree, that the districts specified in Schedule C., hereunto annexed, shall be ceded to the said Maha Rajah Mysore Kishna Rajah, and shall form the separate Government of Mysore, upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

ARTICLE VI.

The English East-India Company Behauder shall be at liberty to make such deductions, from time to time, from the sums allotted by the first article of the present Treaty, for the maintenance of the families of Hyder Ali Khan and Tippoo Sultaun, as may be proper, in consequence of the decease of any member of the said families; and in the event of any hostile attempt, on the part of the said family or of any member of it, against the authority of the contracting parties, or against the peace of their respective dominions, or the territories of the Rajah of Mysore, then the said English East-India Company Behauder shall be at liberty to limit or suspend entirely the payment of the whole, or any part of the stipend, herein before stipulated to be applied to the maintenance and support of the said families.

ARTICLE VII.

His Highness the Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder shall be invited to accede to the present Treaty; and although the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder has neither participated in the expense or danger of the late war, and therefore is not entitled to share any part of the acquisitions made by the contracting parties (namely, the English East-India Company Behauder and his Highness the Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder), yet, for the maintenance of the relations of friendship and alliance between the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, the English East-India Company Behauder, his Highness the Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, and Maha Rajah Mysore Kishna Rajah Behauder, it is stipulated and agreed, that certain districts, specified in Schedule D, hereunto annexed, shall be reserved, for the purpose of being eventually ceded to the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, in full right and sovereignty, in the same manner as if he had been a contracting party to this Treaty;

Treaty; provided, however, that the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaum Behauder shall accede to the present Treaty, in its full extent, within one month from the day on which it shall be formally communicated to him by the contracting parties, and provided also, that he shall give satisfaction to the English East-India Company Behauder, and to his Highness Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, with regard to certain points now depending between him, the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, and the said Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, and also with regard to such points as shall be represented to the said Paishwah, on the part of the English East-India Company Behauder, by the Governor General or the British Resident at the Court of Poonah. A.D. 1799 The Nizam.

ARTICLE VIII.

If, contrary to the amicable expectation of the contracting parties, the said Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder shall refuse to accede to this Treaty, or to give satisfaction upon the points to which the seventh article refers, then the right to, and sovereignty of, the several districts herein before reserved for eventual cession to the Paishwah Row Pundit Purdhaun Behauder, shall rest jointly in the said English East-India Company Behauder and the said Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, who will either exchange them with the Rajah of Mysore for other districts of equal value, more contiguous to their respective territories, or otherwise arrange and settle respecting them, as they shall judge proper.

ARTICLE IX.

It being expedient, for the effectual establishment of Maha Rajah Mysoor Kishna Rajah in the Government of Mysore, that his Highness should be assisted with a suitable subsidiary force, it is stipulated and agreed, that the whole of the said force shall be furnished by the English East-India Company Behauder, according to the terms of a separate Treaty, to be immediately concluded between the said English East-India Company Behauder and his Highness the Maha Rajah Mysoor Kishna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder.

ARTICLE X.

SUBSIDIARY TREATY with the Rajah of Mysore, 1799.

A.D. 1799 The Rajah of Mysore.

A TREATY of perpetual Friendship and Alliance, concluded on the one Part by his Excellency Lieutenant General George Harris, Commander in Chief of the Forces of his Britannic Majesty and of the English East-India Company Behauder in the Carnatic and on the Coast of Malabar, the Honorable Colonel Arthur Wellesley, the Honorable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant Colonel William Kirkpatrick, and Lieutenant Colonel Barry Close, on Behalf and in the Name of the Right Honorable Richard Earl of Mornington, K. P. Governor General for all Affairs, civil and military, of the British Nation in India, by virtue of full Powers vested in them for this Purpose by the said Richard Earl of Mornington, Governor General; and on the other Part by Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, Rajah of Mysoor.

Whereas it is stipulated, in the Treaty concluded on the 22d of June, 1799, between the Honorable English East-India Company Behauder, and the Nabob Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, for strengthening the alliance and friendship subsisting between the said English East-India Company Behauder, his Highness Nizam-ud-Dowlah Asoph Jah Behauder, and the Peshwa, Row Pundit Purdham Behauder, and for effecting a settlement of the territories of the late Tippoo Sultaun, that a separate Government shall be established in Mysoor, and that his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder shall possess certain territories, specified in Schedule C. annexed to the said Treaty, and that, for the effectual establishment of the Government of Mysore, his Highness shall be assisted with a suitable subsidiary force, to be furnished by the English East-India Company Behauder; wherefore, in order to carry the said stipulations into effect, and to encrease and strengthen the friendship subsisting between the said English East India Company and the said Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, this Treaty is concluded by Lieutenant General George Harris, Commander in Chief of the Forces of his Britannic Majesty and of the said English East-India Company Behauder in the Carnatic and on the Coast of Malabar, the Honorable Colonel Arthur Wellesley, the the Honorable Henry Wellesley, Lieutenant Colonel William Kirkpatrick, and Lieutenant Colonel Barry Close, on the part and in the name of the Right Honorable Richard Earl of Mornington, Governor General aforesaid, and by his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, which shall be binding upon the contracting parties as long as the sun and moon shall endure. A.D. 1799 The Rajah of Mysore.

ARTICLE I.

The friends and enemies of either of the contracting parties shall be considered as the friends and enemies of both.

ARTICLE II.

The Honorable East-India Company Behauder agrees to maintain, and his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder agrees to receive, a military force, for the defence and security of his Highness's dominions; in consideration of which protection, his Highness engages to pay the annual sum of seven lacks of Star Pagodas to the said East-India Company, the said sum to be paid in twelve equal monthly instalments, commencing from the 1st of July, Anno Domini 1799. And his Highness further agrees, that the disposal of the said sum, together with the arrangement and employment of the troops to be maintained by it, shall be entirely left to the Company.

ARTICLE III.

If it shall be necessary for the protection and defence of the territories of the contracting parties, or of either of them, that hostilities shall be undertaken, or preparations made for commencing hostilities against any state or power, his said Highness Maha Rajah Mysore Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, agrees to contribute towards the discharge of the increased expence incurred by the augmentation of the military force, and the unavoidable charges of war, such a sum as shall appear to the Governor General in Council of Fort William, on an attentive consideration of the means of his said Highness, to bear a just and reasonable proportion to the actual net revenues of his said Highness.

ARTICLE IV.

And whereas it is indispensably necessary, that effectual and lasting security h ould be provided against any failure in the funds destined to defray either the expences of the permanent military force in time of peace, or the extraordinary expences described in the third article of the present Treaty, it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the contracting parties, that whenever the Governor General in Council of Fort William in Bengal shall have reason to apprehend such failure in the funds so destined, the said Governor General in Council shall be at liberty, and shall have full power and right, either to introduce such regulations and ordinances as he shall deem expedient for the internal management and collection of the revenues, or for the better ordering of any other branch

and

and department of the Government of Mysore, or to assume and bring under the direct management of the servants of the said Company Behauder such part or parts of the territorial possessions of his Highness Maha Rajah Mysore Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, as shall appear to him, the said Governor General in Council, necessary to render the said funds efficient and available, either in time of peace or war.

ARTICLE V.

And it is hereby further agreed, that whenever the said Governor General in Council shall signify to the said Maha Rajah Mysore Kishna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, that it is become necessary to carry into effect the provisions of the fourth article, his said Highness Maha Rajah Mysore Kishna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder shall immediately issue orders to his Aumils, or other officers, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, according to the tenor of the fourth article, or for placing the territories required under the exclusive authority and controul of the English Company Behauder. And in case his Highness shall not issue such orders within ten days from the time when the application shall have been formally made to him, then the said Governor General in Council shall be at liberty to issue orders, by his own authority, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, or for assuming the management and collection of the revenues of the said territories, as he shall judge most expedient for the purpose of securing the efficiency of the said military funds, and of providing for the effectual protection of the country and the welfare of the people. Provided always, that whenever, and so long as any part or parts of his said Highness's territories shall be placed, and shall remain under the exclusive authority and controul of the said East-India Company, the Governor General in Council shall render to his Highness a true and faithful account of the revenues and produce of the territories so assumed; provided also, that in no case whatever, shall his Highness's actual receipt, or annual income, arising out of his territorial revenue, be less than the sum of one lack of Star Pagodas, together with one-fifth of the net revenues of the whole of the territories ceded to him by the fifth article of the Treaty of Mysore: which sum of one lack of Star Pagodas, together with the amount of one-fifth of the said net revenues, the East-India Company engages, at all times and in every possible case, to secure and cause to be paid for his Highness's use.

ARTICLE VI.

His Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder engages, that he will be guided by a sincere and cordial attention to the relations of peace and amity, now established between the English Company Behauder and their allies, and that he will carefully abstain from any interference in the affairs of any state in alliance with the said English Company Behauder, or of any state whatever. And for securing the object of this stipulation, it is further stipulated and agreed, that no communication or correspondence, with with any foreign state whatever, shall be holden by his said Highness, without the previous knowledge and sanction of the said English Company Behauder. A.D. 1799 The Rajah of Mysore.

ARTICLE VII.

His Highness stipulates and agrees, that he will not admit any European foreigners into his service, without the concurrence of the English Company Behauder; and that he will apprehend and deliver up to the Company's Government all Europeans, of whatever description, who shall be found within the territories of his said Highness, without regular passports from the Company's Government, it being his Highness's determined resolution not to suffer, even for a day, any European foreigners to remain within the territories now subjected to his authority, unless by consent of the said Company.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whereas the complete protection of his Highness's said territories requires that various fortresses and strong places, situated within the territories of his Highness, should be garrisoned and commanded, as well in time of peace as of war, by British troops and officers, his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder engages, that the said English Company Behauder shall at all times be at liberty to garrison, in whatever manner they may judge proper, all such fortresses and strong places, within his said Highness's territories, as it shall appear to them adviseable to take charge of.

ARTICLE IX.

And whereas, in consequence of the system of defence which it may be expedient to adopt, for the security of the territorial possessions of his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, it may be necessary that certain forts and strong places, within his Highness's territories, should be dismantled or destroyed, and that other forts and strong places should be strengthened and repaired, it is stipulated and agreed, that the English East-India Company Behauder shall be the sole judges of the necessity of any such alterations in the said fortresses: and it is further agreed, that such expences as may be incurred on this account, shall be borne and defrayed, in equal proportions, by the contracting parties.

ARTICLE X.

In case it shall become necessary, for enforcing and maintaining the authority and government of his Highness in the territories now subjected to his power, that the regular troops of the English East-India Company Behauder should be employed, it is stipulated and agreed, that upon formal application being made for the service of the said troops, they shall be employed in such manner as to the said Company shall seem fit; but it is expressly understood by the contracting parties, that this stipulation shall not subject the troops of the English East-India Company Behauder to be employed in the ordinary transactions of revenue.

A.D. 1799
The Rajah of Mysore.

ARTICLE XI.

It being expedient for the restoration and permanent establishment of tranquillity in the territories now subjected to the authority of his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder, that suitable provision should be made for certain officers of rank in the service of the late Tippoo Sultaun, his said Highness agrees to enter into the immediate discussion of this point, and to fix the amount of the funds (as soon as the necessary information can be obtained) to be granted for this purpose, in a separate article, to be hereafter added to this Treaty.

ARTICLE XII.

Lest the garrison of Seringapatam should, at any time, be subject to inconvenience, from the high price of provisions and other necessaries, his Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder agrees, that such quantities of provisions, and other necessaries, as may be required for the use and consumption of the troops composing the said garrison, shall be allowed to enter the place, from all and every part of his dominions, free of any duty, tax, or impediment whatever.

ARTICLE XIII.

The contracting parties hereby agree to take into their early consideration the best means of establishing such a commercial intercourse between their respective dominions, as shall be mutually beneficial to the subjects of both governments, and to conclude a Commercial Treaty for this purpose, with as little delay as possible.

ARTICLE XIV.

His Highness Maha Rajah Mysoor Kistna Rajah Oodiaver Behauder hereby promises to pay at all times, the utmost attention to such advice as the Company's Government shall occasionally judge it necessary to offer to him, with a view to the economy of his finances, the better collection of his revenues, the administration of justice, the extension of commerce, the encouragement of trade, agriculture, and industry, or any other objects connected with the advancement of his Highness's interests, the happiness of his people, and the mutual welfare of both states.

ARTICLE XV.

Whereas it may hereafter appear, that some of the districts declared by the Treaty of Mysore to belong respectively to the English Company Behauder and to his Highness are inconveniently situated, with a view to the proper connection of their respective lines of frontier, it is hereby stipulated between the contracting parties, that in all such cases they will proceed to such an adjustment, by means of exchanges or otherwise, as shall be best suited to the occasion.

TREATY with the Rajah of Tanjore, 1799.

A.D. 1799
The Rajah of Tanjore.

TREATY for cementing the Friendship and Alliance between the Honorable Company and his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, and for establishing the Government of Tanjore on a permanent Foundation.

Whereas the stipulations and conditions of the Treaty of 1792, concluded between the Honorable Sir Charles Oakeley, Baronet, Governor in Council of Fort St. George, and his Excellency Ameer Sing, late Rajah of Tanjore, have been found inadequate to the intentions of the contracting parties; and whereas his Excellency Maha Rajah Serfogee, Rajah of Tanjore, has, by a certain instrument under his signature, previous to his elevation to the Musnud of his ancestors, engaged to consent to such arrangements as may be deemed expedient for the better management of the country of Tanjore, particularly for the due administration of justice, and also for securing to the Honorable English East-India Company a regular discharge of their existing and future demands on Tanjore; wherefore the present Treaty is concluded, between his Excellency Serfogee, Rajah of Tanjore, on his own part, and Benjamin Torin, Esq. Resident at Tanjore, on behalf of the Company, being invested with full powers by the Right Honorable the Earl of Mornington Behauder, Governor General of Bengal, according to the following articles.

ARTICLE I.

Such parts of all former Treaties with the former Rajah of Tanjore, as are intended to establish the Friendship and Alliance between the Honorable Company and his Excellency the Rajah of Tanjore, are hereby strengthened and confirmed, and the contracting parties mutually agree that the friends and enemies of either shall be considered to be the friends and enemies of both.

ARTICLE II.

The several provisions heretofore established, for enabling the contracting parties to carry the spirit and intention of the preceding article into execution, having proved defective, and the result of an enquiry, instituted by the authority of the Right Honorable the the Governor General in Council, with the previous written consent of his Excellency Maha Rajah Serfogee, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual state and condition of the country of Tanjore, having proved that it is become indispensably necessary to establish a regular and permanent system for the better administration of the revenues of the said country, it is stipulated and agreed, that all former provisions for securing a partial or temporary interference, on the part of the Honorable Company in the government or in the administration of the revenues of the country of Tanjore, shall be entirely annulled, and that, in lieu thereof, a permanent system for the collection of the revenue, and for the administration of justice, shall be established, in the manner hereafter described. A.D.1799 The Rajah of Tanjore.

ARTICLE III.

The Honorable Company shall be at liberty, as soon as possible, to ascertain, determine, and establish rights of property, and to fix a reasonable assessment upon the several Soubahs, Pergunnahs, and villages of the country of Tanjore, and to secure a fixed and permanent revenue; and the said assessment, so ascertained and fixed, shall not be liable to change, but shall be collected according to fixed rent rolls, by such officers as shall be appointed for that purpose.

ARTICLE IV.

A court, or courts, shall be established, for the due administration of civil and criminal justice, under the sole authority of the English East-India Company. The said courts shall be composed of officers to be appointed by the Governor in Council of Fort St. George for the time being, and shall, in no instance whatever, be subject to the controul, authority, or interference of the said Rajah, but shall be conducted according to such ordinances and regulations (framed with due regard to the existing laws and usages of the country) as shall, from time to time, be enacted and published by the said Governor in Council.

ARTICLE V.

The revenues shall be collected according to the rates of assessment to be established by the third article by the said Governor in Council for that purpose, and the said Rajah shall exercise no controul whatever, nor in any manner interfere in the administration of the said revenues.

ARTICLE VI.

Whereas it is stipulated and agreed, by the fifth article of the Treaty of 1792, that the payment to be made to the Honorable Company, by his Excellency the Rajah, shall amount to five lacks seventy-four thousand two hundred and eighty-five Pagodas per annum, under the different denominations of subsidy, Peishcush, public and private debts, it is now stipulated and agreed, that these distinctions shall for ever cease, and that the whole revenue shall be collected and accounted for by the said Company, in the manner hereafter

A.D. 1799
The Rajah of Tanjore.

hereafter provided; the said Company charging themselves with the payment of that part of the registered private debt, which has not already been transferred to their account.

ARTICLE VII.

In lieu of the said stipulations in the fifth article of the Treaty of 1792, it is hereby stipulated and agreed, that his Excellency the Rajah shall, in all cases, receive annually one lack of Star Pagodas, which shall be considered to be the first charge payable from the net revenues of Tanjore. In addition to the said sum of one lack of Star Pagodas, his Excellency shall receive a proportion of one-fifth, to be calculated on the remainder of the net revenue, after deducting all charges of collection, of whatever description, the charge specified in the following article.

ARTICLE VIII.

It is stipulated and agreed, that the sum of twenty-five thousand Star Pagodas shall, in all cases, be appropriated to the support of the late Rajah Ameer Sing, and shall be considered as a charge on the revenue to be deducted, previous to the calculation of the proportion of one-fifth above-mentioned. The residue of the revenues, after the foregoing deduction, shall be at the disposal of the said Company.

ARTICLE IX.

It is stipulated and agreed, that the Rajah shall be treated, on all occasions, in his own territories as well as in those of the Company, with all the attention, respect, and honor, which is due to a friend and ally of the British Nation.

ARTICLE X.

Whereas his Excellency the Rajah has had occasion to complain of inconvenience to his Excellency and his servant, from the present mode of garrisoning his Excellency's hereditary fort of Tanjore by a part of the Honorable Company's troops, it is stipulated and agreed, with a view to the accommodation and satisfaction of his Excellency, that the said fort of Tanjore shall be evacuated by the Company's troops entirely, and that his Excellency shall be at full liberty to garrison the said fort, in such manner as to him shall seem fit. Provided always, that in the event of an invasion of the territories of the Company or of their Allies, or in the event of any failure in the due performance of the engagement contracted by his Excellency the Rajah, the said Company shall again have power to occupy the said fort, as a military post, for the protection and mutual interests of the contracting parties; the said Company binding themselves to evacuate the said fort, as soon as the reasons for not re-occupying it shall no longer exist.

ARTICLE XI.

His Excellency the Rajah stipulates and agrees, that the said fort shall, in no case whatever, become an asylum for public offenders, or for persons desirous of escaping from the jurisdiction of the courts of civil and criminal justice, or from the authority of the revenue officers, or of any other branch of the authority of the Honorable Company; and his Excellency the Rajah further agrees to deliver up all such persons, without delay, on application from such officer or officers as the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall appoint for the purpose. A.D. 1799 The Rajah of Tanjore.

ARTICLE XII.

In complaints brought before any of the courts of justice, in which it shall appear, either by the application of the Rajah or the representation of the defendants, at or before the time of giving in his or her answer, or by the petition of the complainant, that both parties are relations, or servants, or dependants of his Excellency, or inhabitants usually resident within the fort of Tanjore, it is stipulated and agreed, that such parties shall, in the first instance, be referred for justice to the Rajah, or to any person he may appoint to dispense it. Any complaint against the Rajah's relations, immediate servants, or others, residing in the fort of Tanjore, by persons of a different description, shall, in the first instance, be made to the Company's representative at Tanjore, who shall refer it to his Excellency. The Rajah hereby engages to order an immediate investigation to be made in his court of the justice, or in case the parties should desire it, to order the dispute to be referred to a proper arbitration, his Excellency engaging to bring it to a direct issue, and to carry the sentence or award, if unfavorable to his relation or servant, into immediate execution.

ARTICLE XIII.

In order that his Excellency the Rajah may have full satisfaction, in respect to the revenues of the territory hereby subjected to the management of the Company, his Excellency shall be at liberty to inspect the accounts of the head Cutcherry or collector's treasury, from time to time, or to station a Vakeel, or accountant, at his own expense, for the purpose of taking and transmitting to his Excellency copies of any or of all the accounts which shall be recorded in the head Cutcherry, or treasury of the collector.

ARTICLE XIV.

Whereas a certain annual Peishcush, amounting to two thousand Chuckrums, is payable by the Danish Government of Tranquebar, for lands held of the Rajahs of Tanjore in the vicinity of that place, it is stipulated and agreed, that the said Peishcush shall continue to be received by his Excellency the Rajah, without any deduction from his Excellency's proportion of the revenue, as herein-before stipulated.

ARTICLE XV.

And whereas it is necessary to the convenience and comfort of his Excellency the Rajah, that certain supplies of rice, gram, and other grain, should be supplied for the use of his Excellency, the Company bind themselves to furnish the said supplies, as often as the Rajah shall find it necessary to apply for this purpose, his Excellency binding himself to pay for the said grain, with the charges of transportation, at the rate of the current prices for the time being.

This Treaty, consisting of fifteen articles, being settled this day, the 25th October 1799, corresponding to the 12th of Alpeshy, in the year Sedhartey, by Benjamin Torin, Esq. on the part of and in the Name of the Right Honorable Richard Earl of Mornington, Governor General aforesaid, and by his Excellency Maha Rajah Serfogee Rajah, on his own part, the said Benjamin Torin, Esq. has delivered to his Excellency Maha Rajah Serfogee Rajah one copy of the same, signed and sealed by himself, and his Excellency Maha Rajah Serfogee has delivered to Benjamin Torin, Esq. another copy of the same, sealed and signed by himself; and Benjamin Torin, Esq. engages, that the said Treaty shall be ratified by the Right Honorable the Governor General, under his seal and signature, within forty-five days from the date hereof.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT for the Adjustment of the Desh Cavelly and Talem Cavelly of the Province of Tinnevelly, 1800.

Whereas the Polygars and Cavilcarrahs of the province of Tinnevelly have been subjected to the exclusive authority of the Honorable Company; and whereas the performance of the duties, and the collection of the fees attached to the offices of Desh Cavelly and Talem Cavelly, within the districts still subject to the authority of his Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, in the said province of Tinnevelly, have been attended with inconvenience to the executive Government of his said Highness in the said province; and whereas it is the earnest desire of the Right Honorable Edward Lord Clive, Governor of Fort St. George, &c. to comply with the wishes of his said Highness, for promoting the welfare welfare and tranquillity of his possessions in the province off Tinnevelly ; it is mutually agreed, between his said Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, &c. and the said Right Honorable Edward Lord Clive, &c. that the right of collecting Desh Cavelly and Talem Cavelly, in villages now subject to the Government of his said Highness, shall be entirely relinquished by the Cavelcarrahs now subject to the authority of the Company, the said Lord Clive taking on himself to make compensation to the said Cavelcarrahs, for the losses which they will in consequence sustain. A. D. 1800 Omdut-ul-Omrah.

In consideration whereof, the Nabob of the Carnatic, &c. agrees to relinquish all claims to the performance of the watching duties, and to compensation for theft or losses in the villages situated as abovementioned ; and his said Highness farther agrees to make full compensation, to be regularly paid in ready money, at the Company's treasury, for the amount of the actual loss sustained by the Company, by relinquishing the Cavelly fees.

It is farther mutually agreed, that the accounts of the Cavelly fees shall, with all convenient expedition, be investigated, to the end that, after deducting the amount of the charges of collecting the said fees, as well as of the losses incidental to the performance of the watching duties, within the villages subject to his Highness the Nabob, the residue may be paid by his Highness to the Company, being the acknowledged and ancient right of the Polygars and Cavelcarrahs, transferred by the Treaty of 1792 to the authority of the Company. But whereas this investigation will be attended with delay and injury to the said Nabob of the Carnatic, it is agreed, that immediate orders shall be sent by the said Edward Lord Clive to the Company's collector of Polygar Peishcush, for discontinuing the collection of Cavelly fees in the villages above described, to be under the authority of his said Highness, his said Highness binding himself, in consequence, to pay the amount, which the said Lord Clive, on a just consideration of the Company's revenue accounts, shall determine to be a just compensation for relinquishing the Cavelly fees.

Done in Fort St. George, this 26th day of August, 1800, by order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

TREATY with Azeem-ul-Dowlah, 1801.

A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah.

TREATY for settling the Succession to the Soubahdarry of the Territories of Arcot, and for vesting the Administration of the Civil and Military Government of the Carnatic Payen Ghaut in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies.

Whereas the several Treaties which have been concluded between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, and their Highnesses heretofore Nabobs of the Carnatic, have been intended to cement and identify the interests of the contracting parties; and whereas, in conformity to the spirit of the alliance, the said Company did, by the Treaty concluded on the 12th July, 1792, with the late Nabob Walajah, relinquish extensive pecuniary advantages, acquired by the previous Treaty of 1787, with the view, and on the consideration of establishing a more adequate security for the interests of the British Government in the Carnatic; and whereas subsequent experience has proved, that the intention of the contracting parties has not been fulfilled, by the provisions of any of the Treaties heretofore concluded between them; and whereas the Musnud of the Soubahdarry of Arcot having become vacant, the Prince Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder has been established by the English East-India Company in the rank, property, and possessions of his ancestors, heretofore Nabobs of the Carnatic; and whereas the said Company and his Highness the said Prince Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder have judged it expedient, that additional provisions should, at this time, be made, for the purpose of supplying the defects of all former engagements, and of establishing the connection between the said contracting parties on a permanent basis of security, in all times to come; wherefore the following Treaty is now established and concluded, by the Right Honourable Edward Lord Clive, Governor in Council of Fort St. George, by and with the sanction and authority of his Excellency the Most Noble the Marquis Wellesley, K. P., Governor General in Council of all the British Possessions in the East-Indies, on behalf of the said United Company, on the one part, and by his Highness the Nabob Walajah Ameer-ul-Dowlah Madar-ul-Mulk Ameer-ul-Hind Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder Shawkut Shawkut Jung Sepah Salar Nabob Soubahdar of the Carnatic, on his own behalf, on the other part, for settling the succession to the Soubahdarry of the territories of Arcot, and for vesting the administration of the civil and military government of the Carnatic in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies. A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah.

ARTICLE I.

The Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder is hereby formally established in the state and rank, with the dignities dependant thereon, of his ancestors, heretofore Nabobs of the Carnatic, and the possession thereof is hereby guaranteed by the Honorable East-India Company to his said Highness Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder, who has accordingly succeeded to the Soubahdarry of the territories of Arcot.

ARTICLE II.

Such parts of the Treaties heretofore concluded between the said East-India Company and their Highnesses, heretofore Nabobs of the Carnatic, as are calculated to strengthen the alliance, to cement the friendship, and to identify the interests of the contracting parties, are hereby renewed and confirmed, and accordingly the friends or enemies of either are the friends and enemies of both parties.

ARTICLE III.

The Honorable Company hereby charges itself with the maintenance and support of the military force necessary for the defence of the Carnatic, and for the protection of the rights, person, and property of the said Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder; and with the view of reviving the fundamental principles of the alliance between his ancestors and the English Nation, the said Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah stipulates and agrees, that he will not enter upon any negociation or correspondence with any European or Native Power, without the knowledge and consent of the said English Company.

ARTICLE IV.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed, that the sole and exclusive administration of the civil and military governments of all the territories and dependencies of the Carnatic Payen Ghaut, together with the full and exclusive right to the revenues thereof (with the exception of such portion of the said revenues as shall be appropriated for the maintenance of the said Nabob and for the support of his dignity) shall be for ever vested in the said English Company; and the said Company shall accordingly possess the sole power and authority of constituting and appointing, without any interference on the part of the said Nabob, all officers for the collection of the revenues, and of establishing courts for the administration of civil and criminal judicature.

ARTICLE V.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed, that one-fifth part of the net revenues of the Carnatic shall be annually allotted for the maintenance and support of the said Nabob and

A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah. of his own immediate family, including the Mahal of his late Highness the Ameer-ul-Omrah. The said fifth part shall be paid by the Company, in monthly instalments of twelve thousand Star Pagodas; and whatever circumstance may occur, affecting the net revenues of the Carnatic, the said instalments shall not be less than twelve thousand Star Pagodas. Whatever balance of the said fifth part may remain due at the expiration of each year, shall be liquidated upon the settlement of the accounts, and the said fifth part shall be at the free disposal of the said Nabob, consistently with the principles of the said alliance.

ARTICLE VI.

The fifth part of the revenues, as stated in the preceding article, shall be calculated and determined in the following manner, viz. all charges, of every description, incurred in the collection of the revenues, the amount of the Jaghire lands, stated in the ninth article in the Treaty of 1787 at Star Pagodas 2,13,421, and the sum of Pagodas 6,21,105, appropriable to the liquidation of the debts of the late Mahommed Ally, shall, in the first instance, be deducted from the revenues of the Carnatic; and after the deduction of those three items shall have been made, one-fifth part of the remaining net revenue (including the Polygar Peshcush, which shall always be calculated at the sum of 2,64,704 Star Pagodas 20 Fanams 26 Cash, according to the Treaty of 1792) shall be allotted for the maintenance of the said Nabob, and for the support of his Highness's dignity.

ARTICLE VII.

Whereas it was stipulated by the fourth article of the Treaty of 1792, that the sum of six lacks twenty-one thousand one hundred and five Star Pagodas should annually be applied to the discharge of certain registered debts, due by the late Nabob Mahomed Ally to his private creditors, under agreements concluded between his Highness and the Honorable Company, and guaranteed by the Parliament of Great Britain, until the said registered debt should be liquidated; the Honorable English Company, accordingly, hereby, charges itself with the annual payment of 6,21,105 Pagodas from the revenues of the Carnatic, until the remainder of the said registered debt shall be liquidated.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whereas certain debts are due to the said Company by the ancestors of the said Nabob, and whereas it is expedient, in order that the present Treaty may include a complete arrangement of all affairs depending between the said Company and the said Nabob, that an adjustment should be made of the afore-mentioned debts, wherefore the said Nabob formally and explicitly acknowledges the debt, commonly called the Cavalry Loan, amounting, with its interest, to 13,24,342 Star Pagodas 6 Fanams 47 Cash, and also the portion of the registered debt heretofore paid by the said Company to the creditors of the late Nabob Walajah (according to the annexed Schedule) to be just debts;

debts; and whereas, exclusively of the above-mentioned debts, other unadjusted debts also remain, which were referred to the adjustment and decision of the Governor General in Council of Bengal; and whereas the said unadjusted debts have not been determined according to that intention, the said Nabob hereby engages, that whenever the said determination shall be made, his Highness will acknowledge to be a just debt the amount of the balance which shall be so declared to be due to the said Company. It is not, however, the intention of this article, to cause any diminution from the fifth part payable to the said Nabob, but, on the contrary, it is specified, that no deduction shall be made from the revenue, on any account whatever, excepting the three items stated in the sixth article, previously to the determination of his Highness's proportion. A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah.

ARTICLE IX.

The English Company engages to take into consideration the actual situation of the families of their Highnesses the late Nabobs Walajah and Omdut-ul-Omrah Behauder, as well as the situation of the principal officers of his late Highness's Government; and the British Government shall charge itself with the expense (chargeable on the revenues of the Carnatic) of a suitable provision for their respective maintenance. The amount of the above-mentioned expenses, to be defrayed by the Company, shall be distributed, with the knowledge of the said Nabob, in such manner as shall be judged proper.

ARTICLE X.

The said Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder shall, in all places, on all occasions, and at all times, be treated with the respect and attention due to his Highness's rank and situation, as an ally of the British Government, and a suitable guard shall be appointed from the Company's troops for the protection of his said Highness's person and palace.

ARTICLE XI.

The entire defence of the Carnatic against foreign enemies, and the maintenance of the internal tranquillity and police of the country, having been hereby transferred to the British Government, his said Highness engages not to entertain or employ in his service any armed men, without the consent of the British Government, who will fix, in concert with his Highness, the number of armed men necessary to be retained for purposes of state. Such armed men as his Highness may, in consequence of this article, engage in his service, shall be paid at the exclusive cost and charge of the said Nabob.

ARTICLE XII.

The Honorable East-India Company shall, in conformity to the stipulations of this Treaty, enter upon the exclusive administration of the civil and military government of the Carnatic, on the 31st day of July, 1801; and his said Highness the Nabob shall issue orders to all his civil and military officers, to transfer the district or districts, under their respective charge, to such persons as shall be appointed by the said Company to manage the said districts, and also to deliver to the persons appointed all records, accounts, and official papers, belonging to their respective Cutcherries or offices.

This

A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah

This Treaty, bearing date the 31st day of July, Anno Domini 1801, and consisting of twelve articles, having been executed by Edward Lord Clive, Governor in Council aforesaid, on the one part, and his Highness Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder on the other part, is hereby mutually interchanged, the said Edward Lord Clive engaging that a copy of the said Treaty shall be transmitted to Fort William, for the purpose of being ratified by his Excellency the most Noble the Marquis Wellesley, K. P., Governor General in Council, and that, as soon as the ratified Treaty shall be received from Bengal, it shall be delivered to his said Highness, who will then return to his Lordship the copy which he now receives.

SEPARATE EXPLANATORY ARTICLES annexed to the Treaty for settling the Succession to the Soubahdarry of the Territories of Arcot, and for vesting the Administration of the Civil and Military Government of the Carnatic Payenghaut in the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies. ARTICLE I.

Whereas it is stipulated by the fifth article of the Treaty, that the sum to be appropriated to the support of the dignity of his Highness the Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder shall be calculated at one-fifth part of the net revenues of the Carnatic, and whereas the improvement of the said revenues, which, under Providence, may be expected to arise from the effects of the present arrangement, may render the said fifth part greater than will be necessary to the purposes intended by the contracting parties, it is hereby explained, for the better understanding of the fifth article of the Treaty, that whenever the whole net revenue of the Carnatic, including the sums to be deducted, according to the sixth article of the Treaty, shall exceed the sum of twenty-five lacks of Star Pagodas, then and in that case the fifth part of such surplus shall be applied to the repair of fortifications, to the establishment of a separate fund for the eventual exigencies of war, or to the military defence of the Carnatic, in such manner as may be determined by the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, after the previous communication to his Highness the Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah.

ARTICLE II.

Whereas it is stipulated in the sixth article of the Treaty, that the sum of 2,13,421 Pagodas on account of Jagheer, and the sum of 6,21,105 Pagodas on account of the private debts of the Nabob Mahomed Ally, shall be deducted from the amount of the net revenue, previously to the determination of the proportion to be paid to his Highness the Nabob, it is nevertheless hereby explained, that it shall not be incumbent on the Honorable Company to appropriate lands yielding a revenue to the said amount of 2,13,421 Pagodas, but that the said Company shall be at liberty to exercise its discretion in the mode and on the extent of the provision to be made, according to the ninth article of the Treaty, for the support of the family and principal officers of the Nabob Mahomed Ally, and of the Nabob Omdut-ul-Omrah. And it is farther explained, that notwithstanding the liquidation of the private debt of the Nabob Mahomed Ally, or of the debt due

A.D. 1801 Azeem-ul-Dowlah. due to the Honorable Company, the said sum of 6,21,105 Pagodas, shall always be deducted from the net revenue, and shall, in no case, be included in the net revenue, previously to the determination of the share to be allotted to his Highness the Nabob Azeem-ul-Dowlah Behauder, it being the intention of the contracting parties, that the said sum of 2,13,421 Pagodas, and the said sum of 6,21,105 Pagodas, shall be considered to be permanent deductions, in all times to come, from the revenue of the Carnatic.

No. XXV.

TREATY with the Rajah of Cochin, 1809.

A.D. 1809 The Rajah of Cochin. TREATY of perpetual Friendship and Subsidy between the Honorable the English East-India Company Behauder and the Rajah of Cochin.

Whereas an agreement was concluded, in the year 1790, between the Honorable East-India Company Behauder, and the late Rajah of Cochin, by which that Rajah was to be put in possession of, and to hold on specific conditions, as a tributary of the Honorable Company, certain districts therein enumerated; and whereas the stipulations of that Treaty having been found insufficient, and the late occurrences in the Cochin territory having rendered it expedient that new engagements should be concluded, which shall be calculated to prevent the authority and resources of the Cochin country from being employed in designs hostile to the British interests, and which shall be conducive to the advancement of the prosperity and welfare of both the states; wherefore the following articles of a new Treaty between the Honorable Company and the Rajah of Cochin have been agreed agreed upon and settled by the Resident at Travancore, Lieutenant Colonel Colin Macaulay, being duly vested with authority thereto by the Honorable Sir George Hilaro Barlow, Baronet, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor in Council of Fort St. George, on the part of the Honorable East-India Company, and by the Rajah of Cochin, for himself and successors, to be binding upon the contracting parties as long as the sun and the moon shall endure. A.D. 1809 The Rajah of Cochin.

ARTICLE I.

The friends and enemies of either of the contracting parties shall be considered as the friends and enemies of both, the Honorable the East-India Company Behauder engaging to defend and protect the territories of the Rajah of Cochin against all enemies whomsoever.

ARTICLE II.

In consideration of the stipulations in the preceding article, the Rajah of Cochin agrees to pay annually to the said Honorable Company, in addition to the usual subsidy of one lack (1,00,000) of Rupees, a sum equal to the expence of one battalion of native infantry, or Arcot Rupees 1,76,037, making an aggregate annual payment of Rupees 2,76,037; the amount to be payable in six equal Kists, and the payment to commence from the 1st of May 1809. And it is agreed, that the disposal of the said amount, with the distribution of the force to be maintained by it, whether stationed within the territories of the Rajah of Cochin or of the Honorable Company, shall be left entirely to the Company.

ARTICLE III.

Should it become necessary to employ a larger force for the defence and protection of the Cochin territories against foreign invasion, than is stipulated for by the preceding article, the Rajah of Cochin agrees to contribute, towards the discharge of the increased expence thereby incurred, such a sum as shall appear to the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, on an attentive consideration of the means of the said Rajah, to bear a just and reasonable proportion to the actual net revenues of the said Rajah.

ARTICLE IV.

And whereas it is indispensably necessary, that effectual and lasting security should be provided against any failure in the funds destined to defray, either the expences of the permanent military force in time of peace, or the extraordinary expences described in the third article of the present Treaty, it is hereby stipulated and agreed between the contracting parties, that whenever the Governor in Council of Fort St. George shall have reason to apprehend such failure in the funds so destined, the said Governor in Council shall be at liberty, and shall have full power and right, either to introduce such regulations and ordinances as he shall deem expedient for the internal management and collection of the revenues, or for the better ordering of any other branch or department of the Rajah of

A.D. 1809 The Rajah of Cochin.

Cochin, or to assume and bring under the direct management of the servants of the said Company Behauder, such part or parts of the territorial possessions of the Rajah of Cochin, as shall appear to him, the said Governor in Council, necessary to render the funds efficient and available, either in time of peace or war.

ARTICLE V.

And it is hereby further agreed, that whenever the said Governor in Council shall signify to the said Rajah of Cochin, that it is become necessary to carry into effect the provisions of the fourth article, the said Rajah shall immediately issue orders to his Kariacars, or other officers, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, according to the tenor of the fourth article, or for placing the territories required under the exclusive authority and control of the English Company Behauder; and in case the said Rajah shall not issue such orders, within ten days from the time when the application shall have been formally made to him, then the said Governor in Council thall be at liberty to issue orders, by his own authority, either for carrying into effect the said regulations and ordinances, or for assuming the management and collection of the revenues of the said territories, as he shall judge most expedient for the purpose of securing the efficiency of the said military funds, and of providing for the effectual protection of the country and the welfare of the people. Provided always, that whenever and so long as any part, or parts, of the said Rajah's territories shall be placed, and shall remain under the exclusive authority and control of the said East India Company, the Governor in Council shall render to the Rajah a true and faithful account of the revenues and produce of the territories so assumed. ARTICLE XII.

ARTICLES of the FIRMAUND granted by the Bringah Rajah, in 1758.

ARTICLE I.

A.D. 1758 Bringah Rajah.

Whatever pepper or beetlenut you purchase in my dominions, the country of Bringah, you shall pay for my duties, customs, and perquisites, and those of my ministers, in all two Pagodas twelve Fanams on every Hir of beetlenut, and in like manner, on every Hir of pepper two Pagodas fifteen and an half Fanams, and I allow and give up to you two and an half Fanams on every Pagoda; and in case the merchants shall all agree to make any allowances to my custom-master, you shall pay your proportion only.

ARTICLE II.

Whatever pepper belongs to me, or is produced in my dominions, as Rajah of Bringah, I secure unto you, and will not sell it to any one else, but you shall buy it at the general price settled with the other merchants, between the months of November and March; but in case you do not buy it between those months, you shall not hinder or object to our selling it to any one else. And in case any disputes shall arise between you and the merchants of my country, I, the Rajah, will oblige them to deliver their pepper at the price you have settled with them; but in the recovery of your private debts I have nothing to do.

ARTICLE III.

If you choose to advance any money to the merchants, and will do it in the presence of my Parpadar and secretary, I will then make all such advances secure to you.

ARTICLE IV.

Whatever ground you want to build a Banksall on, and for your servants, Seapoys, &c. I give to you, without any ground-rent or fees; and to mount six small guns on it, to secure the Honorable Company's treasure and goods, and that a good understanding and strict friendship be carried on between us.

ARTICLE

A.D.1758. Bringah Rajah.

ARTICLE V.

In case any dispute happens between your people and mine, you are to apply to me for justice, which I will give to you immediately; and, in like manner, if any of my people are injured by yours, I will apply to you, and you shall do justice: and if any of my people choose to take your service, you shall not employ them without my leave; nor will I employ yours, but with your consent obtained in the same manner.

ARTICLE VI.

If any of my merchants owe you any money, you have full power to recover it, and I will not interfere; but if you cannot recover it yourself, I will assist you and settle the dispute.

ARTICLE VII.

All goods you bring into my country shall pay only two per cent. customs; and if you do not sell the goods, you may export them again without any customs.

N.B. An Hir is equal to an Onore Candy, or very few pounds less.

And the customs which all merchants pay on pepper amount to upwards of four Pagodas per Candy, so that deducting the one Pagoda and an half Fanam, and also the two and an half Fanams allowed on each Pagoda, the abatement in his duties will exceed six Rupees per Candy.

The allowance mentioned in the first article to be made to the Rajah's custom-master, means a trifling annual present given to him by all the merchants at Bringah.

&c. places belonging to Sarkur, that Mr. Sumption, Gomastah, belonging to the Honorable English Company, informed me here, that on all the goods he purchases and sends for the Honorable Company to Bombay, he pays no more than one and an half per cent. customs, on the market price, which I hereby confirm, and order that no more than that custom may be received of him, as usual; but on all Europe goods which shall be sent from Bombay for Coodabage, Laree, Multon, &c. half of what customs, &c. charges (such as passports, convoy, lodging, Duan Towff, Canah, &c.) the Multon merchants pay: and should there be such goods as the Multuny never carry, and be it possible to know the customs and charges on them, they (the English) are to pay half of what any of the considerable merchants used to pay on the same; but nobody is to demand any thing more. And the same customs, &c. as are above-mentioned, they are to pay on the Hing, indigo, &c. goods which they never bought before; and they are also to pay one and an half per cent. customs on the saltpetre, be it bought by themselves or by any body for them in the Sircar's place, or any where else; but no officers, farmers, &c. are to demand any thing more from them, but let them carry on their trade unmolested. And I further order that should their goods not be disposed of, and they want to carry them back, no customs shall be demanded thereon, nor on any provisions which Mr. Sumption shall send from any place on board their ships for their maintenance. They are also not to demand any thing for their gardens, nor in any shape molest their gardeners, boats, vessels, &c. or send them on any Sircar's business; and it is also ordered, that their chests of linen may not be opened, or the least hindrance shewn them in passing and repassing, it being contrary to our rules; and in short, no one shall presume to make any new customs to their prejudice, or in any shape put any affront on them or their people. They have also free liberty to provide any sort of grain, and sell the same, and any European goods, at any rate they please. The customs on the Duppers of Ghee, oil, &c. as also on the chests and pots of goods, are to be charged conformable to the weight they put on each Dupper, chest, or pot, without weighing them again; and the customs on the elephant's teeth are to be received on the amount of sale, when they are sold. And should Mr. Sumption either buy or build a house or warehouse, at Aurunger-bunder or at Tattah, my said people are to give him all the assistance they can, that it may cost him only a reasonable price, and he is to have all the encouragement for carrying on his trade, as it will be an advantage to the Government; but no other Englishman shall have a house or any encouragement. And as it is very necessary that I should encourage and please the English, I hereby order that an entire compliance may be shewn to this, without demanding any new order every year.

PERWANNAHS, &c. granted in 1759, relating to the Castle and Tanka, at Surat.

Be peace and happiness with the renowned Mr. John Spencer, Captain of the factory in the city of Surat. By the hands of your Vackeel, your present and Arzee (or request) have been received, and the purport and particular thereof are understood, and your Arzee zee (or request) to his Majesty has been delivered. The pains you have taken, and the success you have met with, in keeping open the door of Mecha, and delivering our subjects from oppression, we are pleased and satisfied with. As to the Firmaund for the government of the castle, and Sunnud for the fleet, which are requested in the name of the English Company, I have given your Vackeel an answer, who will particularly advise you thereof. Let the Pishcash, on this account, be quickly remitted, that it may be presented to his Majesty, and your request thereby granted. In the mean time it behoves you to carry on affairs with alacrity, and be assured that herein nothing on my part shall be wanting to countenance you.

A Representation made to the Mogul, by Mr. John Spencer, in behalf of the Honourable English East-India Company.

That by virtue of royal Firmaunds of your Majesty's predecessors, the English hitherto enjoyed favour at Surat, and carried on their business in a reputable manner, till in these days that the Sciddee, usurping an undue authority in the town, used it to the ruin of the city in general, the lives and properties of your Majesty's subjects being made light of by them, and they even proceeded so far as to take away the lives of our people, in direct breach of your Majesty's Firmaund; and, in short, instead of being the protectors of the place, became the oppressors of it, to such a degree, that the just orders of your Majesty were no ways regarded in this city, by their means; and things were come to this pass, that though, in consideration of the Tanka, the Sciddee was to protect the bar, yet so far was he from doing that, that for many months past a large fleet of Sancrajee Punt's Ballajee Row's Naib, entirely shut up the bar, as did a large land force by land, to the infinite detriment of the place and inhabitants in general, without the Sciddee's interfering therein; and there was the greatest reason to believe, that unless some speedy and vigorous measures had soon been pursued, your Majesty's famous city of Surat, the only port of good Mussulmen to the tomb of your Prophet, would have been brought to shame. In such circumstances, the eyes of the whole town were cast on us, as the only persons of force sufficient to save the city from the calamities that it then felt, and was still further threatened with; and in consequence of their solicitations to me, though our business in those parts of the world is only trade and merchandize, and we are not desirous of taking or governing cities or countries, yet as all the inhabitants of this place, great and small, were earnestly desirous of it, and I saw it was for the good of the place, I wrote to the General of Bombay on the subject, in such manner, that at an immense expence he sent hither, on our King's ships, a great force of good and experienced men, with a large quantity quantity of artillery, and other warlike stores of all sorts, with which I have had the happiness to procure safety to the city and ease to the inhabitants, and have procured an entire currency to your Majesty's orders in the place; and your Majesty's authority, by all ways in our power, will be preserved in the place as it used to be, and you will consider the English as desirous of receiving your orders, such being the intention of the Governor of Bombay and myself, whose whole power will be used to maintain the castle that we have possessed ourselves of for your Majesty, and to preserve the bar and sea open against all opposers, on your behalf; for we shall not apply the Tanka you have granted for this purpose to others, as has hitherto been the case: and since our having done this, the enemies that surrounded the place, both by sea and land, to its great prejudice, have been removed. We are always ready for the safety of the castle and the city, with its inhabitants, and therefore hope for your Majesty's favour in behalf of the Honorable English Company, for whose good services, on this occasion, I must refer your Majesty to the representation of the inhabitants of the place.

Perwannahs, &c. relating to Surat.

N. B. There accompanied this a letter to the Vizier, much to the same purpose, requesting his countenance. Letters went also in the name of the Governor of Bombay on this occasion, to the King and Vizier, referring in general to the above; and the whole was attended with a representation of the town in general on our behalf, under the seals of the Nabob Naib Codjee, the head Sciads and officers, and the heads of the merchants in general.

PERWANNAH under the Vizier's Seal, for Sciad Moynadeen Khan to act as Governor of Surat.

By the advices received here from Surat it has been made known to his Majesty, that you, with the consent, and at the desire of the inhabitants, are arrived there, and that afterwards the Honorable Mr. Spencer, Captain of the Factory at Surat, with the renowned Faris Khan, came and turned out Sciddee Ahmed, who had possessed himself of his Majesty's castle, and greatly oppressed our subjects; and that thereby the city is now at ease, and the inhabitants satisfied: therefore it behoves you to act as may be most conducive to the good of the city and his Majesty's affairs, that every body may follow their calling without fear, and the city flourish. Let this be implicitly obeyed. On the 2d of Shabaun, and the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty.

On the 2d of Shabaun, and the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty.

Be peace unto the high and renowned Mr. John Spencer. The courage and conduct you have shewn in his Majesty's service, for the good of our subjects, the inhabitants of Surat, are made known to his Majesty, and their letter, expressing their satisfaction therewith, has also been shewn, with which his Majesty is well satisfied and praises you: therefore, upon this account he has been pleased to order this Husbulhookum to be sent you, that you may take care of his Majesty's castle, and take the preservation of the trade of these seas particularly upon you, so that the inhabitants of Surat may carry on their business and live in ease and quiet, and the ships and vessels going to and coming from the most remarkable ports, as well as others, be in no fear from rovers and pirates. The Firmaund for the government of the castle, and Perwannah for the fleet being given in charge to the English Company, shall be sent you from court. On the 1st of the month of Zickat, and the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty; the 24th of June, 1759.

N. B. The Husbulhookum to the Governor is in the same words as the above, only that to the epithets, "high and renowned," are added "brave and courageous."

The Arzee of the high and renowned, with the present, and letter expressing the merchants' satisfaction, have been received by the hands of Hadee Khan. The conduct and courage you have shewn for the good of the inhabitants of Surat and his Majesty's service, have been in a particular manner made known to him, with which he is well pleased and praises you for. It now behoves you, with a satisfied mind, particularly to look to the peace of the inhabitants and the preservation of his Majesty's castle, and to take care that the trade of the seas is kept open and safe; that the Hadjees, or pilgrims, and merchants, meet with no trouble and impediment, and that the ships, to and from the PERWANNAH, under the Coochuck (or small Seal) of the Nabob Vizier Ulma Mulck Nizam-ul-Mulck Behauder, to Mr. John Spencer.

High and renowned, the Tohod, or sums usually remitted from Surat, are now much wanted at court, and his Majesty is pressing for them. As yet what money the renowned Moynadeen Khan may have sent is not received, therefore Perwannahs have been wrote to hasten him in that respect; but it likewise behoves you to press him on this head, and procure the remittance of the Tohod by bills, as soon as possible. Look upon this as absolutely necessary.

Let the renowned among the people, the English Company, hope for his Majesty's favour; and be it known unto them, that in these happy and victorious times, his Majesty has been pleased, out of his great grace and favour, to grant unto them the Killedaree, or government, of the castle of Surat, on its being taken from Mauphez Ahmed Khan: it therefore is requisite, that they should be very grateful for this his Majesty's favour, and look particularly to the welfare of the castle, keeping proper order and discipline among among the troops, and having provisions, stores, and ammunition always in readiness, as has been usual, which is strictly and especially required of them by his Majesty. A.D. 1759

Perwannahs, &c. relating to Surat.

At the back of the Firmaund is the Grand Vizier's seal, and all his titles wrote at length.

DUSTUCK (or Order) under the Khan Sumaun or Steward's Seal, for the Honorable Company's holding the King's Fleet.

The Dustuck, in the name of the noble and renowned English Company, is as follows: By his Majesty's Husbulhookum, the office of Deroga of the great fleet, belonging to the Bunder of Surat, vacant by the dismission of Sciddee Yacood Khan, is now delivered into your charge: therefore it behoves you to execute the said office with great care and circumspection, and carry on the business of it justly and with moderation. Look on this as absolutely required of you.

Dated the 2d day of Maharin, in the sixth year of his Majesty's reign; the 26th of August, 1759.

At the back of this is the seal of Zechal Doulat Fidaudin Khan Behauder, who is Khan Sumaun, or Steward to his Majesty, whose prerogative it is to grant this order.

AN ORDER, under the Vizier's Seal, to Sciad Moynadeen Khan, Governor of Surat, regarding the Payment of the Tanka, on Account of the Fleet, to the Honorable Company, &c.

To the brave, noble, renowned, and careful Sciad Moynadeen Khan Behauder, on whom is his Majesty's favour: The Vackeel of the English Company having represented, that as the Deroga, or post of the great fleet, belonging to the Bunder of Surat, under the Soubah of Amedabad, on the dismission of Sciddee Yacood Khan, Killedar of Dunde Rajahpore,

A.D. 1759 Perwannahs, &c. relating to Surat.

Rajahpore, from the said post, had been granted his constituents, he hoped that a Perwannah, or order for the Tanka, account the troops of the fleet, as has been usual since the time of him who is now in Heaven (meaning Aurungzebe), among the other charges of Surat, exclusive of what is sent to court, might be given him in your name. From the archives of the kingdom it appears that this office was in the hands of Sciddee Yacood Khan, and that in the twenty-third year of the reign of Mahmud Shah he procured an order on Tegbeg Khan, then Governor, for the annual payment of two lacks, according to custom, besides what was sent to court. Now in these days, the office of Deroga of this fleet, on the dismission of Sciddee Yacood Khan, has been granted to the said Company, as has been usual under the Dustuck, or order of the Khan Sumaun (or steward), and dated the 2d of Maharin, and sixth year of the present reign; therefore I now write you, that you may pay unto them, account charges for the forces of the fleet, the usual Tanka of two lacks every year, agreeable to the hereafter order, among the other charges, exclusive of what is sent to court; and let the accounts and papers relative thereto be transmitted hither.

Dated the 25th of Maharin, and sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, or 18th of September, 1759.

On the back of this Perwannah is the Vizier's seal, and the Zimra, or certificate, from the several officers and registers at Court, setting forth as is above related in the Perwannah, and that the Vizier had given orders for registering the Arzees and orders given thereon.

An HUSBULHOOKUM, under the Seal of the Nabob Vizier Ulma Mulck Behauder, to the English Company, accompanying the Firmaund.

May his Majesty's favour ever remain upon the brave and noble English Company. It has pleased his Majesty to grant unto you the office of Killedar (Castle Governor) of the Bunder of Surat, vacant by his dismission of Mauphez Ahmed Khan, as also the office of Deroga of the great fleet of the said Bunder, vacant by the dismission of Sciddee Yacood Khan; therefore, agreeable to his order, you are now directed to take particular care of the proper execution of the above offices, by looking well to the welfare of the castle and preservation of the merchants, &c. on the high seas, keeping them clear of pirates and rovers who may infest them. This is positively required of you.

Of this you are required to be very careful.

ARTICLE I.

A.D. 1759 The King of Cotiote.

If at any time the French, or other power, shall attempt to annoy any part of the Honorable Company's districts, or the chief for the time being shall have notice of such an intention, and for the defence thereof applies to the King Regent for his assistance, he promises immediately to furnish any number of his Nairs, or musqueteers, that may be desired, not exceeding six thousand; and those who come are to be paid by the Company, during their stay in their service, as follows, viz. Three measures of rice, Company's measure, and four Bejas per day, to every common Nair; and four measures of rice, same measure, and eight Bejas, to every Moopa.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1759
The King of Cotiote.

ARTICLE II.

The Nairs which the King may send to the Company's assistance, are to be under command of such of their (the Company's) officers as may, from time to time, be appointed by the Chief; and as the King's levying his troops is attended with an extraordinary charge, it is agreed, in consideration thereof, on his beginning so to do, that the Company allow him the sum of two thousand Rupees; but if it should happen that hostilities cease before proclamation of peace, or a war begun, and on that account the King's troops are returned, and yet again be required, before the expiration of twelve months from their first coming, they are to be remanded, without any fresh allowance being made the King; though in case they should not be required till the commencement of another twelve months from the time above-mentioned, another allowance of two thousand Rupees is to be made the King, as his then levying them will be attended with the like extraordinary expence as before. And to the families of those who may die fighting in the Company's cause they agree to give them as follows, viz. To those of the officers, from 340 Fanams to 750 Fanams each, according to their respective ranks; and to those of the common Nairs, from 120 to 240 each, according to theirs, in like manner as the King would do, which he is to declare by Ola: and those who shall be wounded, the Company will either cause to be cured by their or a Malabar doctor, at their expence, or if they rather choose to obtain their own cure, 300 Fanams are to be given to each officer, and 150 to every common Nair, for that purpose.

ARTICLE III.

Should the Company, at any time or times, require a number of the King's Nairs to their assistance, not exceeding five hundred, they are not to make him any levying allowance on such account, but only for what may be wanted from that number to six thousand; and provided that, during the stay of a supply from five hundred upwards, the King resides at or on this side of Cotiote, the Company are to allow him two hundred Fanams per day for his expences, exclusive of the two thousand Rupees (as per Article II.) to be given him on his beginning to levy his troops.

ARTICLE IV.

For the better preservation of the friendship subsisting between the Company and the King, and for the freedom of their commerce in his dominions, the King promises not to suffer any European nation but them to purchase pepper, cardemoms, or sandal-wood therein; and the Company are annually to present him, at the feast of Onah, with the sum of twelve hundred Fanams, on receiving an Ola from him requesting it.

ARTICLE V.

On any enemy's invading the King's territories, the Company agree to supply him with powder, ball, flints, and other warlike stores, at the prices under-mentioned, together together with the money and rice, to the amount of 1,50,000 Fanams, including the amount he may at such time be indebted; all which, if the King repays within twelve months, no interest is to be charged; but if not, to run at ten per cent. per annum. The Company shall, however, first endeavour to accommodate matters amicably; but if the enemy will not attend to such propositions as may be judged reasonable, the Company will then assist the King, in order to subject the said enemy, with men properly equipped, with mortars, cannon, &c. he defraying the expence, giving the same pay to their Nairs and Calliquilones as above agreed by them to give his Nairs, and to the military in like manner as the Company when they employ them on such occasions; and to the killed and wounded, the same as the Company are to give those belonging to him. A.D. 1759 The King of Cotiote.

ARTICLE VI.

If the King should wage war against any enemy (except the Prince of Cherrika) the Company agree to assist him with powder, shot, &c. at the prices below, together with money to the amount of 75,000 Fanams, including likewise what may at such time be indebted.

ARTICLE VII.

On the Company's taking arms offensively against any power whatever (except the French), the King promises to afford them the assistance stipulated in the first article of this agreement, and on the same terms; and should the Company proceed against any of the fortifications belonging even to the French, the King engages not to assist them (the French) in any shape, but contrariwise, to man the Company's forts with his troops, if required, during the absence of their own forces on such expedition: but if the French henceforward grant the King's enemies succours of any kind whatever against him, he obliges himself to act in conjunction with the Company offensively against them, whenever they may think proper.

Gunpowder	at 46	Rupees	per barrel.
Lead	60	ditto	per candy.
Ditto balls	66	ditto	ditto.
Iron	75	ditto	ditto.
Flints	2	ditto	per hundred.
Goa paper	7	ditto	per ream.

EXPLANATION.

The reason of this being consented to, was, on being convinced that his expences are greater, when he resides at any of those palaces, than at others, on account of the number of people who resort daily to him, and to whom he is by custom obliged to give provisions.

The ROYAL GRANT of King Baddacalamcur, Regent of Colastria, dated the 9th September, 1760.

ARTICLE I.

A.D. 1760
The King of Colastria.

Of our free and good will, we confirm to the English Company all their grants and privileges in our Kingdom, given them by our ancestors; also the Agreement entered into with our younger brother, to be and remain unalterable for ever.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE II.

A.D.1760
The King of Colastria.

Whereas all the pepper produced in our country is permitted by these grants to be bought by the Company, without any impediment, also for them to impede any one transporting thereof; we now, in order the more firmly to establish this privilege unto them, and especially to prevent the Dutch, or any one else, purchasing the pepper of Rhandoterrah, further consent to the Company's placing their people, both by land and sea, in any part they may judge proper to frustrate it; and if, for this purpose, the Chief of Tellicherry shall request our assistance, we hereby promise to afford it in like manner as he may desire it.

ARTICLE III.

All vessels, of what kind soever, drove on shore by stress of weather, or other accidents, in the dominions of Colastria, are, by the laws thereof, the sovereign's property; but should any one belonging to the English Company, or having their sealed pass, happen to run ashore in any part of our dominions, we promise not to seize thereon, but rather to be aiding, so as to prevent, as much as possible, any damage or loss accruing to the said vessel or her cargo, and to restore her to the Company for account of the lawful owners.

ARTICLE IV.

Having frequently experienced maleficent and disobedient behaviour in our heir, Unnamen Tamban, we are determined to reject him, and take such other as, on consulting with the Chief of Tellicherry, he may approve; though in case Unnamen Tamban returns to his obedience, with the Chief's consent, we will retake him for our heir: and should any of our successors happen to be brotherless or nephewless, and be necessitated to constitute some other Prince, more distantly allied, their heir, we agree, that he shall first advise with the Chief, for the time being, of Tellicherry, and not appoint him but with his approbation.

ARTICLE V.

At the expiration of forty days we will come again to Tellicherry, and cause a calculate to be made of the amount customs we receive from the Company, and those trading under their protection in our dominions, agreeable to which we will agree to accept of a certain stipend to be paid us annually, in lieu thereof.

An Obligation given by the King Regent of Colastria, the 9th of September, 1760.

ARTICLE I.

Whatever balances may be due to the Honorable Company from the Princes of the palace of Palliquilote, on the adjustment of that account with my ministers, together with

A.D. 1760 The King of Colastria. that owing by the four chiefs of Payenalt (who are the Achamars of Rhandoterrah) on Rhandoterrah, with the interest thereon, agreeable to their obligation, also the amount of what the King may be supplied with in his present exigency, his Majesty obliges himself to discharge, out of the annual rents of Rhandoterrah Poddateddattu Naudu, situated to the southward of Nelleascroon, and Cunhangalattu, to the southward of said Poddateddattu Naudu, until the whole is paid off; and to that effect, his Majesty hereby mortgages to the Company the revenues of those places.

ARTICLE II.

The district of Rhandoterrah having, for these eight or nine years past, been greatly oppressed with heavy rents and fines, to its great detriment, and which, if continued, will end in the total ruin thereof, particularly the pepper plantations there, whereby the Company will receive great prejudice, the King promises to alleviate the rents of the said place, also to moderate the fines, by not letting them together exceed twenty-five per cent.

ARTICLE III.

When the Company are paid the debts above-mentioned, with the interest that shall arise thereon, this obligation is to be null and void.

ARTICLE IV.

At the expiration of forty days, when the King comes hither, and settles the annual allowance to be paid him in lieu of the customs of Tellicherry, &c. then also will be taken into consideration, what part of the interest on the Achamar's debt can be remitted him.

A Privilege granted by the King Baddacalamcur, Regent of the Kingdom of Colastria, on the 22d of November, 1760, E. S. 9th of November, 936, M. S.

Be it known to all, that I, the King Baddacalamcur, Regent of the Kingdom of Colastria, taking into consideration the many services, favours, and assistances received by our Palace of Pally, from the Honorable English Company, as well in the time of our ancestors as in our own, especially in the difference which was of late between us and our nephew, Prince Unnamen, wherein we experienced a firm and faithful friendship from the Company; in consequence whereof, by this our royal writing, over and above all former privileges, we give and grant to the said English Company, our whole right of collecting customs, in all and every place under their protection, throughout our dominions, from this day forward for ever; in lieu of which, the Company shall be obliged annually to pay us the sum of twenty-one thousand (21,000) silver Fanams, wherewith we are satisfied, and against which our heirs and successors have nothing to object, nor shall at any time; it being done of our own free and good will, and passed with our sign royal.

ARTICLE I.

A.D.1761 The Marattas

That such of the Maratta officers who have presumed to stop any Pattamars, and obstructed the business of the English, by any impediments whatever, shall be severely punished for such their offences; and to prevent the like happening again in future, strict orders shall be issued immediately for that purpose, which, if not found sufficient to answer that end, the English are to acquaint Madarao thereof; and if redress is not obtained in reasonable time, if the English then take satisfaction of such offenders, in whatever manner may by them be thought proper, it is not to be deemed a breach of friendship between the two Governments.

ARTICLE II.

That ample satisfaction shall be made, within two months from the date hereof, to all merchants trading under the Honorable Company's protection, who have suffered in their

In like manner shall be delivered up all deserters, in the English pay, from Surat, on their being known, or immediately on receiving notice of them, within the Maratta limits, it not being in their power to speak more positively with respect to those of Surat, as the country thereabouts is open, and numbers go through it without being known. It is also agreed, that whatever people, Europeans of all nations excepted, who are in the service of Madarao, and may desert therefrom to the English, shall be delivered up on the same terms and conditions.

ARTICLE IV.

That proper people shall be forthwith dispatched, for restoring the whole jurisdiction and territories of Rajahpore to the Sciddees of Gingerah, in the same condition and manner as they remained before invaded and attacked by Ramajee Punt, which country is not to be molested in future by any of the Maratta officers or subjects.

ARTICLE V.

That all prisoners taken by the Marattas or Sciddees, subjects of either Government, and now in their possession, shall be sent to Bombay, within one month from the signing of these articles, and mutually restored by the Governor to their freedom; and all hostilities between the Marattas and Sciddees shall cease from this time.

Lastly, That proper orders shall be instantly dispatched to all the Maratta officers, requiring them to shew a due obedience to these articles, which are to be confirmed under Madarao's seal, and transmitted to Bombay with all possible expedition, after the signing and and sealing thereof; when a counterpart of the same is to be executed by the Governor, and transmitted to Poonah. A.D.1761 The Marattas

In confirmation of all which, I, Govind Seuram Punt Tatiah, have to this instrument interchangeably set my hand and seal (in behalf of Madarao Balajee Pundit aforesaid) at Bombay, the 14th of September, 1761.

AN ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

As to what relates to the restoration of Undery Fort, and the country appertaining thereto, is submitted to Madarao's generosity, in full expectation that he will deliver them likewise, or assign over, in lieu thereof, such lands belonging to him as will prove an equivalent thereto. The same day and year above written.

A.D.1763
Hyder Ali.

ARTICLE I.

The Honorable English Company have free liberty to build a commodious factory and warehouses at Onore, by the water side, or any place they may pitch upon; and they may may enclose their compound with a wall of stone and mud, without any guns. The ground allotted them shall be rent-free. Whilst the English have a factory at Onore, no other European nation shall have leave to settle there. A.D. 1763 Hyder Ali.

ARTICLE II.

The English have the sole liberty granted them of purchasing all the pepper produced between Mirjee and Batcole, both these places included; nor shall any European, or other nation besides them, have leave to purchase pepper within these districts. The price shall be adjusted every year, between the Resident and four principal merchants of Onore.

ARTICLE III.

The Honorable English Company have free liberty to export annually, from Mangalore, three hundred Corge of rice, for the service of Tellicherry, exempt from the duty called Adlamy; or if they choose to carry this rice to Bombay, it is exempt from the same duty. Any private English merchants who purchase rice, must be liable to the same customs as other merchants.

ARTICLE IV.

Whereas several Onore merchants are largely indebted to the Honorable Company, the Killedar, &c. officers must assist the English in recovering their just demands: And provided any merchants, in future, should be indebted to the English, and make any disputes about paying, they have free liberty to confine such merchants in their factory, till they clear their debts.

ARTICLE V.

All goods that the English import, either at Onore or Mirjee, shall pay one and an half per cent. customs on the sales; except horses, wet and dry dates, sugar, Kishmisses, cocoa-nuts, Copra, tobacco, Munchustry, opium, cotton, salt, brimstone, and camphire *: these fourteen articles are to pay the same customs as other merchants pay. Any goods they cannot sell they have leave to re-export, without paying any customs on them, on shewing them to the custom-master. Gold and silver are to pay no customs, nor any necessaries that the English may import for their own use.

ARTICLE

* How these fourteen articles came particularly to be excepted against, I know not; but objections having been always made to them, whenever applications have been formerly made for a Firmaund, which was urged strongly as a plea for their excepting them now, I thought the including them not worth insisting on, as the disadvantage to the Honorable Company will be none at all, and to private traders too trifling to be thought of any consequence.

Royal Grant from Carem Khan, 1763.

A.D.1763
The King of Persia.

The Great God having, of his infinite mercy, given victory unto Carem Khan, and made him Chief Governor of all the kingdoms of Persia, and established under him the peace and tranquillity of the said kingdoms, by means of his victorious sword, he is desirous that the said kingdoms should flourish, and re-obtain their ancient grandeur, by the encrease of trade and commerce, as well as by a due execution of justice.

Having been informed, that the Right Worshipful William Andrew Price, Esq. Governor-General for the English nation in the Gulph of Persia, is arrived with power to settle a factory at Bushire, and has left Mr. Benjamin Jervis Resident, who, by directions from the said Governor-General, has sent unto me Mr. Thomas Durnford, and Stephen Hermit, linguist, to obtain a grant of their ancient privileges in these kingdoms, I do of my free-will and great friendship for the English nation, grant unto the said Governor-General, in behalf of his King and Company, the following privileges, which shall be inviolably observed and held sacred in good faith.

That

That the English Company may have as much ground, and in any part of Bushire, they choose to build a factory on, or at any other port in the Gulph. They may have as many cannon mounted on it as they choose, but not to be larger than six pounds bore; and they may build factory houses in any part of the kingdom they choose. A.D. 1763 The King of Persia.

No customs shall be charged the English on any goods imported or exported by them at Bushire, or any other port in the Gulph of Persia, on condition that, at no time, they import or export other persons' goods in their names. They may also send their goods, customs free, all over the kingdom of Persia; and on what goods they sell at Bushire, or elsewhere, the Shaik, or Governor, shall only charge the merchants an export duty of three per cent.

No other European nation, or other persons, shall import any woollen goods to any port on the Persian shore, in the Gulph, but the English Company only; and should any one attempt to do it clandestinely, their goods shall be seized and confiscated.

Should any of the Persian merchants, or others, become truly indebted to the English, the Shaik, or Governor of the place, shall oblige them to pay it; but should he fail in his duty herein, the English Chief may do his own justice, and act as he pleases with the debtors, to recover what owed him or them.

In all the kingdom of Persia, the English may sell their goods to, and buy from, whomever they judge proper; nor shall the Governor, or Shaik, of any ports or places, prevent their importing or exporting any goods whatever.

When any English ship or ships arrive at any ports in the Gulph of Persia, no merchants shall purchase from them clandestinely, but with the consent and knowledge of the English Chief there resident.

Should any English ship or vessel be drove on shore, unfortunately wrecked, or otherwise lost in any part of the Gulph of Persia, the Shaiks, or Governor of the adjacent places, shall not claim any share of the said wrecks, but shall assist the English, all in their power, in saving the whole, or any part of the vessel or cargo.

The English, and all those under their protection, in any part of the Kingdom of Persia, shall have the free exercise of their religion, without molestation from any one.

A.D.1763. The King of Persia.

Should soldiers, sailors, or slaves, desert from the English, in any part of Persia, they shall not be protected or encouraged, but, bonâ fide, delivered up, but not be punished for the first or second offence.

Wherever the English may have a factory in Persia, their linguist, brokers, and all other their servants, shall be exempt from all taxes and impositions whatever, and under their own command and justice, without any one interesting therein.

Wherever the English are, they shall have a spot of ground allotted them for a burying ground: and if they want a spot for a garden, if the King's property, it shall be given them gratis; if belonging to any private person, they must pay a reasonable price for it.

The house that formerly belonged to the English Company, at Schyrash, I now redeliver to them, with the garden and water thereto belonging.

ARTICLES desired by the Khan.

That the English, according to what was formerly customary, shall purchase from the Persia merchants such goods as will answer for sending to England or India, provided they and the Persians shall agree on reasonable prices for the same, and not export from Persia the whole amount of their sales in ready money, as this will impoverish the kingdom, and in the end prejudice trade in general.

That the English, wherever they are settled, shall not maltreat the Mussulmen.

What goods are imported by the English into Persia, they shall give the preference in sale of them to the principal merchants and men of credit.

The English shall not give protection to any of the King's rebellious subjects, nor carry them out of the Kingdom, but deliver any up that may desert to them, who shall not be punished for the first or second offence.

The English shall, at no time, either directly or indirectly, assist the King's enemies.

All

All our Governors of provinces, sea-ports, and other towns, are ordered to pay a strict obedience to these our orders, on pain of incurring our displeasure, and of being punished for their disobedience or neglect. A.D. 1763 The King of Persia.

A.D. 1771 Nabob of Cambay.

Thirdly. That should the Honorable Company at any time hereafter have occasion to act against the Coolies of the other districts, the Nabob very willingly agrees to let the Honorable Company have the use of the fort of Tarrajah and its dependencies, for the use of their troops whilst they may be there, and order his people to assist them with whatever they may want; provided they do no damage to the fort or its Purgunnah, which in such case is to be made good by the Honorable Company.

Fourthly. Should any power whatsoever attack or disturb him (the Nabob) in his fort of Tarrajah and its dependencies, he requests the assistance of the Honorable Company to keep him in possession, as he must now look upon himself as one of their servants; and any charges sustained by the Honorable Company by such their assistance, he, the Nabob, most readily agrees to defray, as soon as he conveniently can: and should the Honorable Company have occasion for his troops, he, the Nabob, is very ready to follow their orders, with such a number of forces as they may require: and the Honorable Company is to pay such expence as may be incurred on that account as soon as may be convenient to them.

Fifthly. He requests the Honorable Company will send him a proper convoy for conveying his troops to the Cooly coast, and that a sufficient force may meet them on the shore, to escort them to and deliver them the fort of Tarrajah; and he requests the Honorable Company will supply him with thirty (30) barrels of gunpowder, and fifty (50) Maunds of lead, for the use of Tarrajah Fort, which he, the Nabob, agrees to pay for.

Lastly. He promises and agrees to make the first payment, by the time above-mentioned, unto Mr. John Torlesse, by transfer upon the Shroffs; and for the remainder four payments he makes over the revenue of the Mocawt and Cosbaw: and should it please God to distress the said revenue by want of rain, enemies, or the like, he (the Nabob) then agrees and promises to make the same good himself.

The PAPER of AGREEMENT between the Honorable English East-India Company and Momun Khan, Nabob of Cambay. A.D.1771 Nabob of Cambay.

Agreeable to what I have been requested by Mr. John Torlesse, Resident at Cambay, I now do promise, that should Gogo at any time again fall into my hands, and the Honorable English Company be desirous of having a factory there, I will grant it to them, and on no account whatsoever suffer any other European nation to settle there; also from the long friendship subsisting between the Honorable English Company and me, I have hearkened to the recommendation they have been pleased to give to Eckarajee and Gopaljee Servia. I will, on no pretence whatever, meddle with or trouble the ancient possessions of Eckarajee, the son of the late Bowsung, nor the town or fort of Bownagur, and take no more than what has always been usual for the possessor of the Bunder of Gogo to take, and what I took when I was in possession thereof, and no more will I demand. And with respect to Gopaljee Servia, I will give neither molestation; but I do request, that after this agreement, the Honorable Company will not recommend any more persons of that country to me. And by the help of God, I and my heirs will stand to all agreements hitherto entered into between us. Written with my own hand, this 12th day of the moon Raijub, year 1185, or 22d October, 1771.

ARTICLE I.

The Treaty concluded between the Government of Bombay and Badjerow Pundit Purdan, or first Minister of his Serene Highness the Sou Rajah, dated July, 1739, or 1140 of the Gentoo Style; and that concluded on the part of this Government with Ballajee Bajerow Purdan, dated 12th October, 1756, or of the Mahometan Style, 17th of Mohuram, 1170, are hereby ratified and confirmed, in their fullest extent, according to the full and true intent and meaning of them, in the same full and ample manner, and in the same light, in which they have hitherto been ever understood.

ARTICLE II.

All other agreements subsisting between this Government of Bombay and that of the Mahrattas are hereby ratified and confirmed; and after the re-establishment of Ragobah in the Government of the Mahratta dominions, peace and tranquillity shall subsist between this Government, in behalf of the Honorable Company, and the Mahratta Government.

ARTICLE III.

Ragobah, on his part, and on the part of the Mahratta Government, engages from his day forward never, on any pretence or in any manner, to assist the enemies of the Honorable Company, in any part whatever of their dominions in India; and the Honorable the the Governor and Council of Bombay do, in the like manner, engage never to assist the enemies of Ragobah. A.D.1775 Ragobah.

ARTICLE IV.

The Honorable the President and Council of Bombay, in behalf of the Honorable Company, and in consideration of the undermentioned grants and cessions made by Ragobah to the Company, do hereby engage and agree, so soon as possible after these Articles of Agreement and Treaty are fully ratified, executed, and confirmed, on the part of Ragobah, to assist him with a strong body of forces, with proper guns and warlike stores, as a field train of artillery, which are to join his army, and act in conjunction with his forces, against his enemies the ministerial party. In the said body of forces no less than seven hundred (700) Europeans; and the whole shall not be less in number than two thousand five hundred men: but, at present, only five hundred (500) Europeans, and one thousand (1000) Sepoys and Lascars, with a proper and effectual number of guns, will be sent, and the rest, if wanted, afterwards.

ARTICLE V.

In consideration of such effectual assistance on the part of the Honorable Company, Ragobah, as Peshwa, and as Supreme Governor in the whole Mahratta empire, doth hereby engage, on his part, to cede and make over to the Honorable Company, for ever, the undermentioned places and territories; and he doth accordingly, by these presents, make over the same to them, in the most full, ample, and effectual manner: and he doth, with these presents, deliver the necessary Sunnuds, granting, in the fullest manner, all the present and future full right and title of the Mahratta Government to them; and in case of the loss, at any time, of the Sunnuds now delivered, these presents are, at all times, to be considered as such, and of full equal validity with any Sunnud whatever.

Bassein, and the whole of its dependencies, in its fullest exent, and all rents and revenues thereunto belonging, together with the fort or forts, and every thing belonging to the Poonah Government, in them.

Salsette, the whole and entire island, with all the revenues of the different places annexed to it, as collected by Anunt Row and Ramajee Punt.

Jambooseer and Orpad, with the whole of their dependencies, in their full extent, together with every thing belonging to the Poonah Government in those Purgunnahs.

The four following islands adjacent to Bombay, with every thing belonging to the Poonah Government therein, viz. Caranja, Canary, Elephanta, and Hog Island.

ARTICLE VI.

Ragobah also engages immediately to procure from the Guicawars a grant to the Company for ever, with all the necessary Sunnuds, of their share in the revenues collected by the Guicawars in the town and Purgunahs of Broach.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1775
Ragobah.

ARTICLE VII.

The Honorable Company are to be considered as the sole lords and proprietors, from the day of the signing of this Treaty, of all and every of the places ceded by the two last articles, in the like manner as the Poonah Government, or the Guicawar Government, were before considered; and are, accordingly, from this day forward, to exercise every right and authority in those places, and to receive every revenue which the Poonah Government, or the Guicawar Government, before exercised or received.

ARTICLE VIII.

Ragobah also engages faithfully to make good to the Company, for ever, the sum of seventy-five thousand (75,000) Rupees annually from his share of the revenues of Oclaseer, which sum is to be paid by his Pundit, in two different payments, at stated periods.

ARTICLE IX.

Ragobah engages to pay, in full for the charges and expences of the body of forces with which he is to be assisted, consisting of 2,500 men, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand Rupees (150,000) monthly and every month, which the Honorable the Governor and Council agree to accept without further account, and is to commence the day the forces leave Bombay; but as the whole number of forces will not at first proceed, he is only to pay a proportionable monthly sum, till the whole force, if necessary, may be sent to join him. He engages to pay this stipend monthly; and as security for the same, till his affairs will enable him to furnish money, which he promises to do as soon as possible, he assigns by these presents the revenues of the following places, viz.

Ahmood, and all its districts.

Hansoot, and all its districts.

Versaul, and all its districts.

But it is hereby declared, that the revenues of these places belong to the Honorable Company no longer than till the amount of the monthly stipend, that may be due for the expences of the Company's forces, is fully discharged, when all further demands on these four places are to be relinquished; and in this light the Honorable the Governor and Council declare they accept those four Purgunahs.

ARTICLE X.

As it has been mutually agreed, during the course of this negociation, that the sum of six lacks of Rupees should be deposited by Ragobah with the agents of the Honorable Company, to be accounted for at the expiration of the service intended to be performed against his enemies, the ministerial party, and Ragobah, finding it at this time totally impossible impossible for him to raise the sum to be deposited, though still equally willing to do it, was it in his power, the contracting parties have mutually agreed to settle this point as follows: That Ragobah shall immediately deposit with the Company's agents at Surat to the full value of six lacks of Rupees, in jewels, to remain in the Honorable Company's possession till redeemed, which must be done as soon as Ragobah's affairs will possibly admit. All this Ragobah faithfully and firmly engages to perform, and the Honorable Company to accept. A.D. 1775. Ragobah.

ARTICLE XI.

In case of opposition from any person or persons whatever, to the Company's taking possession of all or any of the places hereby firmly and effectually ceded to them, Ragobah doth engage to pay the expence that will be incurred by their gaining possession; to use effectual means to put them in possession; as well as to secure them, for ever, in the quiet possession of all the revenues and places now ceded to the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE XII.

Should Ragobah make peace with his enemies, the ministers, he firmly and faithfully engages, that the English East-India Company shall be included in it to their satisfaction.

ARTICLE XIII.

Ragobah doth also engage never to molest the dominions of the Honorable Company in Bengal. He further engages not to make war or commit any depredations in the Carnatic, so long as the last Treaty subsisting between the two Governments is adhered to by the Nabob.

ARTICLE XIV.

In case it should happen (which God forbid) that any of the Company's ships or vessels, or the ships, vessels, or boats of any persons trading under their protection, should be shipwrecked on any part of the Maratta Coast, every assistance shall be given by the Government and inhabitants, to save as much as possible; and the whole that may be saved shall be returned, all reasonable expences being paid by the owners.

ARTICLE XV.

All the places ceded for ever to the Company by this Treaty are to be considered as their sole right and property, from the day this Treaty is signed; and this Treaty, from that day, is to be considered in full force, just as if the expected services were fully accomplished, whether Ragobah shall make peace with his enemies or not.

ARTICLE XVI.

Immediately after the ratification of the aforegoing articles, and after the jewels, to the full amount of six lacks of Rupees, are deposited, and the security above-mentioned given for the payment of the monthly expences of the forces, so long as they continue with Ragobah, and till they return, all in the manner above-mentioned; the Governor

and

A.D. 1775 Ragobah. and Council engage that the Company's forces, agreeable to what is mentioned in the body of this Treaty, shall proceed from Bombay to join the army of Ragobah; and they trust, by the blessing of the Almighty, that they will quickly overcome his enemies, the ministerial party, and establish him at Poonah, in the government of the Maratta Empire.

The foregoing articles having been agreed to by the Honorable the President and Council of Bombay, who have empowered me to accept the same in their behalf, I do, in confirmation thereof, affix the seal of the said Honorable Company, and sign my own proper name thereto, in Surat, the day and year above written; and I do engage to procure a ratification of this Treaty, under the seal of the Honorable Company, and under the hands and seals of the Honorable the President and Council of Bombay, within thirty days after this date.

(Signed) ROBERT GAMBIER.

We, the President and Council of Bombay aforesaid, having empowered Mr. Robert Gambier to execute a Treaty with Ragonath Row Ballajee, Peshwa, in our behalf, on account of the Honorable Company, of the foregoing tenor, which he has accordingly done, of the date above-mentioned, and the same having been signed to, ratified, and confirmed by Ragonath Row Ballajee, Peshwa; and whereas, by the last article, it is covenanted and agreed, that a ratification of the said Treaty shall be transmitted by us, under the seal of the Honorable Company, and under our proper hands and seals, within one month from the above date; these therefore are to certify, that we hereby ratify and confirm the foregoing Treaty, in all and every part. In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the aforesaid Honorable Company to be hereunto affixed, and do now sign the same with our hands, and affix our proper seals thereto, this 16th day of March, in the year of our Lord, 1775.

EDWARD RAVENSCROFT,
Secretary to the Select Committee.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT and TREATY between the Honorable William Hornby, Esq. A.D. 1778
President and Governor, and the Select Committee of Bombay, on the Part and Behalf Ragobah.

A.D. 1778 Ragobah. of the Honorable United English East-India Company, on the one Part, and Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan on the other Part. Done and concluded at Bombay, this 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1778, and on the 3d day of Jeelcud Sookhursun Tissah Subein Miah-wa Alluff, or year 1179 Mahometan Style; or according to the Gentoo Æra, the 5th day of Marguasheir Sood, in the year Vellamly, or 1700.

ARTICLE I.

The Treaty concluded by Colonel Upton with Siccaram Pundit and Ballajee Pundit, ministers in behalf of the Peshwa and the Maratta State, having been violated by those ministers in almost every article, the Governor and Select Committee of Bombay, with the sanction and concurrence of the Governor-General and Council, do hereby engage and agree, in behalf of the aforesaid Honorable Company, to assist Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan to the utmost of their power to put him in possession of Poonah, and to place him in the Regency of the Maratta Empire, during the minority of Madarow Narrain, the infant Peshwa; hereby declaring, that the true intent and meaning of this Treaty is not to alter the form of Government, or to interrupt the peace between the Honorable Company and the Maratta State, but only to remove the administration out of the present improper hands, and to place in the Regency the person who has the justest title to that office.

ARTICLE II.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan, on his part, doth hereby engage and agree to accept the office of Regent, which he is to exercise with full power during the minority of the Peshwa, Madarow Narrain, in whose name he further engages to continue the Sicca and conduct the Government. But Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan having expressed his doubts of the legitimacy of the Peshwa, Madarow Narrain, the Governor and Select Committee of Bombay do hereby engage, on Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan his strong solicitation, to request explicit orders from the Company, whether, in case he should prove to their satisfaction that the child is suppositious, they will place him in the Peshwaship, which, on such proof, will be his unquestionable right; and whether, in case the child should prove to be really the son of Naron Row, they will guarantee him an equal division of the Government and country, on the Peshwa's attaining to the age of seventeen, agreeable to what Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan says he is entitled to by his birthright, according to the Gentoo law.

ARTICLE III.

The Governor and Select Committee of Bombay do hereby stipulate, and Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan, for their satisfaction, and that his upright intentions may appear manifest, doth hereby engage and agree, that the person of the Peshwa, Maderow Narrain, rain, shall be kept under the charge and custody of such persons as may be agreeable to the Select Committee, who wish that the child may be committed to the charge of Perwettybhoy, if she will undertake the charge; and in such case, the Matchy of Poorunder, where the child is kept, must be guarded with a party of the Company's troops, and Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan may keep a Chowkey on the outside of the gate, to see that no improper persons be admitted; but no person whatever must have admittance to the child's presence without the permission of Perwettybhoy. In case Perwettybhoy should refuse to undertake the charge, the child shall be put under the care of any of his relations, on the mother's side; but should all these decline the trust, the child shall then be disposed of, in such manner as may be deemed most advisable for his security, and for the honor of the contracting parties. A.D. 1778 Ragobah.

ARTICLE IV.

Moraba Furneese, Butcheba Pronder, and Tookajee Holcar, having invited Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan to take upon himself the Government as Regent, and promised their assistance, Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan doth hereby engage, upon condition of their performing their promises to his and the Select Committee's satisfaction, and behaving like faithful obedient servants, that he will shew favor to them according to their ranks and services, in settling the offices of Government, and that their persons and fortunes shall be unmolested.

ARTICLE V.

The Governor and Select Committee engage not to interfere in the appointment or nomination of the officers to the forts, army, artillery, or revenues, or in the management of the Government, provided nothing be done in breach of any of the articles of the present Treaty. Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan, on his part, faithfully promising to observe the terms mentioned in the circular letter, with respect to the personal safety of those whom he may be of opinion have injured him.

ARTICLE VI.

ARTICLE VII.

In addition to the several grants and cessions herein above specified, Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan doth hereby engage and promise to cede and make over, for ever, the Purgunnahs of Ahmood and Hansoot; which grants are to be considered as an instance of his good will and affection to the Honorable Company, the conditions upon which they were formerly granted not having, as he declares, been fulfilled.

ARTICLE VIII.

All the places herein ceded to the Honorable Company are to be considered as their sole right and property, from the day this Treaty is executed, without any claim of Chout to the Maratta Government, or any other demand whatever, and may be taken possession of by the Company's people whenever they may think proper; for which purpose Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan doth, with these presents, deliver the necessary orders to the Maratta officers to surrender the said places. Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan doth further promise and engage, that immediately after his taking charge of the regency of Poonah, he will execute and deliver to the government of Bombay regular Sunnuds, under the Peshwa's Sicca, for the several cessions granted to the Honorable Company by this Treaty.

ARTICLE IX.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan engages to pay and make good the charges and expences of the army and stores with which he is now to be assisted; which he hereby faithfully promises to make good in ready money, as soon as the situation of his affairs will possibly permit: and for the further security of the Honorable Company, he, by these presents, assigns over the Purgunnah of Versaul, and the remainder of Occlaseer, the revenues of which are to be collected by his Aumildars and paid to the Honorable Company,

A.D. 1778 Ragobah.

ARTICLE X.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan engages to pay in full for the body of forces, consisting of four thousand men, with which he is to be assisted, the sum of two lacks and a half of Rupees per month, which the Governor and Select Committee of Bombay agree to accept, without further account, in full of every expence attending the army; and is to commence from the day the forces leave Bombay.

ARTICLE XI.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan faithfully promises and engages to discharge his present debt to the Company, as soon as the state of his finances will admit, agreeable to an account which will be delivered to him.

ARTICLE XII.

The English forces are to continue with Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan until the object of this Treaty is accomplished, which is to place him in the regency at Poonah; and when that is effected, they are to be at liberty to return to Bombay. The Company will be at all times ready to assist Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan with their forces, so far as may be consistent with their other engagements, or the situation of their own affairs will permit.

ARTICLE XIII.

The several Treaties and agreements subsisting between the Government of Bombay and the Maratta Government are hereby ratified and confirmed, and shall be held and continued in as full force as when they were first concluded, unless otherwise provided for in this Treaty.

ARTICLE XIV.

After the establishment of Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan in the regency at Poonah, there shall be a firm peace and alliance between the Honorable Company and the Maratta Government. Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan engages never to assist the enemies or molest the dominions of the Company in any part of India, nor to make war, or commit depredations in the Carnatic, or any other part of the dominions of their ally, the Nabob of Arcot. The Governor and Select Committee of Bombay in like manner engage, in behalf of the Honorable Company, not to assist the enemies of Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan.

Ragobah.

ARTICLE XV.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan hereby engages and agrees, that no European settlements shall be allowed to be made on the maritime coasts, or in any other part of the Maratta dominions, without the consent of the Company or of their representatives being previously obtained, and that no manner of intercourse or connection shall be maintained between the Maratta Government and the French Nation; any failure in which stipulation will be considered as a breach of the alliance between the Maratta Government and the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE XVI.

Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan doth hereby stipulate and engage, that the English shall enjoy all their former privileges and freedom of trade in the Maratta dominions without interruption; and he further engages to give all possible encouragement to the Honorable Company's trade, and to promote, as far as he can, an exclusive vend to the English for European commodities in the Maratta dominions; but the Honorable Company will make no settlement therein, without permission from Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan.

ARTICLE XVII.

If any article of the present Treaty should interfere with any engagement formed by the Governor-General and Council, not yet known to the Governor and Select Committee of Bombay, such article may be liable to be altered or amended as may be necessary.

The foregoing articles having been mutually agreed to by the Governor and Select Committee of Bombay, on the part of the Honorable Company and Ragonath Row Badjerow Purdhan, the contracting parties have interchangeably affixed their hands and seals, and the seal of the Honorable Company, in Bombay Castle, the day and year above written.

CONVENTION of Wurgaon, 1799.

A.D.1799
Convention of Wurgaon.

TRANSLATION of the ARTICLES of AGREEMENT between Seremunt Mhaderow Narrain Pundit Purdhan on the one Part, and the English Company on the other Part.

In the time of the late Seremunt Pundit Purdhan Mhadoo Row Bullol, matters went on peaceably. Since then the English obtained possession of several places belonging to the the Sircar, such as the islands of Salsette and Ouran, Jambooseer, and the Mahals and Purgunnah of Broach, both belonging to the Sircar and the Guicowar; and the English gave their aid to Ragonath Row Dada Saheb: upon which war having commenced, Colonel John Upton came from Calcutta with full powers and made an agreement, and according to that agreement matters were to go on between the Company and the Maratta Sircar. But on the side of the English this agreement was not adhered to, they having given aid to Ragonath Row, and making preparations for war mounted the Gauts, invaded the districts of the Maratta Sircar, and began to make hostilities; upon which the Sircar also prepared for war. At the district of Wurgaon, near Indonny Tullagaon, Mr. John Carnac and Colonel Charles Egerton, of the Select Committee of Bombay, being fully empowered, did depute Mr. Thomas Holmes and Mr. Farmer. Further, from the beginning there was a friendship between the Sircar and the English, which being interrupted, Colonel John Upton made an agreement, according to which Treaty matters did not proceed, and therefore that Treaty is annihilated; and in the same manner, and on the same footing as the English and the Sircar were in the time of the late Mhadoo Row, in that manner are they now to remain; the aid and cause of Ragobah to be given up, no protection to be afforded him, nor any aid to be afforded to the enemies of the Maratta Sircar. The islands of Salsette and Ouran, and the other islands and places, as Jambooseer and the Mahals of Broach, formerly belonging to the Maratta Sircar and the Guicowar, such as Chickly, Veriaul, &c. were taken possession of: these we give up; and agree to go on and remain, as we were in the time of the late Peshwa, Mhadoo Row Bullol; upon which this agreement is made with the Sircar. That in the time of the late Mhadoo Row Bullol Pundit Purdhan matters went on peaceably, and since then different places belonging to the Sircar, such as the islands of Salsette and Ouran, and other islands, and farther Jambooseer and other Mahals, and the Aumils of Broach, belonging to the Sircar and to the Guicowar, the English got possession of: these must be delivered back to the Sircar; and no aid or protection must, in future, be afforded to Ragonath Row, or to any of the enemies of the Sircar. In this manner do we faithfully promise to perform; and on the part of the Sircar good faith is also to be observed. Ragonath Row Dada Saheb was with us: he, by his own consent, committed himself, with all his effects, to the care of Tookajee Holcar and Madjee Scindia. The English army with us is now at Wurgaon: it must be permitted to proceed, with all its effects and appurtenances, to Bombay; and as security for this, on the part of the Sircar, two persons will proceed belonging to each of these Sirdars, by name Nazo Gunish and Wissajee Samash, Ballarow Govind and Rama Cawn, to conduct the army to Bombay; and for this purpose troops shall be sent with you, or not, as you please. The English army that is with us shall not offer any molestation to any person on the road. The Autrewede and Bundebund provinces and their Sirdars being always under the Sircar, no damage is to be done to them:

them: and the English army from Calcutta having crossed the Nerbuddah is now at Hussengabad; it is not to be permitted to proceed forwards, but is to be sent back to Calcutta, and on the road no molestation is to be given to any one. The before-mentioned agreement is formed by the mediation of Tookajee Holcar and Madjee Scindia, and according to it, matters are in future to proceed without any kind of failure. This we pledge the English faith to observe, and the Sircar is also to observe it. No aid or protection is to be afforded to the French.

AGREEMENT of John Carnac, Esq. Counsellor, and Colonel Egerton, an English Committee of Bombay, with Madajee Scindia.

That after falling out with the Sircar of Maderow Narrain Pundit Purdhan, we with an army came upon the Gaut, and remained at Tullagaon, on which you ordered a fighting, and we both parties did fight, in which we were defeated, returned back, and encamped at Wurgaon with Dada Saheb. We could hardly reach Bombay with our army and stores, considering which we sent Messrs. Farmer and Holmes to you, desiring you would become between us, and get the Sircar's and our Treaty settled as before, and conduct us and the army to Bombay: on which you did suspend the war. You came between us and got the Sircar's and English Treaty settled, and you promised to conduct us and the army to Bombay, without molestation from any body. You made our escape entirely; all which we took into our consideration, and were very glad. You are a principal officer and a well-wisher to this government, which has induced us to keep a friendship with you. This came into our mind, and we were satisfied that you made us free from the Sircar's and every body's molestation, and got the Treaty settled as before, without any dispute from the Sircar; therefore we thought we should serve you, and for which reason have, of our free will and accord, agreed under the King's and Company's seal, to deliver up to you the fort of Baroach, with its government, in the same manner as the Mogul did hold it, which fort is now in our possession, and which we have given you. We further agree that we will, on our arrival at Bombay, obtain the Governor's Dustuck, under the King's seal, to the Killedar of Baroach, and deliver the fort and its country in the manner the Mogul did hold it up to you, under oath no dispute shall arise in in this. This we promise solemnly; and we have left Mr. Farmer and Mr. Charles Stewart with you, as hostages for the performance of this agreement. We will let no dispute arise. This we agree to in writing. A.D. 1779 Convention of Wurgaon.

Treaty with Futty Sing, 1780.

Treaty between the Honorable English East-India Company and Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behader, concluded at the Village of Candeela, in the Purgunnah of Dubhoy, January the 26th, 1780. A.D. 1780 Futty Sing.

The Ministers of the Maratta State having refused to accept of the reasonable terms of accommodation offered them by Brigadier-General Thomas Goddard, in the name of the Honorable Governor-General and Council of Fort William, and by their obstinate perseverance in hostile intentions against the English, compelled them to take up arms in defence of their own rights and possessions, the Honorable the President and Select Committee of Bombay, with the sanction and approbation of the Honorable the Governor-General and Council of Fort William, have appointed and authorised Brigadier-General Goddard to settle and conclude a Treaty of lasting peace and alliance, betwixt the Honorable English East-India Company on one part, and Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behader, for and in the name of all the Guicowar Family, on the other; and the following are the articles of convention mutually entered into.

ARTICLE I.

The English and Futty Sing Row agree to a league of defensive alliance, and to protect each other against all foreign enemies whatever.

A.D. 1780
Futty Sing.

ARTICLE II.

The ministers of the Maratta State, by repeated violations of Treaty, as well as their late conduct, having drawn on themselves the just resentment of the English; having also, by undue acts of oppression, proved themselves the enemies of Futty Sing; for these reasons, and because the most firm and sincere friendship has long subsisted betwixt the Honorable Company and Futty Sing, the contracting parties mutually agree to enter immediately into an offensive league, excluding the government of Poonah from all share of country in the province of Guzerat whatever.

ARTICLE III.

The English agree to support and defend Futty Sing in possession of his share of the Guzerat province; and Futty Sing is to assist and support the English in possessing themselves of, and maintaining the share now held by the Government of Poonah.

ARTICLE IV.

In order to accomplish this service, as a firm friendship is now established betwixt the English and Futty Sing, the latter agrees to join the English with three thousand horse, according to custom, and as many more as he can possibly raise, to act in conjunction with them, during the present war, whenever they shall call upon him to do so.

ARTICLE V.

As the present mode of partition betwixt the Poonah Government and Futty Sing is attended with great loss and inconvenience, from the disputes that must arise from the interference of the officers of each, in collecting the revenues of the same places and that lay interspersed with one another, it is agreed upon, that a new settlement of the province of Guzerat shall take place, for the mutual benefit and convenience of both parties, the express object of which will be an absolute and specific partition of the whole territory betwixt the Honorable East-India Company and Futty Sing, according to the proportion of the revenues now respectively held by him and the Marattas.

ARTICLE VI.

Ahmedabad and its dependencies, that is to say, the country to the north of the river Myhé, now possessed by the Poonah Government, to be allotted to Futty Sing; in lieu of which the English are to be put in possession of the Guicowar division of the country, south of the Tappey, known by the name of Attaveezy, and their share of the revenues of Surat.

ARTICLE VII.

The English will give such assistance of force as Futty Sing may require, to conquer and put him in possession of the Poonah share of the country to the north of the Myhé.

ARTICLE

ARTICLE VIII.

A.D. 1780 Futty Sing.

The final partition and settlement of the Guzerat province being made, each party is to have the distinct and sole government and possession of the division allotted him, and to hold his share independent of, and unconnected with the other, except when united for their common defence against a foreign enemy; which they mutually, and in the most solemn manner, agree to do. And this partition and settlement mutually agreed to, is to be binding upon them and their posterity for ever.

ARTICLE IX.

Futty Sing having requested that the English support him in withholding the annual tribute hitherto paid by him to the Poonah Government, it is stipulated that the Honorable Company will do so, till a final peace shall be concluded betwixt them and the Poonah Government, in which the interest of Futty Sing shall be carefully and equally attended to with their own.

ARTICLE X.

In consideration of the advantage that will arise to Futty Sing from the above article, and as a proof of his sincere regard and friendship for the English, he agrees to cede to them the district of Zinnore, and the villages situated in the Broach Purgunnah, now belonging to him, both which are to remain for ever in the possession of the Company.

ARTICLE XI.

All the countries and places made over to the English in this Treaty by Futty Sing, are to be delivered into their hands, and the collections accounted for to them from the day that Futty Sing is put in possession of the city of Ahmedabad; and no demands of collection for any past time is to be made in them by Futty Sing.

ARTICLE XII.

It is agreed, that two copies of this Treaty be immediately sent to the Honorable President and Select Committee of Bombay for their approbation, and to be by them transmitted to the Honorable Governor-General and Council of Fort William, under whose sanction it is concluded, in order to receive their final confirmation and ratification, after which one copy, so authenticated, is to remain with the Honorable President and Select Committee of Bombay, and another with Futty Sing.

AMENDED TREATY with Futty Sing, 1780.

A.D. 1780 Futty Sing. TREATY between the Honorable English East-India Company and Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behauder, concluded at the Village of Candeela, in the Purgunah of Dubhoy. January the 26th, 1780.

The Ministers of the Maratta State having refused to accept of the reasonable terms of accommodation offered them by Brigadier General Thomas Goddard, in the name of the Honorable Governor General and Council of Fort William, and by their obstinate perseverance in hostile intentions against the English, compelled them to take up arms in defence of their own rights and possessions, the Honorable the President and Select Committee

Committee of Bombay, with the sanction and approbation of the Honorable the Governor General and Council of Fort William, have appointed and authorised Brigadier General Goddard to settle and conclude a Treaty of lasting peace and alliance betwixt the Honorable English East-India Company on the one part, and Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behader, for and in the name of all the Guicowar Family, on the other; and the following are the articles of convention mutually entered into. A.D. 1780 Futty Sing.

ARTICLE I.

A Treaty between the Chiefs of the English Company and Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behader is concluded under solemn engagements, that the friends of the one shall be the friends of the other, and the enemies of the one the enemies of the other. If any one shall invade the territories of the English it shall be incumbent on Row Shemseer to punish him, and if any one shall invade the country of the said Row, the chiefs of the English Company shall use their endeavours to repel him. In this let no deviation happen.

ARTICLE II.

Whereas the Ministers of Poonah have repeatedly violated the Treaty, which under the strongest engagements they entered into with the Chiefs of the English Company, and whereas they have committed various acts of hostility towards the English, and having also bound their loins with enmity against Futty Sing Row Guicowar Shemseer Behader, have greatly oppressed him, wherefore it has become necessary for our mutual honor, to check and resent the injuries which have been committed by the Ministers of Poonah. It is therefore at present agreed, that having removed the Government of the Ministers of Poonah from the country of Guzerat, we will conquer and possess ourselves of the whole country of Guzerat and the Soubah Ahmedabad, and make such an arrangement, that the ministers shall not be able to receive or collect a single Daum from that country.

ARTICLE III.

The share of the country of Guzerat belonging to the Guicowar shall be continued and kept entire, and the share of the Ministers of Poonah shall be enjoyed by the English Company; and Row Shemseer Behader shall support and assist the Chiefs of the English Company in taking it, and in keeping possession of it: and the Chiefs of the English Company shall not fail to support and assist Row Shemseer Behader in the defence and maintenance of his share.

ARTICLE IV.

As it is of particular importance to settle the country, and as a Treaty of union is established betwixt Row Futty Sing Shemseer Behader and the English, Row Shemseer Behader engages that he will supply for the present war three thousand horse, as usual, and further, as many more as he can at the requisition of the Chiefs of the English Company, and will perform all that is incumbent on a conjunction of interest.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1780
Futty Sing.

ARTICLE V.

Whereas, in the divisions held by the Guicowar and the Ministers of Poonah respectively, by reason of the double Government which exists in the same town, and the vicinity of their villages to one another, disputes and quarrels daily take place, the collection of the revenues of the country is impeded and prejudiced, and the Ryots are distressed; the English Chiefs are, for these reasons, desirous of settling a new partition, so that a Treaty having mutually taken place no difference may arise: and with a view to the interest and welfare of both, a portion of country, equal to the share held at present by the Ministers of Poonah, according to the established collections and customary receipts of revenues, shall, after the conquest of these districts, be given in exchange to the Company. It is intended that there shall not be a Daum difference.

ARTICLE VI.

The city of Ahmedabad together with the Purgunnahs, that is to say, the whole of the country laying on the other side of the river Mahé, which is now possessed by the Poonah Government, shall be conquered and given to the Row Shemseer Behader, and in exchange for it, the Pergunnahs of Surat Attaveesee, and the Chout of the city of Surat, shall be allotted to the share of the English Company. Whatever difference may arise in the revenue of the respective shares by this exchange, shall be adjusted according to the preceding article.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever Row Shemseer Behader shall require troops to conquer the country comprehended under the share of the Ministers of Poonah, and laying on the other side of the river Mahé, they shall be supplied by the English Company.

ARTICLE VIII.

After the partition of the country of Guzerat is effected, each party shall have the sole government in the districts allotted to their respective shares, and shall have no dependence on one another, except when any enemy shall invade the country of Row Shemseer Behader, in which case assistance shall be brought by the English Company; and if any enemy shall invade the share of country allotted to the English Company, Row Shemseer Behader shall afford support and assistance, and this partition of the country of Guzerat, which hath with mutual approbation been settled between Row Shemseer Behader and the English Company, shall perpetually remain and be continued to their respective descendants and successors: in no respect shall it be broken through by either.

ARTICLE IX.

Agreeable to the representation of Row Futty Sing Behadér, the money which he annually sends to Poonah must not be sent: he must keep it with himself. Whenever any negociation of peace shall take place with the Ministers of Poonah, the interest and welfare of Row Shemseer Behader shall be first discussed. The interest of Row Shemseer Behader and the interest of the Company are one and the same. A.D. 1780 Futty Sing.

and

ARTICLE X.

As the above article is for the advantage of Row Futty Sing Shemseer Behader, he, from the friendship and regard which he bears towards the Chiefs of the English Company, shall make over to the Company the district of Zinnore, together with the villages of Baroach, which are at present in his possession. Whatever difference may arise in the revenue of the respective shares by this exchange, shall be adjusted according to the fifth article.

ARTICLE XI.

All the Pergunnahs and villages above-mentioned shall be delivered over to the Chiefs of the Company from the day on which the city of Ahmedabad is delivered over to Row Shemseer Behader. From the day on which possession is taken of the city of Ahmedabad, the revenues of the above Pergunnahs shall be enjoyed by the English Company, and from that day no claim of collection shall be made, on account of the time past, in these Pergunnahs.

ARTICLE XII.

It is agreed, that two copies of this Treaty be immediately sent to the Honorable President and Select Committee of Bombay for their approbation, and to be by them transmitted to the Honorable Governor-General and Council of Fort William, under whose sanction it is concluded, in order to receive their final confirmation and ratification, after which one copy, so authenticated, is to remain with the Honorable President and Select Committee of Bombay, and another with Futty Sing.

Approved the draft, and ordered that a fair copy of it be made in duplicate, to receive the signature of the Members of the Board, and to be sealed with the seal of the Company.

The Company also engage to pay to the said Nabob and his heirs, in addition to the above-mentioned lack of Rupees, a proportion of one-fifth of the annual revenues now arising, or which may hereafter arise, from the said city and its dependencies, after deducting the said lack of Rupees, the sum payable to the Mahrattas and the charges of collection. The residue of the revenues, after the foregoing deductions, shall be at the disposal of the said Company.

ARTICLE V.

In order that the Nabob may, at all times, have full satisfaction, in respect to the revenues of Surat and its dependencies, he the said Nabob shall be at liberty to inspect all the accounts thereof, from time to time, or to station a Vakeel, or accountant, at his own expense, in all or any of the offices of collection, for the purpose of taking and transmitting to his Excellency copies of all or any of the accounts of the said revenues.

ARTICLE VII.

Any complaint against the relations or immediate servants of the Nabob by persons of a different description, shall, in the first instance, be made to the chief civil servant at Surat, who shall refer it to the Nabob, who hereby engages to order an immediate investigation to be made, or in case the parties should desire it, to order the disputes to be referred to a proper arbitration, the Nabob engaging to bring it to a direct issue, and to carry the sentence or award, if unfavorable to his relation or servant, into immediate execution. No. XXXIV.

TREATY with Anund Row Guicowar, June 1802.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT between the Honorable Jonathan Duncan, Esq., President and Governor of Bombay, for and in Behalf of the Honorable East-India Company, and Rowjee Appajee, the Dewan, or Minister of Anund Row Guicowar Senah Khas Khel Shumshere Behauder, for and in Behalf of the said Anund Row Guicowar, in virtue of the full Powers vested in the said Rowjee Appajee to treat and settle for the Affairs of the Guicowar Principality with the said Governor of Bombay, which Powers bear Date the 3*d of* Zilkad, or 8*th of March, in the Year of our Lord* 1802. A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

ARTICLE I.

Whereas certain articles were, under date the 15th of March last, answering to the 10th Zilkad, entered into, under the abovementioned full powers, by the said contracting parties, in reference to the war then carrying on against Mulhar Row, and providing for

A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar. for the Guicowar Government's defraying the whole expense thereof, and for its subsidising a permanent force from the Honorable Company, and ceding to them the Pergunnah of Chourassy and the Guicowar's share of the Choute of Surat; all these stipulations are herein declared to be in full force, and of equal strength and solidity, as if repeated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

Mulhar Row having commenced hostilities with the state of Anund Row Guicowar Senah Khas Khel Shumshere Behauder, and taking possession of Vessanagur, induced Anund Row to solicit the assistance of a British force, for the purpose of effectually reducing Mulhar Row, and taking his fort of Kurree, upon which the English sent a force to Cambay, with the view of bringing the said chieftain to reason, either by peaceable or hostile means; and the latter having, in consequence, been persued, on account of Mulhar Row's not abiding by the advice of the English, the war has since terminated successfully for the state of Anund Row, who has, in consequence, entered on possession of the fort of Kurree and of its Pergunnahs, and of Mulhar Row's other territories, and made a provision for him in the Pergunnah of Meryad, ceding also to the English Company the Pergunnah of Chickly, situated in the district of the Surat Attaveesy, in full sovereignty for ever, as a spontaneous mark of his gratitude for their assistance in overcoming this opposition to his authority.

ARTICLE III.

By the second article of the convention of the 15th of March last it is stipulated, that Jaydad, or landed funds, equal to the income of sixty-five thousand Rupees per month, shall be assigned to the Honorable Company, to defray the expense of the subsidised force; but as, from the present incumbered and mortgaged state of the districts composing the Guicowar principality, these assignments cannot be effected, and the Honorable Company put into possession during the current year, beginning from the Mirgh of 1859, or June 1802, it is hereby agreed, that the payment of the subsidy for this term shall be secured, according to the condition of a separate bond executed for this purpose, under the present date, and that the assignment of land to the Honorable Company shall be effectively and fully accomplished by the Mirgh of 1860, beginning in June 1803. This subsidy to be chargeable to the Guicowar State from the period referred to in the convention of the 15th March.

ARTICLE IV.

The second article of the convention of the 15th March last, proposing to effect a reduction in the number of the Arab force under the Guicowar Government, the principal obstacle to which consists in want of ready money funds, for the liquidation of the arrears of such part of the said establishment as it is proposed to disband, and the Honorable

Honorable Company meaning to extend, to this effect, some pecuniary assistance to the Guicowar State, the repayment of this amount is to take place and be secured in manner following : A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

The first payment of interest by the Mirgh of 1860, or June 1803; the second year's interest, and one-third of the principal, by the Mirgh of 1861, or June 1804; and all the remaining principal and interest by the Mirgh of 1862, or June 1805. But in the event of failing in the above stipulated payments, the revenue of the Pergunnahs of Barodra, Coral, Senor, Pittad, and Ahmedabad, to the full amount of the Russud, which will be about 11,75,000 Rupees per annum, shall be collected by the Company, in proportion to the advance that may be made by them; and when this debt is fully paid, the collection of that part of the revenue, from the above named Pergunnahs, shall revert again to the administration of the Government of Barodra.

ARTICLE V.

There shall be a true friendship and good understanding between the Honorable English East-India Company and the state of Anund Row Guicowar, in pursuance of which, the Company will grant the said chief its countenance and protection in all his public concerns, according to justice and as may appear to be for the good of the country, respecting which he is, also, to listen to advice. And the state of the Guicowar having represented sundry points to the Governor in which it is interested, he has assured Raoba of the general attention of the Honorable Company to protect the administration of Anund Row in all their rights, and to be aiding to its concerns with his Highness the Paishwa, or elsewhere, on all just occasions, where their assistance may prove requisite and useful.

ARTICLE VI.

For the cultivation and promoting the permanency of the good understanding between the two states, there shall be a constant good correspondence kept up between them, and agents reciprocally appointed to reside with each.

ARTICLE VII.

In future, the subjects of each state who may take refuge with either, shall be delivered up, if the state from which such party or parties shall have fled appear to have any demand of debt, or any just claim against him or them: but as a free intercourse between the countries and the two governments is also intended, frivolous claims against parties resorting from their own to the other jurisdiction are not to be preferred, and in all serious cases cordiality will be shewn.

ARTICLE VIII.

This agreement to be binding and permanent, when ratified by the Supreme Government of Bengal, which, in all political concerns, controuls all the other Presidencies; but, in the mean time, to be in full force.

In

A.D.1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

In witness whereof the parties to the foregoing articles of agreement have interchangeably put their hands and seals, in Cambay, this 6th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1802.

TRANSLATION of a SUNNUD, or Grant, of Chickley, written in the Form of a Letter to the Honorable Jonathan Duncan, Esq. Resident and Governor of Bombay, by Anund Row Guicowar Senah Khas Khel Shumshere Behauder.

Mulhar Row Guicowar Himut Behauder being indebted to us for the arrears of our annual accounts, and having exchanged Bahanders, or securities, for the future good behaviour on both sides, a settlement had taken place. In the present year Mulhar Row unjustly raised a quarrel with us, and without paying any regard to the Bahanders, or securities, we sent to him, for the purpose of discussing the subject, the fort of Bissanagur was taken from us, and he occasioned much disturbance in our country. Babajee Appajee, in his proceeding with troops to Katia and Katiavod, was opposed by him, and there ensued a battle. In consequence of this we dispatched Kehonaleddeen Hoossien Khan Behader and Gopal Row Bapojee to you, and begged the assistance of the Company Behader, on condition that we shall defray the charges of their troops, for which a due provision has been separately made: but in testimony of our sense of the seasonable assistance afforded to us by the Honorable Company, we now make the Company a present of Chickley, within the province of Surat Attavissy, to be taken possession of by the English, at the beginning of the approaching year, on Suvant 1859, and to enjoy the benefit of it for ever. In this Pergunnah, whatever are the gifts and donations, such as annuities, Enams of villages and grounds, charitable allowances, and the rights of the the Zemindars, may be observed and allowed for, according to the usual rules, and the balance of the present year against that Pergunnah may be discharged, agreeable to its accounts. A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

MALSA KAUNT, in the Rajah's own hand writing.

I, Anunt Row Guicowar Sena Khel Shumsere Behader, do hereby confirm and ratify such compacts and agreements as my faithful Dewan, Rowjee Appajee, hath in my name, and on my behalf, made and concluded with the Honorable the Governor of Bombay.

First. I hereby confirm and ratify such grants of lands as my said Dewan, Rowjee Appajee, has made to the Honorable Company, either in Enam or Jaydad; and I also declare, that I hold myself, my heirs, and successors, bound to repay in money, or in such further landed assignments as may be sufficient for the purpose, all debts and expences which the English Government have been at or contracted, in the course of their military operations in Guzerat, undertaken for the support of my Government.

Secondly. I entirely approve and highly commend the prudence of my Dewan, in having obtained a body of English troops to remain permanently in this country, as on their courage and fidelity I place an unlimited dependance.

I have determined that the payment of this subsidiary force shall commence from the first of this month, English style, or 1st of Assar 1859, Hindu æra.

Thirdly. As I repose an entire confidence in the English, I depend on their friendship to shield me from misfortunes. I am sensible that there are many evil disposed persons amongst the Arabs, who, disregarding my legal authority, have plotted against my liberty, and even my life.

A.D. 1802
Anund Row Guicowar.

By the favor of God they have been defeated; but should their wicked machinations, at any time hereafter, succeed, I shall expect the English to release me, and desire that all my acts and deeds, although executed by me in the usual form, while in that state of restraint, may be considered as of no validity. I desire, therefore, that my subjects will pay no attention to my orders in this situation, but hear what Major Walker has to say, strictly following his directions, and assisting him in every measure that he shall devise or direct, for restoring my person to freedom.

Whoever, in short, shall either bring Canoojee into the management of affairs, or shut me up in the fort of Baroda, or elsewhere, is a rebel, and I fully authorize the aforesaid Major Alexander Walker, or the person entrusted with the chief management of the Company's affairs in Guzerat, to chastise such disturbers of Government, and bring them to that punishment, which is due to those who endanger the person of their sovereign in every part of the world. Thus, therefore, I order all the faithful officers of Government, Silladars, Sebundy, and others, on any of the foregoing events occurring, to obey Major Walker's orders.

Fourthly. Whereas it is signified in certain articles of agreement between the Honorable the Company and my Dewan, Rowjee Appajee, that the English Government is disposed to assist in reducing the Arab force in my service, Major Walker, Resident on the part of the English Government at Baroda, consents to assist me with a pecuniary loan to effect this reduction in the following terms.

Fifthly. As it seems impossible that I can retrieve myself or my country from its present embarrassments, without reforming and reducing the expense in every department, I do hereby promise and agree to make the necessary reductions by degrees. The objects of reduction are contained in the annexed account; and if possible, they shall be effected at the periods specified opposite to each of the articles.

Sixthly. Before any money is advanced, Major Walker must be satisfied that a real and effective reduction shall take place. For this purpose an exhibition must be made of the accounts, and a muster taken of the troops in the presence of three persons, viz. one on the part of the Company, one on the part of the Guicowar Government, and the third by such of the Jemedars, or Parckhis, as may be the agents of the Sebundy. According to this muster the account shall be taken and discharged.

Seventhly.

Seventhly. I do hereby further agree and promise, that I shall positively reduce the Arab and other force, within six or eight months after the present reduction is accomplished, to the standard of Futteh Sing's time; but to enable me to perform this stipulation, it will be necessary for the English Government to assist me, as they have done on the present occasion. A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

Eighthly. Provision is already made in the fourth article of agreement, executed and interchanged between the Honorable the Governor of Bombay and my Dewan, Rowjee Appajee, bearing date the 6th June, or 5th Suffer last, for the payment of the principal and interest of the money to be advanced by the Company; but as it has since been proposed to pay the same off one year sooner than is thereby provided, by applying the entire Russud of the lands appropriated by that article, to the amount of 11,75,000 Rupees per annum, to the discharging, in equal proportions, of the principal and interest of the money to be advanced by the Company, and by such other persons as may engage therein, Major Walker accepts of the modification by which the Company's advance may be liquidated one year sooner than it would be, by a strict adherence to the letter of treaty, it being however always understood, that the provisions in the fourth article of the said Treaty of the 6th June, or 5th Suffer, are always in full force, the same as if this subsequent engagement had not been made, in the event of the repayment of the Honorable Company's loan, as well of principal as of interest, failing to be made good in the more speedy mode now proposed. The amount of the above receipt, or Russud, is to be collected every year from the Comavissdars of the Purgunnahs allotted for this purpose, in the Treaty of the 6th June, by such persons as the Government of Bombay may appoint.

Ninthly. Interest on that part of the pecuniary assistance and aid which the Company may give on this occasion, shall be reckoned and accounted for from the time the said Company may raise a loan for that purpose, and it shall be reckoned every six months, at the rate of three-quarters per cent. per month of thirty days, instead of every year or every twelve months. All or any loss by exchange, or otherwise, which may arise by bringing the money from Bombay to this place, shall be on my account, and made good by me and my successors.

Tenthly. Conformably to Major Walker's suggestions and wishes, the articles contained in this declaration were written, and to which I have given my assent: but on the event of evil disposed persons attempting any thing unfair or unreasonable against my person, my Dewan, Rowjee Appajee, his son, his brother, nephew, or relations, and Madow

A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

Row Tatia Muzumdar, or even should I myself, or my successors, commit any thing improper or unjust, the English Government shall interfere, and see, in either case, that it is settled according to equity and reason.

I have also required of Major Walker, on the part of the Company, to promise that my state and Government shall be permanent, and descend to the lineal inheritors of the Musnud, and that the Dewanship shall be preserved to Rowjee Appajee.

In the last place, I desire to form the most intimate connection with the Company, and that all business with the Poona Durbar may be jointly managed by the English Resident and my Vakeel.

Such are my wishes and sentiments, so help me God.

APPENDIX, No. 1.—Translation of an Engagement by Mulhar Row Guicowar Himut Behader to the Honorable the Governor of Bombay.

A.D. 1802 Anund Row Guicowar.

Having through my misfortune fallen into a warfare with the state of Brodera, and been defeated by the army of the said state, assisted by the arms of the Honorable English East-India Company, I surrendered myself, on a promise of security to my life and my honor, since which the Government of Brodera hath, at the instance of the Governor of Bombay, on the condition of my sending for my family, and abstaining from all direct or indirect disturbance or conspiracy against either state, made the following provision for me, viz. that out of the Pergunnah of Neryand (which is the ancient seat and abode of my predecessor) a Jaydad of a lack and a quarter of Rupees be assigned and committed to me, for the support of me and my children, family, and brothers: wherefore I agree and give in writing, that exclusive of watchmen, not to exceed two hundred men, and a due proportion of Sebundy to make my collections, I am not to maintain any troops whatever, hereby consenting, that the officers of the Sircar of Brodera and of the English gentlemen may, at any time, after ascertaining the fact, cause any excess in my establishment, as above-mentioned, to be dismissed. Neither am I ever to erect any fortifications, but to demean myself, as shall my son, brothers, and followers, in all respects as becomes a true well-wisher of both states, without any deviation or difference whatsoever. As my securities in which respects Major Walker, on the part of the Honorable Company, and Meer Kehmauleddin Hesaine Khan Behader, have at my instance engaged their responsibility, and likewise undertaken to be the guardians of my rights, under this deed and engagement: and should there prove any deficiency in the Jaydad of 1,25,000 Rupees, those gentlemen are, by interposing with the officers of the Brodera Government, to cause it to be made up. Besides this, if after experience had of my good behaviour and the security of my heart, and there thence remaining no doubts respecting me, it should ever please Anund Row Sena Khas Kheyl Shumshere Behader, with the approbation of this Government, to make any encrease in the present provision for me, I shall have cause to be thankful on that account.

After compliments.

Having been indebted to you in money, and having Bahanders, or securities, between us, I have created a dispute with you, and after entertaining forces have taken your fort of Visanaghur, and occasioned disturbances in your country, and there ensued a battle with Babajee Appajee.

This induced you to solicit the assistance of the English Behauder. The Honorable Jonathan Duncan Behauder proposed to me a peaceable adjustment, which I did not attend to, wherefore the English, in prosecution of their support to you, have taken from me the fort of Kuree, and all the territories belonging to me, and delivered them into your Sircar, and for myself made a provision of 1,25,000 Rupees per annum from the Pergunnah of Naryad, which has been given to me through his Honor's means, which I shall accept, and together with my son, family, and brothers, will behave to you peaceably. With regard to my conduct the Honorable the Governor hath satisfied you, and according as he has has thus signified, so shall we conduct ourselves peaceably, without deviation. This Jageer, which has been given me for the maintenance of my family, I shall enjoy, and remain contented with it. I have no sort of claim on you respecting my former places; but if, in conformity to my engagement, I shall continue to conduct myself peaceably, according to the Governor's order, you will get my Jaydad a little increased from the Sircar. TREATY with the Rajah of Soonth, 1803.

A.D. 1803 The Rajah of Soonth.

Trusting and believing in Providence: I hereby declare that, desirous to embrace the very amicable offer made to me by Colonel Murray, commanding the British troops in Guzerat Attaveesy, and conquered districts, on behalf of the Honorable Company Behauder, and to cement the friendship which at present so happily exists between me and the Honorable Company's Government, I have, in testimony thereof, of my free will and consent, entered into the following engagements with the Honorable Company Behauder, under whose protection it has pleased the Almighty to place me.

ARTICLE I.

As tributary to Powaghur and the Honorable Company Behauder, I hereby engage to continue the payment of the same annual tribute as it has been usual for me to pay to the the late Government of Dowlut Row Scindia, namely, 2,700 Rupees: but should it please the Honorable Company's Government graciously to release me, in future, from the payment of the aforesaid tribute, then I engage to present them annually with such Nuzzerannee, in token of my allegiance, as they may be pleased to direct, which shall be in lieu of all other sums whatever; and as long as I continue faithfully to adhere to the interests of the Honorable Company, this concession of the tribute to be paid by me, if acceded to by his Excellency the Governor General in Council, shall not be liable to be revoked. A.D. 1803 The Rajah of Soonth.

ARTICLE II.

I engage, on every occasion, to consider the enemies of the English as my own, and to the last extremity to defend my country, and oppose any attempt of a hostile nature which may be made by a foreign power, for the passage of troops through my districts, and relinquish all claim to indemnification for any losses myself or subjects may suffer on the occasion.

ARTICLE III.

On all occasions when my country is threatened by a foreign force, either on account of my attachment to the British Government, or by people, my enemies, I shall receive assistance from the Honorable Company's Government, to enable me to resist the enemy: unless it should appear the invasion is intended merely to punish insubordinate subjects of mine, who may have violated my neighbour's boundaries, when I agree to adopt such measures as may satisfy the aggrieved.

ARTICLE IV.

I engage, on all occasions, to be answerable for the safety of the property and persons of the British Government, its servants and subjects, wherever they may be, now or hereafter, in my districts, and relinquish all claim to remuneration for these services from the Government, as far as relates to them or those in their service: but with respect to their subjects, I reserve the right of taxing merchandize and exacting payment, according to antient custom, for the protection which I hereby engage to give to the merchants.

ARTICLE I.

First, as tributary to the Honorable Company Behauder, I hereby engage, in consequence of their gracious concession, in my behalf, of the tribute hitherto usually paid by me to the late Government of Dowlut Row Scindia, to maintain, at my own expense, devoid of every claim to remuneration from the Government of the Honorable Company Behauder, a military force for the defence of my territories, the services of which shall be at their command, in repelling every attempt hostile to their interests, by an invasion of the Guzerat through my districts: and I hereby engage to relinquish all claim to indemnification for any injury myself or subjects may sustain, in our persons or property, by these efforts against the common enemy, considering, on all occasions, the enemies of the English as my own, and pledging myself to defend my country against them to the last extremity; further engaging, to give such token of allegiance as his Excellency the Governor General may be pleased to require.

The friends and enemies of either party shall be the friends and enemies of both; and if any power shall commit any act of unprovoked hostility or aggression against either of the contracting parties, or against their respective dependants or allies, and after due representation shall refuse to enter into amicable explanation, or shall deny the just satisfaction which the contracting parties shall have required, the contracting parties will proceed to prosecute such further measures as the case shall appear to demand.

ARTICLE III.

Whereas, in conformity to the agreements heretofore made between the Honorable Company and the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, a subsidiary force of two thousand men was subsidized, and inclusive of the half augmentation of the subsidiary force first fixed upon, the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder agrees to receive, and the Honorable Company to furnish, a permanent subsidiary force, of not less than three thousand regular native infantry, with one company of European artillery, and their proportion, viz. two companies of gun-lascars, with the necessary ordnance, and warlike stores and ammunition, which force is to be stationed in the territories of the said Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behander.

ARTICLE IV.

The subsidiary force will, at all times, be ready to execute services of importance; such as the protection of the person of Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, his heirs and successors, the overawing and chastisement of rebels and exciters of disturbance in his territories, and the due correction of his subjects or dependants, who may withhold the payment of the Sircar's just claims; but it is not to be employed on trifling occasions, nor like Sebundy to be stationed in the country to collect the revenue. One battalion of these forces, however, or such a proportion of them as the performance of the foregoing services may require, will proceed to Kattywar, when there may be a real necessity for it; but the English Government, whose care and attention to all the interests of the Guicowar State cannot be doubted, must remain the judge of its necessity.

ARTICLE V.

In order to provide the regular payment of the whole expense of this subsidiary force, Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Sumsheir Behauder has ceded, by the agreements aforesaid; viz. dated the 15th March, 6th June, and 29th July, 1802, and 2d June, 1803, districts and other funds, of which a Schedule (A) is annexed to this Treaty, of the yearly net value of 11,70,000 Rupees. This cession is confirmed by this Treaty, and Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder hereby cedes the districts of which the Schedule is annexed, with all the rights of sovereignty thereof, and all the forts which they contain, in perpetuity, to the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE VI.

The districts of Chowrassy, Chickly, Surat, Chouth, and Kaira, have been ceded to the Honorable Company by Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, as a proof of his friendship, and as a testimony of his sense of the benefit which he has received from his alliance with the Honorable Company's Government. The cession of these districts is confirmed by this Treaty, and Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder hereby cedes the districts abovementioned, with all the rights belonging to the sovereignty thereof, and all the forts which they contain, in perpetuity, to the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE VII.

Whereas the Honorable Company have, at different periods, assisted Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behader, both from their own funds and those of bankers, with advances of money, a particular account of which, as well as of the funds assigned for the payment of the same, is contained in the Schedule annexed, marked B, it is hereby agreed, that the full amount of the Russud of the districts therein named, according to the provisions in the eighth article of the agreement of the 29th July, shall be collected on account of the Honorable Company, and the persons therein referred to, until these debts and the interest due upon them shall be fully paid; and for the past or any future advances which the Company's Government may make to that of the Guicowar, Mahals shall be assigned as their security.

Grain, and all other articles of consumption and provisions, all sorts of materials for wearing apparel, together with the necessary numbers of cattle, horses, and camels, required for the use of the subsidiary force, shall be exempted from duties in the territories of Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, and the commanding officer and the officers of the subsidiary force shall be treated, in all respects, in a manner suitable to the importance of the trust placed in them and the dignity of the British Government. In like manner shall the officers of the Guicowar Government meet with similar consideration and respect from the Honorable Company. In consideration, also, of the good will and friendship which has so long happily subsisted between the Honorable Company and the Guicowar Government, such goods and articles as may be bonâ fide required for the private use or consumption of that family, or of the ministers, shall be allowed to be purchased at Surat and Bombay, and to be sent from thence free of duties, on being accompanied by a passport from the Resident at Baroda.

As the Deckan is the native country of the Mahrattas, who inhabit or serve in Guzerat, such of this nation as may be in the Guicowar service shall be allowed to pass and repass freely, with their families, through the Honorable Company's territories.

It is expressly understood, that the admission of this article is not to sanction, or in any shape to authorize the transit of merchandize or of prohibited goods.

ARTICLE IX.

The Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder hereby engages, that he will not entertain in his service any European or American, or any native of India, subject of the Honorable Company, without the consent of the British Government; neither will the Company's Government entertain in their service any of the Guicowar servants, dependants, or slaves, contrary to the inclination of that state.

ARTICLE X.

Inasmuch as, by the present Treaty, the contracting parties are bound in an alliance for mutual defence and protection, Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder engages never to commit any act of hostility or aggression against any power whatever; and in the event of difference arising, whatever adjustment the Honorable Company's Government, weighing matters in the scale of truth and justice, may, in communication with the Guicowar Sircar, determine, shall meet with full approbation and acquiescence.

ARTICLE

A.D. 1805
Anund Row Guicowar.

ARTICLE XI.

Whereas there are certain unfinished transactions between his Highness the Peshwa and Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, and there exist certain papers of accounts which are unadjusted, Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder doth hereby agree, that the Honorable Company's Government shall examine into and finally adjust the said transactions, papers, and accounts, and the demands resulting therefrom; and Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder binds himself, his heirs, and successors, to abide by such adjustment as the British Government shall accordingly determine. Further, in respect to these unsettled pecuniary affairs existing with the Governments of his Highness the Peshwa and the Guicowar, it behoves the latter to repose a similar faith in the British Government as the Peshwa, who has agreed to abide by the adjustment of these concerns.

This settlement shall be effected by the Honorable Company, after taking into mature consideration the impoverished state of the Guicowar finances; and the latter Government entertain a full conviction, that no oppressive demand will be enforced under the Company's mediation.

ARTICLE XII.

If, notwithstanding the defensive nature of the agreement between the contracting parties, and their desire to cultivate and improve the relations of peace with all the powers of India, war should unfortunately break out, it is agreed, that with the reserve of a battalion of native infantry to remain near the person of the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, or such proportion as may appear necessary for the security of Guzerat, the residue of the subsidiary force, with their ordnance and public stores and ammunition, shall be immediately put in motion, for the purpose of opposing the enemy.

The troops of the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder shall accompany the British troops to the boundaries of Guzerat, in order to terminate the war. Should, however, any great exigency arise, the circumstances shall be mutually considered, and the best means in the power of the contracting parties pursued to terminate the same.

ARTICLE XIII.

As the enemies of both states are the same, those who are in opposition to the Guicowar Government, or in rebellion to it, can never, while acting in this manner, be admitted to the friendship of the Honorable Company; but should Canoojee Guicowar, who comes under this description, repent and submit himself, it will be adviseable to oallow him a suitable pen, on which he may subsist and reside at Bombay, or at any other place which maybe equally safe and convenient.

Neither

Neither Canoojee Guicowar nor Mulhar Row Guicawar will have any other claim on the Guicowar Government than the pension which has been assigned to the latter, and that which may eventually be assigned to the former. A.D. 1805 Anund Row Guicowar.

ARTICLE XIV.

When the subsidiary troops will take the field, the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder will supply such quantities of grain and Benjarries to attend the army, as the resources of his country may afford, the British Government defraying the expense thereof.

ARTICLE XV.

If disturbances shall, at any time, break out in the Honorable Company's territories or districts, bordering on those of the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, the said Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar shall consent to the employment of such a proportion of the subsidiary force, as may be requisite to quell the same: and if, at any time, disturbances shall break out in any part of the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder's territories, to which it might be inconvenient to detach a proportion of the subsidiary force, the British Government will, in like manner, at the requisition of the said Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder, detach such a proportion of the troops of the Company, as may be most conveniently situated to assist in quelling the said disturbances in the Maha Rajah Anund Row Guicowar Sena Khas Kheyl Shumsheir Behauder's territories.

ARTICLE XVI.

In future the subject of each state, who may take refuge with either, shall be delivered up, if the state from which such parties shall have fled appear to have any demand of debt or any just claim against him or them: but as a free intercourse between the countries under the two Governments is also intended, frivolous claims against parties resorting from their own to the others jurisdiction are not to be preferred, and in all serious cases cordiality will be shewn.

ARTICLE XVII.

The contracting parties hereby bind themselves to take into consideration, hereafter, the commercial relations between their respective territories, and to settle them in due time by a commercial treaty.

Done at Baroda, the 21st April 1805, Anno Domini.

engage and bind ourselves, our heirs, and successors, to observe the following articles of agreement, concluded by us on our part, and by Major Alexander Walker on the part of the Honorable Company. A.D. 1808 The Marattas

ARTICLE I.

Whereas the duty of protecting those who travel or trade by land extends equally to those who travel and trade by sea, we, Khawass Suggaram and Pragjee, do, in like manner for ourselves, our heirs, and successors, engage not to permit, instigate, or connive at any act of piracy being committed by any person living under our authority or subject to our control; nor shall those who follow the profession of piracy receive protection or assistance in our ports. We do also bind ourselves to the relinquishment of the practice of adding to the distress of the unfortunate, and will accordingly afford every possible assistance to vessels in distress, and renounce all claim to wrecks, to which an owner, capable of proving his right, may appear.

ARTICLE II.

The Honorable Company's vessels and subjects shall, at all times, have admission into our ports, for the purposes of carrying on freely trade and commerce; and those merchants and traders who are subject to our authority shall, in like manner, be allowed to visit and to trade in the countries and harbours of the Honorable Company.
